Liquor Store in Huntingdon, Municipal Elections on November Ballot

CARROLL COUNTY (August 16) — The November 6 ballot is now set and includes a referendum for retail package liquor stores in Huntingdon and candidates in municipal elections in the county. The qualifying deadline was noon Thursday, August 16.

The petition for a referendum on retail package stores was picked up by Jeffery Pendergrass and received the necessary 86 registered voters from the Town of Huntingdon.

In McKenzie, Mayor Jill Holland will run unopposed as well as Jason Martin, Councilman Ward II, and newcomers Bobby Young, seeking the council seat for Ward V, and Brian Winston, seeking the council seat for Ward II. Winston was recently also elected as a county commissioner for District 8. If elected in McKenzie, he will serve in both positions. Holland is seeking her third four-year term and Martin is presently filling the unexpired term of David Hochreiter, who moved outside the municipal city limits. Councilmen Gene Hale and Cassie Allen did not seek re-election.

In Huntingdon, three at-large council

Bethel University Freshmen Begin With Support to Community

McKENZIE — Bethel University freshmen started their collegiate career by assisting the people of McKenzie.

Garrett Burns, associate chaplain of Bethel University said the incoming students partnered in 20 groups of approximately 20 students each to do good work throughout McKenzie. The effort is part of Bethel's emphasis of service to God and the community.

"We are blessed beyond measure! God's timing is perfect. This year, the incoming freshmen class were challenged to do good works all across McKenzie. Our community needs the love of Christ embodied and these students rose to the occasion," said Associate Chaplain Burns. "In all, they served at 15 different sites to include the First United Methodist Church, United Neighbors, the City of McKenzie, Children's Network Daycare, Friendly Church of God in Christ, Greater Enon Baptist

McKenzie Council Affirms Mayor's Termination of City Park Director

BY JOEL WASHBURN
washburn@mckenziebanner.com

McKENZIE (August 16) — The members of the McKenzie City Council affirmed the mayor's decision to fire Ricky French, who has served as the city's park director for 20 years. The decision came during a Rule 10 appeals hearing in which French received three of the requisite four votes necessary to overturn the mayor's decision.

French was represented by Dresden attorney Roy Herron and the city was represented by city attorney Laura Keeton. The hearing was moderated by Michael King, a Huntingdon-based attorney and the six members of the Council sat as the ones with the votes to make the final decision.

Mayor Jill Holland terminated French's employment on July 23 for what she called as the "last straw" when he failed to attend the city's annual Festival of Freedom on July 4 and had photos of him in Florida, drinking beer and fishing.

Herron said French suffers from anxiety and has previously had heart attacks. French had suffered a panic attack in the final week of June, to which French texted to office staffers Elaine Brown and Jennifer Waldrup (city recorder) that he suffered a panic attack and was at the doctor waiting to see her.

Herron said the dismissal of the 59-year-old French, who has a history of heart problems, was not appropriate because the city's

Cedar Grove Man Drowns in Buffalo River

HUMPHREYS COUNTY — The body of a missing Cedar Grove man was recovered Sunday from the Buffalo River near the Humphreys-Perry County line.

The 53-year-old deceased man is listed as Roger Balentine.

Rescue squads were called to a farm on Seed Tick Road Sunday afternoon on a report that a Carroll County man had gone missing while canoeing.

Wintesses said a man and woman were canoeing on the river in southern Humphreys Co. when the canoe overturned and the man was retrieving items from the canoe.

Rescue squads from both Perry and Humphreys counties, along with deputies from both counties, assisted in the search and recovery.

Atwood Couple Bound Over to Grand Jury on Over 300 Animal Abuse Charges

BY SHANNON MCFARLIN
WENK/WTPR News

HUNTINGDON — At the request of Paris Attorney Bruce Griffey, who is representing the Animal Rescue Corps in the case against the Atwood couple charged with over 300 counts of animal cruelty, Carroll County Judge Larry Logan ordered the defendants post a bond in the amount of $391,994.

The case also was bound over to the Carroll County Grand Jury during the preliminary hearing.

The bond hearing was held separately from the preliminary hearing earlier this month. After hearing evidence presented by Griffey, Judge Logan ordered the bond and further ordered that if the defendants fail to post it, the animals involved in the case will be forfeited and Animal Rescue Corps will be able to move forward in adopting them out to permanent homes.

Defendants in the case are Tara Neutzler and Donald Schoenthal, who are charged with some 300 counts of animal cruelty, aggravated cruelty and two counts of child abuse, neglect and endangerment.

The charges are the result of the "Noah's Ark" animal rescue at Atwood in April of this year, which was coordinated by the Carroll County Sheriff's Office and the Washington-based Animal Rescue Corps. The animals were found in dire conditions, with several found dead and in cages with live animals. The living animals found were ailing. The animals found included domesticated pets as well as farm animals and exotic animals. A dead zebra was among those animals which were found dead at the Atwood home.

While waiting for the preliminary hearing to finally be held, the Animal Rescue Corps has been financially suffering while caring for the animals, including food, shelter, veterinary care and other expenses for the 150 animals which were rescued.

Griffey told WENK/WTPR that because of that situation, he agreed to represent the non-profit organization pro bono (for free) and to secure the bond to ensure that the group's expenses are covered by the defendants.

Griffey said, "The bond was a critical issue not only due to the fact that Animal Rescue Corps, a non-profit organization dedicated to the welfare of animals, has been financial struggling as a result of this rescue mission, but also inasmuch as these poor animals who were forced to endure torturous conditions deserve to live out the remainder of their lives in a loving home where they will be properly cared for and will be lavished with love."

At the preliminary hearing, Judge Larry Logan heard testimony from Sheriff's Deputy Christopher Adams, who testified that he was told about the animals by a concerned citizen. The concerned citizen reported to the Sheriff's Office that "there was a dead cat in a bag outside the garage" at the defendants' home.

According to the testimony of Deputy Adams, the concerned citizen also reported to Adams about "a dead duck in a cage" on Defendants' property and "next to a barn" on Defendants' property "there was a purple tote with liquified bunnies in it." There was also testimony about a dead zebra on Defendants' property. After hearing testimony from Deputy Adams and a representative of Animal Rescue Corps and receiving in evidence reports prepared by two veterinarians regarding the condition of the animals seized, Judge Logan found the circumstances "deplorable" and bound the charges of animal cruelty, abuse and neglect over to the Carroll County Grand Jury.

Inasmuch as the District Attorney's office did not submit any proof regarding the children involved in the case, the charges of child abuse/neglect/endangerment were dismissed. Following the preliminary hearing on the criminal charges, a separate hearing was held on the issue of a bond in favor of Animal Rescue Corps.

McKenzie Man Pleads Guilty to Production of Child Pornography

JACKSON (August 14) — On Tuesday, after two days of trial, Nathan Adams, 36, pleaded guilty to production and attempted production of child pornography. D. Michael Dunavant, U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Tennessee announced the guilty plea.

The proof presented at trial showed Adams surreptitiously recorded videos of a 13-year-old minor female in various stages of undress, including fully nude. Adams filmed some of the videos from outside the minor's home, filming through a hole in the window blinds. On other occasions, Adams hid the recording device inside the minor's bedroom or bathroom.

Adams was reported to law enforcement after the minor's mother discovered the recording device and the explicit videos of her daughter.

On the second day of trial, as the videos that Adams recorded were being played for the jury, Adams advised the Court that he wished to plead guilty to the charges against him.

Adams faces a mandatory minimum 15 years of imprisonment. Sentencing is set for November 20, 2018 before U.S. District Chief Judge S. Thomas Anderson.

Moore Fund Donates $2,000 to United Neighbors

The Fannye Baxter Moore Fund, administered by the McKenzie Rotary Club, donated $2,000 to the McKenzie/Carroll County United Neighbors to help individuals of the community.

The trust fund was established to provide financial support for the needs of "worthy, needy" individuals of the community.

United Neighbors serves that mission by providing clothing, food and hygiene supplies to area residents who have such needs.

McKenzie/Carroll County United Neighbors is in more dire straits as its funding through United Way was severely reduced last year and has been only partially restored this year.

The United Neighbors staff is down to two persons.

Volunteers are needed to fulfill the mission of the non-profit agency.

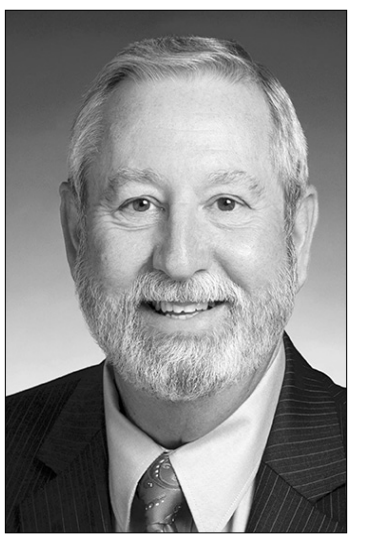
Halford Thanks Primary Voters, Asks For Continued Support in November

The following announcement is paid for by the candidate.



