Henry County Chamber Names McLeese Executive Director

PARIS — The Paris- Henry County Chamber of Commerce named Paris native Travis McLeese as the new executive director. He will assume his new position on December 1.

“The Executive Committee and the entire Board of Directors are thrilled Travis has accepted the position as executive director,” said Kevin Buie, president of the Paris-Henry County Chamber of Commerce. “We are very fortunate to have Travis on board. With his experience and his energy, we believe Travis will grow the Chamber and help us to expand the opportunities we provide our membership to nurture and grow their businesses. We couldn’t ask for a more qualified individual to help us lead this charge. We are expecting great things from Travis.”

McLeese comes to the Chamber from Bethel University in McKenzie. He served as associate director for the University’s Renaissance program for several years, overseeing all administrative responsibilities.

“Bethel is a special place to my family,” McLeese added. “It is where I graduated, met my wife, made lifelong friends, and began my professional career. I hope to find more ways to connect our community with not only Bethel, but also the surrounding educational institutions.”

A graduate of Bethel University, McLeese holds a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration. While studying at the University, he worked to bring the University and Henry County together for mutually beneficial projects. A “Go Green” entrepreneurial endeavor involving Lakewood Elementary School and Henry County, gave Sheriff Monte Belew the opportunity to teach students and inmates elements of the agricultural process. As a result of the project’s success in a national competition, the group was able to purchase a greenhouse for the Henry County Sheriff’s Department allowing Belew to offer more opportunities for the community.

McLeese serves on the Executive Board of the Downtown Paris Association. He is involved in the Christmas parade, Eye Full of Paris Weekend, the Downtown Ice Cream Social and Antique Car Show Fundraiser and the Brew, Blues, and BBQ Fundraiser.

“I have always been blessed to find myself surrounded by inspiring individuals,” said McLeese. “Through them I have learned integrity, developed a strong work ethic, and sharpened my focus. I look forward to rolling up my sleeves and getting to work at the Chamber.”

While in high school, McLeese helped create Youth for the Arts, an organization under the umbrella of the Paris-Henry County Arts Council. The organization has raised and awarded more than $50,000 to students and teachers to support their artistic endeavors. In 2008, he received the Governor’s Star Award for Community Service acknowledging his work with the Youth for the Arts Program. That same year he was awarded a Loyal Patriot Award.

Travis is married to Jessica Montoya McLeese, who serves as the chorus director at Inman Middle School. The couple has two children.

Huntingdon Approves Tiny Houses

HUNTINGDON (November 14) — Tiny Houses, a principal residence of fewer than 900 square feet of heated living space, was approved for the Town of Huntingdon on the first of two readings on November 14.

The Huntingdon Mayor and Council approved the small homes, many times fashioned from storage sheds, in the R-2 districts. The houses must have a general appearance as a site-built house, with a pitched roof, two-inch vertical rise for each 12 inches of horizontal run, and cannot exceed one story in height.

A resolution to also ask Congress to preserve the tax-exemption of private activity bonds to eliminate double taxation on the refunding of public bonds, should the city seek to refinance at a lower rate. It also asks Congress to preserve the state and local tax deductibility for local taxpayers. The resolution reads the elimination of the deduction represents double taxation on individuals.

The resolution also asks Congress to preserve the New Markets Tax Credit and Historic Tax Credit when no similar tool is available in the private market.

The town applied for a $5,000 public safety grant for the Huntingdon Police Department from the State of Tennessee.

Public Works Director Randy Crossett was given permission to sell old, non-functioning water meters. Crossett asked to sell the items as scrap metal.

Fred’s Store on High Street was granted permission to sell package beer of less than five percent alcohol content.

Carroll County Guitar Men Perform at Park Theatre

Courtesy of Gina Rainey

The City of McKenzie presented “The History of Carroll County Guitar Men” at the Park Theatre on Tuesday, November 14, at 6 p.m. This moderated forum showcased several of Carroll County’s well known musicians performing their favorite songs, while recounting numerous interesting and hilarious incidents from the past.

The audience was entertained by artists Carl Byars, Steve Bomar, Hollis Mayo, Glynn Mebane, and Jimmy Padgett. Randy Delaney played drums, while Gaylon Biggs performed his expertise as Soundman to selections including “My Girl,” “Kansas City,” “Bring It on Home,” “Under the Boardwalk,” and “Johnny B. Goode.”

Moderator Chris Edlin had the crowd involved during a time for questions from the audience for the performers. One of the evening’s highlights took place when guitarist Jimmy Padgett (The Oxfords) recalled his previous band’s continued “bad luck” playing gigs in McNairy County, including a run-in with Sheriff Buford Pusser. At the conclusion of the program, the audience gave a standing ovation for the performance.

Car Overturns in Front of University

On Monday, November 13, first responders were summoned to the intersection of Cherry Street and University Drive in McKenzie where a single car was flipped on its side and was blocking traffic.

According to a report by McKenzie Police Department, Riley Ford, 17 was the driver of the Nissan sedan when she over-corrected and exited the roadway, overturning in the side ditch.

