Peppers Ford Holds Grand Opening

McKENZIE (June 23) — A grand opening celebration was held Saturday at Peppers Ford, the newest dealership in the Peppers Automotive Group.

The event featured a ribbon-cutting ceremony, grilled hot dogs and burgers, a bouncy house for the kids and live music from Jackson-based band The Buzz Kings.

Clay and Brooxie Dillahunty sold Tri-County Motor Company, the lone new car dealership in Carroll County, to Doug and Mark Peppers, in January. The Peppers brothers are the owners of the Peppers Automotive Group, which also includes three dealerships in Paris: Peppers Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram, Peppers Chevy Buick GMC and Peppers Toyota.

J.W. Atkins, Sr. began his automotive business, McKenzie Motor Company on September 1, 1922 on the corner of Main and Cedar streets in what is now the location of Edwards Jones in downtown McKenzie. The dealership began selling Dodge automobiles in 1926 and added the Ford franchise in 1931.

In 1939, the dealership changed its name to Tri-County Motor Company. His son, J.W. Jr. took ownership of the business and remained until 1983, when he sold to the Dillahunty family. Clay and son Barry operated the Ford business up to the sale date of January 24.

Peppers Ford is located on Highland Drive north of McKenzie. Store hours are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday to Friday and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday. The phone number is 731-352-7925. Todd Crain is sales and finance manager at the dealership.

The grant is to repurpose the historic train depot – the original economic hub of the community with commerce during the 19th century. The building is on the National Record of Historic Places. The grant will help the facility maintain its nostalgic allure of the architecturally striking infrastructure into a thriving cultural center, visitor's information center, community center or mixed use facility.

The other half of the building is used for the city's Industrial/Economic Development Board office.

Monica Heath, executive assistant at the McKenzie Industrial Development Board, has significant plans for the new space, once it is renovated. Heath was recently appointed to serve as the city's director of festivals and Tennessee Downtowns director. In a joint effort between the self-funded McKenzie Industrial Board and the City of McKenzie, Heath was appointed to serve in that position in addition to conducting the day-to-day operations of the McKenzie Industrial Board. She will headquarter at the Depot.

base rate by $1.15 for residential and small commercial customers. The $1.15 was the lowest of three options offered including $1.60 and $2.00 monthly.

The Board also approved an increase in the wholesale rate from TVA amounting to approximately one-half of one percent impact to the local customer. It is part of TVA's cost of maintenance and buildout of its power grid. TVA is converting some of its coal-fired generation sites to natural gas.

For more information concerning the TVA rate restructure, please visit www.tvarates.com.

Also approved was the purchase of a smaller boom truck to work within the substations and to assist the maintenance crews. The smaller four-wheel drive truck, based on a Ford F550 chassis, has a 41-foot boom. Purchased was a demonstrator model with 4,000 miles and 40 hours on the power takeoff (PTO) hydraulic lift assembly. The cost from NJPA was $123,322.

Danny Brawner, manager, said the new transformer for the Clarksburg-area substation is in its final week of testing and should be delivered within weeks. With the summer demand load upon the system, the switching to the new transformer will have to be done with demand is low, possibly during a cool summer evening. During the switching, the power load will be switched to a substation in Huntingdon, which is not capable of carrying a full demand for the south end of the county during peak demand period.

Brawner announced TVA and McKenzie Industrial Board are conducting training in Economic Development 101 on July 17, 5 to 7 p.m. at the Park Theatre in downtown McKenzie. All board members are invited to attend.

Board members in attendance were: John Mann, chairman, Marty Hurley, Terry Howell and James Halford. Dr. Jerry Atkins was absent.

The Board purchased a new boom truck to supplement the larger boom trucks and work inside the perimeters of the substations.

MCKENZIE SPECIAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

Work Session Previews Tuesday's Budget Vote

BY BRAD SAM

Copyright 2018, Tri-County Pub.

McKENZIE (June 21) — The McKenzie Special School District Board of Education held a budget work session Thursday ahead of Tuesday's vote to fund Fiscal Year 2018-19.

The budget outlined by Director of Schools Lynn Watkins includes an unchanged property tax rate of $1.277 per $100 assessed property value. Tax revenues are distributed between the General Fund ($.7256) and Debt Service Fund ($.5514).

The budget includes a two percent across-the-board raise and $1,000 November bonus for all district employees.

