BY LYNDSY SUMMERS
lsummers@mckenziebanner.com

Fresh from finishing her doctorate in Dental Surgery from the University of Tennessee Health Science Center in Memphis, Dr. Katelyn Ridley Robertson is returning to Carroll County to begin her practice at Webb Dental Clinic in Huntingdon. A Carroll County native, Dr. Robertson is ready to serve alongside her lifelong dentist Dr. Billy Webb.

Katelyn Robertson grew up in McKenzie and graduated from McKenzie High School, where she participated in Rebel Track and Lady Rebel Basketball, in 2014. While attending high school, Katelyn job-shadowed at Webb Dental Clinic. She attended the University of Tennessee at Martin, graduating in winter 2017 with a degree with Cell and Molecular Biology. Before moving to graduate school, she worked as an assistant at the clinic.

She spent the next four years attending the University of Tennessee Health Science Center with plans to eventually practice at her home dental clinic. "Carroll County is my home. These are my people," she said regarding her decision to return home.

Her first two years at graduate school, Katelyn, along with her cohorts, worked in labs, solely practicing on mannequins. The COVID-19 pandemic hit during her second year at school, causing her classes to move online

McKENZIE School Board Considers Hiring Additional SROs

BY LYNDSY SUMMERS

The McKenzie Special School District Board of Education held a meeting Tuesday, June 14, at 5:30 p.m. at 114 Bell Avenue. At the meeting, board members considered the approval of budget amendments for the McKenzie Special School District school funds. They also considered for approval the 2022-23 School District Property Taxes and McKenzie Special School District Budget.

The school board considered for approval hiring additional School Resource Officers (SROs) for each McKenzie school at the June 14 meeting. This discussion follows local parents' and community members' requests for additional SRO officers at McKenzie schools after recent school shootings in the country.

School Resource Officers are law enforcement officers, law-related counselors, and law-related educators at schools across the nation. They help school administration maintain a safe and secure environment within a school.

JAMROCK Celebrates Grand Opening

BY LYNDSY SUMMERS
lsummers@mckenziebanner.com

JAMROCK, McKenzie's newest eating establishment, celebrated its ribbon cutting and grand opening Friday, June 3. After the ribbon cutting, attendees enjoyed the restaurant's authentic Jamaican and Puerto Rican cuisine.

JAMROCK is the result of four friends who were united by Bethel University. Owners Tashana Brown, Karlene Brown, Andrew Orta, and Dr. Michell Zala met at Bethel University.

Tashana and Karlene grew up in St. Catherine, Jamaica, and played high school soccer together. Bethel coach Misty Aird recruited the two women to play collegiate soccer at Bethel University. There, they met Michell Zala, a woman from Zimbabwe who was recruited to play tennis at Bethel College. The three women were in Bethel College's class of 2007.

Karlene Brown is a Special Education teacher at McKenzie Middle School and the head coach of McKenzie High School's Rebel and Lady Rebel soccer teams.

Dr. Michell Zala is a pharmacist and a Chief Operating Officer for Good Shepherd Health. She resides in Memphis.

Tashana Brown became acquainted with Andrew Orta while working at Bethel University. Tashana is the Director of Housing at Bethel and works with the Bethel University soccer teams. Andrew is from Puerto Rico and grew up in New York. He is Bethel University's Director of Maintenance.

The four became friends who shared a common goal. They noticed there were not many diverse food options in McKenzie and wanted to bring authentic Jamaican and Puerto Rican food to the area. Together, they decided on menu items and named their restaurant "JAMROCK," a nickname for Jamaica.

The restaurant held a soft opening April 16, initially having a rotating menu. Following the grand opening, each day of the week will have slightly different menus. They will occasionally serve specials, Tashana informed.

At this time, JAMROCK can serve up to 65 guests in its dining area. There are televisions in the dining area, which will show anything from sports games to movies. Seating includes booth seats, seats at the bar, and chairs. The dining area includes a back room with a pool table.