McKenzie Fire/Rescue, McKenzie EMS, and McKenzie Police Department responded to the afternoon accident. The vehicle was stabilized and emergency responders safely lifted Ford from the vehicle. She was transported via ambulance to the hospital.

grocery stores. The slogan was pay cash, carry your own, and pocket the difference.

King served as sales and advertising manager while Everett did most of the buying. King also served as mayor of McKenzie. Additional family members became partners in later years.

Adolph Chandler King was the son of Glenn King. He and wife, Sybil, a former Miss Tennessee, were the owners of Southern Biological. Chandler and Sybil were at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. The company provided biological supplies and specimens for scientific research to schools and labs. Southern Biological was the successor occupant of the Euclid Avenue building.

Paris Landing State Park is an 841-acre park located on the western shore of the Tennessee River, which is dammed to form Kentucky Lake (160,000 acres).

The park sits on the widest part of the lake making it the perfect location for all water sports such as fishing, boating, swimming and waterskiing. On land, there are plenty of activities including golfing, hiking, camping or just relaxing and enjoying the natural beauty and wildlife.

With the Friday announcement, the transportation corridor between Paris/Henry County and Hazel Kentucky will be greatly improved.

The $26 million, 2.7-mile project includes SR 54 (US 641) from two lanes to five lanes from near Rison Street to Smith Road. This project also includes a curb and gutter section throughout most of the nearly three miles. The project is scheduled to be completed in November 2020.

"Providing more capacity along this corridor will improve safety and mobility in the immediate area," Deputy Governor Henry said. "It will also help the connectivity between Tennessee and Kentucky, which benefits the entire region."

The IMPROVE Act will fund the 10.9 miles from Smith Road to the Kentucky State Line. This project, and others for Henry County, can be found here: <https://www.tdot.tn.gov/projectneeds/spot/#/>

State Representative Tim Wirgau and State Senator John Stevens both voted for the IMPROVE Act, which provided more funding for state and local transportation projects while lowering the sales taxes on groceries and lowering franchise and excise taxes on Tennessee corporation. Both were honored for their support of the IMPROVE Act during the Friday event, held in front of the Henry County Heritage Center.

"With the additional funds from the IMPROVE Act, we were able to move forward with these improvements," Commissioner Schroer added. "This is just the first in a series of improvement projects along this corridor."

Jim Henry, deputy governor, said improved transportation corridors has been a key factor for the state's growth since Ned McWherter was governor. Henry said Tennessee is a "pay as you go" state, in which road construction and maintenance is paid with existing revenues and not borrowed. "Good roads help rural communities," said Henry.

Senator Stevens said, "Good roads means good jobs." He said he appreciated the chance to support the legislation to improve the roads and to provide local contractors, J.R. Hayes Construction Company, with the opportunity to build roads at home.

State Representative Tim Wirgau said the results of good roads belongs to the citizens. "It is your taxpayer dollars," said Wirgau, who added the improved corridors are important for northwest Tennessee.

Paris Mayor Carton Gerrill said he is happy to see the improved roads and the local men who will be building those.

Henry County Mayor Brent Greer said the construction is the culmination of more than 20 years of work trying to get improved road projects, including the 641 Bypass and now the improved 641 to the Kentucky line. The roads will make a great difference in the community.

people will be employed with the company.

The local plant is one of the most modern in the world after a $240 million expansion, named Quantum Leap, approximately 20 years ago.

The company plans to invest $110 million over the next years with an addition to the facility and additional equipment.

Republic Builders Products in

McKenzie announced a $4.5 million investment that will create 70 new jobs over the next five years.

Huntingdon Mayor Kelley, said, "We've lost so many jobs over the years when we were heavily involved in the garment industry, and when those jobs left, it left a big hole in our community."

Over the past 10 years, the county has lost major manufacturers Nestaway, Precision Porous Pipe, Dana, Vynall, New Generations Furniture, Mars Pet Food — all in McKenzie, and Behlen and Bill Sills in Huntingdon.

In the early 2000s, the county lost HIS, American Lantern, Murray Outdoor Products, and Gaines Manufacturing.

Remaining major manufacturers are: Cutting Specialist, Inc., Republic Builders, Profile Metals, Tower Support, McKenzie Valve and Machining — all in McKenzie, and Preferred Compounding and Granges in Huntingdon. Campbell Arms Manufacturing of McKenzie plans to begin production in early 2018 and eventually have a workforce of 50.

operator as a regular employee.

The mayor introduced the board to Danny Connell of Cedar Grove, who has all but one of the necessary licenses for the position. The town could hire Connell full-time, and he could be trained to run the plant and earn the final certification.

Mayor Mitchell said that Connell was "highly recommended" and noted that, while the town's costs would be similar during his training, the full-time option would eventually cost much less. He was also concerned that the contractor could, and likely would, increase his fees on the next contract.

Each of the aldermen and then the mayor expressed support for hiring Connell at the beginning of the new year, and the mayor stated his intention to do so.

The board also approved employee Christmas bonuses equal to the previous year, $100 for full-time employees and $50 for part-time workers.