NASHVILLE — State Representative Curtis Halford (R-Dyer) today thanked the men, women, and families of House District 79 for their vote in the recent republican primary and also asked for their continued support during the upcoming November election.

"My family and I are grateful for the tremendous outpouring of support and are humbled by the overwhelming number of votes we received during the recently concluded primary," said Chairman Halford. "I look forward to the general election and the opportunity to continue to serve the people of Carroll and Gibson Counties."

Halford served as Chairman of the House Agriculture & Natural Resources Committee during the 110th Tennessee General Assembly. Additionally, He was as a member of the House Government Operations Committee and Subcommittee, as well as the House Calendar & Rules Committee.

Chairman Halford has been instrumental in obtaining funding for Carroll Academy, a school for at-risk students in Carroll County, as well as monies for the new Carroll County Recreational Lake. His strong partnerships with the Department of Economic and Community Development and the Department of Transportation have resulted in several successful grant applicationsdesigned to improve infrastructure and support economic development in efforts to attract new jobs to cities in Gibson and Carroll Counties.

"We appreciate Curtis Halford's hard work for the citizens of his community, said House Majority Leader Glen Casada (R-Thompson's Station). "I certainly look forward to his continued great service in the House of Representatives because I know he is a man of great integrity and the folks of the 79th District have solid representation in Curtis Halford."

During Halford's tenure in the House, Tennessee has consistently passed balanced budgets and slashed more than $800 million in taxes including a 30 percent reduction in the sales tax on food,the elimination of the inheritance tax, and scheduling the complete phase out of the Hall Income Tax.

He and Republican leaders have also more than doubled the state's savings account, and it now sits at its highest level ever — $1 billion. Tennessee also has the lowest debt and lowest overall taxes of any state, no transportation debt, and enjoys one of the best credit ratings in the entire nation.

"Chairman Halford has played a major role in Tennessee's recent and sustained success, and he has been a tremendous resource for our House Republican Caucus," said House Republican Caucus Chairman Ryan Williams (R-Cookeville). "We are fortunate to have him as a member of our General Assembly, and I look forward to serving with him next year and in future years."

Before he was elected to serve in the Tennessee House in 2008, Halford was a member of the Gibson County Commission for six years. He is also a member and Elder of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Dyer and a Veteran of the United States Air Force Reserve.

An avid outdoorsman, Halford supports our Second Amendment freedoms and is in good standing with the National Rifle Association. He is pro-life and has been previously endorsed by Tennessee Right to Life. Halford is also pro-business/small business, having received the endorsement of the National Federation of Independent Businesses (NFIB).

"Serving the people of the 79th District in the Tennessee General Assembly has been and continues to be an incredibly fulfilling experience. I have had the opportunity to work on many issues in my district, and I have thoroughly enjoyed getting to know and serve countless constituents throughout the process. However, there is still much work to be done to make all of our communities the best in Tennessee. I appreciate your continued support and look forward to returning to Nashville in January to better serve our citizens."

Please contact Representative Halford with questions or for assistance with state services. You may reach his legislative office in Nashville at (615) 741-7478 or you may contact him in Dyer at 731-487-5486 or by e-mail at: rep.curtis.halford@capitol.tn.

Miss Dixie PAC Scholarship Pageant is Saturday

The Dixie Carter Performing Arts and Academic Enrichment Center will once again bring the tradition of Southern grace and style to The Miss America Organization with the 2019 Miss Dixie PAC Scholarship Pageant, a preliminary to the Miss Tennessee Scholarship Pageant.

The event is Saturday, August 25, 7:00 p.m. at The Dixie in downtown Huntingdon. Tickets are $15 per person.

Dixie Carter, The Dixie's namesake, was one of the area's most well-known pageant winners.

In 1958, she proudly served as Miss Huntingdon and as Miss Tennessee First Runner-Up in 1959.

In true Dixie fashion, Miss Dixie PAC honors those qualities Ms. Carter embodied best – grace, intelligence, talent, beauty, and confidence.

The Miss Dixie PAC title provides a forum for a well-spoken woman to share her personal platform through program support, educational efforts and community service.

Miss Dixie PAC's carry on Ms. Carter's winning tradition:

Lauren Dickson was Miss Dixie PAC 2018. Lauren won the Miss Tennessee talent preliminary and finished in the Top 10.

Yvannah Garcia was Miss Dixie PAC 2017. Yvannah won the Miss Tennessee talent preliminary and finished in the Top 10.

This performance is not part of any season packages.

The Dixie Announces New Entertainment Season

HUNTINGDON — It's time again for an exciting new season at The Dixie Carter Performing Arts and Academic Enrichment Center! The Dixie's culturally rich 14th season lineup promises to do its namesake proud as it welcomes and entertains audiences with nationally recognized musical acts, Broadway-style theatre productions, rich art exhibits and learning opportunities in a one-of-a-kind small town setting.

Award-winning acts like Ricky Skaggs & Kentucky Thunder, Restless Heart, Jason Crabb, Paul Thorn and Daily & Vincent will soak up The Dixie spotlight this season along with returning stage favorites like Christmas on Broadway featuring Paula Bridges, The Miss Dixie PAC Pageant, and School Time Performance Series. Theatrical productions include Steel Magnolias presented by The Dixie Players and Disney's The Little Mermaid presented by Bethel University Renaissance Theatre.

One might think it is difficult for a venue to embody all the grace and charm of a namesake like Dixie Carter, a lady some might say was more southern than the south itself. But The Dixie manages to do just that. And it's built up quite a following since its opening in 2005. Loyal patrons and volunteers are adamant that The Dixie is one of the best venues around.

The 471-seat theatre located inside of The Dixie and named for Hal Holbrook, Dixie Carter's husband, serves as a premier venue for the performing, literary, visual and media arts with state of the art acoustics, lighting and stage. But at The Dixie, cutting edge doesn't come at the cost of hospitality. The stage and seating are designed to offer every visitor an up-close experience.

Lori Neal Nolen, executive director of The Dixie, glows when she talks about those who work and volunteer at The Dixie to provide memorable experiences for each guest, "I couldn't be more proud of the staff for their commitment to pursue and present high level, quality events and education opportunities throughout the year. We are so excited about our 2018-2019 Season and our amazing sponsors for supporting the arts and The Dixie."

To experience all that the Dixie has to offer, guests are encouraged to take advantage of The Dixie's season tickets. For a complete listing of this season's award-winning musical events, stage productions, dates and times, visit The Dixie's website at DixiePac.net or connect on Facebook. For the box office, call 731-986-2100, M-F, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Season and Series tickets go on sale Tuesday, August 21 at 10 a.m. All other tickets go on sale Thursday, August 23rd at 10 a.m.

Personnel Rules and Regulations indicate promotions or demotions of department heads must be approved by the City Council. Herron said French was never suspended for his actions during his 20-year tenure. The city went from "zero to 120" in its actions when the mayor terminated French's employment, said Herron. With the termination, French loses his city-paid health insurance except for the provisions of COBRA rules, which allows him to self-pay for the coverage.

Herron said French was in Florida to be with his grandson, who was entering the military.

In a courtroom-style hearing, Mayor Jill Holland was the lone witness called to testify. Herron did not call any witnesses in defense. Herron asked that his client be allowed to be questioned by Herron, but not cross-examined by the city's attorney nor members of the City Council. Herron was concerned the extra stress would adversely affect the health of Mr. French, who sat quietly by Herron's side.

King responded that if French is placed on the witness stand, all parties have the privilege of questioning him.

In the Council Room, two tables were placed end-to-end for the city's representatives and for French and his representatives. Behind them sat approximately 53 McKenzie-area citizens and another 25 to 30 stood in the hallway outside the Council Room. There were no city employees in the audience other than Jennifer Waldrup, who took the official minutes of the meeting.

In opening comments, Keeton said French could not substantiate his reason for not working on July 4 when all Parks Department associates were to work. He gave a false reason and violated city policy.

Roy Herron said he was privileged to speak to members of the City Council members because the city's attorney had cautioned members not to speak with him during a closed-door session following the regular August meeting. He said the issue could not be discussed in private.

In a follow-up, The Banner was told Herron had threatened litigation and the private, closed-door meeting in the Mayor's office with Keeton was allowable under Tennessee's exemption to the Open Meetings Law.

Herron said his client is not perfect but serves the young people well. French is under a doctor's care and has suffered three heart attacks. The doctor is concerned about the stress and strain on French. Herron recommended French not take the stand because cross-examination would be too much stress.

Councilman Charles Pruneau said if French cannot take the stand and cannot be questioned it is impossible to get his side of the story. Pruneau said his father was judge and he admonished him to always tell the truth.