The owners hope to eventually expand the restaurant by adding a full bar and offering karaoke as entertainment for guests. They will soon open the back room to the public for private events.

At the ribbon-cutting, Mayor Jill Holland expressed how delighted the City of McKenzie is to have JAMROCK. "No one around here knows much about what Jamaican or Puerto Rican food is, but we're about to find out," she said. On behalf of the City of McKenzie, Mayor Holland said she was glad to accommodate if the owners needed anything. Landlord Greg Blackburn echoed the offer.

JAMROCK is open Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., Fridays from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m., and Saturdays from 12 p.m. to 10 p.m. They serve dine-in and carry-out orders.

Gov. Lee Issues Executive Order To Enhance School Safety

State will Evaluate School Security, Use of Resources, Encourage Parents to Engage

NASHVILLE (June 6) — Today, Tennessee Governor Bill Lee will sign an executive order directing accountability measures for school safety and an evaluation of training for Tennessee law enforcement. The order also establishes additional resources to support parents, teachers and law enforcement in improving school security practices. "Parents need to have full confidence that their children are safe at school, and thankfully, Tennessee has built a firm foundation with our practical approach to securing schools, recognizing crisis and providing confidential reporting of any suspicious activity," said Gov. Lee. "This order strengthens accountability and transparency around existing school safety planning and assures Tennessee parents that our efforts to protect students and teachers will continue."

Governor Lee will sign Executive Order 97 to enhance school safety across Tennessee and promote engagement with parents, schools and law enforcement.

For Parents

Creates a School Safety Resources and Engagement Guide to provide parents with information regarding how to effectively engage and advocate for safe conditions at their child's school, including how to report suspicious or concerning activity through the SafeTN App, access mental health resources for their child and inquire about building security and compliance at their child's school. Encourages parents, families and the local community to engage in school safety and partner with law enforcement to promote the habits and practices that help ensure school building security against unauthorized intruders. By implementing simple practices, such as ensuring a single point of entry and multiple points of exit, securing vestibules and other access points, and reporting suspicious activity, communities have the ability to vastly increase the security of their local school.

For Schools

Directs Tennessee state agencies to provide additional guidance to help local school districts (LEAs) implement existing school safety law, which requires that each public school conduct an annual school security assessment and submit a school safety plan to the Tennessee school safety center. This guidance will include:

An increase in periodic audits of Tennessee local school security assessments and school safety plans, including but not limited to random in-person verification by state officials of a school's implementation of the approved assessment;

A set of best practices for school leaders to enhance building security and safety against an unauthorized intruder; and Information for district and local government leadership regarding financial resources for school safety available through state programs and the Tennessee Investment in Student Achievement Act (TISA).

Updates the state School Safety Plan Template for LEAs to be published no later than July 1, 2022 and include greater detail on:

A description of deficiencies identified by the LEA when conducting the school security assessment;

A description of district spending on building security and other school safety initiatives and how such expenditures mitigate the identified deficiencies; and Designation of the district's single point of contact for school safety matters.

Ensures LEAs receive guidance from the State Fire Marshal's Office and other state agencies regarding how to appropriately improve school building security, while maintaining emergency egress and safeguarding of life and property from the hazards of fire and explosion. Directs the Department of Education to request permission from the federal government for districts to use existing federal ES-SER funds to conduct a full-scale, independent safety assessment, including the identification of necessary facility upgrades. The Department will report to the Governor on which districts utilize that flexibility, if approved.

Directs the Department of Education to identify regional staff to support school safety in LEAs through repurposing existing staff to focus on safety, mental health, and family and community engagement.

Develops additional training and educational materials regarding school safety for educators, school leaders and staff, no later than August 1, 2022.