Police Chief Mike Mulligan addressed the officials on two separate issues. First, he relayed that the manager of Little General inquired about the city code involving the age requirement for the sale of beer. The current code requires that one be 21 or older to sell beer, but state law now allows anyone over 18 to sell to valid buyers so long as they receive the required training. Town Attorney Charles Trotter noted that the city code was likely "unenforceable."

Vice Mayor Bobby Blaylock made a motion to change the local code to match the state. Before the roll call vote, Mayor Mitchell expressed his concern that the loosened regulation could lead to a minor selling illegally. He was further worried by the apparent lack of safeguards to ensure compliance.

Trotter suggested that the entire code be updated after the issue could be studied more thoroughly, and Blaylock withdrew his motion.

Chief Mulligan also asked the board to make a previously-approved raise for Officer Lorrie Mulligan retroactive to July 1. Board members expressed that they were under the impression that that is what they had originally done, unanimously voting to correct the oversight.

Alderman Michael Ridgeley floated the idea of pursuing land for senior housing through Housing and Urban Development, lamenting that there was no such housing in Carroll County. Aldermen was tentatively open to the idea, but wanted much more information before discussing the notion further.

Alderman Pam Bryant announced that "Breakfast with Elsa" would be Saturday, December 2 from 9-11 a.m. in the community center. Tickets can be acquired at Trezevant City Hall, West Carroll Elementary School or West Carroll Primary School (in McLemoresville) by donating an new, unopened toy worth $7-10 no later than Tuesday, November 28. Tickets for accompanying adults are $3. The toys will be given to the Carl Perkins Center.

Bryant also offered a reminder that the Christmas parade would be Monday, December 11 at 7 p.m., with lineup at 6 p.m. The scheduled rainout date is Thursday, December 14.

The Christmas dinner for the board, town employees and the fire department is Thursday, December 7 at 6 p.m. at the community center.

The meeting adjourned after just over an hour.

Humane Society Banquet Raises Record $23,316

BY BRAD SAM

brad@mckenziebanner.com

McKENZIE (November 11) — Hundreds of animals will see a higher quality of life thanks to the hard work and dedication of the Carroll County Humane Society and the generosity of its supporters.

Saturday's annual banquet and silent auction, held at First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, raised a record $23,316, which will go directly to a plethora of programs, services and daily operations administered by CCHS.

The event, which features dinner and dessert, a silent auction, a live auction, and a video presentation, drew approximately 130 guests. The silent auction included hundreds of items.

After an hour of browsing, bidding and fellowship, banquet chairperson Dr. Sarah Kidd welcomed all and Patti Hill delivered the blessing.

The dinner was provided by Keisha Hill and Church Street Catering of Waverly. The pet-themed desserts, provided by Patti Hill, included "Pick of the Litter Pumpkin Rolls," "Fido's Fruit Salad," "German Shepherd Chocolate Cake," "Spic and Spaniel Strawberry Shortcake," "Poochie's Peach Cobbler," "Collar-less Coconut Cake," "Canine Carrot Whoopie Pies," "Appaloosa Fresh Apple Cake" and "Shep's Strawberry Mini Loaves."

Following the delicious meal and desserts, Dr. Kidd thanked the church, organizers, donors and sponsors. She introduced the new board members, then thanked shelter volunteers. She thanked kennel manager Cindy Hess, who is also McKenzie's animal control officer, and assistant kennel manager Levi Stewart.

Of Hess, Dr. Kidd told those in attendance who were citizens of McKenzie, including Mayor Jill Holland, that they were lucky to have her, saying, "You don't know how much she does with very little."

Kidd then introduced the

Next, Kidd spoke again, noting that the humane society had also racked up expenses in the amount of $138,179 this year. The shelter and foster homes have taken in more than 900 animals in 2017.

She implored those present to assist with some specific tasks if able. Each Tuesday morning, dogs are transported to Jackson, and each Monday, CCHS is required to clean cat kennels at PetSmart in Jackson, where some of the shelter's cats are available for adoption.

Dr. Kidd then led the live auction. First, a "Wicked Weekend" package, including two tickets to the Broadway hit in Nashville in March and a one-night hotel stay. Kidd won the item herself with a bid of $1,850. That money will be dedicated to the low-cost spay and neuter program for cats. Kidd noted that thus far this year, the program has altered 1,200 cats.

Next, a barrel and tray for the Jack Daniels Distillery was auctioned in memory of Donald Hill for the low-cost spay and neuter program for dogs. The barrel and tray were won by Keisha and Patti Hill for $500 and $350, respectively. Dr. Jill Edwards graciously matched the $350 bid for the tray.

A pair of Annette Funicello teddy bears, donated by Lisa Langford and Kenny Stafford to benefit the Billy Gene Stafford Memorial Heartworm Treatment fund, was won by Troyce Taylor for $400. Langford matched the bid.

"Shades of O'Hail," a painting by shelter dog O'Hail, was auctioned, and Dr. Kidd again offered the high bid, $150. Those funds also went to the heartworm fund.

Another piece of art, "Catnip Pollock," featured the work of Batman, Sadie, Dixie and Ripley and was won by Susan Parsons for $125, set aside to purchase Advantage treatments for cats.

