Carroll County Election Commission

1,669 Early Votes Cast Thus Far

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

HUNTINGDON (October 24) — As of Monday at 9:40 a.m., 1,669 registered Carroll County voters have cast ballots in the Presidential and General Election at the Carroll County Office of Election since early voting commenced on Wednesday, October 19.

Via request by The McKenzie Banner, Carroll County Administer of Elections Peg Hamlett provided the following daily early voting numbers: October 19-367; October 20-450; October 21-462; October 22-196; October 24 (as of 9:40 a.m.)-94.

The total number of early votes

Paper Ballots Used for Liquor Referendum

HUNTINGDON — Voters from McKenzie who want to cast a ballot in the referendum for liquor by the drink might find themselves casting a paper ballot on the lone issue. An error in programming the electronic machines, by an outside company, created the omission for the electronic ballot, said Peg Hamlett, election administrator in Carroll County.

The omission only affects voters in the municipal election in city wards, where there are no candidates for councilman - wards 2, 3, and 5. The question for the

34th Annual Membership Banquet Draws Big Crowd

HUNTINGDON (October 24) — A large gathering of Carroll County elected officials, and county business owners, and town employees joined with county business supporters at the Carroll County Chamber of Commerce's 34th Annual Membership Banquet at the Carroll County Civic Center.

The evening began at 6:15 p.m. with the silent auction followed by the banquet at 6:30 p.m.

Following welcoming comments by Carroll County Chamber President Brad Hurley, attendees dined on a delicious meal.

At meal's conclusion, Hurley addressed the crowd, "The Carroll County Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1981 to advance the commercial, industrial, civic and general interests of the County of Carroll and its trade area. This evening, the Chamber will recognize Martha Taylor as the 2016 Carroll Countian of the Year; Seth Bennett as the 2016 Business Person of the Year; Tippitt Farms as the 2016 Agri-Business / Farmer of the Year; and Bethel University as County Business of the Year. In addition, Bethel University's Matthew Holt will receive the Chamber's first Young Professional Outstanding Achievement Award and Elijah Brewer will receive the Chamber's Youth Outstanding Achievement Award."

Presenting the awards were Bob Rutledge, Joe Smothers, Brad Hurley, Johnny Clement,

Body Identified As Greenfield Man

A male body located in a rural area off State Route 114 in Carroll County has now been identified. Carroll County Sheriff Andy Dickson said it is the remains of James W. Bruce, Jr., age 34, with the last known address of Greenfield.

The body lay on the ground in a rural area for 15 days before being discovered by authorities.

Tennessee Bureau of Investigation is in charge of the investigation and ordered a forensic examination. The body was sent to the medical examiner's office, where it still remains as of Monday, October 24.

Carroll County Sheriff Andy Dickson said on September 21 his department received a call about a naked woman, Emily Crowder, 31, walking on State Route 114. Sheriff's deputies located the woman

Huntingdon Gifts Fillies Field to School

HUNTINGDON (October 21) — During the 7:00 a.m. October meeting of the Huntingdon Special School District Board of Education, board members, at the recommendation of Director of Schools Pat Dillahunty, approved a resolution to acquire Fillies Field and an adjacent softball practice field from the Town of Huntingdon.

Dillahunty noted that receipt of the field and land would allow the school system to pursue further upgrades to the facility and grounds.

The board expressed their appreciation to the Town of Huntingdon for all they do to benefit the school district.

Following discussion, the board unanimously approved the System Compliance Report from the State

McKenzie Unit Marks Return of 190th Engineer Company

Recruits Needed to Fulfill Unit's New Mission

By Brad Sam

McKENZIE (October 15) — The rich history of the McKenzie unit of the Tennessee Army National Guard continues as it once again becomes the home of the 190th Engineer Company. A ceremony was held recently at the armory to make the transition official with the uncasing of the Guidon and the presentation of new patches.

The new designation brings with it a new mission. The 190th is now a Mobility Augmentation Company (MAC), which means that the primary objective for the unit is to assist other units in getting where they need to go. The soldiers will be training with new equipment,

Cedar Grove Man Charged in Attempt on Wife

CEDAR GROVE — Henry Chatten, 52, of Cedar Grove is charged with attempted second degree homicide after he struck his wife with blunt force trauma on October 20.

According to Carroll County Sheriff Andy Dickson, Mr. Chatten phoned the Carroll County Sheriff's Department at 12:47 a.m. on that date and said he thought he had just killed his wife, Sandra. Deputies responded to 7964 Highway 104W in Cedar Grove, where they found Mr. Chatten outside a travel trailer and his wife inside the travel trailer. He had attempted to take his own life by cutting his throat, said the sheriff.

She was airlifted to a trauma hospital where emergency surgery was performed. She remains in critical condition.

Mr. Chatten was transported via ambulance, sutured, and transported to a mental health facility for evaluation. He is to be released to the custody of the Sheriff's Department.

Chatten was arraigned Thursday on charges of attempted second degree murder.

The family had only recently moved to Carroll County with their four children, ranging in age from 16 to five years. They were in a building adjacent to the travel trailer said Dickson. Tennessee Department of Children's Services responded. A neighbor assisted with the children's care until out-of-state family members could take custody.

The family was to renovate the building in a "rent to own" arrangement, said the sheriff.

Bethel University Hosts Blessing of the Animals

McKENZIE (October 19) — As part of Bethel University's Homecoming and 175th Anniversary Celebration, the school hosted a Blessing of the Animals Wednesday afternoon at the Alumni Garden.

Eleven dogs and their owners enjoyed a brief service, followed by individual blessings for each animal. The event was led by the Reverend Dr. Anne Hames, university chaplain, and the Reverend Dr. Jon Carlock, Professor of Religion and Philosophy.

Refreshments for both man and best friend were served after the blessing.

1,500 Healing Hands 'Boxes of Love' Loaded

MCKENZIE — On October 10, approximately 1,500 "boxes of love" (The M.A.G.I. Project) were loaded at the McKenzie Church of Christ for shipment to the Healing Hands International warehouse located in Nashville and added to approximately 23,000 more to be sent to countries of Africa, Mexico and Honduras with the bulk going to Honduras.

Upon arrival in those countries, churches, organizations and street missions will distribute the boxes to needy children who normally do not know the joy of Christmas. Seventeen area Churches of Christ surrounding McKenzie participated in making these 1,500 gifts of love.

Healing Hands International is a humanitarian and disaster relief organization supported primarily by the Churches of Christ around the United States. The M.A.G.I. Project was started some 15 years ago. M.A.G.I. is an acronym which means "Making A Godly Impact".

Bethel Athletic Hall of Fame

Article by Dave McCulley
Bethel University Sports Information Director

McKENZIE (October 22) — Bethel University honored two former athletic greats and one outstanding former team with inductions into the prestigious Bethel Athletic Hall-of-Fame Friday night. The Alumni Awards and Athletic Hall-of-Fame Inductions were held in the Vera Low Center for Student Enrichment, Crisp Wing.

The 2016 inductees are: Chris Edlin (85) Golf; Lon Varnell -Men's Basketball; and the 1970-1971 Men's Basketball Team.

Prior to this year, eighty one people and one team had been enshrined into the hall. The 2008 National Championship soccer team was the first team to be inducted at the 2013 ceremonies.

Here is a look at the 2016 Hall-of Fame Class:

Chris Edlin played four years of varsity golf at Bethel College from 1981-1984. He had graduated from McKenzie High School in 1980 after leading the Rebel squad to the District Championship his senior year. Recruited by Bethel Coach and Hall-of Famer Jerry Wilcoxson, Edlin was known as a consistent performer for the Wildcats, averaging 79.1 for four years on challenging courses. The Wildcat golf teams had a 26-11 overall record during his career as well as impressive showings in VSAC and NAIA District 24 competitions.

As a sophomore Chris shot an impressive round of 69 against Rhodes College at Fox Meadows Golf Course in Memphis, taking medalist honors and leading the team to an impressive team total of 291. The victory total remains one of the lowest in Bethel Golf history (1982). He earned NAIA All-District 24 honors the following season and was received The Most Improved Bethel Golfer Award. As a senior Edlin was named the Captain and was low medalist in four of the five matches during the season. The squad finished 7-2 on the year with Edlin having the low stroke average for the team. He was named the Rotary Club Bethel College Athlete of the Year.

An all- around athlete, Edlin was an avid 5Kilometer runner and amateur boxer while attending Bethel. He won the West Tennessee Golden Gloves Bantamweight Championship prior to graduating from Bethel in 1985. He was named Golden Gloves Outstanding Boxer in 1985 and 1989.

He was inducted unto the Carroll County Sports Hall-of-Fame in 2015. He was Ringside Masters World Boxing Champion runner-up in 2010 at the age of 48. He captured a Masters National Boxing title that year in the Lightweight Division. He was again World Boxing Champion runner-up in 2015 at the age of 53. In 2013 Chris was the Tennessee State Senior Olympic 400 Meter Champion in the 50-54 age division. In 2015 he won the 50 Meter Senior Olympic State Championship Sprint.

He has been instrumental in the success of the UTM Pike Fights, refereeing and officiating the event for 27 years. He is a licensed by the Tennessee Athletic Commission as a professional boxing referee.

Chris resides in McKenzie and has two daughters, Rachel and Rebekah. He has one grandson, Easton Edlin. He serves as a Youth Services Officer for the Carroll County Juvenile Court.

Lon Varnell was a native of Adamsville, Tennessee. He played baseball, football and basketball at Freed-Hardeman College while majoring in English and Religious Education. After graduating from Freed he began his teaching and coaching career at Shiloh and Saltillo High Schools. An innovative coach, he was the first use the hook shot and the 2-3 zone defense.

In 1940, Lon came to Bethel to coach and finish his last two years of college work. His first Bethel squad posted a 27-4 record. When the school dropped athletics because of the war, Varnell coached at McKenzie High School.

In 1944 the "Baron of the Bluegrass" Adolph Rupp invited Varnell to work with him at the University of Kentucky. There he helped recruit one of Kentucky's fabled teams, "The Fabulous Five."

Bethel re-instated athletics following the end of the war and Varnell returned to coach basketball and baseball. The basketball team lost only one game while his baseball team went undefeated.