The first questions of Holland were by Keeton. She asked if Tennessee is an at-will employment state. Holland answered yes. The attorney asked if French had a pattern of misconduct. Holland answered yes and that she had given French three written warnings and several verbal warnings since 2011. The warnings were for: beer in the refrigerator at the city park; failure to care for trees and landscaping; failure to monitor inmate trusties on work detail and assigned to work in his department under his supervision - the trusties were caught with drug paraphernalia and for having sex with a female at the Farmers Market; purchasing ducks after the city announced it did not want ducks at the city park because of the fecal matter and resulting bacterial hazard; failure to inspect his monthly financial reports; failure to utilize a city-purchased smartphones purchased for him to check e-mails and respond to citizens in a timely manner; failure to display federal labor laws and HEPA regulations that are to be displayed for employees to review. – those were found rolled up in the shop; failure to properly assign student workers over the summer, resulting to an end of the employment of student workers; failure to file doctors' excuses of his employees, but instead trashed them; failure to evaluate his employees, which resulted in the employees not receiving pay raises; failure to utilize the city's uniform allowance for department employees, resulting in them not receiving the clothing – the employees received t-shirts five years ago; on July 4th, French was absent and assigned one full-time and one part-time employee for the event, which usually has eight to 10 workers; failure to submit documentation on time concerning a TOSHA violation – he was given October 30 to December 2, 2015 to submit correctly. He submitted on December 2 but was rejected by the regulating agency. It was resubmitted two days later with the correct information. The lateness could place the city at risk of a fine, said the mayor.

The mayor noted that a group of citizens appeared at the April 2017 Council Meeting to complain about the deterioration of the infrastructure of the city playground equipment and infrastructure. They presented photographs to show the disrepair. The city spent almost $10,000 making the repairs.

The mayor noted French provided a doctor's excuse from a clinic several days following the July incident and did not request the time off.

Herron produced an affidavit, produced by his wife, an attorney, that indicated the city could not be fined by TOSHA, contrary to what the mayor stated. He also produced an affidavit from French's medical doctor, Misty Allen, indicates her nurse examined French when he returned from Florida and that he suffered from hypertension and anxiety, and heart problems. In the affidavit, she indicated she has been his medical doctor for several years. Her medical excuse to miss work was retroactive to include dates from Friday, June 29 to the time of the doctor's visit. As for the clinic employing French's daughter-in-law as indicated by the mayor, Herron said she no longer works at the clinic and did not at the time of French's visit.

Herron said inmate trusties are very difficult to supervise. He noted the trusties were never prosecuted for their actions by the McKenzie Police Department.

Post-hearing, MPD Chief Craig Moates said the inmates were turned over to the Carroll County Sheriff's Department for prosecution as per standard procedure.

Herron said much of the talk surrounding French has been hearsay from the coffee shops and from Facebook. The mayor had referenced some of the hearsay during her testimony.

The attorney said his client had even fired his own son from driving an off-road vehicle when he worked for the Parks Department.

In a period when each of the councilmen was asked to weigh in, Pruneau said he had heart problems and four bypasses. He said the hot summer heat and fishing, no cardiologist would recommend that along with alcoholic beverages.

Randy Callahan asked if French requested time off. The mayor responded "no." He then asked Chief Moates about the trusty who was caught. Moates said he was given extra time on his sentence.

Jessie Townes said he wished he had known about the situation since it had been going on from 2015-2018. The mayor responded that she attempted to deal with it one-on-one.

Jason Martin, who said he attempted to reach a compromise between the mayor and French, questioned why if she had been mayor for eight years and he was the parks director why the grievances were just now surfacing. Holland responded that it was the straw that broke the camel's back and other employees were furious and sent a message that "it was o.k. to lie."

Cassie Allen, a relative of French's, asked if it is common to take off. Holland replied there is a request form to complete and put in her mailbox.

Keeton on redirect asked Holland if the doctor's signed medical excuse indicated French visited the clinic on July 6 and was retroactive June 29? Mayor said French was given the opportunity to provide proof earlier but did not.

During the vote, King said it requires four votes to overturn the mayor's decision to terminate the employment of French.

Gene Hale, Cassie Glisson, and Jessie Townes voted to reinstate French. The three votes were shy of the required four votes. King declared the termination of employment stands.

After the hearing, Herron alluded to the fact the citizens had come out to support Ricky French. He has served the city for 20 years and the Council was divided three to three. The outpouring shows how loved he is.

Mayor Holland also offered this information following the hearing.

"On July 23, Ricky (French) was given the choice of resigning or being terminated. He was offered a severance agreement which after meeting with his attorney, he declined, and chose the option to be terminated, and asked for an appeal's hearing in front of the council.

OPINION

United Neighbors Needs Volunteers

For half of a century, United Neighbors has maintained an unblemished record of assisting our local neighbors in need.

Whether it is for food, clothing, electric bills, or other basic needs, United Neighbors has reached out to assist our community friends in crisis.

In 2017, United Neighbors was hit with a devastating financial blow. Norandal in Huntingdon was sold. The reason this was so critical was they were a major contributor to Carroll County division of United Way, who was, in turn, a major supporter of United Neighbors.

While the plant operated there was a program in place where employees were giving directly from their paychecks. That source of funds stopped and those employees no longer donated to United Way.

The closing also increased the number of people who were potentially in need. The problem continued when the successor industry did not participate in the paycheck plan. This, of course, caused a major drop in united Way's funding in Carroll County and also in united Neighbors.

Prior to Norandal's sale, United Neighbors received approximately $20,000 a year for operational funds. Last year, they were cut to $4,900. This year, they were increased to $9,800, still a revenue loss of $10,200 per year from the original funding amount.

Budget adjustments left only two employees to manage all the daily business, where they stock, receive donations, wait on customers, clean the building, and run the office. To handle that work load with only two people is a herculean task.

This past year, due to support from the Baptist Church, the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the U.S.A. Presbyterian Church, the Methodist Church, a fundraiser by the McKenzie Banner, and donations from local individuals, they have survived, but continue to face an intolerable work load.

Thus, the reason for this letter…

United Neighbors needs community volunteers to fill the void left by the decrease in funding.

To understand the scope of what United Neighbors means to this community, let me point out that in the last 12 months, United Neighbors has served 586 families and 1,321 individuals and also conducted 4 "Blessing Box" give-a-ways, which has served another 1,000 families.

Over time, it is practically impossible to calculate the positive impact that United Neighbors has had on the lives of our citizens.

If we look at even a very conservative figure of 900 people helped each year, over the last 50 year period, that would be a total of 45,000 individuals who received a helping hand in their time of need.

Recognizing the value of United Neighbors to the fabric of our community over the past 50 years, the Rotary - Fannye Baxter Moore Fund has contributed generously to assist United Neighbors in their mission; however, our funds are limited and for United Neighbors to continue to grow and serve even more, community volunteerism is desperately needed. Even a few hours per week would help.

The number to contact Saudia Akin, Director, at work is 352-0547. The home number is 415-9474.

The motivation for all of us to continue generously donating our time and money to United Neighbors is crystal clear…

"As ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, you have done it unto me."

HUNKER DOWN WITH KES

Prehistoric Search Engine

I'm going to die without ever kissing Jane Hill. I was reminded of that all over again as news of Google's latest eavesdropping methods hit the airways. According to the latest reports, the giant internet guru has been tracking "every move you make" by storing information about our whereabouts when we open any number of their apps.

This has got some folks up in arms. They are shouting "invasion of privacy" and demanding a Senate subcommittee be formed to see if some "ex post facto law" hasn't been breeched.

They act like "keeping track of someone" is a new phenomenon. It's all Sputnik, flying drones, space age stuff to them! Shoot, Google didn't invent GPS, nor were they the first to discover a "ways and means" of pinpointing an individual's exact location at any given moment.

You should have heard the steel ball bearing roaring across the hardwood floor in our third grade class. It was loud as all "get out" as it echoed across the silent room. Buddy caught it with his foot about the time Miss Belle said, "Kesley Colbert, I know that was you!"

"Yes ma'am, I'm sorry, it slipped."

Bud dropped it back in my lap when he moved up front for his reading class. I laid it in the little slot for pencils at the top of my desk. But the temptation was more than I could bear….. I eased it down to the floor and accidently gave it a nudge.

Apparently you didn't get two slips with Miss Belle. She hauled me to Mr. McIver's office. He gave me a couple of whacks with his "Board of Education" and collected the offending bearing.

I couldn't go to the house after the final bell. This was 1954. You get whipped at school—you got whipped at home! It wasn't too complicated back then. I figured I'd hide over on West Cherry Street in those tall bushes behind Yogi's house. I was thinking about joining the circus when Dad caught me by the arm.

Nobody knew I was there! You couldn't see the road, or vice versa, from where I was hunkered down! There was no possible way he could find— He whipped me plumb out of the gallberry bushes, down a row of Fire Light Hydrangeas and into Bo Booth's yard next door.