Guests then made a mad dash for final bids on silent auction items, and bidders trickled out with their treasures.

The Carroll County Humane Society is a No-Kill Animal Shelter and will not euthanize to make space, nor will they limit the amount of time an animal can stay. A 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, CCHS funding comes entirely from private contributions, bequests, fundraising and grants. The organization cares for approximately 250 animals at one time in the shelter and in foster homes. Its goal is to utilize adoption and spay/neuter as the community's animal population control - not euthanasia. CCHS volunteers hope to ensure that all companion animals have a warm, safe, loving home and to assist and educate the public about proper pet care, while also giving shelter to abused animals and assisting law enforcement to prosecute their abusers.

Paris Rotary Donates Boxing Ring

PARIS (November 11) — Thanks to a District Rotary grant plus matching funds from the Paris Rotary, The Paris Downtown Boxing Association now has a new competition size twenty-foot boxing ring. The ring was unveiled at the first tournament of the year on Saturday night. The Boxing Association was opened in 2010 to teach children of Paris a unique sport while keeping them off of the streets. It offers an opportunity for many children who cannot afford a team or school sport. The gym supplies all of the equipment and travel expenses. They also help the participants with school supplies, shoes, winter coats, and doctor appointments. Their motto is "the gym does not begin or end at the front door." On average fifteen boxers aged eight and older train at the gym Monday through Thursday and participate in weekend tournaments across the region.

Prior to the new ring, participants practiced in a non-standard boxing ring. A ring had to be rented for $1,000 per use when the Paris Boxing Association hosted tournaments. The skirt that surrounds the ring features the Rotary motto of "Service Above and Self" and the Rotary logo. According to Coach Moon, the acquisition of the ring is a dream come true for a program that started with a punching bag hanging from a tree in his back yard.

The Dixie Partners with Purdue University

HUNTINGDON — Tuesday, November 7, The Dixie Carter Performing Arts and Academic Enrichment Center presented Enchantment Theatre Company's My Father's Dragon. The Dixie was one of 16 theatres to partner with Purdue University in a research study. Dr. Amanda Mayes, manager of Education at Purdue Convocations, developed the study to examine the impact of a live performance of My Father's Dragon on the literacy skills of some of the youngest theatre patrons. Because this type of research is minimal in the field, the participation of arts presenting organizations like The Dixie was critical to ensuring sufficient student participation. The study has grown to include over 10,000 elementary students at 116 different schools. 121 students from Huntingdon Primary School and 215 students from Huntingdon Middle School participated in the study taking tests before and after watching the performance. Each participant received a copy of the book. Additionally, over 700 children total attended the performances. My Father's Dragon is Enchantment Theatre Company's adaptation of the author Ruth Stiles Gannett's series of classic children's novels. Using life-sized puppets, expressive masks, inventive staging, and original music, they took students on a visionary adventure that features flying dragons, talking animals, buried treasure and so much more. Enchantment Theatre brought to vivid life a story that has been honored by Newbery and the American Library Association and named among the top 100 books for children by the School Library Journal. Southern Chiropractic and Acupuncture was the sponsor for the two performances at The Dixie. As a part of their sponsorship, each school in attendance received a copy of the book My Father's Dragon for their library. "It was such a great experience to sponsor My Father's Dragon! From my time at Purdue, I know how far reaching the outcomes of their research can be and I feel blessed to be able to give back to Purdue in such a unique way. Being able to witness how the Dixie PAC impacts students in our community was a great joy and something Southern Chiropractic & Acupuncture is proud to support" – Dr. Krista Martin, Purdue University Alumni and show sponsor. The Dixie is hosting six School Time Performances this season including My Father's Dragon, Pete the Cat, Doktor Kaboom! Live Wire! Electricity Tour, Charlotte's Web, Goodnight Moon & Runaway Bunny and Gruffalo. For tickets please call The Dixie Box Office at (731)986-2100.