Estimated revenues and other funds total $11,774,304: $9,411,995 to the General Purpose Fund; $814,054 to the Federal Projects Fund; $819,000 to the Central Cafeteria Fund; and $729,255 to the Debt Service Fund.

Estimated expenditures total $12,058,195: $9,550,317 from the General Purpose Fund; $814,054 from the Federal Projects Fund; $840,008 from the Central Cafeteria Fund; and $853,818 from the Debt Service Fund.

The deficit of $283,894 will come from reserve funds, leaving an estimated $2,719,465 in reserves at the end of the fiscal year.

The 2018-19 salary schedule includes a starting salary of $37,600 for a first-year teacher with a bachelor's. Each additional level of education and year of service increases the salary, with a 20-year teacher with a Doctorate earning $62,570.

Of McKenzie's 108 instructors, 36 have at least 20 years of experience, and 66 percent hold at least a Masters.

There are no proposed meal price changes for the coming year, and the cafeterias will again provide free breakfast.

The total outstanding principal and interest on the district's bonded debt is $3,446,400 with the final payment due on April 1, 2022.

Notable in the budget is the addition of nine more carts of 25 Chromebooks each to be acquired before the start of the school year.

The district will also be absorbing a yet-to-be-determined number of special education students from the Special Learning Center due to its sudden closure. Director Watkins expects that new educational costs and savings from district funds previously allocated to the SLC will amount to "a wash."

The work session lasted just over an hour. Board member Norman French was not present.

The board will vote on the FY 2018-19 budget at a meeting on Tuesday, June 26 at 5:30 p.m.

911 Board Approves 2018-19 Budget

HUNTINGDON (June 19) — Carroll County Emergency Communications District Board of Directors (911 Board) approved the 2018-19 fiscal year budget during its June 19 meeting at the new Dispatch Center on the campus of the Carroll County Sheriff's Department.

The budget indicates $412,920 in revenues, mostly from surcharges from landline and cell phones within the county. The estimated revenues in excess of expenses (known as profit in the private sector) is $4,461.

Total expenses are estimated at $408,459, as compared to $835,361 this fiscal year, when the Communications District incurred significant costs for relocating dispatch from Paris Avenue to the new Dispatch Center. The district also purchased digital mobile and portable radios for the city of McKenzie and town of Huntingdon to complete the total rollout of digital emergency two-way radios throughout the county.

One increase in expenses is a $400 per person one-time bonus in lieu of raises.

Members present were: Chairman Willie Huffman, Sheriff Andy Dickson, Danny Brawner, Janice Newman, John Mann, Roger Christian, Steve Price, and Larry Elliott, CPA John Wright, and Kristy Meggs, director.

ed. The station will be staffed 24/7 with an emergency medical technician and a paramedic, who can perform advanced life support.

Earlier this month, the Town of Bruceton approved for Carroll County EMS to add a base there. Cook said the contract is not finalized on the building location, but hopes to be ready in the near future.

The McLemoresville station will serve the West Carroll area, providing quicker responses to medical emergencies in the western area of the county. Currently, the entire county is serviced by Carroll County E.M.S. in McKenzie and Baptist E.M.S. in Huntingdon.

Carroll County EMS will soon be dispatched from the new Carroll County Dispatch Center on the campus of the Carroll County Sheriff's Department. Cook said the dispatchers are installing new computer-aided dispatch software this week and in the near future, the dispatchers will have the capability to provide enhanced dispatch services for EMS personnel.

Carroll County E.M.S. is owned by Quantum Health Corporation, just as McKenzie Regional Hospital is. Its main headquarters is beside McKenzie Regional Hospital on Hospital Drive in McKenzie.

Carroll County E.M.S. added a new state-of-the-art ambulance recently and two new ventilators last week. The new truck is a 2017 Braun Express-Plus Complete, a full aluminum welded body truck. It offers full telemetry that transmits the data of critical patients to personnel at the hospital.

Soon all four of Carroll County's E.M.S.'s ambulances will be equipped with the telemetry. Cook said he can remotely monitor the truck's location, its speed, and temperature.

Last year, from the lone base in McKenzie, the service responded to 3,338 calls, of which 1,926 were emergency dispatches. The other calls were non-emergency. The number of calls in the past three years represents a 69.8 percent increase over previous years.

The service has 31 certified personnel, including 16 full-time and 15 part-time. The staff includes six certified critical care paramedics.