Varnell became head basketball and assistant football coach at the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee in 1948. Coach Rupp recommended him for the job stating, "Next to me Lon Varnell is the best coach in America." Varnell coached there for 22 years, winning 58 percent of his games while playing DI and DII schools as well as conference foes.

In 1948 he began working with the Harlem Globetrotters as a promoter and advance man. He traveled worldwide with them and was instrumental in opening doors for the team to play in the South.

Lon set up a fall baseball tour in the mid 1950's with two teams of black big league players who barnstormed throughout the South... Players included Willie Mays, Hank Aaron, Don Newcombe, Joe Black, Ernie Banks, Roy Campanella, etc.

In 1951 his University of the South team won 53 of 57 games played on a tour of Europe and North Africa. They won the World Tournament in Geneva, Switzerland. Five Rhodes Scholars played on his teams as well as several outstanding coaches including former Kentucky coaching great, Joe B. Hall.

Sports Illustrated described Varnell in February 1969 as "a legend in his own time-a coach, a Methodist minister, coal mine operator, car dealer, political manager, hardware store owner and promoter of entertainment."

Upon his retirement from coaching in 1970, he established Varnell Enterprises at Nashville, an agency that would be recognized as one of the top entertainment promoters in the country. Stating that victory is in the struggle, not in the gold medal that hangs around your neck, Varnell said that "you can make a success sure by effort, sacrifice, enthusiasm, unselfishness, and self-control. You are the master of your own destiny." In the worlds of sports and entertainment, Lon Varnell was certainly a master of his own destiny and a victorious leader.

Varnell was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall-of-Fame in 1973 and served as its president in 1977. He passed away in 1991.

1970-1971 Men's Basketball Team–The Bethel Wildcat Men's 1970-1971 Basketball team remains to this day one of the more popular teams in Bethel history. The Wildcats, ranked 14th in the nation defeated No. 10 Georgetown in the NAIA District 24 tournament in the first year of Baker Fieldhouse. The Wildcats met No. 1 Kentucky State in the district title game. Kentucky State won the game and went on to win the NAIA National Championship. Bethel finished 25-5 on the year. Four players averaged in double figures.

The starters for the Wildcats were, James Penn, Joe L. Reaves, Kenny Booher, Don Eichorst and David Cosby. Don Stanford and J.C. Popplewell were valuable members of the squad appearing in almost every game. Other key members of the team were, Tom Cunningham, Tom Copple, Dudley Crowder, Frank Navarro and Ruben Owen.

The team was coached by Hall-of-Fame Coach Doug Hines.

The team was third in the NAIA in rebounding. They were eighth in the nation in margin of victory at 20.9 points per game. They were 17th in team defense. Reaves and Penn were named all-district.

Former Bethel professor and Dean of Students and Admissions Dr. Clinton O. Buck said, "I worked with this team and Coach Hines. They were wonderful to work with. They were an outstanding team and even more so, simply outstanding people. I am so happy about this well-deserved honor for them."

State Library, Archives Digitizing WWI Artifacts Archivists in Jackson November 3-4

Over a five-year period, World War I ravaged Europe, the Middle East and parts of north Africa, overturning governments and costing millions of lives. The United States joined the battle in 1917, eventually mobilizing 130,000 soldiers from Tennessee. Countless other Tennesseans helped relief organizations like the Red Cross, organized scrap metal drives, manufactured war materials and provided other support for the war effort on the home front.

The Tennessee State Library & Archives has launched a major effort to collect digital records of how World War I affected Tennesseans. Archivists will be traveling throughout the state to digitally scan and photograph documents, maps, photographs, uniforms, and other artifacts related to World War I that are owned by private citizens.

"We were overwhelmed by the response to our request for Civil War items, so we hope this project will help us create a rich record of World War I history as well," Secretary of State Tre Hargett said. "Creating digital records of historical artifacts makes them easily available to anyone with internet access. It's important that we do this now, before more of these century-old items are lost or damaged beyond repair."

The next event will be held at the Jackson-Madison County Public Library, located at 433 East Lafayette Street in Jackson. Items will be digitally recorded from 2 p.m. until 7 p.m. Nov. 3 and from 9 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. Nov. 4. The archivists will not actually take possession of the items from the owners, but will provide tips on how to care for these rare treasures.

People living in West Tennessee are encouraged to bring in letters, photographs, diaries, military records, maps, sketches, weapons, uniforms and other items related to the war. All items must be original – no photocopies or reproductions – and owned by the person bringing them to the event.

To reserve time with an archivist on one of those dates, email WorldWarI.tsla@tn.gov or call (615) 741-1883.

Similar events will be scheduled for other parts of the state. The project, called "Over Here, Over There: Tennesseans in the First World War," is similar to one the Library & Archives has been conducting to digitally record Civil War memorabilia. The schedule of upcoming digitization events and other information about the project will be available at http://sos.tn.gov/tsla/OverHere_WWI.

This event is part of the Fall 2016 Great War Commemoration, "The Home Front in Tennessee" http://tnsos.net/TSLA/GWC/index.htm.

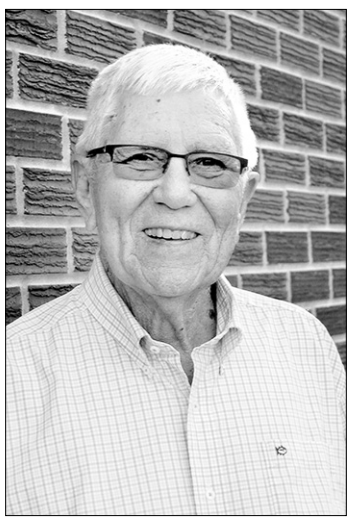

Connell Seeks Gleason Mayor Seat

Jerry Connell is seeking election to the office of mayor in Gleason. He is a life-long resident of Gleason, where he serves as vice mayor and fire chief. Jerry said he believes the only way to a better future is for everyone to work together, a philosophy he has used as leader of the Gleason Fire Department for 16 years.

The department has received $400,000 in grants for updated equipment since 2009 and has plans for an addition to the fire station. Connell wants to expand that leadership to other departments in Gleason if elected mayor.

"I have seen what can happen when everyone works together over the years," says Connell. Jerry has served as alderman for 26 years and three terms as vice mayor. He said he has worked hard for the three mayors with whom he has served.

This year's election includes all new candidates for alderman except one.

"With all my years as alderman and fire chief, I have a good idea of what needs to be done in Gleason and how to best achieve those changes. I am running this year because I believe that's the only way those changes can be accomplished. Our community needs improvements to its streets and some existing structures. The City Works Department has already laid the groundwork to obtain grants at the state and federal levels by conducting needs-assessment surveys. This information was integral in getting the most recent grant of $225,000 for improvements to city water and sewer treatment here in Gleason."

There's more work to be done, said Connell, who noted there are a lot of citizens willing to pitch in to do just that.

He said working together, "we can develop sustainable ideas for business that capitalize on our town's resources."

Connell said he asks for the voters' consideration on November 8.

heavy machinery and explosives.

Another change is the size of the unit. The current 66-person company exceeded the target of 55 for the previous assignment, but as an MAC, the unit will need to grow to at least 116 strong.

The 190th Engineer Company (MAC) is a part of the 230th Engineer Battalion (Trenton), which is part of the 194th Engineer Brigade (Jackson). The 190th will include a detachment of 30-plus at Tennessee Ridge.

Leadership from all three entities participated in the Saturday ceremony. Acting as master of ceremonies was Major Blake English, 230th Engineer Battalion Executive Officer. Also speaking were Colonel Brad Bishop, 194th Engineer Brigade Commander, and Lieutenant Colonel Trent Scates, 230th Engineer Battalion Commander. Both commanders were proud to welcome the 190th back to McKenzie, each noting the support that the community provides and commending the soldiers for reciprocating that support.

Colonel Bishop briefly summarized the history of the McKenzie National Guard, which began on January 21, 1948 as Company G, 117th Infantry. Since then, the unit has acted as a tank battalion company in several incarnations, as an engineer battalion, and, most recently, as an armored cavalry regiment.

Both commanders touched on the changes and new needs of the unit and called upon current members to help encourage recruitment. Colonel Bishop called the personnel "our number one priority and number one resource," and set a goal to enlist 20 new recruits in 2017. LTC Scates noted an upside, that McKenzie is an area that continues to support its Guard. He called the enlisted "the building blocks of this unit."

Special guests at the ceremony included Brigadier General Retired Charles Argo, Command Sergeant Major Vic Watson, Sergeant Major Spiro Roditis, First Sergeant Retired Johnny Walker, Sergeant First Class Melissa Walker, Recruiting and Retention NCO, and McKenzie Mayor Jill Holland.

In an interview with The Banner, SFC Walker said, "We always welcome community-minded people to join our Guard family. If you'd like to be a part of this exciting change for our unit, or would like to find out more about the National Guard, contact me at 731-435-9220 or visit nationalguard.com."

The board continued last month's discussion regarding options to supply additional transportation resources for the district.

Presently, Huntingdon parents are transporting students by way of private vehicles to some sporting and school-related events.

Continuing, the board approved the 2016-17 LEAPS Program and related budget amendment; local textbook committee; and declared a list of items as surplus property.

In final action, the board approved the balance sheets and minutes for the September 15 meeting and set the combined November and December Joint Venture Meeting for Friday, December 8 at 7:00 a.m. and transported her to Baptist Memorial Hospital-Huntingdon, where she was treated and released to family members. She told officers that she and her boyfriend were traveling in a vehicle when she got out and he drove away. Officers suspected some mental concerns with Crowder.

On October 6, a farmer was entering his cotton field when he discovered a vehicle in an extremely remote area. On the passenger side, the front tire and hub were completely worn off and the rear tire was blown. Officers were called to the scene, where Deputy Terry Dickey discovered the body. Agents with the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation were called to investigate the scene at around 2:00 p.m.

referendum is correct on the electronic ballot where the following candidates councilmen appear on the ballot: Charles Pruneau (Ward 6) and Jessie Townes (Ward 1) and Randy Callahan (Ward 4). There are no contested races in McKenzie.