The rubbing alcohol in junior high was Yogi's idea. We were 'trick or treating' that Halloween by pouring alcohol up the sidewalk to the front door of a few unsuspecting neighbors. I would knock on the door and run, Yogi would light the alcohol and run, Buddy would drop a cherry bomb into the mail box and run. It sure lit up the night.

We were having the time of our lives when one of them mentioned that most everyone we'd "tricked" was on the same telephone party line as us….. I broke and ran for the hills! Oh man, I don't think we'd been seen but if there was the slightest chance Dad might make the connection, I was in deep trouble.

I dived underneath a pile of old slab wood at the far end of the Southern Star Lumber Company lot. I didn't even catch my breath before I was grabbed rather roughly by the left ankle. There wasn't no way, I just got here myself! The whipping stung for a few minutes. The abject embarrassment of going back to each house, again knocking on the door, this time apologizing for my rude, brash, stupid and inappropriate behavior has lasted a lifetime!

The summer I turned sixteen Jane Hill was the best looking girl in West Tennessee. It took three months of begging to get her to agree to ride out to Frank's Dairy Bar with me. I borrowed the family car, promised I'd be home by ten and enjoyed the best shake, hamburger and fires I'd ever eaten.

It was soooo perfect. We drove around afterwards—Jane actually slid a smidge closer when the Beatles broke into "I Want to Hold Your Hand." We rode out the old Paris Highway till we hit the Clear Lake Road, turned north up Macedonia and finally eased off the pavement down a seldom used one lane gravel path. I think we were in another county!

It was ten o'clock when I stopped the car. I was promising her I would take her to a Jerry Lee Lewis concert and maneuvering for that first kiss when I heard the horn and saw the lights bouncing across a darkened cow pasture. Daddy roared up on our old Farmall tractor, leaped off, tapped the driver's side window and pointed to his watch!

Google didn't invent nothing in the "I've got my eye on you" business.

Respectfully,
Kes

CAROLINE V. SCARLETT
1929-2018

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. — Caroline Vawter Scarlett of Murfreesboro, devoted wife, mother, sister and friend, died Aug. 13 in Brentwood at age 89.

Born June 30, 1929, in Whitthorne, Tenn., Mrs. Scarlett spent her formative years on her parents' farm in McKenzie. She was preceded in death by husband, former MTSU President Dr. M.G. Scarlett; son, Jon Barry Scarlett; parent,s Vilas and Carrie Vawter; sister, Betty Jane Harris; and brothers, Vilas, Jr.; Billy; and Bobby Vawter. She is survived by sisters, Judy Blanks and Nancy Holland, both of McKenzie; son, David Scarlett (Teresa) and daughter, Nan Overton (Melbourn), both of Brentwood; daughter-in-law, Melinda Scarlett, Smyrna; grandchildren Taylor Overton of Knoxville; Jackson Overton of Murfreesboro; Heather Wilson (Chase) of Rock Hill, S. C.; Barry Scarlett (Jessica) of Fort Mill, S.C.; and great-grandchildren Halle, Gracie, Cade and Harper Wilson.

A long-time member of Murfreesboro's North Boulevard Church of Christ, Mrs. Scarlett cooked for the church's Meals on Wheels program for more than 30 years, into her mid-80s. A lover of sports, she was an excellent high school basketball player, a die-hard Cubs fan, a fixture at MTSU basketball games and an avid golfer, once winning two mother/son tournament trophies on the same day, with 8th grade son Jon in the morning and 5th grader David in the afternoon. She had a quick wit, a brilliant mind and was as comfortable as a beauty queen as she was picking cotton on the family farm. There was seemingly nothing she didn't do well. While MTSU's first lady (1968-'78), she was a warm and gracious ambassador for the university, whether hosting a dinner for the governor or inviting students to tour the historic president's home. She had a beautiful singing voice and loved flowers, a good joke, and playing bridge with her friends.

Mrs. Scarlett loved reading (and correcting her children's grammar), and attended (then) Bethel College in McKenzie (where she met her future husband), as well as (then) David Lipscomb College in Nashville. In addition to the challenging job of rearing three rambunctious children, she taught in a one-room schoolhouse while living in Nebraska in the '60s, and later worked for Youth Services in Memphis. While in school in McKenzie, she worked at the Carroll County Movie Theater. Former Governor Ned McWherter once admitted that, when in high school, he would drive around the McKenzie square trying to find the courage to ask out pretty Caroline Vawter. He never did.

She had a giving spirit and a loving heart, never speaking ill of others, while living her Christian faith each day of her life. Her passing leaves a huge hole in the hearts of those who loved her. But there is joy in knowing she is now in the presence of her Savior and the loved ones who crossed the river before her.

The funeral was Saturday, August 18 at Woodfin Funeral Chapel, 1488 Lascassas Pike, in Murfreesboro.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Evelyn Tucker Honored on 91st Birthday

Mrs. Evelyn Tucker of McKenzie was honored on July 22 for her 91st birthday following services and the fellowship meal at Union Primitive Baptist Church.

She was presented with gifts and a memory book after she blew out the candles on her cake, decorated in pink and green and made by Teresa Phelps.

Church clerk April Corbin read from the minute book that told of her joining the church in June of 1963. She was described as being a faithful member who has always supported the church with her attendance and means.

Members of the congregation sang Happy Birthday followed by a prayer by the church pastor, Elder Ed Long.

Members wrote messages to her in the memory book.

Her birthday was actually June 8, but the observance had to be postponed at that time.

Mrs. Tucker plans on moving to Lakeside Assisted Living facility in the near future.

Archers to Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Archer will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, August 25 with a reception in their honor. The celebration is in the Underwood Hall of First United Methodist Church in McKenzie from 2 to 4 p.m.

The event is hosted by their daughter, Stephanie Archer-Bolin and two granddaughters, Lexie and Emily Ann Bolin.

Jerry and Emily met while both were students at Bethel College and were married on August 24, 1968 at First Methodist Church in McKenzie.

The late Mrs. Mary Anne Ward, her sister, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Ruth Ann Wiley-Hall, Mrs. Nola Purcell-Jenkins and Mrs. Jane Hill-Fortner. Mrs. Gayla Young-Kilts served as flower girl.

Mr. Phil Higgins served as best man, and groomsmen included David Wiman, Ken Barber, Jim Young and the late Lenny Kimmons.

Emily is a retired school teacher with McKenzie Special School District and Jerry is a retired field supervisor with Tennessee Department of Human Services.

No formal invitations are being sent, and all friends and family are invited to attend. No gifts please.

Different Strokes Canvas Creations to Host Painting Class

Different Strokes Canvas Creations will host a painting class at Connie's Place in downtown McKenzie on Thursday, August 30 at 6:30 p.m. The event is $30, and there will be a choice of acrylic or watercolor painting. Please preregister and choose your media on or before Monday, August 27 by contacting Denise Sam at 731-697-1844, Connie Horner at 731-234-4484 or Glynda Rich at 731-225-4470. Mustangs Topple Rebels in Season Opener

banner@mckenziebanner.com
©2018 Tri-County Publishing, Inc.

McKenzie played host to rival Huntingdon to open the 2018 season last Friday. Early on it appeared it would be a shootout but with a series of offensive big plays the Mustangs turned it into a lopsided 49-19 loss for the Rebels.

The Mustangs won the toss and deferred to the second half so the Rebels got the ball first and were able to get the ball moving but stalled and punted away their first possession. Both teams swapped possessions for much of the opening quarter until Huntingdon struck first on a short drive following a punt. Brandon Lawton got loose on a 50-yard dash into McKenzie territory on a first down play. Daquon Robinson took it 40 yards for the game's first score with 2:31 left in the first quarter. The PAT was good by Cole Edwards for a 7-0 Mustang lead.

McKENZIE (August 16) — It was a big week for one of the area's fiercest rivalries as the McKenzie Rebel and Huntingdon Mustang faithful met on back-to-back nights for middle and high school football showdowns at Randy Thomas Field.

Round one was the middle school contest Thursday, where the hometown Rebels took a dominant, 30-6 victory, scoring on the first snap from scrimmage and then on each of three second-half possessions.

Huntingdon won the coin tossed and deferred to the second half. Rebel Etijay Tharpe returned the opening kick to the Mustang 42, then Marquez Taylor ran for the touchdown. Taylor converted for two points, and McKenzie led 8-0 with just 20 seconds off the clock.

The Mustangs began their first drive at their own 44.

ATWOOD (August 17) — The West Carroll High School War Eagles opened the football season at home Friday with a back-and-forth thriller for a narrow, 17-16 win against the Hollow Rock-Bruceton Central Tigers.

The War Eagle defense put the first points on the board with a safety on Central's first possession, then the offense added to the lead late in the opening frame. The Tigers clawed back with scores in the second and third quarters to take the lead before West Carroll regained the advantage on a lengthy fourth-quarter drive. The Tigers had a chance late after a safety forced by the Central defense pulled them within a point, but the War Eagle defense held strong in the clutch. West Carroll took over on downs in the final minute to close out the victory.