I Seek Your Vote!

I, Walter Winchester, seek your vote and support in the 2018 election for Carroll County Commissioner, District 9.

HUNKER DOWN WITH KES

'Who's On First?'

My wife has devised a summer vacation plan that will have grandmothers all over America sitting up and taking notice. You will need a calculator and a calendar for today's story. And some paper to keep score on.

We are blessed with six grandchildren. And don't turn me off here, this chronicle is not about them. They are what we call in the editorial business "innocent bystanders." They range in age from twelve down to four. But that, too, is immaterial.

Cathy has determined in her heart that they can not pass the summer of 2018 without a visit to "Nonnie's" house. She has already arranged for Josh's three to come down the first week. That would include Luke and the twins, Hayden and Hannah.

Jess's children, Addison, Avery Lee and Max, are coming the following week. It made sense to me. We wouldn't even have to pick up the Lincoln logs, stable the plastic horses, take the unraveled toilet paper out from under the kitchen cabinet or roll up the Slip 'N Slide.

I knew it would mean no golf, no Longmire, not one baseball game on TV...Disney Channel and the Cartoon Network would be the order of the day. Every day...all day long! But listen, they are my grandchildren, too. And it's only two weeks.

OK, have you got your scorecards out?

Nonnie put her grandmother thinking cap on. And almost immediately was overcome by this vision of how much fun it would be if, after everyone had been down, we "recalled" the two oldest cousins to come back by themselves for a week. "You know, they hardly ever get to see each other."

She said it like there wasn't nothing else we could do!

Well, a day didn't pass before she allowed that if we had the oldest cousins down, we must invite the twins and Avery down together. "We can't leave anyone out. And wouldn't it be wonderful to have 'the younger girl cousins down together."

Well, dummy me pointed out that plan would leave Max out. Nonnie almost broke into tears. The solution, as she saw it, was abundantly clear. "After they come as families, and then by age, we will have each one down individually for a week. Think of the time we can share with each one of them. How we can hold them, give them individual attention."

I don't have the power to countermand any plan involving grandchildren but I did quietly mention that there are only a certain amount of weeks in the summer. She rejoined so quickly that I knew the arrangement was complete, definite and most workable in her mind. "They don't have to stay a whole week. We can pick them up on Monday and take them home Saturday."

"Pick them up" was a 470 mile one way trip to Josh's. And 403 miles to Jesse's.

Nonnie was near 'bout swooning with anticipation. She bought "Little Bites" breakfast muffins by the truckload. She had a case of sunscreen shipped to the house. And an equal amount of bug spray. She washed and sterilized every sand bucket, plastic shovel, swimming mask, beach chair and water pistol lingering in the back of the shed.

She bought a giant multi colored beach tent. "Don't worry" she gave me her best you-can-do-it smile, "the clerk said a moron could set this up in five minutes."

Cathy called Gulf World, Shipwreck Island, Coconut Creek, Just Jump, Wonderworks and three movie theaters checking on dates, times and purchasing tickets. She rented a ski boat.

She reminded me that Avery EXPECTED ("Since you let her do it last time.") to sleep with me in the crawl space above the garage. I was also in charge of bed time stories...but I could not tell the one about me and Sasquatch scaring the little kids when we traveled with the carnival or the bloody one where I was the only survivor at Custer's Last Stand or the one where me and Uncle David hijacked the uranium truck in Amarillo...

Nothing deterred her. When she found out the twins' dance group was performing in the national finals in Orlando she moved them from week four to week six. Max was scheduled for week six so he had to be moved up a couple of slots.

Luke had a church camp. He and Addison had to be dropped back to week five. Wait! Addison had a softball tournament that week. "We" moved them up to week two and dropped Jess's children's allotted time into the vacated hole.

"You know what would be really great" Nonnie was going for grandmother of the year, "if we had ALL SIX to come back down for the very last week together."

This summer is going to last into November...

Respectfully,
Kes

Library Lines

BY NIKKI CUNNINGHAM

The Carroll County Library Summer Reading Program is in full swing! We have already had over 140 children to register for the program.

This year we are "Reading to Help Others." For every one hour spent reading or for every ten books read, the Library is donating a book to a child in need through the Library's partnership with the Carl Perkin's Center. The Library is very proud of the response we have gotten from children who are reading to help others. "I love that I get to help other kids and all I have to do is read," says eight-year-old Makenna Bolen from Clarksburg.