Hamlett released the following statement to the press, "There are a total of six (6) municipal wards on the ballot for the City of McKenzie. Three of the wards include the question regarding the liquor referendum on the voting machine ballot. By 9:00 a.m. on the first day of Early Voting, it was discovered that the liquor referendum in the other three wards in the City of McKenzie did not have the liquor referendum on the voting machine ballot. Affected voters were issued paper ballots on which they could vote just for the city referendum. The use of the paper ballot containing the liquor referendum has and will continue throughout early voting. However, the question of the liquor referendum is being added to the Election Day voting machines for the affect municipal wards. These Election Day voting machines will be inspected and certified on November 4, 2016 at approximately 10:00 a.m. at the Carroll County Election Commission Office, 625 High Street, Suite 113, Huntingdon, Tennessee. All votes cast in this referendum will be counted."

and John Sanders.

Presenter John Sanders said, "Tonight, we honor the 30th individual to be recognized as Carroll Countian of the Year by the Carroll County Chamber of Commerce. The group of previous winners is truly a who's who of Carroll Countians."

He continued, "All through her career she wanted to be in the background but tonight her dedication, commitment, and hard work will be recognized. Martha Taylor is a true lifelong resident of Carroll County. She is a graduate of Huntingdon High School. Martha was married to the late Lynn Taylor; they have two daughters-Vicki Williams and husband Lane, Jennie Smith and husband Trevor, a son, Chad and wife Laura, and seven grandchildren-Taylor, Remington, Kaylee, Lillian Ava, Beau and Emma, all of Huntingdon.

He said, "Martha is a 47-year employee of the Town of Huntingdon. She is a shining example of someone who enjoys helping and servicing people. Mayor Dale Kelley said it well, 'I know of no one more deserving of Carroll Countian of the Year. Her contribution to Huntingdon and Carroll County for more than 40 years has been immeasurable. She has been involved in all major projects of the Town of Huntingdon which have been completed while serving as town recorder. Martha has been a confidant, reliable source of wisdom, and a good friend. She has truly left her mark on the community'."

He continued, "Martha is a successful business person. She is the co-owner of Taylor Real Estate and Auction. Her late husband Lynn became owner / broker of Taylor Real Estate in 1979. Martha joined him as a licensed real estate agent in the 1980s in what became a family-owned real estate, crop insurance and auction business. During the mid-1990s their three children, Chad, Vicki and Jennie joined the business."

He concluded, Ladies and gentlemen, it is my honor and pleasure to present the 2016 Carroll Countian of the Year, Martha Taylor."

Joe Smothers introduced Business of the Year, Dr. Walter Butler, President of Bethel University.

Smothers said, "For 175 years, Bethel University has stood as a pillar of knowledge for our communities. We are proud of the legacy of the university and its ever-increasing impact locally and nationally."

Butler said, "On behalf of Bethel, I want to thank everyone in Carroll County and beyond for supporting us. Carroll County is our home, and we continually strive to serve our community and the needs of our students. The growth of Bethel University is amazing, and we are trying to manage that growth responsibly. Our enrollment on our eight campuses is over 6,000 students, and we look to continue to grow and manage that growth the right way. Thank you for honoring Bethel."

Hurley introduced Agriculture / business winner Tippitt Farms.

He said, Farming plays a vital role in the life of Carroll County, and Tippitt Farms is a shining example of the success in the agriculture business. Tippitt Farms is truly a family effort as brothers Tommy, Glynn and Larry have owned and operated the 5,500-acre business producing corn, cotton, soybeans and wheat for five decades."

Family representative Carol Bennett said, "On behalf of my brothers, thank you for honoring Tippitt Farms. Our grandparents began farming in Benton County before buying a farm in Carroll County. Farming is in our blood and is our heritage and we are proud of it."

She added, "We started out with one tractor and have since expanded to several tractors and implements and even using tractor-trailers to haul our crops. Although much has changed in farming; it all comes back to planting the seed, praying for rain, and watching the crops grow. Thank you for honoring our farm and family legacy."

Introducing the 2016 Business Person of the Year Award, Johnny Clement began, "In 1986, the Chamber Board began the tradition of recognizing successful business people in the county. The backbone of any community is local business owners and their commitment to make a community grow and prosper. Our honoree, Mr. Seth Bennett, was a fixture at Watson Lumber Company for more than 15 years before becoming owner of Watson Lumber Company and the Hardware House. In addition to these two businesses, Seth started Bennett Rental Company and recently bought Arnold's Rentals in McKenzie from Danny and Susan Arnold."

He said, "Seth is past president and active member of the Huntingdon Lions Club, a member of the Huntingdon Planning Commission, and Palmer Shelter United Methodist Church. He has served on the Carroll County Habitat for Humanity Board and the Carroll County Library Board. He is a graduate of Huntingdon High School and Jackson State Community College. While at Jackson State, he was a member of the baseball team. After receiving an associate's degree in Biology from Jackson State, he went on to graduate in 2001 from Union University cum laude with a bachelor's degree in history."

He added, "Seth and his wife, Jill, have three children, Jax, Broox, and Knox, Jill is a family nurse practitioner with Baptist Medical group. He is the son of Burton and Sharon Bennett and the grandson of Gailford Bennett."

Bob Rutledge informed attendees that the Chamber Board created a new award, The Outstanding Young Professional Award.

He said, "Eligibility criteria for this award includes: to graduate from one of Carroll County's high schools, be professionally employed and between the ages of 25-45, live and work in Carroll County, and to have received and / or continue to receive national recognition for his or her talents. The first recipient of this honor far exceeds the criteria."

He continued, "Mr. Matthew Holt resides in McKenzie with his wife, Lindsey, and their beautiful children, Fletcher, Ridley, and Carver. Holt started playing the piano at the age of 3, by age 18 he became the minister of music at his church. Early in his professional music career, he traveled with the award-winning southern gospel group, The Perry's. Holt was nominated as one of the top five musicians in all of gospel music every year while playing for The Perry's. More recently in 2015, he received his first Grammy nomination, the music industry's most sought-after award. Also, in 2015 he was nominated for a Dove Award. Holt is also making waves as a Christian songwriter. He co-owns a music publishing company, HabeHolt Music. Since its conception in 2006, HabeHolt Music has over 150 songs recorded by well-known artists, and numerous number one songs."

Rutledge said, "In addition to being the executive director of Renaissance, Holt currently travels full-time with Bill Gaither, the Gaither Vocal Band, and Homecoming Tour as their pianist. Using his experience through ministry and the professional music world, Holt inspires and encourages the young people with whom he works, and provides vision and leadership for this unique program."

He added, "Bethel University President Walter Butler said it best, "Matthew's talent in the music industry is on a level of its own. We are fortunate Matthew is a part of our family as the director of Renaissance. His influence to the several hundred students he touches each year is such a blessing for our Bethel Family'."

Ladies and gentlemen, it is my honor to present to you Carroll County's Outstanding Young Professional Award honoree, Mr. Matthew Holt.

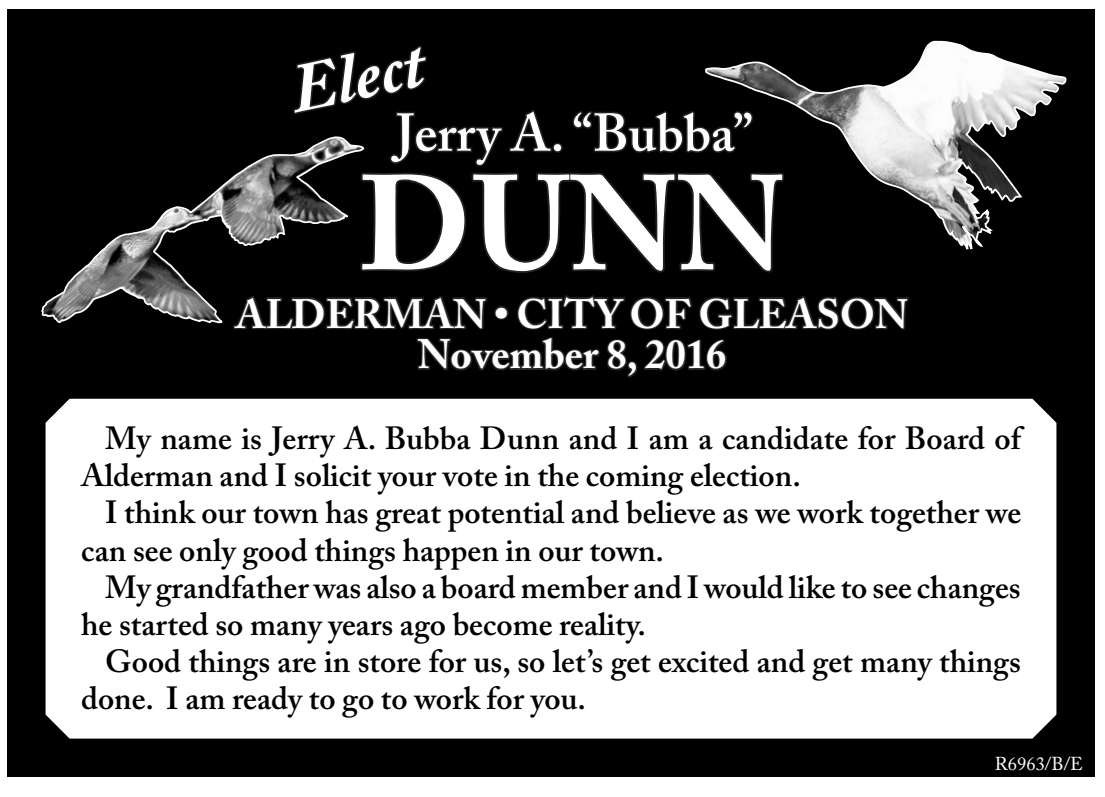

Introducing the 2016 Youth Achievement Award, Rutledge began, "One mark of the success of the local schools is the success of the students. Too many times we have good news stories about accomplishments that are reached right in our own back yard, but we fail to recognize the significance of those accomplishments."

He continued, "For the third time, the Chamber recognizes a student for representing his school system, Carroll County, and West Tennessee in Scripps National Spelling Bee Competition in Washington D.C."