HUNKER DOWN WITH KES

Angels Flying Close To The Ground

Linda Wood reminded us at church Sunday to count our blessings this Thanksgiving season. Mom and Dad came immediately to mind. Then I thought, "Too easy." For me, that was a built in blessing. Like being born in the USA, having a sound body and good sense most of the time; or grandparents that made you feel like you were the most important little boy in the whole world! Linda encouraged us to write these blessings down. I'm not too good at things like that. Plus, I had an older brother. He could confuse your blessing meter in a West Tennessee heartbeat! One minute he'd be Joe Louis boxing Jersey Joe Wolcott for the Heavyweight Championship of the World—I had to be Wolcott, of course—the next minute he'd be patiently showing me how to grip a baseball across the seams so it wouldn't slide "up the line" every time I threw to first base. When I complained about the boxing matches years later Leon told me he was only toughening me up a mite for my high school football days. So I reckon some blessings can come at you through the back door: I do know he drove 90 miles an hour across parts of two states every Friday to see me play. He was by far my biggest supporter. Boyhood friendships are special. We played kick the can, we slid down most every hill in town on flattened out cardboard boxes. We laid on our backs and picked shapes out of the high flying clouds. We explored life together: I could write down fifty names in no time! I can still see the smiles, remember the haircuts, facial expressions and offbeat quirks that were a major part of my early upbringing. Some blessings grow on you as the years rush along. Don Simmons picked me first in a backyard choose-up-sides baseball game. There were years when I was the last guy chosen. Then I grew into a middle of the pack selection and, in another year or so, into the top third. And finally, on a fresh, clear, beautiful Saturday morning in June, Don called my name first! That might not seem like a big deal to you.....but it was a validation like no other in that long ago summer of 1959! Blessings come in all shapes, forms, fashions and colors. Aaron Bradfield was a big man, well thought of in our community and he was especially nice to me. In the eighth grade I dated his daughter. Well, I sat beside her at the church Valentine Banquet and we went to a dance once. It didn't seem to hurt my relationship with Mr. Bradfield one iota. When we "broke up" I figured he would hold it against me He actually seemed to like me better! Some blessings are surprisingly nice. My first week of college was like something you couldn't believe. I was 212 miles from home, didn't know one soul, football practice was killing me, university classes were way harder than I ever imagined..... I had never been so alone, lost, discouraged and out of sorts. No one had ever felt such desolation in the history of the known world! I'm lying there awake at 3 am, staring at the ceiling when John Stewart, my roommate, says more to himself than to me, "KC, I hate this place." A comrade-in-arms is a blessing indeed! Walter Wilder called and offered me a job. It gave me immediate employment and set the direction for my life. Cathy agreed to marry me in spite of my shortcomings. A whole town adopted us. My sons grew into healthy, happy, honorable young men. Some blessings are bigger than others. And some blessings are like that Energizer Bunny. Leon checked on me often over the years just to see if I needed anything. He loved and cared for my wife like she was his own. When my boys went to college close to where he lived, he took them in, fed them, went to their ballgames, encouraged them at every instance and saw to their every need. I let Leon die without ever thanking him. You ponder on folks like that in your life as you write down your blessings this Thanksgiving. As I look over my "list" two things leap off the page. The first is every one of these blessings entails someone loving me, looking after me or doing something special for me. The second is the only thing better than counting your blessings..... is being one! Respectfully, Kes

Area Bands Compete at State Competition

MURFREESBORO (November 4) — All four Carroll County high school marching bands traveled to Riverdale High School Saturday to compete in the 2017 Tennessee Division I State Marching Band Championship.

27 bands from across the state competed throughout the day in preliminary competition, then the top ten performed again in finals competition that night. Then, awards were presented for both rounds.

The Huntingdon High School Marching Mustangs reached the finals, earning superior ratings in guard, percussion, field commander and band. The band placed fifth in both preliminary and finals competition, and the guard placed second in preliminaries.

The McKenzie High School Marching Rebels also reached the finals with superior ratings in guard, percussion and field commander. They placed ninth in preliminaries and tenth in the finals.

The West Carroll High School Marching War Eagles did not make it to finals competition, but field commander Noah Rogers was tied for second place in preliminaries.

Carroll County Technical Students Hold Food Drive

The DECA chapter at Carroll County Technical Center recently partnered with the Carl Perkins Center to hold the seventh annual DECA Food Drive.

The theme for this year's event was "One can, two can. Who can? You can!" All of the students at CCTC worked together to collect around 1200 non-perishable food and personal care items. The number of donations doubled from last year to this year! The students at CCTC truly work hard to help because they know the donations will help people in need within the community.

Each year, the school has two competitions to help generate excitement around the Food Drive event. In the first competition, students work together to build a can structure with the donations they have collected.

This gives the classes an opportunity to use teamwork and critical thinking in a fun way.

Ms. Cara Chadwick's marketing students won the DECA Sculpture Contest for that event this year by creating a fish from the book "One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish" by Dr. Seuss.

The second competition determines which class could receive the most points for the items they brought. This year a points system was created to encourage the gifting of more beneficial items such as non-perishables, hygiene items and baby diapers to help provide quality products for those in need. There were four different class winners who were rewarded by a donut party in the morning and a pizza party in the afternoon.

DECA is an organization for marketing students to learn and compete with their peers in the areas of marketing, management and finance. The students will compete at DECA Regionals in January at Union University and

McKenzie's J&J Auto Racing Achieves A Banner Year

McKENZIE — As the 2017 racing season comes to a close, renowned Sprint Car chassis builders and McKenzie, Tenn. residents Jack and Bonnie Elam along with their dedicated fabrication team look to put an endcap on one of the J&J Auto Racing brand's best seasons. The manufacturer, which provides sprint car frames and components to racing teams in the United States, Canada, Australia and New Zealand, is on-pace to round out the season with over 10 championships and 250 victories worldwide.

The 2017 season started with a bang for J&J Auto Racing, who saw Tony Stewart/Curb-Agajanian Racing (TSR) driver and brand icon, Donny Schatz, sweep an impressive five of eight events in the Florida Speedweeks series. Schatz, who claimed his ninth World of Outlaws (WoO) Craftsman Sprint Car Series championship this year, won three of the five Arctic Cat All Star Circuit of Champions opening events at Bubba Raceway Park and Volusia Speedway in Barberville, Fla., on February 9, 10, 15 and swept a double-feature on February 19.