We have a couple of events coming up this week as part of our Summer Reading Program. Local children's author Natalie Wade will be at the Library Wednesday, June 27 at 10:30 a.m. to read one of her books. Natalie was born and raised in the Bruceton-Hollow Rock area and now resides in Paris. She is a former homeschool parent who runs a private preschool in her home. She has seven published children's books, including a series designed to teach emotional intelligence to young children.

Mr. Bond the Music City Science Guy will be at the Library on Friday, June 29 at 1 p.m. This event is great for all ages, including older children. Mr. Bond will have several hands-on science activities that include the science of sound. Mr. Bond is making waves this year at Summer Reading Programs across Tennessee and this science show is one of the Library's most engaging events of the summer. Don't miss the Music City Science guy this Friday.

Be on the lookout for the Carroll County Library's Free Online Driver's Ed Program! This online service will give patrons access to practice tests and manuals for cars, motorcycles and commercial vehicles. This Driver's Ed program is great for those seeking learner's permits, driver's licenses and even refresher tests for seniors. The Driver's Ed program also comes with a Read Aloud toolbar that includes tools that let users hear selections read aloud or make them into MP3s, translate pages into other languages, magnify text and mask sections of the screen for greater visibility. All of the tests can be read aloud by ESL speakers, those with vision problems and those with such learning disabilities as dyslexia.

The Library appreciates the Carroll County Humane Society and Lisa Langford for bringing Remington the yellow lab to visit the children at the Library and to educate the community on the importance of pet adoption as well as supporting the Humane Society and the difference that we all can make in the lives of the abandoned and neglected animals of Carroll County.

HUNTINGDON (June 19) The members of the Carroll County Emergency Communications District (911 Board) got their first look at the new emergency dispatch center while in operation on Tuesday, June 19.

Kristy Meggs, director of the Carroll County Emergency Communications District, explained about the new location and the enhanced dispatch equipment to be operational in the next few weeks.

On that evening, dispatchers Kristie Bradford and Renee Morgan were working. Meggs said the dispatchers work 12-hour shifts, with at least two on duty at all times. A third dispatch console is available in times of significant emergencies or for training. All 911 emergency and other non-emergency calls for service are handled by the dispatchers.

The new hardened facility is designed to withstand high winds and has electrical backup generators to continue operating during electrical outages. The facility was constructed on the campus of the Carroll County Sheriff's Department and Carroll County Jail.

Also housed at the facility are Terry Bradshaw, the county fire chief and Janice Newman, county emergency management agency director. The facility is equipped with a situation room/conference room to accommodate representatives of multiple agencies in times of emergency.

McCreight, the 2018 chairman of the American Staffing Association board of directors, briefed the subcommittee members on the measures Hamilton-Ryker is undertaking to upskill its existing workforce to offset the skills gap challenge. In particular, he outlined the company's use of virtual reality to assess and train temporary employees. Hamilton-Ryker is one of the first staffing and recruiting agencies in the U.S. to use VR in this manner.

Hamilton-Ryker is using VR to test and train forklift drivers for a manufacturing client in Tupelo, MS. Since installing the VR forklift earlier this year, the agency is "…better able to assess applicants' skills using VR prior to sending them to our clients—resulting in a 70% pass rate for our applicants versus less than 50% for 2017," McCreight testified. The company plans on expanding the VR training program to other markets in the near future.

Hamilton-Ryker has also "…instituted 'soft skill' orientations [for temporary employees] that address issues like conflict resolution, workplace violence, and even basic workplace practices such as on-time arrival to work, call-in procedures, and how to deal with differing workplace cultures," McCreight said.

In addition to McCreight, the other witnesses appearing before the subcommittee were Todd Hitt, CEO of Kiddar Capital, and Angela Dine Schmeisser, president and CEO of St. Marys Foundry Inc.

McCreight's full written testimony is available for download on the committee website.

Local Students Earn Top Marks at State Championships

Tennessee Scholastic Clay Target Program is one of the largest in the nation; its State Championships is among the nation's premier amateur shotgun shooting sport competitions

Nashville, Tenn. – More than 1,400 youth athletes, from middle school to college, participated in the 2018 Tennessee Scholastic Clay Target Program State Championships, June 19–23, in Nashville.

The State Championships spanned five full days of co-ed competition in three shotgun shooting sports disciplines: trap, skeet and sporting clays. Individuals and teams from all corners of the state competed for titles in nearly 70 categories.