"Eleven million students compete in the Scripps National Spelling Bee at the local, regional, and state levels. Only 285 receive an invitation to attend the National competition in Washington D.C. This summer, Mr. Elijah Brewer was one of the students who earned a trip to the Nationals. Elijah was an eighth grade student at Hollow Rock-Bruceton Central Middle School last year and is now a freshman at Central High School."

He said, "Elijah is the son of Cory and Summer Brewer and brother Jessie. He is a great example of the many accomplishments that take place every day in the school buildings all across Carroll County."

He concluded, "Please join me in welcoming the 2016 Chamber's Youth Achievement Award winner, Mr. Elijah Brewer."

The Twelfth Man Is Alive And Well!

By Paula Watkins

We won the football game this past Friday night! Woo Hoo! We are doing the happy dance – if you can imagine some of us doing the happy dance. We are so proud of our Rebels! Not only did they win, but they did it in fine fashion. They've been in a slump. None of us who think they know a lot about football could figure out what was happening. We all are entitled to our own opinions and boy, did we have solutions! Everything imaginable was discussed.

Well, what I saw transpire this past week made me realize how important it is for a small community to come together. Come together as parents, alumni, and fans of the Rebel program; come together and show how much we love our young people. An amazing demonstration of support was witnessed last week prior to the Friday night game. The young men, coaches, and cheerleaders were treated to an evening meal prior to a rousing pep rally. That group of folks came together and comradery among the team members seemed to suddenly be alive and well. It just took a little show of encouragement to make these Rebels see, even though the lights were dimming, that we were not going to give up on 'em.

I've seen football seasons like this before. But I do not believe I've ever seen the twelfth man so supportive of the Rebel machine. The "twelfth man", you ask? Yep, he/she is always around. The 12th man makes sure meals are ready for the team each week. The 12th man doesn't miss pre-season scrimmages if at all possible. The 12th man tries to hug away the hurt of defeat, and attempts to reason that a win is out there within reach. What in the world would we do without the backing of our little community??

One important group of folks that show up EVERY Friday night is the parents. Goodness gracious! They are a remarkably composed group of mommas and daddies! They have to sit through all the verbal criticism, name calling, and just plain lack of knowledge coming from the stands! As I've said numerous times, I cannot hear squat! But when I do hear the negativity I just want to find a fly swatter and remind them that they too made mistakes. I am reminded of the Bambi story. Thumper's mom said, "If you can't say anything nice, just do not say anything at all." No one hurts any more than a parent, grandparent, or even Uncle George.

I remember my high school years, and how hard we worked each week making signs for pep rallies and games. I recall how important it was to try to see every player possible wishing them good luck prior to the game. We would stand up at the games, yelling to the top of our lungs. (I guess that's why I am so loud now – that and being as deaf as a post!) You know the strange thing about all of this?? I do not remember a single loss. I do not remember a single missed tackle, and I did know what a tackle was because my brothers and sons played. I do remember a lot of wins, and I still enjoy seeing alumni when they return to visit. The bricks of solidarity have been established, and each year another brick is added by our boys of Friday night. We, the 12th man, need to add the cement to instill confidence in a fantastic team. Wish the Rebels good luck when you see them. Add a hug – I will! To you and yours, have a good week!

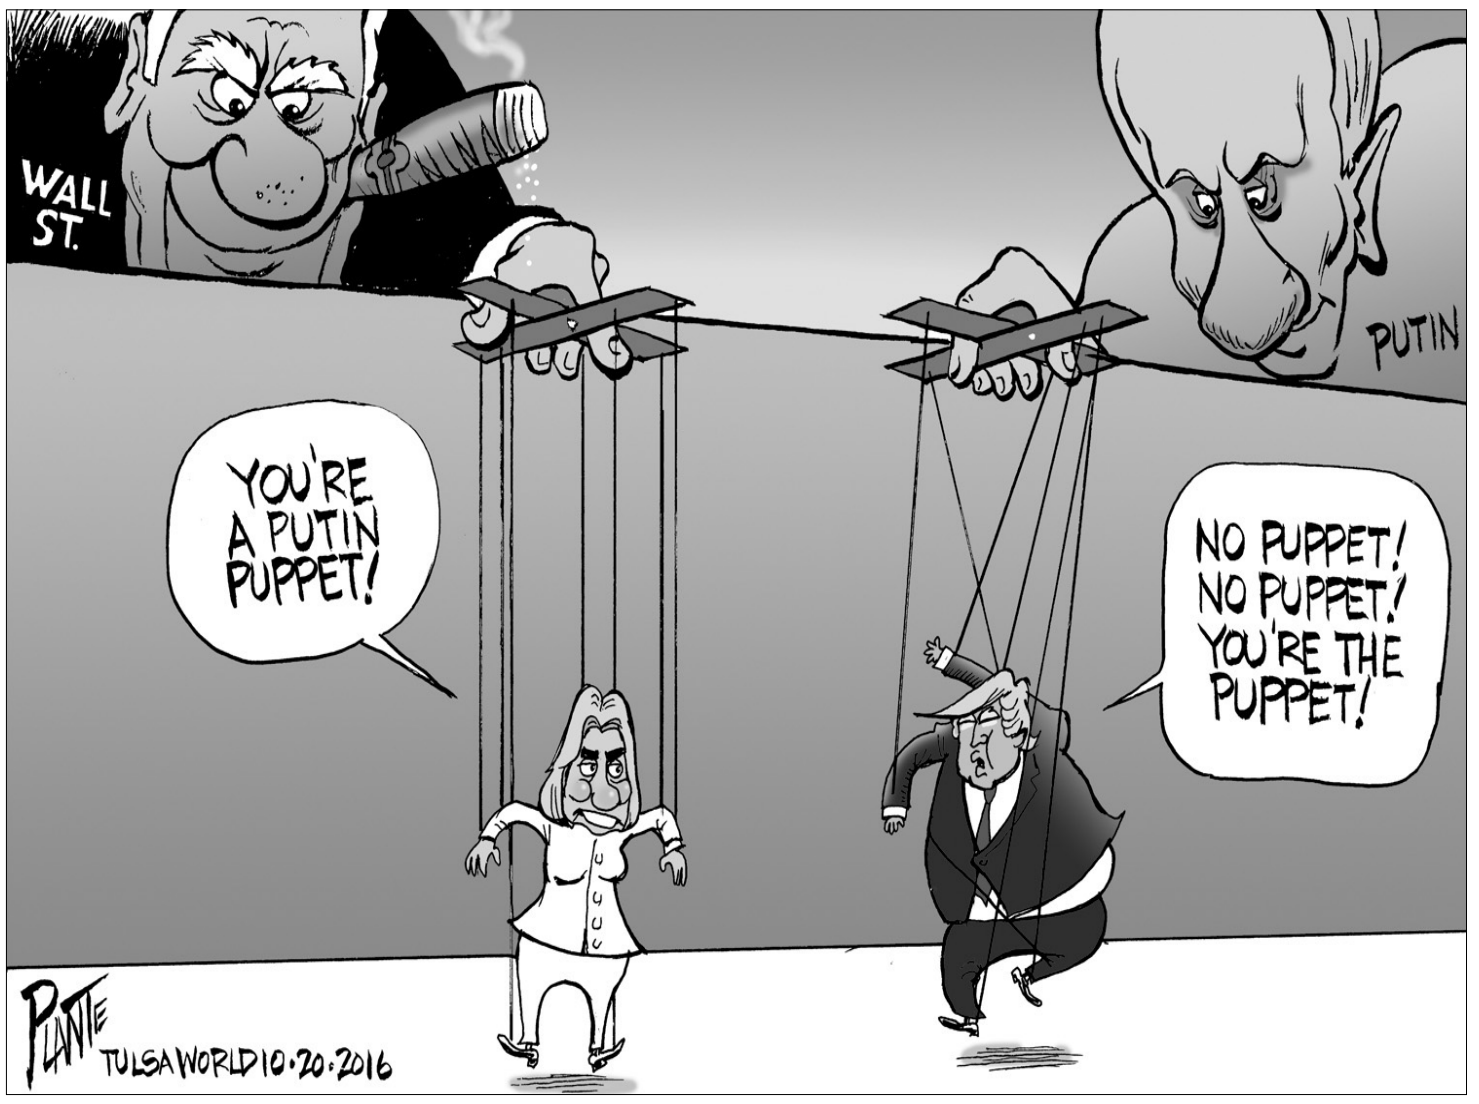

Cookout Raises $12,100 for Boyd

The personnel and staff of Huntingdon Fire and Rescue and Dilday-Carter Funeral Home joined forces to raise money for Tim Boyd, a Huntingdon resident who sustained critical injuries in a motor vehicle accident on Monday, October 10.

Boyd was extricated from the vehicle by Huntingdon Fire and Rescue when a motorist pulled out in front of him. Tim sustained spinal injuries and was airlifted to the MED in Memphis where he underwent several surgeries. He is currently paralyzed from the chest down and has limited use of his arms. He was moved last Friday to Atlanta for rehab in hopes of attaining better use of his arms and hands.

On Saturday, the first responders and Dilday-Carter hosted a bake sale, sold chances on a bar-b-que shoulder donated by Big Maxx Bar-B- Que, and sold grilled hamburgers and hot dogs. Scott and Monica Luther raffled off a beautiful angel made out of horseshoes for the cause. Many people made generous donations and everyone enjoyed the great food. People from all over the county came and many stood in line for a long time. The event cleared $12,100. Scott and Monica brought in $1,075 in their angel raffle.

Walter Smothers, director of Huntingdon Public Safety, said, "We appreciate Jackie Vandercook and Cash Savers for their support, the many people who helped out and the fantastic people that came out and supported the event. We are blessed to live in a community like we have here."

Hunker Down with Kes

The 'Monster Mash' Is Not My Song!

The thing I don't like about Halloween is the scary part. One year the Park Theatre showed "House of Frankenstein". There wasn't nothing but murder, mayhem and macabre in every room! I ran all the way home afterwards...I could hear Boris Karloff gaining on me every step of the way!

Leon got down in the woods between Bethel College and our house ahead of me and jumped out of the bushes like some wild creature. He had on that mask with the hatchet stuck in the skull. I died ten thousand deaths before I passed out from the shear fear of the moment.