For Law Enforcement

Directs the Department of Commerce & Insurance, through TLETA, to evaluate and assess law enforcement training standards and recommend expansions, improvements, or enhancements to existing training for active-shooter scenarios, and provide a report to the Governor, no later than July 1, 2022, with recommendations to expand its availability to local law enforcement agencies and related education stakeholders.

Directs the Department of Commerce & Insurance to review the use of armed security guards in non-public schools and, with the Department of Safety & Homeland Security, report to the Governor regarding the need for active-shooter training for armed guards.

Calls for new strategies to expand local and state law enforcement agencies by increasing the number of Tennesseans exploring and pursuing careers in law enforcement.

Previous actions to strengthen school safety:

For more than three years, the Lee administration has prioritized school safety, with efforts focused on mental health resources, confidential reporting and securing school buildings.

In 2019, the Governor established a School Resource Officer (SRO) Grant program placing 213 new SRO's in Tennessee public schools.

Efforts also doubled the state's annual investment in school safety funding to support improvements in building security measures and violence intervention programming.

School safety investments remain a top priority under the new TISA funding formula.

The Tennessee Department of Safety & Homeland Security developed a free app called SafeTN which is an anonymous reporting system for students, faculty, parents and the public to easily and confidentially report their concerns or tips to law enforcement. Mental health resources have been expanded through the Mental Health Trust Fund and The Tennessee Mental Health Crisis Hotline, which is available 24/7, 365 days a year: 855-274-7471.

She worked in Martin for three and a half years, and she looks forward to "many great years" at the McKenzie location.

Mayor Jill Holland is delighted at the store's decision to open in McKenzie, and she looks forward to their continued success.

LST-325 Was Part of D-Day Invasion

McKenzie, Routon Has Connections

The LST-325 was part of the D-Day invasions that helped to win WWII. Also, barrage balloons from Camp Tyson in the nearby Routon community were also deployed to protect the ships as they approached and docked in Normandy.

The LST-325 is the same ship Bailey Wrinkle of McKenzie bravely helped bring back from the Greek island of Crete during a month-long journey, arriving in Mobile Bay Alabama in January 2001.

Mr. Wrinkle, owner of Wrinkle Hardware in McKenzie for many years, spent a couple of extra days in Mobile as the ship was relocated to Port Chickasaw where it was restored and made into a floating museum. Mr. Wrinkle made the 4,000 mile journey along with 27 World War II, Korean and Vietnam veterans. He served as an electrician on board the ship during this historic trip.

An LST (Landing Ship Tank) is an amphibious vessel with roots dating back to the Second World War. Its one-of-a-kind design allowed the ship to land battle-ready tanks, troops and supplies directly onto enemy shores. LST-325 was used in Operation HUSKY; D-Day Invasion, Normandy landing at Omaha Beach, France; Belfast, Ireland, and arctic operations in the 1950s. After decades of service, this ship was transferred to Greece and served in the Greek Navy as well. In 2000, the USS LST Ship Memorial Inc. acquired the vessel, bringing her to Alabama and eventually to her current home is in Evansville, Indiana.

It was classified as the trip that almost wasn't, according to an article written by McKenzie Banner Editor Joel Washburn, who was in Mobile to greet Bailey on his arrival there. Also welcoming Mr. Wrinkle was his daughter, Amy Peterson, his grandsons, Matthew and Kyle, all of Maryland, and McKenzie friend Bob McDonald.

Besides an aging vessel that was declared unsafe by the Coast Guard, the LST Association faced battles with U.S. Secretary of State Madeline Albright and the Greek government.

"Ms. Albright didn't want any part of it," said Wrinkle. The Greek government wouldn't release the ship without the blessings of the U.S. Finally, a Congressional Bill, sponsored by Congressman Ralph Hall of Texas, cleared the way for the ship to return home. After three months of red tape, extensive repairs and uncertain financial support, the veterans left Gibraltar for the journey across the Atlantic. The bombing of the USS Cole only complicated matters. After the bombing, the crew of the LST-325 was advised not to wear anything resembling the U.S. when they went ashore.