The War Eagles won the toss and received the opening kick, but went three-and-out. Devin Nash punted into the end

Rivalry

...From Sports Front

Tayshawn Rivers ran twice for nine yards, then two plays later managed a dozen to convert on fourth-and-two. He ran for two more first downs to get the ball to the Rebel 15, but a holding call two plays later set Huntingdon back to the 27. The Mustangs gained on each play, but turned the ball over on downs at the 10.

McKenzie made three first downs before the end of the first frame, then started the second with a pair of runs to move the chains again and cross midfield. The drive stalled there as the Rebels were flagged for a block in the back, then turned the ball over on downs at the Mustang 44.

Huntingdon caught a break as another McKenzie penalty gave them a first down on third-and-long, but three plays later, a pass by Rivers was intercepted by Rebel Zach Aird at the McKenzie 25.

In the final minute of the half, Rebel quarterback Jackson Cassidy found Aird for a 33-yard gain, but a holding penalty on the next play ended the threat and the half as McKenzie led 8-0.

Huntingdon received the second-half kickoff, but the Rebel defense held strong to force a three-and-out. A Mustang punt gave McKenzie the ball at midfield.

Taylor took a handoff 25 yards, then repeated that two plays later for his second touchdown of the game. A pass by Cassidy for the two-point conversion was caught but dropped before crossing the goal line. With 4:52 to go in the third quarter, McKenzie led 14-0.

Starting at the far 40, Mustang Ashton Hutcherson ran twice, then threw incomplete. On fourth-and-seven, Ty Kelley avoided a couple of tackles to gain the first down and then some. Rivers ran twice for a net loss, then Hutcherson threw incomplete again. The fourth-and-eleven run yielded just six yards, and the Rebels took over at their own 35. Taylor again wasted no time, taking the first-down handoff 65 yards to paydirt. Cassidy threw to Rashad McCreary for two points, and McKenzie led 22-0 with 40 seconds left in the third.

The Mustangs started at the 34. Rivers lost a pair to bring up the fourth quarter. Ethan Lewis started the final frame with a short run. Rivers got the next handoff, finding room near the sideline to head for the end zone. He was tripped up on a shoestring tackle near the 5, but managed to get the ball across the goal line for Huntingdon's first points of the night. Hutcherson was stopped short on the two-point try, and the Rebels led 22-6 with just over seven minutes left to play.

McKenzie began near midfield, but quickly faced fourth-and-inches. Cassidy dove for four yards on a sneak to move the chains, then Taylor gained eleven for another first. Two plays later, Cassidy kept for a touchdown from 25 yards out. Tharpe ran for two points, and the Rebel lead was 30-6 with just under four minutes left.

Huntingdon started at the Mustang 43. Rivers and Hutcherson each ran twice to cross midfield and move the chains. The next play resulted in a Huntingdon penalty, then Rivers made a short gain before time expired for a 30-6 Rebel victory.

McKenzie will travel to Hollow Rock-Bruceton Thursday, while Huntingdon has a bye week.

Cheatham Takes the Helm for Lady Rebels Soccer

McKENZIE — Karlene Cheatham is the new head coach for McKenzie High School's soccer teams.

The Special Education teacher joins the McKenzie Special School District after nine years at the Carroll County Special Learning Center, where she was director for several years up until its closing this summer. She teaches at McKenzie Middle School.

Cheatham, a native of Jamaica, graduated from Bethel University, where she was a four-year starter and two-year captain for the Lady Wildcat soccer team and earned All-Conference, All-Region and All-Academic honors.

She has previously coached for the McKenzie Youth Soccer League intermittently over a nine-year period and has been an organizer of McKenzie's Special Olympics for six years.

She comes to a Lady Rebel program which set a high bar by reaching the state tournament last year, but she relishes the challenge.

In an interview with The Banner, she says she wants to go even further than last year. "The [returning] assistant coaches say that they're progressing even faster than last season."

Cheatham expects leadership from the three team captains Allie Chappell, Maggie Aird and senior Libby Oakley and strong play from a pair of promising newcomers, freshman Haley Brasfield and senior Chloe Williams.

It's a senior-heavy squad, including Oakley, Williams, Holly Barker, Caleigh Britt, Julianna Cole, Ciria Perez, Bailey Sawyers and Jazmin Ventura.

The team performed well in several scrimmages leading up to the season and in the season opener, a non-district contest at Trinity Christian Academy. Though they fell 2-0, goalkeeper Gracie Dillingham (in her second season in the net) had 15 saves in the contest.

McKenzie Middle School Softball Season Begins

McKenzie Middle School's Lady Rebels opened up their softball season with a 3-1 record in the opening four games of the season.

MMS at Inman

The Lady Rebels opened the season at Paris Inman on Monday, August 6 with a 9-2 win. Katie Prather, Kylie Reynolds and Kassidy Brown scored runs in the top of the 1st inning to take an early 3-0 lead. Prather scored again in the 2nd inning to make it a 4-0 game. Neither team scored in the 3rd inning but in the top of the 4th, Lady Rebel bats got hot generating a 5-run inning to build a 9-0 lead. Prather scored her third run and Kylie Reynolds got her second run while Savannah Davis, Peyton Ognibene, and Mikaela Reynolds all scored. Inman scored a pair in the bottom of the inning to finish the scoring. Peyton Ognibene took the win on the mound for the Lady Rebels.

MMS vs Inman

McKenzie hosted Inman on Tuesday August 7 in their first home contest with the contest not going as well as the previous day. The Lady Rebels lost 7-5 in a close one for their only loss of the young season.

The tables were turned with Inman getting an early three-run lead in the 1st inning. Savannah Davis scored a lone run in the bottom of the first to make it 3-1 in favor of Inman. Neither team mounted any scoring offense in the 2nd inning. Inman failed to score in the top of the 3rd but McKenzie got the bats going in the bottom of the third and got runs from Savannah Davis, Katie Prather, Kylie Reynolds, and Kassidy Brown to take a 5-3 lead heading into the 4th inning.

Inman plated 4 runs in the top of the 4th to retake the lead 7-5 and held McKenzie scoreless in the bottom of the inning hand the Lady Rebels the loss. Katie Prather took the loss on the mound for MMS.

MMS vs Dresden

Monday August 13th McKenzie Middle played host to Dresden in what turned into a lopsided 18-0 blitzing of Dresden Junior High. All of the starters scored in the 2-inning contest and most of them scored twice. McKenzie plated 8 runs in the 1st and 10 runs in the 2nd holding Dresden to just 1 hit on the afternoon.

MMS at Bruceton

McKenzie Middle hit the road on Tuesday, August 14 to Bruceton and ended up winning a nailbiter in extra innings. The first three innings went scoreless for both teams. McKenzie drew first blood with a Kylie Reynolds run in the top of the 4th. Bruceton answered plating a run in the bottom of the 4th inning. It remained tied 1-1 with no scoring in the 5th. Katie Prather broke the tie with a run in the top of the 6th while Peyton Ognibene added an insurance run later in the inning. Bruceton was held scoreless in the bottom of the inning to secure the win.

Bethel Wildcats Begin Season Thursday at Wildcat Stadium

Bethel University Wildcats begin their gridiron season on Thursday, 6 p.m. at Wildcat Stadium in McKenzie.

Bethel University Wildcats open the 2018 season at home in McKenzie Thursday, August 23 against the No. 2 Reinhardt University Eagles.

The Eagles lead the series 5-0. Bethel was picked to finish fifth in the Bluegrass Division in the Mid-South Conference Pre-season Coaches Poll. The Eagles were picked first in the Appalachian Division. The series began in September of 2013 with Reinhardt winning in Waleska, Georgia 41-36. The game will mark the third in McKenzie in the series.

Bethel is coming off a 3-7 season while Reinhardt, who made it to the NAIA title game last year, finished 12-1 on the season. Their only loss was to national champion St. Francis. Reinhardt finished second in the post season coaches' poll.

This is the sixth meeting ever between the two programs. Reinhardt leads the series 5-0. It was the home opener for the Eagles last year in Waleska, Georgia and their play did not disappoint their fans as they captured a 33-0 weather-shortened victory over the Wildcats. The Eagles and weather were the dominating factors on the day. The game was stopped at the 2:20 mark of the second quarter because of storms and lightning in the Waleska area. The game was delayed for over two hours and with lightning lingering in the area the game was called giving the Eagles the victory.

The community is invited to come see Bethel open its 2018 campaign at home under the direction of Coach Dearmon.