I was ten or thereabouts that October. I was way old enough to know this "stuff" wasn't real. But saying it ain't so...after a genuine scary movie, a long run home being chased by a crazed mutant with metal bars sticking out of his head and having a giant with a bloody hatchet wedged into his face leap on top of you...doesn't make it ain't so!

I didn't even like being the guy wearing the mask. Mom put that lion's mask on me so Miss Boaz and Mrs. Brooks wouldn't recognize me when I knocked on their doors looking for candy. I couldn't breathe through that thing! And I had to turn sideways and squint just to barley see through one eye hole. I sure didn't want to pick out a hard rock jaw breaker if there was a Tootsie Roll in that dish she was extending!

The Jaycees went to a lot of trouble one fall to put a Haunted House in that lot beside Raymond White's service station. City Hall or more specifically, the Fire Department occupies that space today. It was actually a large tent divided into hallways and rooms. I reckon they didn't have enough money or our town was too small to have a real house.

But let me tell you, this one was more than I could stand. Me and Ricky Hale weren't holding hands as we eased into that first room—but we were huddled almighty close for safe keeping as smoke began to rise from the ground around us. A tall figure that I later thought looked like Mr. Aaron Bradfield leaped out from one corner and let out a blood curdling yell. I didn't hang around for the encore. I leaped also....into the next room.

It had spider webs hanging everywhere. I ducked and looked around for Ricky. It was so dark you couldn't see your hand in front of your face. Somebody or SOMETHING brushed by me. I couldn't see the next door...but I was fixing to make one somewhere!

A ray of light momentarily splashed in front of me and I plunged into a small hallway. Snakes, giant worms or fast moving salamanders scurried about my feet. Good Gracious, Mercy America! I wish I had my quarter back! There was something or somebody in there with me. I went cold stone still, "Ricky?"

"RICKY?"

The water hit me in the face and side. I felt a swish go by my head. Another blood curdling scream split the air. I dropped to my stomach and crawled under two tent flaps, a small table and somebody's legs till I found the safety of the sidewalk. And the street lights!

Graylene Lemonds caught up with me over by the Coke machine in front of the service station and asked if I thought that was Bobby Jack Cantrell dressed up like Dracula in the last room. "It could have been him." I didn't exactly lie. But I wasn't about to tell her I never made it to the "last" room.

"Graylene, have you seen Ricky?"

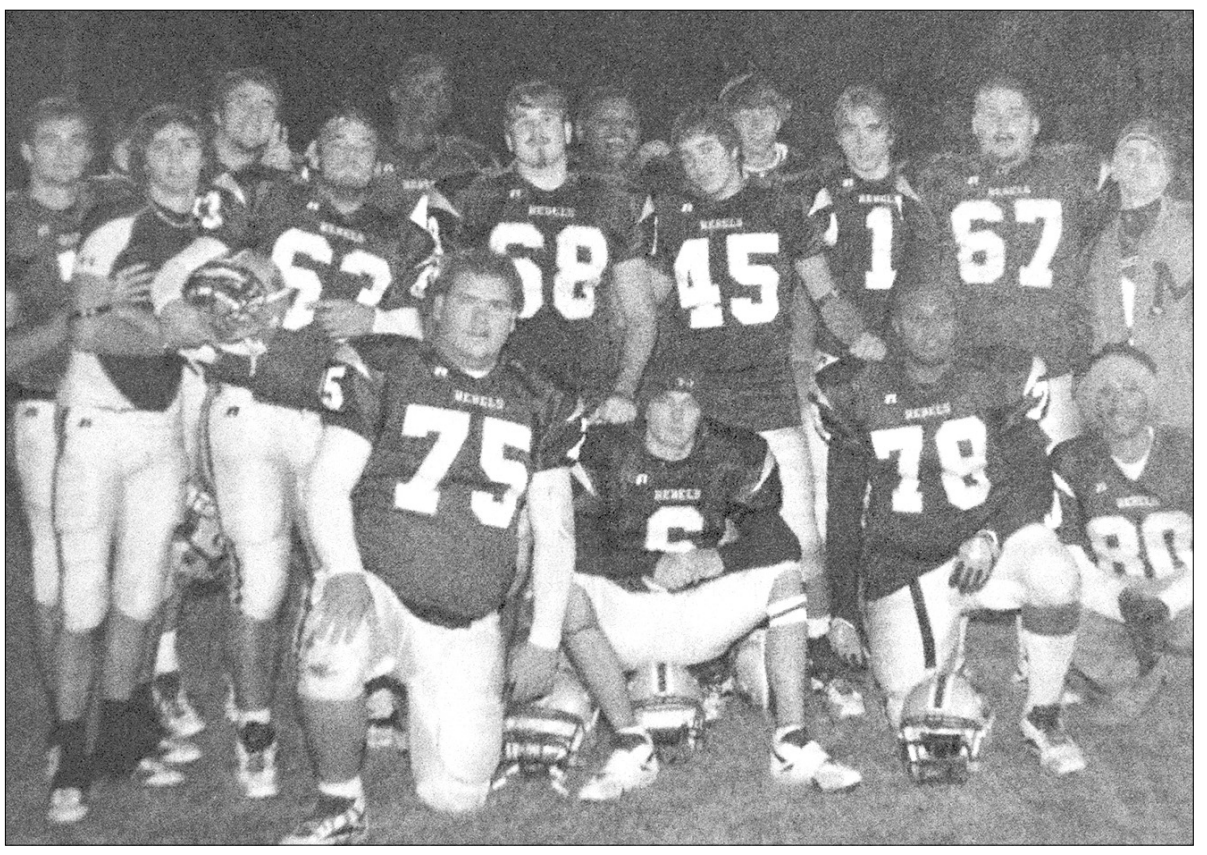

The Halloween carnival in the high school auditorium was more my speed. They kept the lights on. You could plainly see who you were fighting for the last seat in musical chairs. It only cost a dime to pick up a duck and find out what you had won. And if you missed bobbling for an apple, Miss Dinwiddie would either give you another chance or just let you pick out the apple you wanted.

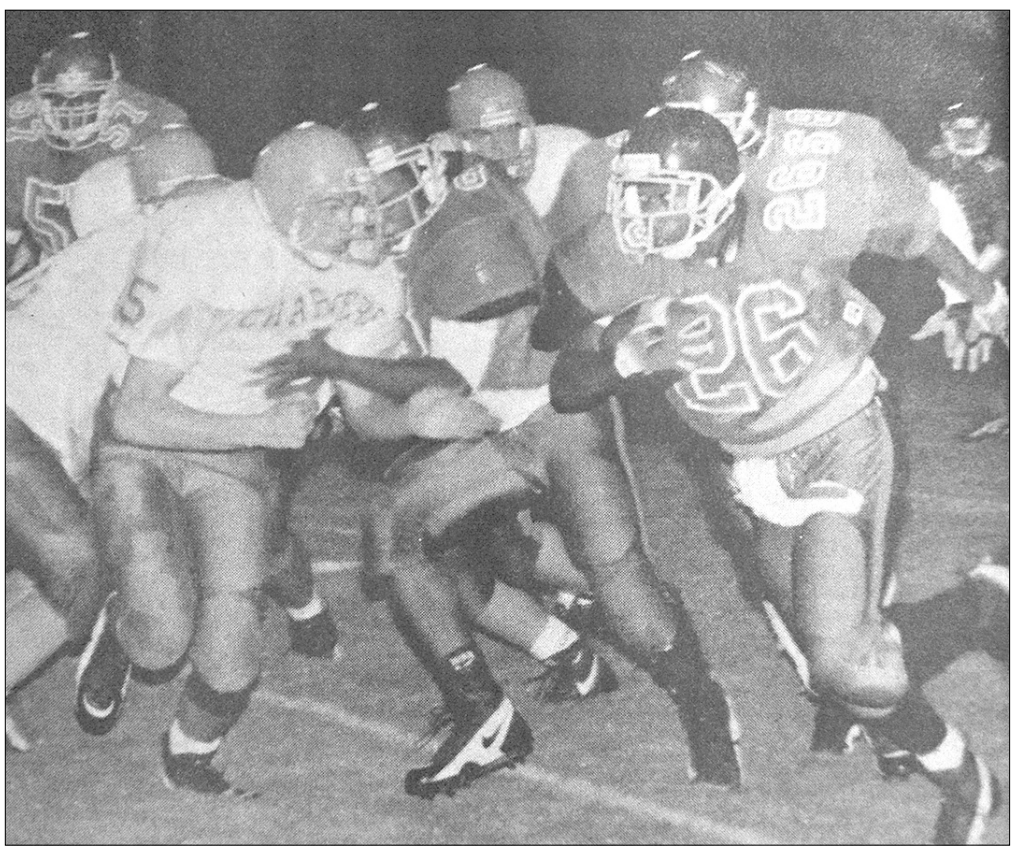

Of course, the "trick or treat" thing was the real deal about Halloween. I've come home with a sack full of Hershey bars, Baby Ruths, Zag Nuts, bubble gum, Sugar Daddies, Milk Duds and the like. Shoot, we wouldn't sleep for three days!

I could just do without the scary stuff. I don't like witches and ghouls. Orange and black have never been my favorite colors. If a black cat crosses my path, I quickly throw salt over my left shoulder. I have never seen one of those "Friday the 13th" movies. I wouldn't know Freddy Krueger if he walked through my front door. People chasing people with revved up chain saws isn't my idea of entertainment. And I don't read Stephen King novels.

I do think about Ricky Hale every Halloween. No one has seen him since he walked into the Jaycee's haunted house those many years ago...

Respectfully,
Kes

OBITUARIES

Silver Threads Quilt Guild

The September meeting of the Silver Threads Quilt guild was opened by Tammy Host. Tammy introduced guest Natalie Jordan and her son Levi, also Diane Gorley, Natalie's mother. Natalie was representing Modern Woodmen of the World. The Modern Woodmen provided the quilt group with a variety of pens and tablets to add to the tote bags. The bags, sewed by Silver Threads members, were given out at the Carroll County Fair Senior Day. Silver Thread members always enjoy participating in the Senior Day events. Their quilt display and tables full of quilt and knit related items are enjoyed by many. Lyn Wadginski hosted the tote bag table, giving away to fair goers over a hundred and fifty totes. Something for everyone, men and women alike enjoy selecting their free bag.