Gasoline Prices Rise 23 Cents in Week

(June 6) — Average gasoline prices in Tennessee have risen 23.3 cents per gallon in the last week, averaging $4.49/g today, according to GasBuddy's survey of 3,821 stations in Tennessee. Prices in Tennessee are 46.5 cents per gallon higher than a month ago and stand $1.62/g higher than a year ago. The price of diesel has risen 11.5 cents nationally in the past week and stands at $5.62 per gallon.

According to GasBuddy price reports, the cheapest station in Tennessee was priced at $4.04/g yesterday while the most expensive was $5.19/g, a difference of $1.15/g. The lowest price in the state yesterday was $4.04/g while the highest was $5.19/g, a difference of $1.15/g.

The national average price of gasoline has risen 26 cents per gallon in the last week, averaging $4.85/g today. The national average is up 56.0 cents per gallon from a month ago and stands $1.81/g higher than a year ago, according to GasBuddy data compiled from more than 11 million weekly price reports covering over 150,000 gas stations across the country.

Historical gasoline prices in Tennessee over ten years are: June 6, 2021: $2.87/g; June 6, 2020: $1.76/g; June 6, 2019: $2.42/g; June 6, 2018: $2.68/g; June 6, 2017, $2.09/g; June 6, 2016, $2.20/g; June 6, 2015: $2.51/g; June 6, 2014: $3.42/g; June 6, 2013: $3.26/g; June 6, 2012: $3.24/g.

"After a blistering week of gas prices jumping in nearly every town, city, state and area possible, more bad news is on the horizon. It now appears not if, but when, we'll hit that psychologically critical $5 national average," said Patrick De Haan, head of petroleum analysis at GasBuddy. "Gasoline inventories continue to decline even with demand softening due to high prices, a culmination of less refining capacity than we had prior to Covid and strong consumption, a situation that doesn't look to improve drastically anytime soon. Nine states have average gas prices that stand beyond the $5 per gallon mark, with more set to join in the days and weeks ahead. In addition, diesel prices also stand at a record high, a second gut-punch to consumers which pushes prices of most goods higher."

GasBuddy is the authoritative voice for gas prices and the only source for station-level data spanning nearly two decades. Unlike AAA's once daily survey and the Lundberg Survey, updated once every two weeks based on a small fraction of U.S. gasoline stations, GasBuddy's survey updates 288 times every day from the most diverse list of sources covering nearly 150,000 stations nationwide, the most comprehensive and up-to-date in the country. GasBuddy data is accessible at <http://prices.GasBuddy.com>.

Budget

Commissioners convene Monday, June 20, 7 p.m. in the Conference Room of the Carroll County Office Complex to vote on the budget and a tax rate of $1.4131 per $100 assessed value, the same as last year. In 'briefing notes' distributed during the Budget Committee meeting, it indicates revenues of $13,927,841, expenditures of $13,807,712, three percent pay raises, increases in health care and retirement, the addition of the Tennessee Consolidated Retirement System's Bridge Retirement Program for long-term patrol deputies to assist in early retirement, the addition of two full-time emergency dispatchers, critical capital maintenance, increased staff position at the Health Department (reimbursed by state), pay raises for library staff, a significant increase in investment in Carroll Academy - funded by the State of Tennessee, and a $715,000 infrastructure project at the Carroll County Airport - fully reimbursed by the state and federal government. Other notes include several new or expanded industries, some of which will soon be added to the tax rolls. These include Hydro-Gear, Granges, Zline Kitchen and Bath, Pottery Direct, Dynamix International, VP Racing Fuels, Cachengo, Tosh Farms-Buena Vista farm. That is in addition to the record sales tax collections, funds from the Federal Rescue Plan (COVID funds), new construction around the Carroll County 1000-Acre Recreation Lake, and the back-to-normal, post-COVID collection of fees by the court system and other departments. Additionally, the $10 annual wheel tax for the construction of the 1000-Acre lake will end on December 31 if the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency purchases the lake and the present owner, the Carroll County Watershed Authority retires the $11 million debt. The County of Carroll also retired two of three of its long-term debts. Those were for the construction of the Emergency Operations Center and the upgrades to the Carroll County Courthouse. The lone long-term debt remaining is for the construction of the Carroll County Jail.