"Tennessee SCTP is proud of all our athletes—and the coaches and parents who support them. These young men and women are not only accomplished on the shooting sports fields but also academically," said Andrew Peercy, Tennessee Scholastic Clay Target Program Manager. "This past week, the athletes battled adverse weather conditions yet performed exceptionally well and impressed the spectators with their skill, determination, and sportsmanship."

The governing body of the sport in Tennessee is the Tennessee Scholastic Clay Target Program, an initiative of Tennessee Wildlife Federation. Tennessee Wildlife Federation is one of the largest and oldest nonprofits dedicated to the conservation of Tennessee's wildlife and natural resources. Tennessee Scholastic Clay Target Program introduces youth to the shooting sports and recruits them into an outdoor lifestyle.

"We're excited to see many Tennessee SCTP athletes move on to the 2018 National Championships, July 14-21, and we are confident they will represent the state of Tennessee and our program well," said Peercy. "Not only do these youth represent the shooting sports, but they also represent the future of outdoor sports, conservation, and wildlife in Tennessee. That's exciting."

Hunters and anglers are the main source of funding for wildlife conservation in Tennessee and are leading advocates for policies that promote good stewardship of our natural resources. But for every 10 sportsmen today, only seven are growing up to take their place.

Over 150 new laws in a wide range of areas will take effect in the State of Tennessee beginning July 1, 2018.

Notable new laws include:

*HB1947, which defines "playground" for purposes of sexual offender restrictions as any indoor or outdoor facility that is intended for recreation of children and owned by the state, a local government or a not-for-profit organization.

*SB0727, which authorizes persons to display evidence of vehicle registration in electronic formats through use of cell phones and other electronic devices.

*HB0222, which requires a person to establish proof of United States citizenship; lawful permanent resident status; or, in the case of a temporary driver license, a specified period of authorized stay in the United States, if the person, for purposes of obtaining a Tennessee driver license, presents a driver license from another state that issues driver licenses to illegal aliens.

*HB2014, which protects residential information of county corrections officers and punishes violations of release of such information in the same manner the residential information of law enforcement officers is protected.

*HB2006, which makes the veteran hiring preference mandatory.

*HB2153, which authorizes the labeling of any milk sold in this state as "Local Tennessee Milk," or a statement that indicates the milk is Tennessee milk, if the milk contains only milk produced in Tennessee.

*SB1885, which requires applicators to notify the department of agriculture prior to making aerial applications of pesticides via an online reporting system, instead of notifying county sheriff's offices.

*SB0912, which allows a victim of identity theft to apply for and receive a new driver's license with a new distinguishing number upon presenting proof of the crime, including a law enforcement report that lists the applicant as a victim of identity theft and allows the Department of Safety to charge a reasonable fee for reissuance of a driver's license due to identity theft.

*SB1512, which requires each law enforcement agency to ensure that, whenever a person is arrested and taken into custody by an officer of the agency, the person is asked whether that person is the parent or legal custodian of any children that will be left unattended by the person's arrest.

*HB2330, which prohibits the use of corporal punishment against a student with a disability who has an IEP or a Section 504 plan, with certain exceptions.

*HB2690, which requires local education agencies (LEAs) to provide written notice to a student's parents or legal guardians before the student participates in any mental health screening.

*SB1875, which enacts "Henry's Law," which requires that a person convicted for second-degree murder resulting from unlawful distribution of Schedule I or II drug where victim is a minor be punished from within one range higher than the sentencing range otherwise appropriate for the person.

*SB2011, which requires a director of schools, director of public charter school or director of nonpublic school who learns of the conviction of a licensed educator employed by the local education agency for certain offenses to report the conviction to the state board and authorizes the state board to reprimand such a director for failure to report.

*SB2015, which prohibits local education agencies from entering into a non-disclosure agreement during, or as a prerequisite to, settlement for any act of sexual misconduct; prohibits employees from assisting others in obtaining employment if the employee knows that the person has engaged in sexual misconduct involving a minor or student.

*SB1787, which classifies as second-degree murder the killing of another by unlawful distribution or unlawful delivery or unlawful dispensation of fentanyl or carfentanil, when those substances alone, or in combination with any scheduled controlled substance, including controlled substance analogs, are the proximate cause of the death of the user.