Quilt Guild members entered a lovely assortment of quilts to be judged. The club is proud to announce that member Bill Handley walked away with the Grand Champion ribbon and was crowned King of the fair! Member Jean Wininger received two red and a blue ribbon and Mary Towater received two red ribbons.

Silver Threads Quilt Guild meets in the Carroll County Complex on High Street in Huntingdon, they meet on the third Tuesday at 10 o'clock in the quilt room.

Jane Woods has been a member of the Silver Threads Quilt Guild since it was organized. She generously shares her knowledge of needle work with anyone asking for help. Jane also organized a crochet and knitting group years ago. It is now known as the Silver Threads Knitting group. The "Sun Bonnet Sue" is her signature quilt.

Everyone is welcome, call Tammy 731-694-0602 or Jean 731-358-4811 for more information.

Inglenook Book Club October Meeting

The Inglenook Book Club held its September meeting at Lakeside Assisted Living Center with Jean McKinnie and Elaine Williams serving as hostesses. Everyone had her choice of either pecan or pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream, nuts and M&Ms in colorful Halloween-decorated muffin cups, and assorted beverages.

President Zia Locke called the meeting to order and thanked the hostesses. Members stood for the Pledge of Allegiance and then recited the Club Aim and Motto.

The Recording Secretary called the roll and read the September minutes, which were approved as read. Treasurer Donna Ward reported the bank balance after a contribution to the library in memory of Jessie "Gaga" Killebrew. Donna also read a thank-you note received from the library.

President Locke complimented and thanked the committee chairmen on carrying out their duties each month. Our membership is at its full complement of 24 members.

"Happy Birthday" was sung to Shelia Rogers and Suzanne Russell who have birthdays this month.

There was no Old Business. Under New Business, President Locke announced the members of the Nominating Committee who will be selecting the new officers for 2017. They are Gena Manner, Sandi McMahen, and Marilynn Putman.

Members were also reminded that we should be considering the books to be put in for next year and to notify Book Secretary Mary Newman of the title and author as soon as possible. This information is also necessary for the Vice President so that the 2017 books and passing order can be published in the 2017 yearbook. The books should be hardcover and within two years of publishing date.

Vice President Victoria Ard introduced our speaker, Cindy Summers, who gave a most interesting program on Wendell Berry, a Kentucky author whose novels, essays, poems and short stories center around the area of his birth. His works stress his need to "speak out" as a renowned environmentalist.

Born in August, 1934, Berry is the first of 14 children of a lawyer/tobacco farmer in Henry County, Kentucky, where he still resides. Both sides of his family have farmed in Henry County for at least five generations. Berry earned both Bachelor and Masters Degrees at the University of Kentucky. He received an Honors Fellowship at Stanford University in Creative Writing, during which he wrote his first novel in 1960, Nathan Coulter.

Berry's writing is grounded in the notion "that one's work ought to be rooted in and not responsive to one's place." Other issues close to Berry's heart are the death penalty, which he is firmly against, and coal-fired power plants, coal-ash management, and mountain-top removal coal mines.

Recognizing the University of Kentucky's close association with coal interests in the state, Berry removed all his papers from the university, explaining to the Lexington Herald Leader, "I don't think the University of Kentucky can be so ostentatiously friendly to the coal industry… and still be a friend to me and the interests for which I have stood for the last 45 years… If they love the coal industry that much, I have to cancel my friendship." In 2012, all papers were donated to the Kentucky Historical Society in Frankfort, Kentucky.

Berry's non-fiction is an extended conversation about the life he values. According to him, a "good life includes sustainable agriculture, appropriate technologies, healthy rural communities, connection to place, the pleasures of good food, husbandry, good work, local economics, the miracle of life, fidelity, frugality, reverence, and the interconnectedness of life."

Berry's works to date include 21 works of fiction, both novels and short stories; 36 works of non-fiction; 30 collections of poetry; 14 national interviews, two of which were with Bill Moyers and Diane Rehm. His awards include national fellowships from Stanford, the Guggenheim Memorial, and the Rockefeller Foundation; the award for Modern American Poetry from the University of the South at Sewanee, Tennessee; Kentuckian of the Year; Roosevelt Institute's Freedom Medal, and many others.

Berry married in 1957 and has two grown children. In 1965 he bought a 25-acre homestead in north-central Kentucky near Port Royal where he has resided, farmed, and written ever since.

Under Announcements, the next meeting will be at Lakeside with Cindy Summers and Donna Ward as hostesses. Donna Ward also has the program.

Victoria Ard reminded everyone of the sheets circulating on which to sign up for hostess and program duties next year.

Geneva Johnson announced the current schedule at The Dixie and the Southern Festival of Books in Nashville this week-end. Also, she and Carolyn Potts discussed the Act II Committee's need for money to hire employees and the fund-raiser on October 22nd featuring the Jackson Swing Band concert at the Park Theatre, preceded by an art display at Connie's Place with refreshments. Tickets are $20 and can be obtained from any Act II Committee member.

After the book passing, members recited the benediction and the meeting adjourned.

Members present were Victoria Ard, Barbara Boyd, Peggy Chappell, Juanita Finley, Carolyn Goodwin, Geneva Johnson, Zia Locke, Gena Manner, Jean McKinnie, Sandi McMahen, Carolyn Moore, Mary Newman, Melinda Popplewell, Carolyn Potts, Shelia Rogers, Suzanne Russell, Cindy Summers, Sally Sutton, Donna Ward, and Elaine Williams.

Sweet & Salty Marshmallow Popcorn Treats

4 quarts popped popcorn
3 cups salted peanuts
1 package (12.6 ounces) milk chocolate M&Ms
1 package (16 ounces) large marshmallows
1 cup butter, softened

In a large bowl, combine the popcorn, peanuts and M&Ms. In a large saucepan, combine marshmallows and butter. Cook and stir over medium-low heat until melted. Add to popcorn mixture; mix well. When cool enough to handle, shape the popcorn mixture into 2 inch popcorn balls. Let stand until firm before wrapping in plastic.

Nuts and Seeds Trail Mix

1 cup salted pumpkin seeds or pepitas
1 cup unblanched almonds
1 cup unsalted sunflower kernels
1 cup shelled walnuts
1 cup chopped dried apricots
1 cup dark chocolate chips

In a large bowl, combine all ingredients. Store in an airtight container.

Italian Sausage and Bean Soup

1 pound bulk hot Italian sausage
2 cans (15 ½ ounces each) great northern beans, rinsed and drained
1 package (16 ounces) coleslaw mix
1 jar (24 ounces) garlic and herb spaghetti sauce
3 cups water

In a Dutch oven, cook the sausage over medium heat until no longer pink; drain. Stir in the remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil. Reduce the heat; simmer, uncovered, for 16-20 minutes or until the flavors are blended.

Old Fashioned Ice Cream Sodas

¾ cup chocolate syrup
1 cup milk
4 coups carbonated water, chilled
8 scoops chocolate ice cream (about 2 2/3 cups), divided

Whipped cream in a can, optional

Place 3 tablespoons syrup in each of four 16 ounce glasses. Add ¼ cup milk and 1 cup carbonated water to each; stir until foamy. Add two scoops of chocolate ice cream to each glass. Top with whipped cream if desired.

McKenzie's J&J Auto Racing Wins Again

McKENZIE — When the 2016 World of Outlaws (WoO) Craftsman Sprint Car Series season concludes on Oct. 29 in Concord, North Carolina, world renowned Sprint Car chassis builders and McKenzie, Tennessee's Jack and Bonnie Elam, along with their iconic brand, J&J Auto Racing, will be honored for the third consecutive season as the 2016 Chassis Builder of the Year for the prestigious touring series. The manufacturer, which is based in McKenzie, Tenn., provides Sprint Car frames and components to racing teams around the world.

J&J Auto Racing's headlining team, along with soon-to-be eight-time WoO Series champion, Donny Schatz, is none other than Sprint Car racing powerhouse Tony Stewart Racing (TSR.) Owned by three-time NASCAR Sprint Cup Series champion, Tony Stewart, TSR operates from a 25,000-square-foot facility based in Brownsburg, Ind. Leading the series standings by an insurmountable 286 points, Schatz has driven to an impressive 24 WoO Series victories as of press time.

"I'm a guy that's big on loyalty, and I'm very proud to have raced and won with J&J Auto Racing for over 16 years," said Schatz. "To stay at the top of the game in this business, you have to have a great team. My guys at TSR, Rick Warner, Steve Swenson and Brad Mariscotti are among the best in the business. I have the utmost confidence in them and I'm proud to work with them.

"I'm also proud to have J&J and Jack and Bonnie [Elam] on our team. The hours that they and the staff in Tennessee put in to help us get ahead and stay ahead speak volumes about their brand. I know when I strap into the car that I've got a safe chassis underneath me and the hard work and attention to detail that goes into each and every car is carried into victory lane with us."

Schatz has been exclusive to J&J Auto Racing since 2001 and has compiled impressive stats as the WoO Series heads into the season conclusion, the Bad Boy Off Road World Finals, at The Dirt Track @ Charlotte in Concord, North Carolina, on Oct. 27 – 29. In addition to 24 victories in 2016, Schatz has posted 58 top-five finishes, 75 top-10 finishes and five pole position awards heading into the series finale later this week.

The chassis that Schatz and the TSR team have competed with this season were manufactured by J&J Auto Racing throughout the year in 2016. Schatz began the season in February with chassis and components that were delivered in late 2015 for the TSR team. J&J Auto Racing works closely with TSR and other teams throughout the season to provide new chassis, parts and technical support to Sprint Car teams in the United States and around the world.

"It's truly a privilege to work with a first-class driver and team like Donny Schatz and Tony Stewart Racing," said Jack Elam. "The dedication that Donny and the TSR organization put into each and every event they compete in is simply unmatched. We're proud that TSR has the amount of faith in J&J Auto Racing to entrust us to keep their team at the top of the sport. They give us an opportunity to grow and develop new approaches to chassis and parts and we're proud of the successes that we're accomplishing together."