Mustangs

...From Sports Front

McKenzie's defense continued to keep Huntingdon in check into the second quarter and got their first touchdown on a miscue by the Mustangs. Huntingdon had a bad snap on a punt that sailed over the punter's head. The punter attempted to throw it out of the endzone and it was picked off by Hunter Stafford who took it to the endzone for a Rebel score with 10:45 left in the half. The extra point attempt was blocked leaving the score 7-6 in favor of Huntingdon.

McKenzie penalties helped Huntingdon's next possession which was capped by a 12-yard touchdown by Huntingdon quarterback Hunter Ensley with 7:33 left in the first half. Cole Edward's extra-point was good for a 14-6 Mustang lead. After a three-and-out possession by the Rebels, Huntingdon struck again with 4:33 left in the half on a 5-play drive again capped off by a Hunter Ensley touchdown this time from 25 yards out. The PAT was good for a 21-6 lead.

The Rebels answered with a sudden "hook-and ladder" strike on the next possession when quarterback Eli Surber tossed the ball to Joseph Miller who launched a long pass to Tyler Spivey who caught it in stride for a 79-yard touchdown. Diego Calderon connected on the extra point making it a 21-13 contest with 4:13 left in the first half.

Huntingdon struck twice in the final four minutes of the half with big play touchdowns. The first came shortly after McKenzie's second score when Daquon Robinson swept around the left side for a 65-yard score with 3:59 left. Edwards was good on his fourth extra point for a 28-13 lead. McKenzie went three plays and out on their next possession. On first down, Brandon Lawton got loose for a 64-yard touchdown with the extra point good for a 35-13 lead with 1:15 left in the opening half.

The Mustang's Robinson ran the second-half kickoff back 83 yards for a touchdown but it was wiped out by a penalty. Hunter Ensley scored three plays later on a 50-yard run. Extra point was good for a 42-13 lead with 9:41 left in the third quarter. Daquon Robinson added the final score of the night for Huntingdon with 6:18 left on a 66-yard run. Cole Edwards was good on the extra point for a 49-13 lead.

Both teams got younger players into the contest for valuable playing time as the game wound down. One of the younger Rebel players, Nick Bills, scored a late touchdown with 11 seconds remaining in the contest to make the final score 49-19.

Huntingdon had three players with over 100 yards each rushing. Hunter Ensley had 104 yards and three touchdowns on 10 carries. Daquon Robinson had three carries for 170 yards and three touchdowns. Brandon Lawton rushed for 133 yards and a score for the Mustangs.

McKenzie had a slow night offensively. Joseph Miller ran the ball 15 times for 51 yards to lead the Rebel effort. They had 180 yards total offense for the contest.

Coach Wade Comer was pleased with the team's effort all four quarters and their attitude especially after the game was over. "I was proud of our effort and attitude. We need to clean up our tackling otherwise I was happy with our defensive play and we need to get more consistent offensively," said Comer.

Huntingdon Coach Eric Swenson was complimentary of the Rebels. "They had a good game plan defensively. I told Coach Comer they out-schemed us and gave us some things to work on." Swenson said.

This week the Rebels play host to West Carroll while Huntingdon will play host to Waverly, one of the top teams in the state.

War Eagles

Central fumbled on second down, recovering the ball in the end zone. War Eagle Kyler White made the tackle behind the goal line for a safety. With 8:57 left in the first frame, West Carroll led 2-0.

The Tigers kicked off from their own 20. The ball sailed out of bounds to give the War Eagles good field position at the Central 45. Jarrius Weatherford ran for a first down and quarterback Trace Fuller threw to Blaine Howell for another, but a fumble on the next play cost West Carroll yards and doomed the drive. Three plays later, the Tigers took over on downs at the 20.

Tiger quarterback Dalton Williams was sacked on first down by War Eagle Garrett Brooks, leading to a three-and-out.

The War Eagles started with another short field, this time taking advantage. Fuller threw to Shae Crocker for eight, then Weatherford ran six to move the chains. Fuller kept for just a yard, then Weatherford scrambled around the backfield before emerging unscathed and heading 15 yards to paydirt. Nash's PAT kick was good to extend the West Carroll lead to 9-0 with just 25 seconds left in the first frame.

Central ran two plays for a first down to end the quarter, then quickly faced fourth-and-four in the second. Williams kept the next snap for just enough to move the chains and extend the drive. He followed with a throw to Zane Mebane for five yards, then found him again at the goal line for a 23-yard touchdown. The two-point attempt failed, and the War Eagle lead was 9-6 with 9:09 remaining in the first half.

Central attempted an onside kick, but Brooks recovered for West Carroll at the 42. Weatherford moved the chains once, and, two plays later, Fuller threw to Jack Barrow to earn another fresh set of downs inside the Tiger 15. The Central defense shut down the drive there, taking over on downs.

The Tigers ran seven plays, including a fourth-and-one quarterback sneak by Williams, before punting from the 26.

Taking over at the West Carroll 42, War Eagle P.J. Odom ran for a first down. Fuller spiked the ball to stop the clock with 7.3 seconds left, then threw incomplete with less than a second on the clock. He aired it out for the last play, but it was picked off by Mebane and the half ended with West Carroll leading 9-6.

Central received the second-half kickoff and started at the Tiger 37. Conner Gaia took over at quarterback and made good on his first snap, keeping it for a 63-yard touchdown. Gaia tossed to Cameron Hudson for the two-point conversion, and the Tigers took a 14-9 lead just 23 seconds into the third quarter.

A West Carroll penalty from the scoring play allowed Central to kick from the 50 for a touchback. After a delay of game penalty before the first play, the War Eagles went three-and-out. Devon Rader's punt was downed at the 50. Gaia threw incomplete, then was stopped for a loss by Brooks. On third-and-long, he kept again for 13 yards and a first down. From there, back-to-back penalties stifled the Tiger drive, culminating in an incomplete pass on fourth down.

Fuller's pass on second down was again intercepted by Mebane, who made a long return. Another flag cost the Tigers a large chunk of Mebane's return, and two more during the drive would eventually lead to a turnover on downs.

Starting at their own 29, the War Eagles got four yards on an Odom run before the third ended. Odom started the final frame with a short loss, then Fuller kept for a first down. Next, Fuller threw a screen pass to Weatherford, dropped and nearly picked up by the Tigers before bouncing out of bounds. A face mask penalty on the next play gave West Carroll a new set of downs in Central territory. Fuller threw incomplete, then Weatherford ran three times for a first down. Two plays later, Fuller kept for a long run down to the ten. He ran it in on first-and-goal, but a penalty negated the score. Weatherford made a short gain, then Fuller threw incomplete. On third-and-goal from the 14, Fuller made it to the 3. On fourth down, he leapt over the pile for the touchdown. Weatherford took it in for two points, and the War Eagles took a 17-14 lead with five and a half minutes to play in the contest.

A short West Carroll kick gave Central the ball at midfield. A pass interference call moved the ball 15 yards, then Gaia completed to Mebane for another ten. On first-and-ten at the 25, Brooks broke into the backfield and sacked Gaia for a loss of ten. The quarterback then threw incomplete and kept for five to bring up fourth-and-long. His pass was picked off by a leaping Fuller near the goal line. Fuller came down in the end zone with two Tigers wrapping him up. He narrowly avoided a safety, stretching just enough get the ball beyond the goal line.

Taking over at the 2, West Carroll earned some breathing room by inciting a Central offside penalty. Fuller lost four on first down, and Odom gained just a yard on second. A delay of game put the War Eagles dangerously back at the 2, and a high snap was recovered by Fuller in the end zone, but he was swarmed by Tiger defenders for a safety. With 1:25 on the clock, Central cut the deficit to 17-16 and forced a West Carroll kickoff from the 20.

Starting at the War Eagle 36, Gaia was stopped for a loss by Zach Perry, then Crocker broke up two consecutive pass attempts. On fourth-and-long with just under a minute remaining, Armoni Bonds made the stop on Gaia to give West Carroll the ball on downs.

Fuller took a knee, and the War Eagles celebrated a win to start the season.

West Carroll travels to McKenzie Friday to face the Rebels. Kickoff is 7:30 p.m. The Tigers travel to Greenfield with a 7 p.m. kickoff.

MATTER OF RECORD

McKenzie Police Reports

Child Neglect/Child Abuse/Drug-Related Offenses — A McKenzie woman was arrested and charged with child neglect and child abuse along with multiple drug-related offenses as a result of two separate incidents in less than 24 hours last week. McKenzie police responded to a report of harassing messages at the trailer park on Forrest Circle, Sunday night, August 12.

According to a report filed by Officer Cody Coleman, Ashley Victor of McKenzie contacted police in regards to harassing messages from Ariel Sage, also of McKenzie along with her boyfriend, Jeremy Russell. Officer Coleman along with Sgt. Trey Boucher, and Officer Mark Boaz spoke with Victor and her boyfriend, Jeremiah Vance and saw the messages that had been sent to them. Victor told the officers she had been watching Sage's three children and that she hadn't been home in two days and needed Sage to come home and take care of her children. Ms. Sage sent Victor messages that were aggressive in nature. Mr. Vance attempted to intervene in the messages and Sage's boyfriend, Jeremy Russell began arguing with Vance.