Schatz has been exclusive to J&J Auto Racing since 2001 and has compiled hugely impressive stats for much of the last decade. Following the completion of the 2017 regular season, Schatz had earned in WoO competition as series-high 20 victories, 66 top-five finishes and 74 top-10 finishes. He won the WoO Championship by a margin of 210 points over the second-place finisher.

On November 5, the Elams and J&J Auto Racing were again recognized as the 2017 Chassis Builder of the Year during the WoO Series banquet at the Great Wolf Lodge in Concord, North Carolina. The honor was the 11th time J&J Auto Racing has been awarded for its manufacturing innovation by the sport's top Sprint Car sanctioning body.

On July 15, Schatz and the TSR team captured their second consecutive Kings Royal title at Eldora Speedway in Rossburg, Ohio. The victory marked the first time in the sport's history that a driver had won back-to-back Kings Royal crowns. The second largest event in Sprint Car racing held annually, the Kings Royal pays $50,000 to the winner.

With the summer months underway, J&J Auto Racing saw some of its healthiest stretches of racing in July and August. Schatz's win at Eldora Speedway in July was just the start of the month of money, as August would see Schatz and fellow J&J Auto Racing driver, Clint Garner, sweep Sprint Car racing's crown jewel events at Knoxville (Iowa) Raceway in only 10 days.

Schatz has a storied past at the legendary Knoxville (Iowa) Raceway, the other a love-hate relationship with the fabled half-mile. When the checkered flag dropped on the 360 and 410 fields on August 5 and August 12, Garner and Schatz shared one thing in common — their names were now in the history books as Knoxville Nationals champions.

Garner had won many races at Knoxville Raceway, but the 360 Knoxville Nationals title had eluded him to this point in his career. Taking the lead on the opening lap of the 25-lap A-main, Garner hit lapped traffic by lap 10. The final caution flag flew on lap 13, in which Garner was able to hold off a challenge at the restart and extend his lead. The victory was Garner's 33rd triumph at Knoxville Raceway, putting him second on the all-time 360ci Sprint Car win list at the Iowa track.

Schatz's victory was his tenth career Knoxville Nationals triumph, giving him a perfect 10. The North Dakota native stayed close to early leader, David Gravel, keeping him within reach as the duo battled through early traffic. Gravel's engine expired on lap 22, with Schatz inheriting the lead. Battling through traffic and fending off challenges from Kyle Larson, Kerry Madsen and Brian Brown, Schatz pulled away from Larson following a final lap charge to cross the line solidly in front to earn his 10th Knoxville Nationals title.

In addition to sweeping the 2017 Knoxville Nationals, J&J Auto Racing teams continued to set a blistering pace of victories in late July and through the mid-part of August. Scoring 21 (total of 23) other wins in just over two weeks, J&J Auto Racing drivers and teams earned triumphs in 305ci, 360ci and 410ci sprint car racing divisions across the east coast, upper Midwest, south central region, Midwest and southern regions. Team J&J posted wins in Iowa, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Texas and Wisconsin.

Sam Hafertepe, Jr., delivered J&J Auto Racing's second national championship in early November as he won his second consecutive American Sprint Car Series (ASCS) title in as many years. The Texas native has won 16 feature events thus far in 2017, as well as earning 36 top-five finishes, 38 top-10 finishes.

Hafertepe, Jr., has delivered several high-profile wins in 2017, including a second-straight Jim Raper Memorial Dirt Cup triumph at Skagit Speedway in Alger, Wash., in June. The Texan also won a $10,000 payday at Jackson (MN) Motorplex in September to continue building one of his best career years to-date. Wrapping up his ASCS season in the same fashion as he began it, Hafertepe, Jr., kicked off his season with five straight ASCS National Series victories to tie the current record for consecutive wins.

In December, J&J Auto Racing will again take part in the Performance Racing Industry (PRI) Trade Show in Indianapolis, Ind. The largest industry trade show in the country, PRI hosts attendees, manufacturers and vendors from around the globe. J&J Auto Racing can be found at Booth #1455 from December 7 – 9 at the Indiana Convention Center in Indianapolis.

Huntingdon Playoff Run Ends with 21-20 Double-Overtime Heartbreaker at Cornersville

BY BRAD SAM

brad@mckenziebanner.com

CORNERSVILLE (November 17) — The Huntingdon Mustangs couldn't have come any closer to reaching the TSSAA Class 1A Semifinals.

A missed point-after kick here, a dropped pass there, a goal-line fumble, it truly was a game of inches. If any one of a dozen such plays had gone in Huntingdon's favor, the result would have been much different.

The game breezed by (to those not on the field), and at the half, the Mustangs trailed, 7-0. Momentum swung like a wrecking ball as Huntingdon scored 14 unanswered to start the third, but near its end, Cornersville tied it. The defenses owned the final frame of regulation, forcing overtime. Both teams failed to score in their initial possessions, but Huntingdon broke the goal line to start the second overtime. A failed PAT would doom the Mustangs as the Bulldogs answered and their kick was true.