and her labs to pause completely. Two months later, in June, labs resumed, causing Katelyn and her fellow students to work around the clock to make up for the time they missed. Katelyn received her doctorate in Dental Surgery in a graduation ceremony in May 2022.

Katelyn's decision to become a dentist arose from several factors. She initially knew she wanted to work in the medical field and she wanted to be able to build relationships with her patients.

Dentistry, she said, is a combination of medicine and art, as dentists sculpt to create or enhance their patients' natural smiles. At Webb Dental Clinic, she is excited to build and enhance her relationship with people within Carroll County.

Dr. Robertson will provide all general dental services: crowns, fillings, dental extractions, and root canals. She will also provide the clinic with something new, offering nitrous oxide to patients with dental anxiety. Nitrous oxide is a slightly sedative chemical that patients can inhale for a calming and relaxing effect. It is administered through-out dental procedures upon patient request.

At this time, she is in-and-out of the office, preparing to accept new patients July 5. She recognizes Dr. Webb's generosity for allowing her to see and serve some of his patients, saying she will also perform dental extractions and root canals on Dr. Webb's patients upon request. She plans to eventually buy the office from Dr. Webb.

Katelyn, the daughter of Dan and Sheila Ridley, credits her family, saying she would not be here without their support along the way. Katelyn married Luke Robertson, also from McKenzie, in 2020.

Dr. Katelyn Ridley Robertson is thankful for her opportunity to return home and serve her community. Webb Dental Clinic, at 560 R.B. Wilson Drive in Huntingdon, is open four days a week. When Dr. Robertson begins her practice, the clinic will also open Fridays from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. To schedule an appointment, call (731) 986-2180. Patients can call and request Dr. Robertson beginning July 5.

Jailyn Pellam, 16, was number 11 on the South Pittsburg team from 2020-2021. Jamal Allen, 20, was number 24 and Sayveon Martin, 20, was number 71 on the football team from 2017-2020. Jayven Martin, 22, played as number 65 from 2014-2017.

South Pittsburg Students, Alumni Involved in Fatal Car Accident

SOUTH PITTSBURG (June 4) — After a single-vehicle crash in South Pittsburg early Saturday, four young men ages 16-22 were killed and one was critically injured. All four were current and former members of the South Pittsburg High School football team, which competed against the McKenzie High School Rebels in the Class 1A State Championship in December 2021. According to the Tennessee Highway Patrol, a 2010 Toyota Camry was traveling eastbound and crossed the median when the driver was negotiating a curve. The vehicle struck a tree before coming to a stop. Marion County Superintendent Mark Griffith confirmed to WRCB-TV that three recent South Pittsburg High School graduates and one current student were killed in the crash. Another student was in critical condition. None of the deceased passengers was wearing seat belts at the time of the crash, according to the highway patrol. The survivor was wearing a seatbelt. Killed in the crash were Jamal Allen, 20, who was driving, Jayven Martin, 22, Sayveon Martin, 20, and Jailyn Pellam, 16. Jayven Martin graduated from South Pittsburg in 2018 and played defensive line on the football team. Sayveon Martin, the younger brother of Jayven Martin, graduated in 2021 and played offensive line on the football team. Jamal Allen also graduated in 2021 and was an All State defense end on the South Pittsburg football team. Jailyn Pellam was in the South Pittsburg class of 2024. He was number 11 on the 2021 Class 1A State Championship team and aided the team defensively in their win against McKenzie High School in the state championship. He was a "rising junior two-way starter" on the 2022 team, according to South Pittsburg head football coach Wes Stone. Pellam also played basketball at South Pittsburg. Injured in the crash was Eli Joyner, a member of South Pittsburg's class of 2023. The South Pittsburg basketball player was transferred to the hospital in critical condition following the crash, and the community asks for continued prayers "as he faces a long recovery." Coach Wes Stone organized a GoFundMe for the families of the four deceased young men to help with final expenses. It has received 122 donations so far, amassing $11,210 of the $50,000 goal. For those wishing to donate, an account at Citizens Tri-County was also set up to assist the families. A spokesperson for the school said 100% of the money would go to the effected families.