J&J Auto Racing has amassed an impressive portfolio in 2016, earning championships in several different national Sprint Car divisions, including the 410ci, 360ci, 305ci and 358ci classes. With clientele currently competing in the United States, Australia and New Zealand, the brand continues to build to an already impressive resume' and reputation of excellence.

"Our staff is the backbone of J&J Auto Racing," said Elam. "The hard work that our team puts in at the shop each day equates to the amount of pride that we have when we're able to help our customers achieve their goals. To have such a broad range of relationships with so many race teams around the world is an honor for all of us at J&J. We can't thank the team owners, drivers, teams and sponsors that put their trust in us to deliver results enough."

The Elams, along with J&J Auto Racing, will be recognized as the 2016 Chassis Builder of the Year on Oct. 30 during the WoO Series banquet at the Great Wolf Lodge in Concord, North Carolina. For more information regarding the World Finals event, please visit http://www.worldofoutlawsworldfinals.com/. For additional information regarding the WoO Series, please visit www.woosprint.com.

For more than 40 years, J&J Auto Racing has been a leader in racecar chassis manufacturing. With intricate attention to detail and a willingness to provide chassis to the consumer's specifications, J&J has taken its place as a leader in Sprint car racing innovation and safety. Founded and headed by Jack and Bonnie Elam, J&J Auto Racing is based in McKenzie, Tenn. Gleason Rotary Learns About Rolling Thunder

By Jason Martin
jmartin@mckenziebanner.com

GLEASON (October 17) — Jim Phelps, President of Tennessee Chapter VI of Rolling Thunder, was the program presenter for the Gleason Rotary Club's regular meeting. Phelps informed the Rotarians about Rolling Thunder and the organization's activities.

With 98 chapters nationwide, Rolling Thunder attempts to bring attention to POW-MIA issues. The group is a constant reminder to the government, media and public as the group holds firm to their watchwords "We Will Never Forget!"

Rolling Thunder was founded in 1987 by Ray Manzo, John Holland, Walt Sides and Ted Sampley. There are a few misconceptions about the group; the group is not a motorcycle club and not all members are veterans.

The advocacy group is very active in lobbying for legislation for POW-MIAs, veterans and veteran families.

At the local level, Phelps and his chapter actively help at veteran homes and local nursing homes, sponsor street dedications and attend funerals and flag lines honoring the fallen.

Phelps also spoke about the annual Memorial Day Run in Washington, D.C.

The Gleason Rotary Club meets each Monday at 6:00 p.m.

City Planners Meet Wednesday

The McKenzie Municipal-Regional Planning Commission meets Wednesday, October 26, at the McKenzie Municipal Complex at 3 p.m.

A public hearing will be held to discuss a Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program that the City is considering seeking. Comments from the public will help determine priorities for the use of the grant funds.

Also on the agenda is a review of the Julia Winters application for Property Reclassification concerning properties located at 459 E. Clark Street and 1515 Cedar Street.

First Miss Dixie PAC Pageant is Saturday

HUNTINGDON — For the first time, The Dixie Carter Performing Arts and Academic Enrichment Center is hosting a scholarship pageant and Miss Tennessee preliminary.

Miss Dixie PAC will be held Saturday, Oct. 29 at 7 p.m. The one-day event to select a representative for The Dixie and Huntingdon honors the late Dixie Carter. Special guest, Grace Burgess, Miss Tennessee 2016, will join us as the Master of Ceremonies for the pageant. Applications to be in the pageant are available on the dixiepac.net website. "Dixie was an exemplary representative of a Southern woman with grace, talent, brains, and beauty," said Lori Neal Nolen, Executive Director of The Dixie. "With this title, we look to provide a well-spoken woman a forum in which to share her talents and intelligence through program support in educational efforts and community service."

The late Dixie Carter, a native of McLemoresville, Tenn., was named Miss Huntingdon and placed first runner-up for the Miss Tennessee crown in 1959. She graduated from Memphis State and made her professional acting debut in a 1960 production of "Carousel" in Memphis. She moved to New York in 1963 where she continued to work on stage.

Tickets for pageant contestants for Miss Dixie PAC pageant are $15 each and are available at The Dixie box office in downtown Huntingdon, by calling 731-986-2100, and online at dixiepac.net. Applications for pageant contestants is on the pageant event page at dixiepac.net.

See you at The Dixie!

West Tennessee Antique Tractor Show

Annual Festival Draws Big Crowd

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

ATWOOD (October 10) — As blue skies and moderate temperatures prevailed, an enthusiastic crowd of vintage tractor enthusiasts from West Tennessee, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri and beyond gathered for the antique tractor Show in Atwood.

As attendee's fellowshipped and examined pristinely-restored and proudly-rusting antique tractors, Darrell Thomas of Stanton and James Oswald of Brownsville spoke with this reporter about Thomas' gleaming, fully-restored 1941 John Deere Model G.

Smiling as he displayed the 1941 Model G John Deere's official certificate of authenticity, Thomas said, "I was raised on a farm working with my daddy in the fields. I have farmed all of my life, and always loved tractors. I am so pleased with the excellent job that James Oswald did in restoring my 1941 John Deere Model G. Son-do you want to hear it run?"

Without hesitation, I replied "yes".

In response, Oswald confidently turned the tractor's flywheel by hand a few times before the magnificent monolith roared to life, its powerful piston stroke drawing the interest of numerous enthusiasts who quickly converged to admire the engine's flawless performance.

Adjusting the fuel mixture, Oswald said, "Just like Darrell, I grew up on the farm. I have always been around tractors. My daddy ran an orchid business, and I remember as a young child riding with him to the railroad depot in Brownsville to pick up orchid seedlings that were delivered by train and planting those seedlings on Christmas day-such good memories. Like Darrell, I've spent my life farming, and I really enjoy being around farm equipment."

He continued, "I have a real passion for restoring antique tractors for others and for myself. I have restored six John Deere tractors from this particular era, and own many tractors myself."

Oswald stated that the engine design for the 1941 John Deere Model G is ingenious in its simplicity.

He said, "The people that designed and built these tractor engines back then were very smart. If you opened this tractor engine up, you would be surprised at how few parts this engine contains. The genius of the design is in how those few parts are synchronized to work together. The single piston only hits every other time, but everything has to be perfectly timed to make this engine fire up and run. The design is truly brilliant."

Standing beside a rust-laden yet awe-inspiring 1936 John Deere Model A, Oswald concluded, "Darrell's 1941 John Deere Model G came off the production line in Minneapolis, Minnesota on February 17, 1941. After being stored in the warehouse for only two days, the tractor was shipped to its owner in Aberdeen, South Dakota to work in the vast fields of America's heartland. This 75-year old tractor represents a significant time in the history of our great nation, and I am proud to been afforded the blessing of restoring it. Doing so was a very satisfying experience for me and I'm glad that Darrell enjoys it."

The event was part of the annual West Tennessee Antique Engine and Tractor Show that commenced on Friday, October 9 in the park located at the intersection of Highway 70 and 79.

The event featured a wide variety of antique tractors, cars, equipment and engines.

In addition, attendees enjoyed shopping at the flea market and crafts exhibits and dining on delicious grilled hamburgers, hotdogs and refreshments.

McKenzie Downtown Restoration, Phase II

Williams, CDL Receive Façade Upgrades

Chris Frederick, an employee of Armour Roofing Company in McKenzie, utilizes a lift to spray paint bricks near the roof of Williams Furniture.

McKENZIE (October 7) — Following the fall, 2015 completion of phase I, LPRF grant-funded structural façade restoration and painting of the Park Theatre and other business fronts located on McKenzie's downtown by MSB Construction of Jackson, paint crews are meticulously repairing, sanding, texturing, priming and painting business facades at Williams Furniture and Crossett Dental Lab via Phase II grant funding.

Specific colors approved by the Historical Society are available for selection by store owners.

During an interview with The McKenzie Banner, Armour Roofing Company owner Brian Armour said, "We just completed the façade restoration to Jack Martin Antiques and are currently working on the front and sides of Williams Furniture. After we complete our work at Williams Furniture, we will move on to Goose's Computer Repair and Games. Good weather has helped us to move forward with the jobs."

He continued, "Another company (David Bell Construction of Gleason) is renovating the windows and front façade of CDL across the street. They seem to be moving along pretty well, too."

Stopping momentarily from intricately painting accent trim near the roof line above Crossett Dental Lab, David Bell, owner of Bell Construction of Gleason, said, "The only downtown business front I am rehabbing on this phase is CDL. In addition to painting the store front and trim, I am rehabbing the three windows that were previously covered. I am replacing the wood casings and reworking the window panes. Exposing the windows will really highlight CDL's façade upgrade."

McKenzie Economic Development Director Jennifer Waldrup said that the second phase of the renovation was being funded via a $100,000 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) with 75 / 25 Matching Grant.

She said, "Business owners receiving façade upgrades are obligated to pay 25-percent of the cost for their building enhancement. Williams Furniture is receiving paint upgrades to the front and both sides of the building and Crossett Dental Lab is receiving new paint and window renovations to the front. Other businesses receiving façade upgrades include Jack Martin's Antiques, Goose's, and a building owned by Josh and Alicia Crawford."

She continued, "David Bell Construction owner is a preservationist, and is doing an excellent job of restoring the windows located above CDL. The finished result of his efforts will be quite impressive. I am also pleased with the work being performed by Brian Armour and his crew. The upgrades to downtown are great."

Along with McKenzie, Athens, Brownsville, Centerville, Lewisburg, Linden, Mountain City, Henderson, Pikesville, Red Boiling Springs, Rockwood, and Smithville were selected via successful application for federal funding for the Tennessee Downtown Round Two project.

District 76 House of Representatives

Castleman Ready to Serve

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

(Edited by Joel Washburn)

McKENZIE (October 11) — Settling into his seat in this reporter's office, Martin resident and Tennessee District 76 House of Representatives independent candidate Bennie Castleman, accompanied by his wife, Barbara Carmichael Castleman, began, "It seems like these days most political people only want to talk about the shortcomings of others. I choose to dwell on what I am going to do for the people of the 76th District (Carroll, Weakley, and Obion counties). My desire is to represent our communities in a positive manner and seek all opportunities to draw economic prosperity back to our region."