Huntingdon won the toss and, as usual, deferred possession to the second half. A good kickoff by Mustang Tyrese Mebane was fielded inside the 10 and briefly fumbled by Bulldog Cameron Whitaker. He overcame the miscue and managed a decent return to the 35. From there, three carries netted just seven yards thanks to tackles by Devin McClerklin and Joseph Richardson, and Cornersville punted.

Starting at the far 43, Mustang quarterback Kade Pearson kept for a short gain, then the Bulldog defense jumped offside. Pearson ran twice to move the chains, then Mebane took a direct snap eight yards. Pearson ran for a yard, then for six to move the chains again. Huntingdon made a false start, then Mebane ran three times for five total yards. On fourth-and-ten, Pearson completed a pass to Mebane, but was a yard short of the first down.

Taking over at the 23, Bulldog quarterback Eli Woodard took a keeper 12 yards, then followed with another five. Next, Kolbe McMahon was stopped for no gain by Austin Avery, but Woodard answered with a 60-yard touchdown pass to McMahon. A good kick gave Cornersville a 7-0 lead with 2:37 left in the first quarter.

Mustang Daquon Robinson returned the ensuing kickoff nearly 40 yards, but a holding call set the ball back at the Huntingdon 43. Pearson took it across midfield near the first-down marker, then went another ten on the next play. He kept it again for four yards, and the next snap ended in another holding call. Pearson targeted Dallas Willis with a deep pass, but it fell incomplete. Mustang Brandon Lawton was stopped for no gain as the first frame ended. Huntingdon began the second with a punt to pin the Bulldogs at the 12.

Woodard started with a keeper for no gain, then repeated for 35 yards to near midfield. Whitaker then gained three, and Woodard came up a yard short of another first down. Trenten Warren made good on his first touch, moving the chains. McMahon ran for 14, then Woodard for seven. McMahon got just a yard before Hunter Ensley made a stop. The next snap hit the ground, and McClerklin made the tackle for a loss of five. Facing fourth-and-six from the 25, Woodard's throw to the end zone was batted away by Mebane.

Pearson kept for 14 to start the Huntingdon drive, then Robinson made a short gain. Pearson got it near the first-down marker, then Mebane moved the chains. The next snap was fumbled, but recovered by the Mustangs. Pearson gained six, then kept again for a first down. Robinson and Pearson combined for another first, then Pearson went three to put the ball in the red zone. Next, he looked to pass, but instead scrambled for a first down at the 11. The next play resulted in a brief fumble and a big loss. Pearson tossed to Elijah Wilkerson for a decent gain, but a flag set Huntingdon back. A pass to the end zone was dropped, then another penalty made it second-and-25. Two consecutive passes to the end zone were knocked away, and a third fell incomplete to turn the ball over with a minute to go in the half.

Woodard ran twice, then took a knee and headed to the locker room with a 7-0 lead.

Ensley received the second-half kickoff near the 10 and ran it back for a Huntingdon touchdown. The PAT missed, and the Mustangs still trailed, 7-6.

Cornersville started the ensuing drive at the Bulldog 42. Woodard was dropped for a loss, then took it across midfield to near the first-down marker. He repeated for a first, but was then dropped for a short loss by Clay Carver. A penalty cost the Bulldogs another five, then Ensley took down Whitaker for another loss. Woodard scrambled for six on third-and-long, and Cornersville punted into the end zone for a touchback.

Lawton made a solid gain, and Cornersville made it better with a late hit. Pearson then gained four, and Mebane took it across midfield. Pearson moved the chains with another short gain, but the next play ended in a fumble recovered by Warren.

Taking over at the Bulldog 41, Carver took Woodard down for a loss, then Mebane forced a fumble by Whitaker, recovered by Ensley.

Starting at the Cornersville 34, Pearson threw incomplete, then found Mebane for 17 yards. Pearson kept for four, then Mebane matched him. Pearson took it to the 4 for a first-and-goal, and Mebane scored. Mebane also ran it in for the two-point conversion, and Huntingdon had a 14-7 lead with 4:33 to play in the third quarter.