Stay Strong, Stay Healthy Program At McKenzie Senior Citizens Center

The Stay Strong, Stay Healthy program is based on the results of extensive scientific strength training research studies conducted with middle-aged and older adults. The research found that strength training can help increase muscle strength, improve balance, enhance flexibility, strengthen bones, relieve arthritis, help manage weight, lift depression, reduce stress, and reduce the risk of heart disease.

Stay Strong, Stay Healthy is a free eight-week (16 session) exercise program for older and sedentary middle-aged adults. The goal of this evidence-based program is to improve health and quality of life through strength training.

Classes include warm-up exercises, simple strengthening exercises with or without weights and cool-down stretches. Classes meet for one hour, twice a week. A day of rest is scheduled between exercise classes. Participants are encouraged to do the exercises on their own one other time during the week.

Classes are Mondays and Wednesdays at 8 a.m. at the McKenzie Senior Citizens Center, 172 Main Street S. Classes begin July 18 and end September 7.

Over the eight weeks, participants learn the exercises and begin to improve strength and balance. After eight weeks, participants are encouraged to continue this effective program at home or with a community group.

The program includes the use of ankle and hand weights, which are provided while in class. Participants are encouraged to purchase weights for use at home, if desired. A voluntary fitness assessment is conducted prior to the first class and at the end of the program.

The Stay Strong, Stay Healthy program accepts fifteen participants maximum, and all ages are accepted.

Tennessee's 2022 Free Fishing Day is June 11

NASHVILLE — Tennessee's 2022 Free Fishing Day, when anyone may fish free without a license in Tennessee's public waters, is Saturday, June 11.

The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency provides the annual free day in hopes of increasing interest in fishing. The day allows anyone the opportunity to try this great outdoor sport to celebrate fishing as a wholesome and healthy recreational opportunity. In addition, children ages 15 and younger may fish without a license beginning on Free Fishing Day through the following Friday (June 17).

The day and week are annual events in Tennessee and are great opportunities to introduce children to the enjoyment and excitement of a day on the water catching fish. The TWRA is among several organizations planning special fishing events, primarily for youngsters. The TWRA annually stocks several thousand pounds of fish for various events.

For a list of the events, visit the TWRA website at www.tnwildlife.org and the fishing page. Anglers and potential anglers should check the events list often since special events are frequently added.

Free Fishing Day and Week apply to Tennessee's public waters, TWRA owned and operated lakes, and state park facilities. Some privately owned pay lakes and ponds continue to charge during this special day and week. Anglers will need to consult with those operators if there are any questions about a facility.

Fun By The Numbers
Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

See solution in next week's edition.