While the officers were speaking to Victor, one of the minor children approached the officers and stated that her mother had drugs inside of their apartment. Officers advised the minor that they could not go into the residence without a warrant. The minor proceeded to tell officers that it was in a box with a lock on it and she knew the password. The officers told her they still couldn't go in the residence.

While discussion was continuing, the minor came back with the box and unlocked it for the officers. Several items were found in the box including 17 grams of a green plant substance believed to be marijuana, two glass smoking pipes, one metal smoking pipe, digital scales, and a grinder with a small amount of what was believed to be marijuana in it.

After searching the box, Miss Victor received a message from Sage stating that she was on her way back to the residence. Sage and Russell did arrive and Officer Coleman questioned her about the box and the contents. Sage admitted the box and contents were hers. She was placed under arrest and charged with Possession of a Schedule VI with Intent, Possession of Drug Paraphenalia, and three counts of Child Neglect. She was placed under $3,000 bond.

DCS was contacted and they advised the mother had already bonded out and the children would have to be returned at this time but they would send someone to the residence the next morning.

Shortly after 11 a.m., Monday, August 13, McKenzie Police received a disturbance call at the same address as the previous night. This time Officer Kyle Beauchamp responded to the call and as he drove up observed Ms. Sage holding the wrists of a minor child tight enough they appeared to be turning purple according to the report filed by Beauchamp. Sage was seen dragging the bare-footed minor through gravel. The minor's wrists had visible bruising on them and she complained of severe wrist pain for several minutes after the two were separated. The minor was transported and treated at McKenzie Hospital ER. Sage was arrested for Child Abuse and taken to Carroll County Jail. DCS came and took the victim and two other minors from the home due to this being the second report in less than 24 hours.

Assault — Friday night, August 17, Adam Stockard, of McKenzie, reported to police that he had been assaulted in the street near his home on Florida Court.

According to a report from Officer Kyle Beauchamp, Stockard wrote a written statement that he walked up to Little General to get a drink for his girlfriend. On the way back, he was confronted by Michael Cunningham, of McKenzie, and a couple of his friends. According to Stockard's statement, one of Cunningham's friends asked him for a cigarette and he replied he didn't have one and kept on walking. Cunningham got verbally abusive at this point and shoved him into a mud puddle.

Beauchamp explained the process to be followed in a case like this. Stockard stated he did not wish to press charges against Cunningham as long as he and his family leave him alone.

Theft — On Saturday, August 18, Officers Kyle Beauchamp and Ryan White were conducting an investigation into stolen lawn mower parts from 46 Florida Court. According to his report, Beauchamp observed several shopping carts behind the residence at 40 Florida Court. After looking into the values of the carts found from Dollar General, E.W. James, and Sav-A-Lot. He then spoke to the resident who admitted to taking the carts. Adam Stockard of McKenzie was cited into General Sessions Court for 3 counts of theft under 1,000.

Attempted Theft — Rebecca Jones reported to police on Monday afternoon, August 13, that someone attempted to take a 2009 Husqvarna mower from her residence on Stonewall Street sometime during the day. She told police she left for work around 7:45 a.m. and returned home shortly before 3:30 p.m. to find the mower had been dragged across concrete. The matter remains under investigation.

Theft — Kathryen Allen of McKenzie reported to police Monday evening August 13, that someone took a 2013 yellow/white 50" Cub Cadet riding mower from her carport at 149 Oaklawn Street. According to the report filed, the mower was last seen the previous day before noon.

Theft/Burglary — Ms. Mikaela Adkins reported that her vehicle had been vandalized during what she suspects was an attempted burglary of her vehicle. According to the report filed by Kyle Beauchamp, Adkins had difficulty with her door at Pocket's gas station when her vehicle would not unlock after coming out of the store. She observed damage to the keyhole on her driver side door lock. She stated she is not sure when or where the vandalism occurred.

Theft — Teri Boden of McKenzie reported to McKenzie Police Tuesday, August 14, that she had newly prescribed medication taken from her sister's car. According to the report, Boden searched her house and failed to turn up the medicine. Police spoke to her sister who also failed to find the medication in her car.

Theft — A gas drive-off occurred at Pocket's early Sunday morning, August 19. According to the report filed by Officer Kyle Beauchamp, the attendant reported to McKenzie Police that a maroon 4-door car with three to four black males pulled up to pump 4. One of the males got out to pump gas, another male came into the store to look around the store. After a few minutes, he came to the register wanting to prepay $15 dollars on the gas. The attendant told him that over $30 dollars had already been pumped. The male went back outside and told the other male who came in and argued for a minute. The attendant explained how the pump worked and then all the males jumped in the car and sped towards Huntingdon.

Simple Possession/Texting While Driving — Officer Steven Scott initiated a stop on a vehicle Monday night, August 13, after observing the driver typing on a phone as they drove past the patrol car. According to his report, Scott smelled what he believed to be marijuana while he was questioning the driver, Anna Lee of McKenzie, Lee stated she had a previous passenger who had been smoking marijuana but she had not smoked any and there was none in the vehicle. A search of the vehicle and approximately 5.9 grams of a green leafy substance thought to be marijuana was found. Lee was cited into General Sessions Court for Simple Possession of a Schedule VI drug and Texting while Driving.

Vandalism — Mr. George Howton of McKenzie reported Tuesday morning, August 14, that his 2012 Nissan Rogue was vandalized sometime during the previous night at his residence on Laurel Street. According to the report from Officer Jeremiah Brooks, scratches were noticeably visible on the back and driver's side of the vehicle. The incident is still under investigation.

Vandalism — According to a report filed by Kyle Beauchamp, another vandalism was discovered on Laurel Street at the residence of Rusty and Brittany Shands. She reported on Tuesday, August 14, that 2-3 days prior someone keyed both of their vehicles in the carport. Scratches were found on a 1997 White Dodge Pickup and a 2004 Toyota Sienna minivan. Damage value is not known at this time and the incident remains under investigation.

Dogs at Large — Officer Jeremiah Brooks was dispatched to O'Reilly's Auto Parts store in reference to a dog jumping on a vehicle. Mr. Patrick Chowbay of Nashville reported that a dog jumped on his car after he unwrapped a burger. The dog's owner, Mr. Robert Parnell, stated he had a hold of the dog but lost his grip. Parnell offered to fix the damage which was a couple of scratches over the driver side door. Chowbay refused and wanted a body shop estimate. Parnell was cited into General Sessions Court for Dog at Large.

Driving on Suspended/Revoked License — Officer Steven Scott stopped a vehicle early Saturday morning after observing a headlight not working properly and license plate violation. The driver, Netisha Gordon, of McKenzie stated she did not have a license. A check confirmed the license was suspended in 2015 for failure to appear in court. She also had a prior suspended license violation in Madison County. Gordon was charged with driving on a suspended license third offense.

Driving on Suspended/Revoked License — A 911 call on Thursday afternoon, August 16, alerted McKenzie Police to a possible reckless driver inbound on Hwy 79 from Trezevent. Officer Billy King intercepted the vehicle on Cedar Avenue and made the stop on University Drive. The driver, Trina Thompson of Memphis, was found to be have multiple prior offenses of driving on a suspended license and was arrested for driving on a suspended license fourth offense. Investigation into her driving record revealed new information and this would be her first offense with all documents reflecting the same.

Driving on Suspended/Revoked License — Officer Billy King responded to a dispute call in the parking lot of Save-A-Lot last Sunday August 12. According to King's report, he spoke with the driver, Tamera Hollowell, who stated she made a traffic error that almost caused an accident. A routine status check of her license revealed she was currently suspended for failure to appear in city court here in McKenzie. She was cited into General Sessions Court for driving on a suspended license first offense.

MATTER OF RECORD • GENERAL

Carroll County Sheriff Reports

Public Intoxication — A Bruceton man was arrested August 15.

Deputy Ethan Parham charged Robert Alan Reed, 37, of 107 Butler Speed Way with public intoxication. According to Parham's report, deputies responded to a hang up 911 call. Dispatch reported that a woman could be heard screaming in the background. When deputies arrived, they found Reed, who was yelling and cursing. When deputies tried to place him under arrest, he became aggressive and advanced on deputies, who then tased him.

Drug Paraphernalia — A Selmer woman was cited into court August 13.

Deputy Christopher Adams charged Megan Winnona Blacklance, with possession of drug paraphernalia. According to Adams' report, deputies received reports of a walker on Highway 22 who was stumbling into the road. When deputies made contact with Blacklance, they found two needles in her possession.

Public Intoxication — A Milan man was arrested August 11.

Deputy Michael Krause charged Jeffery Devon Webb, 40, with public intoxication. According to Krause's report, deputies received a report that Webb had assaulted a woman, who then left him at a gas station. Deputies located Webb walking down the road, clearly intoxicated.