*HB0521, which requires all public high schools to place automated external defibrillator (AED) devices in schools and encourages public middle and elementary schools and private schools to place AED devices in schools.

*HB1939, which allows county commissioners, in the actual discharge of the commissioner's duties, who has a valid handgun carry permit to carry in buildings in which county commission meetings are held, but not in the room in which judicial proceeding are in progress (not applicable to member of legislative body of metropolitan government).

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

HCMC Wins Multiple Awards

PARIS — Henry County Medical Center's Marketing and Public Relations Department has been awarded two Silver and a Bronze award in the 35th Annual Healthcare Advertising Awards presented by Healthcare Marketing Report.

This year over 4,000 entries were received, making the awards the largest healthcare advertising awards competition and one of the ten largest of all advertising awards.

The Healthcare Advertising Awards is the oldest, largest and most widely-respected healthcare advertising awards competition. The awards are sponsored by Healthcare Marketing Report, the leading publication covering all aspects of healthcare marketing, advertising and strategic business development.

A national panel of judges was engaged in reviewing all entries based on creativity, quality, message effectiveness, consumer appeal, graphic design and overall impact. The judges recognized 18 entrants with the Best of Show designation, for their overall excellence and breakthrough advertising.

Gold awards were given to 360 entries, silver awards to 317 entries and bronze awards to 280 entries.

All winners are posted on the Healthcare Advertising Awards website (http://healthcare-advertising-awards.com/), as well as published in Healthcare Marketing Report, a national healthcare marketing magazine. Below are the awards HCMC received for its marketing and public relations programs:

Silver Award – Digital Marketing Program – Home is HCMC campaign developed in coordination with Relevate Health Group

Silver Award – Websites – www.hcmc-tn.org, designed by VE Websites

Bronze Award – New Media – Healthy Focus e-Newsletter designed and developed by Relevate Health Group

"I am so very proud of my Marketing & PR team," said Tory Daughrity, Director of Marketing and Public Relations. "They do a great job with the limited resources we have available. We have some outstanding partners that help us produce some of our programs including Relevate Health Group and VE Websites. It is always nice to be recognized by an outside organization for your efforts, affirming that you are able to deliver award-winning marketing campaigns on a limited budget that engage your community and patients."

Additionally, Henry County Medical Center's Marketing and Public Relations Department has been awarded one Gold Award and one Silver Award from the Aster Awards, recognizing them for excellence in medical marketing. HCMC received the Gold Award for its newly redesigned website by VE Websites. Additionally, the Silver Award was received for Website Advertising in a series for its Home is HCMC Banner ads.

The Aster Awards, one of the largest national competitions of its kind, is hosted by Marketing Healthcare Today Magazine and Creative Images, Inc. This elite program recognized outstanding healthcare professionals for excellence in their advertising/marketing efforts for the calendar year 2017.

The 2018 Aster Awards received thousands of entries from across the United States as well as several foreign countries. All entries are reviewed by a panel of industry experts and are scored on multiple criteria with a possibility of 100 percent. Participants' entries compete against similar-sized organizations in their specific groups and categories.

Awards were issued for entries that received top marks from judges placing them in the top 16 percent of the nation for advertising excellence. Judging criteria included creativity, layout and design, functionality, message effectiveness, production quality and overall appeal.

"The quality and creativity of the entries submitted seems to increase each year. The 2018 Aster Awards program brought together some of the best and most creative advertising in the world," said Melinda Lucas, Aster Awards Program Coordinator.

All winners are posted on the Aster Awards website (www.Aster-Awards.com), as well as published in Marketing Healthcare Today, a national healthcare marketing magazine. Below denotes the distribution of awards:

Best of Show – Only one issued in 2017

Judges Choice – Score of 100 percent (only 8 issued in 2017 – top 1 percent)

Gold Awards – Score of 95 to 99 (top 5 percent in the nation)

Silver Awards – Score of 90 to 94 (top 12 percent in the nation)

Bronze Awards – Score of 85 to 89 (top 16 percent in the nation)

"To have our work as a department recognized in the top 5 percent and 12 percent of the nation is very exciting," said Tory Daughrity, Director of Marketing and Public Relations. "We work with great partners in our department like Relevate Health Group as well as VE Websites to take our limited resources and make them shine. I am thankful for a great group to work with who are dedicated to showcase the outstanding work of our staff. We believe we present HCMC well, but having a third party commend you for your work confirms our efforts."