Carroll County Sheriff's Reports

Assault — Phillip Richar Colwell, 58, of 888 Republican Grove Road, Trezevant, and Philip Charles Colwell, 37, of Milan were both arrested for aggravated assault, and Aston Steele Salmon was cited for simple assault, all during a May 21 incident involving numerous people in Atwood.
According to the report by Deputy Steven Scott, he responded to a derby event on Rimmer Road after receiving a call about an assault. P.R. Colwell told Scott that several people had assaulted him. Other witnesses at the scene told Scott that an argument broke out when P.R. Colwell refused to pay anyone who participated in the derby. Video footage showed P.R. Colwell being grabbed from behind by an individual. P.C. Colwell told Scott that he came to the scene after receiving a call from his father (P.R. Colwell) about people trying to assault him. P.C. Colwell said someone hit him in the head with a board. Other witnesses said P.C. Colwell was threatening everyone with an axe pick. Both Colwells said they wanted to file charges against those who had assaulted them, including Salmon, but refused to give a written statement without the presence of an attorney. Video footage showed a white male with long hair punching P.R. Colwell, and when asked, Salmon said that was someone else. Salmon told Scott that P.C. Colwell hit him twice with the axe pick, and that P.R. Colwell attempted to run over him, his pregnant girlfriend, and a child with a vehicle outside the derby area and then returned with a revolver and threatened to kill him.
License Violation — Dillon Wayne Smith, 28, of 1215 State Route 77, Atwood, was charged with driving on a suspended license during a May 25 traffic stop in Huntingdon.
Deputy Michael Sevarns reported that he pulled over a vehicle driven by Smith on Paris Street after observing that the vehicle had no tag light. When asked, Smith said he did not have a valid driver's license, and a computer check showed that his license was suspended.
License Violation — Brandon Rayshawn Newberry, 20, of 20590 State Route 114, Hollow Rock, was cited for driving on a suspended license during a May 25 traffic stop in Bruceton.
Deputy Ryan Hamilton reported that he pulled over a vehicle driven by Newberry due to a plate light violation. A computer check showed that Newberry's license was suspended with one prior offense.

West Carroll School Board Discusses Calendar, Policies

BY JIM POTTS
jpotts@mckenziebanner.com

West Carroll School Board met in their monthly session on Thursday June 2 with items ranging from approving upcoming field trips to making adjustments to the school calendar to making policy changes.

After approving the agenda and consent agenda which included the resignations of Anne Avery and Alicia Cooper, Director Preston Caldwell acknowledged he missed adding some mandatory dates on the school calendar that should have been on there. The board approved the amended school calendar for 2022-23.

The board approved a football field trip to Hopkinsville, Kentucky to participate in a 7-7 camp and competition. The board passed the first reading and also waived the second reading on the field trip. Board members also passed the second reading of a West Carroll FBLA trip. A field trip to Florida for the West Carroll Lady War Eagle Basketball team was approved by the board on second reading.

School Director Preston Caldwell announced there were multiple bids on chairs and desks. School Outfitters was approved with a low bid of $27,951.55 which included a lifetime warranty on the desks and a five-year warranty on the chairs. Self-Assembly will be required on the chairs and desks. Caldwell noted that Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief funds would pay for the chairs and desks.

Director Caldwell introduced updates to West Carroll Special School District Policies noting West Carroll is on the state's school updates program. The first update was to policy 6.306 regarding Interference/Disruption of School Activities. The policy outlines a process of identifying interference and disruptions incidents. Policy 6.306.1 requires a written request for action on Interference and Disruption incidents. The board passed both policies on first reading.

Another policy was 6.206 which is a Tennessee School Board Association policy dealing with transfers within the school system. Director Caldwell said this policy really doesn't apply to West Carroll but it had to be placed in the policies manual due to it being a TSBA policy.

All of the principals acknowledged during their updates that May was a busy month and everything went well for the close of the school year. Director Caldwell stated "We had a great year" and complimented all of the principals for their hard work. He acknowledged "Thoughts and Prayers" to the victims and survivors of the Uvalde, Texas school shooting.

Caldwell noted he, along with principals and school security officers for the school system, have met discussing ideas for improved safety equipment and procedures. Caldwell announced the water heater approved at the last school board meeting has been obtained and installed. He noted he met with State and County Road Personnel regarding school access to the new highway bypass currently under construction coming from Milan. He said there is an access road in the plans.

With no more activity on the agenda, the board voted to adjourn until their July 7 meeting.