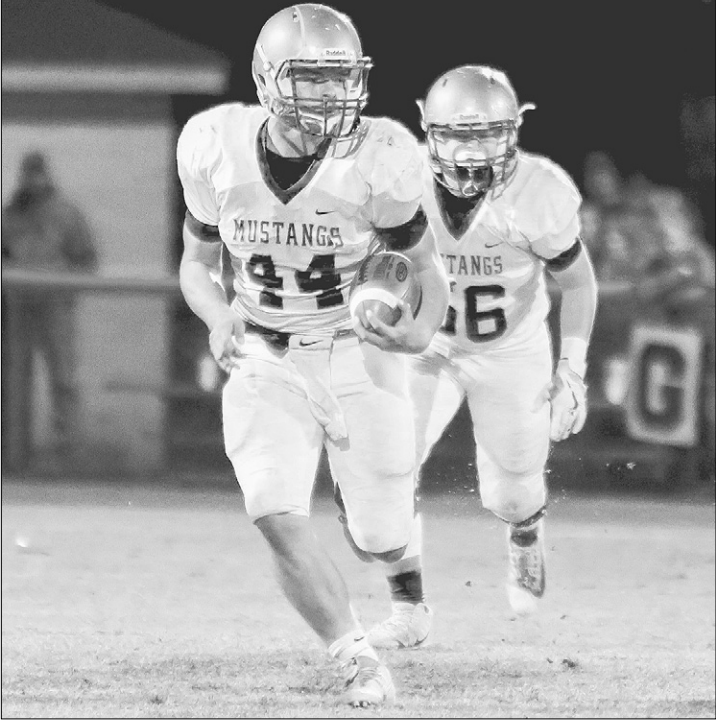

The Bulldogs began the next possession at their own 37 with McMahon losing a yard. He repeated for a bigger loss, then Woodard's pass was knocked away by Mebane. Cornersville punted to the 24.

Huntingdon quickly went three-and-out, and a good punt by Mebane was downed at the Bulldog 33. Darien Bush gained just a yard on his first carry, then Woodard found McMahon for a 66-yard touchdown. The point-after kick was good, and the score was tied at 14-14 with seven seconds left in the third.

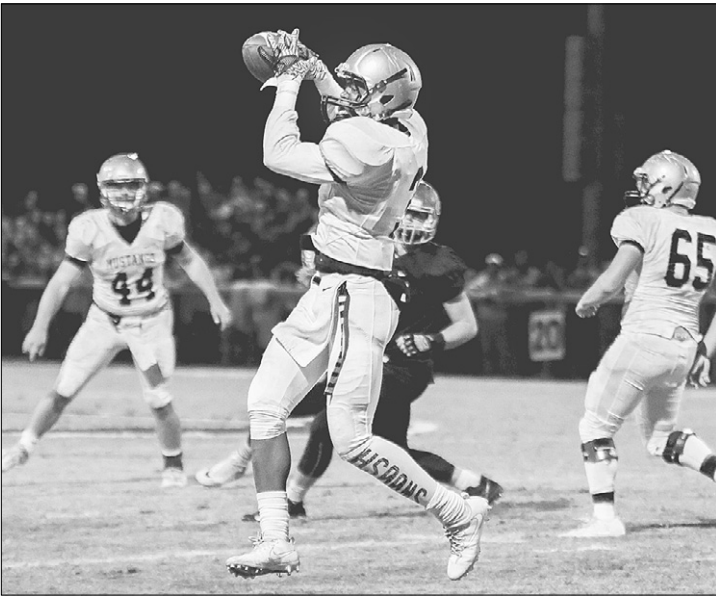

Ensley returned the ensuing kick to the 35 to end the frame, then Wilkerson ran 34 to the Cornersville 31. A holding penalty set Huntingdon back, then Pearson threw incomplete. He followed with a completion to Wilderson for ten yards, but the next throw was also incomplete for a turnover on downs.

The Huntingdon defense forced another three-and-out, and a good Cornersville punt pinned the Mustangs at their own 15.

Wilkerson gained a dozen, then Pearson gained another three. Lawton got just enough to move the chains again, and Pearson followed for five. Wilkerson took a direct snap to nearly gain a first, then Pearson pushed the pile for the fresh set of downs. Wilkerson ran for 13, then Pearson again for five. Wilkerson took his turn but met a wall at the line of scrimmage. Pearson threw incomplete twice, and the ball turned over to the Bulldogs at the Cornersville 34 with a minute and a half to play in the fourth.

A fumbled snap on first down doomed the Bulldog drive to a three-and-out. A good punt gave the Mustangs the ball at their own 34 with half a minute to play in regulation.

Pearson threw incomplete, then kept for a first down at the Huntingdon 45. He heaved a pass downfield as time expired, and a Cornersville defender made a play on the ball to force overtime.

In overtime, each team gets the ball at the 10 yard line with four downs to score. Huntingdon won the toss and gave the Bulldogs first possession. Woodard ran for two, then for another three. Whitaker was stopped for no gain, and Cornersville failed a field goal attempt from the 5.

With a chance to win, Pearson ran once for seven, then lost a yard. The next play resulted in a fumble near the 1, sending the contest to a second overtime.

Huntingdon took possession first, and Wilkerson was stopped for no gain. Then, Lawton found a gap and scored the go-ahead touchdown. The point-after was no good, and Cornersville lined up for the next possession.

Woodard ran it down to the 1, then punched it in to tie the game at 20-20. The Bulldog PAT was good, and Cornersville celebrated a 21-20 victory.

The loss ends Huntingdon's season with a 12-1 record. Cornersville will host Lake County in the semifinals.

Mustang quarterback Kade Pearson was four of 16 through the air for 52 yards. The team rushed 51 times for 268 yards, led by Pearson's 151 on 29 carries.

Cornersville had 137 yards rushing on 37 attempts and 126 yards through the air.

Overall, Huntingdon led in offensive yardage, 320-263.