Aggravated Assault — A Cedar Grove man was arrested July 30.

Deputy Michael Mulligan charged Randy Howard Collins, 36, of 7942 Highway 424 with aggravated assault and vandalism. According to Mulligan's report, officers responded to a residence on Patsy Lane in Cedar Grove in reference to an assault. When deputies arrived, they found Collins and David Bradley. Bradley said Collins had threatened him and his girlfriend. Bradley said that when he got into his car, Collins got in the passenger side and stabbed him twice with a t-post. Bradly received 22 stitches in his right hand and six stitches in his chest. During the attack, the t-post caused some damage to the interior of the vehicle.

Multiple Charges — Two men were arrested August 11.

Deputy Eric Sawyers charged Hamilton Wesley Ellis, 37, and Tyler O'Connor with assault. Sawyers reported that Ellis called 911 and claimed he was being held against his will in a Honda Accord. Deputies arrived to the area Ellis was reported to be in and found a vehicle matching the vehicle description. When deputies approached the vehicle, it sped off toward another vehicle, which was a white SUV. O'Connor got out of the Honda and struck the SUV with a club. O'Connor and his passenger, Kaylie Hurley, were taken into custody. Hurley had an outstanding warrant out of Gibson County. Hurley told deputies Ellis had assaulted her by hitting her and putting her in a choke hold. Ellis said Hurley was his ex-girlfriend and he was meeting her to exchange some of their things. He said he told 911 that he was being held against his will because he was concerned about what would happen when he met Hurley and O'Connor. Ellis was additionally charged with filing a false report.

Inglenook Book Club

The Inglenook Book Club held its August meeting at Lakeside Senior Living Center with Geneva Johnson and Shelia Rogers serving as hostesses.

During the business portion of the meeting, Zia Locke, who serves on the library board, reported on her meeting with McKenzie Memorial Librarian Jean Alexander concerning the proposal for the club to donate funds and where these funds could best be used. The library currently needs money in many different areas, such as general operating funds and building repairs. State funding has been cut drastically, as well as monetary donations from various service clubs in the area. Much discussion was devoted to the need for community support and the vital service the library provides to the community, not only in stocking a wide assortment of books and DVDs, but also in making available its several computers, which are constantly in use by the general public.

The donation amount was increased at this meeting by unanimous decision and will be made pending additional input from Ms. Alexander on where the money will be most beneficial.

Our program presenter was Geneva Johnson, whose subject was Doris Freeman of Jackson, Tennessee, better known as "Cousin Tuny." Her children's show (1955-1967) was very popular on the WDXI television station in Jackson which later became WBBJ. It could be said that she had two personalities: Doris Freeman, the professional, and Cousin Tuny, the entertainer. Minnie Pearl was a close friend of hers, and she became a legend and an icon for the Mid-South.

Doris Freeman was born in 1925 in Jackson, Tennessee, to Felix Matthew Branch and Mattie W. Branch. Felix Branch was a tap-dancer in Vaudeville. After her mother died, her father remarried and they moved to Fulton, Kentucky, when Doris was 14. She started performing at age five, dancing at a hotel. She had four children and reared them as a single mother after divorcing their father, Jimmy Freeman.

Doris Freeman began her career in the '30s and created Cousin Tuny as a child-loving, adult-entertaining character who wanted to teach children five things: respect of country, love of people, healthy habits, laughter and love of God. Cousin Tuny wore a red-checkered dress with pantaloons to match and high-button shoes. She blacked-out two front teeth and painted freckles across her nose. She wore a hat with a daisy dancing around on top of a pipe-cleaner. Every show was telecast live and always began with the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. Then there would be commercials, many of which had jingles she wrote herself: for Coca-Cola, Sealtest Milk and Kelley's Foods. Cousin Tuny would interview a birthday child and a few others, then follow with either a cartoon or a Gene Autry or Roy Rogers movie.

Doris Freeman continued to be active for charities and children's benefits for many years and was a pioneer for women in radio and television. Instrumental in starting the Cerebral Palsy Center and the Exchange Club-Carl Perkins Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse, she did nearly 100 telethons raising millions of dollars.

She was not only an on-air personality for WDXI-TV but a sales executive for WDXI Radio. Freeman was inducted into the Tennessee Radio Hall of Fame and was one of the first women to be inducted into the National Radio Hall of Fame. She managed the Old Hickory Mall, was Marketing Director for Jackson-Madison County General Hospital and was very active in the Jackson Chamber of Commerce. She served on numerous boards and was involved with many groups to make Jackson a better place, especially for those places involving children.

Doris Freeman's book, Cuz, a memoir, was published in 2003. When she turned 90 she was asked what it felt like to be 90. Her reply: "It feels good. Life is what you make it, and I try every day to tell my body that."

In 2015, she sold her home and moved to Regency Retirement Village. Doris Freeman died at age 91 in August 2016 at the Village. In 2017, the Therapy and Learning Center dedicated a Garden of Peace there in her honor. A quotation from her book, Cuz, reads: "A hundred years from now nobody will remember who I was, what I did, or how much money I had. But the world may be a little different and a little better because I was important in the life of a child."

Our September meeting will be hosted by Jean McKinnie and Donna Ward at Lakeside. Zia Locke will present the program.

The annual Southern Fried Food & Sweet Tea Festival will take place in the downtown Veterans Park on August 24 and 25.

The fundraiser dinner for Beating Hearts isThursday, September 6 at the Carroll County Civic Center in Huntingdon from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. Tickets are free but donations are appreciated.

Members present at the meeting were Peggy Chappell, Juanita Finley, Carolyn Goodwin, Suzanne Howell, Geneva Johnson, Zia Locke, Gena Manner, Shirley Martin, Jean McKinnie, Carolyn Moore, Mary Newman, Carolyn Potts, Marilynn Putman, Shelia Rogers, Genia Sherwood, Sally Sutton and Donna Ward.

The Library Lines

BY NIKKI CUNNINGHAM

The Carroll County Library is partnering with the Discovery Park of America for a LEGO® Competition! The grand prize winner will receive an annual park membership and two free passes to the upcoming special exhibition entitled Towers of Tomorrow (open January 18 through May 5, 2019). All ages are welcome to participate in this competition. There are two age divisions: Children through grade six and grade seven through adult. Nobody is too young or too old to participate!

This competition spans four months with four different themes. This month's theme is Book Character; the Library will be taking the creations to the Discovery Park on Friday, August 24, so all submissions must be made by Thursday, August 23. The Library will select two creations to submit to the Discovery Park LEGO® Competition, one from each age group.

Next month's theme is Historical Moment and must be submitted to the Library by September 20. All creations must be no bigger than 10" x 10" x 18". Both the Carroll County Library's LEGO® Club and LEGO® Club Jr. are participating in the themed competition. LEGO® Club Jr is for ages four-seven and meets Thursday, August 23 at 5 p.m.

The 2018 Carroll County Library Summer Reading Program introduced a new initiative to "Read to Help Others." With the help of all of the children in Carroll County who participated in the Summer Reading Program, as well as our local sponsors, the Library was able to donate 357 books to the Carl Perkins Center! The Library was excited as these books came in and were delivered knowing how important it is to have books in the hands of children in our area.

The National Commission on Reading states "The single most significant factor influencing a child's early educational success is an introduction to books and being read to at home prior to beginning school."

Research in Social Stratification and Mobility reports that "Having books in the home is twice as important as the father's education level," and according to the published work The Literary Crisis: False Claims, Real Solutions, "The only behavior measure that correlates significantly with reading scores is the number of books in the home."

The Carroll County Library is very proud of all of our Summer Reading Program participants for making a difference in the lives of children by "Reading to Help Others."

The Carroll County Library's Anime Club will be meeting this Friday, August 24 from 5-7 p.m. Anime Club has steadily gained members since its start in January. Anime Club is for teens ages 12-18 who are interested in Japanese animation and manga-style books. During Anime Club, the Library introduces our teens to Japanese food and culture while watching anime shows and movies.

The Library appreciates Cox Oil Company and Little General in Huntingdon for their donation to our Summer Reading Program and all of the donations to the Library made by individuals enabling us to donate books to the Carl Perkins Center.

Huntingdon Police Reports

DUI — A McKenzie man was arrested July 28.

Patrolman Cody Walker charged James H. Newbill, 55, with driving under the influence and possession of drug paraphernalia. According to Walker's report, he observed a vehicle on Veteran's Drive that was swerving on the road.

When he stopped the vehicle, he found Newbill to be the driver. Walker could smell intoxicant coming from Newbill, who said he had been drinking earlier.

When Newbill was instructed to perform sobriety tests, he said he couldn't do them. A cup with alcohol in it was found in the center console of the vehicle. Newbill also had a pipe in his pocket and admitted to smoking marijuana earlier that day.