The "Tosh Family Classroom" was official named in honor of James "Jimmy" Tosh and his family during a naming event May 5 in Room 258 of UT Martin's Brehm Hall. The classroom was named in recognition of his generous commitments to the University of Tennessee and UT Martin. Pictured following the naming program are (L to R) Dr. Charley Deal, vice chancellor for university advancement; Dr. Keith Carver, chancellor; Tosh; and Dr. Todd Winters, dean, College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences.

UT Martin Classroom Named for Tosh Family

MARTIN — Jimmy Tosh is known as a successful businessman and family farmer through his association with Tosh Family Farms in Henry, Tennessee. He's also known for his generosity and his support for his alma mater, the University of Tennessee at Martin. Tosh was honored May 5 when the Tosh Family Classroom was officially named during an early afternoon program in UT Martin's Brehm Hall. The event included Tosh, family members and university Chancellor Keith Carver.

Tosh studied animal science, graduated from the university in 1972 and has managed the family business since receiving his degree. He and his wife, Alonna, have two sons, Jonathan and Jamey, both partners in the business. Jamey is a 2002 UT Martin agriculture graduate and 2020 WestStar Leadership Program graduate. The company's website notes Tosh Farms includes 18,000 acres of land, half of which is company owned. The other half is leased from 83 landowners in the Henry area. Tosh Pork cares for approximately 36,000 sows that produce more than 930,000 market hogs annually. Tosh Farms is currently the largest pork producer in Tennessee and the 30th largest pork producer in the U.S.

Dr. Todd Winters, College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences dean, told the audience gathered to honor Tosh that he's known first for his farming family. "Father; family man, grandfather; husband — it's definitely a family operation at Tosh Farms," he said. "And I know it's not easy." However, Winters said

Tosh's identity goes well beyond his business success.

"Humanitarian, advocate, even in some cases, activist, and you know the Tosh family are known especially in Henry County but throughout Northwest Tennessee of feeding people when they're hungry," he said. "They're known for giving people chances that have maybe made some mistakes in their life and will give them a job if they're willing to work. There's not a lot of people like that around." Winters then told how Tosh and his family have supported the university's agricultural programs, including student research and travel to the Tennessee Governor's School for the Agricultural Sciences.

Carver built on the university-support theme and recognized all that has been done for by the Henry County family, especially supporting the annual UT Martin Captain's Challenge fundraiser. "Jimmy and the Tosh family have generously supported UT Martin as they have been instrumental in the success of Captain's Challenge, providing $50,000 in matching funds for the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences for the past several years," Carver said. "Folks, that investment — when you put out that investment, that challenge match — that gets people excited," Carver said. "It makes them want to give and turn their money into something great. Because of their leadership in the agriculture industry and their very generous support of UT Martin, today we would like to dedicate the Tosh Family Classroom at UT Martin."

Tosh was grateful for the recognition and joked that it was nicer "to have a classroom named after you than a tombstone." On a more serious note, he later talked about his family's history in the farming business and how UT Martin had impacted his life for the better. "Going to college really teaches you to think and how to deal with people. That was a great experience here," Tosh said following the event.

Tosh added the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences means a lot to him personally and to the region. "It's been (the college) a great influence on West Tennessee when considering agriculture," he said. "I've got good friends that went to school here and have gone back into agriculture in this area. Plus, it's been a real resource for us, and it's always helped our farm."

Tosh family gifts and pledges have benefited both the University of Tennessee and UT Martin. The naming of university facilities and other assets follows a policy adopted in 2010 by the UT Board of Trustees.

The "Tosh Family Classroom" was official named in honor of James "Jimmy" Tosh and his family during a naming event May 5 in Room 258 of UT Martin's Brehm Hall. The classroom was named in recognition of his generous commitments to the University of Tennessee and UT Martin. Pictured following the naming program are (l-r) Dr. Charley Deal, vice chancellor for university advancement; Dr. Keith Carver, chancellor; Tosh; and Dr. Todd Winters, dean, College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences.