He continued, "Middle and East Tennessee are booming, while Northwest Tennessee is bleeding. We are at an economic crossroads in West Tennessee, and all of us have important decisions to make today that will impact the futures of our children in the years to come. We must embrace our responsibility to promote ourselves and our region. We must be seen and heard by state leaders. We cannot place a bushel over our light."

The former Weakley County Commissioner said, "Too many elected officials have no interest in listening to others. They have their own agendas, and their concerns are the only concerns that matter to them. We cannot continue to let closed-minded politicians represent us."

He said, "I am a man of the people. I am for everyone-not just a few. As a former school teacher and athletic coach, I understand the importance of working with others to achieve common goals. One of our biggest common goals in District 76 is economic growth. If elected, I will talk to Governor Haslam, state economic advisors, and fellow lawmakers in Nashville about the problems facing our region and seek their help in assisting Northwest Tennessee to prosper again. I represent a rural district that has lost a lot of tax base because of decreased industry. For industry to redevelop in our communities, we must advocate for education and job training."

District 76 House of Representatives' independent candidate Bennie Castleman.

Castleman noted that elected officials must lessen the burden placed on teachers to deal with voluminous paperwork to free them to focus on educating students.

He said, "The 76th District has to come together to improve schools. We must work with school administrators and teachers to determine what they need in order to help them better educate our children at the local level. All of our teachers work very hard, and they need our consistent support. We must also encourage young people to pursue technical education so that companies interested in moving to our region will have sufficient numbers of smart, technically-trained employees to build and expand their businesses with."

He added, "In turn, I will do my part by seeking infrastructure grants to develop sites for industry in our communities."

He concluded, "I will work for everyone, Republican, Democrat, and Independent. I believe that every opinion matters and that every voice deserves to be heard. I also believe that great things can happen economically for the people of the 76th District and Northwest Tennessee if we work as one. I want to be part of the solution. My door will always be open, and I will strive to do what is best for everyone."

A native of Halls, Castleman received Bachelor of Science and Masters in Education degrees from the University of Tennessee at Martin prior to teaching and coaching basketball and track at Greenfield Elementary School, Obion Central High School, and Gleason Elementary School.

A military veteran, he served in the United States Air Force and the Army National Guard Unit in Union City.

He attends First Baptist Church in Martin where he serves as Sunday school teacher and usher.

Castleman and his wife, Barbara, reside in Martin. They are the proud parents of three children; Claire (Jay) Oliver of Dresden, Kelly (Tim) Smith of Adamsville, and Bryan (Candace) Castleman of Martin, and six grandchildren.

1944 Teammates Cheer on Rebels

By Jason Martin
jmartin@mckenziebanner.com

McKENZIE (October 21) — The beauty in athletics and especially the game of football is the lasting friendship that develops between teammates. One such friendship is between Al Thomason and Kenny Mitchum.

The once young men wore the Rebel red and gray playing under Bethel University Hall of Fame coach Lon Varnell. Mitchum played left end in the 1944 season and Thomason was the starting quarterback the following year.

As the Rebels played the Riverside Panthers on Friday night, the teammates reunited to watch the Rebel victory. Both men, now in their late 80s, were introduced at half-time.

Standing and waving to the cheering crowd, Mitchum and Thomason donned their playing numbers. Mitchum wore a replica of his #38 jersey while Thomason had half of his original #27.

Thomason had shared the #27 jersey with teammate Bill Scates from the 1944 season. At the conclusion of the 1945 season, they cut the jersey in half so each could have a souvenir from their days as a McKenzie Rebel. This was a tradition for many players during that time.

At the conclusion of the 1944 season, Mitchum joined the Navy in the spring of his senior year. Thomason joined the Navy the following year.

Rebel teammates and longtime friends, Al Thomason (#27) and Kenny Mitchum (#38) stand for recognition at halftime. Thomason pinned the remaining half of his original jersey to his shirt so he could once again wear it to a McKenzie football game.

A war and military service did not keep the two men apart. During the early 1950s both were at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. It was at this point, Thomason was set up on a blind date with his future wife Lois by Mitchum and his wife.

Careers took each man on separate paths and locations, but the two friends never lost touch. After 72 years, the two Rebels were back together only this time not on the field.

On the same night were Thomason and Mitchum were honored at the high school, their coach, Varnell, was enshrined in the Hall of Fame at Bethel. The 1944 season played by Thomason and Mitchum had a season record of 7-3 with wins over Milan and Huntingdon along with the Little Ten Championship.

The team's success was in part due to the team's ability and the newest formation brought in by Varnell. Varnell brought the "T" formation to McKenzie from the University of Kentucky. The head coach for the Wildcats was the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant.

GLEASON (October 21) — After falling to Peabody in a close game, South Fulton looked to get back on a winning track to end the season. The Red Devils got back on track in a big way with a 54-0 blanking of Gleason Friday night.

The visitors were dominant in the victory limiting the Bulldogs to 30 yards of total offense while piling up 470 yards – all on the ground. Gleason went nearly the entire game without picking up a first down until the last series when the Dawgs netted two.

Coach Noah Lampkins praised the efforts of South Fulton in the win, but also admitted his squad continues to struggle with maintaining aggression in a game situation.

"They play good quality football," he said. "They bring size and speed. They execute well and they are coached well. They do a good job of resetting the line of scrimmage and bringing the physicality. I am disappointed in our overall aggression. These are kids I can count on to be there every day, but if they are committed to making the sacrifices, I don't understand why they don't have that edge to them."

It was senior night and the Bulldogs have five of them – Riley Holloman, Timothy Russell, Heath Keeling, Michael Hicks and Frazier Wilson.

Russell and Chandler Brawner both saw action at the quarterback position and as Brawner normally lines up at tight end, Lampkins gave him credit for the effort he put forth at QB. Lampkins also praised the work of Wilson, who did not play last season.

"We're glad he came back," he said. "He has really improved on defense and is one of the best defensive linemen. He is also very good in the classroom and is very respectful."

Dawson Arnold led the offense with eight carries for 23 yards.

On the flip side, Kody Davidson had 140 yards and three touchdowns on seven carries. Jalen Scott picked up 90 yards and a pair of touchdowns on eight carries.

To end the season, Gleason will travel to Peabody to take on the Tide Friday night.

"We had a good week of practice," Lampkins said. "I thought we would execute better, but we're behind the eight ball. It is a challenge every week. Peabody is coached well, they are physical and they execute. We have to control our energy and our attitude we bring to the game."

South Fulton won the coin toss, but deferred possession to the second half. Gleason started on its own 33, but Brawner's pass was intercepted at the 45 by Hayden Kelly. Three plays later, Davidson ran into the endzone from 11 yards out. T.J. George kicked the extra point and with 10:52 left in the first, South Fulton led 7-0.

Gleason punted on its next series after gaining just a yard from Brawner and the visitors took over at midfield. With one handoff to Gevin Courtney, the Red Devils were on the scoreboard again. George's kick put South Fulton up 14-0 with 9:01 left in the first.

On third and long after Gleason suffered two delay-of-game penalties, Davidson intercepted the pass. Scott needed just two carries – for 36 and 10 yards respectively – to put another six on the board. George's kick made it a 21-0 game with 6:40 remaining in the opening quarter.

After a Gleason three-and-out, Davidson carried the ball twice and found the endzone from 43 yards away. George's kick widened the margin to 28-0 with 4:35 on the clock.

HUNTINGDON (October 20) — In middle school basketball action, the McKenzie Lady Rebels combined aggressive defensive take aways and rebounding with the offensive production of game-high scorer Lilly Bennett (20) and four Ashleigh Britt trifectas to overpower the Huntingdon Fillies, 56-34. In the nightcap, the Rebels, paced offensively by Johnathan Moore (16) and Jake McDaniel (12) jumped out to 27-10 halftime lead before withering a fierce Mustang comeback bid to earn a 48-33 victory. Mustang Grant Bartholomew (16) led Huntingdon's blistering third quarter resurgence with two three-pointers, two deuces, and two charity stripe conversions.

Lady Rebels 56, Fillies 34

In physical first quarter action, Huntingdon and McKenzie battled beneath the board as Lady Rebel Dani Dyer netted seven points including a deuce at the buzzer to give her team a narrow, 14-13 lead. Huntingdon was paced offensively in the first square via the production of Lydia Lutz (5), Addyn Postlewait (4) and respective deuces by Brooke Butler and Kenadie Gibson (2).

Ramping up in the second frame, McKenzie utilized steal and scores by Lilly Bennett (6), an Ashley Britt three-pointer from the right corner and charity toss, a two-pointer in the paint by Anna Callahan and free throw conversion by Dyer to outscore the fillies, 15-7, and lead at the half, 29-20. Huntingdon was led offensively in the second clip by way of Butler three-pointer and deuces by Postlewait and Caytee Maxwell.

Resuming play in the second half, McKenzie blew the game wide open by scorching the nets via Britt's three trifectas and two charity conversions, a pair of deuces and five free throw tosses by Bennett, and a deuce and charity swish by Callahan to outscore Huntingdon, 20-6 and lead at the start of the fourth frame, 49-26.

Playing for pride, Huntingdon cobbled the production

Faulkner Spoils Bethel Homecoming, 24-13

By Dave McCulley
Bethel University Sports Information Director

MCKENZIE (October 22) — Bethel Coach Chris Elliott had told his football squad several times this season mistakes and penalties would cost them if those trends continued to be factors. Those things and a stout Faulkner defense were certainly factors in No. 16 Bethel's 24-13 Homecoming loss.

Bethel fell to 7-1 overall and 1-1 in the MSC West Division. Faulkner moved to 4-4 and 2-2 in the West.

Ryan Curran' first quarter 23-yard field goal was the only score of the first stanza giving the Eagles a 3-0 lead.

Bethel's Taye Davis gave the Cats a 7-3 lead on a four-yard run in the second period. The impressive drive was engineered by Braxton Baugus who had entered the game after an injury to Kerry Sellers II.

Casey Kammerzell knocked in a 23-yard field goal in the third quarter to give the Cats a 10-3 advantage.

Faulkner's Joe Jones tied the game with a 13 yard run later in the quarter.

Kammerzell connected on a 37-yard field goal and Bethel retook the lead at 13-10 with three minutes left in the third.

Faulkner quarterback Clayton Nicholas hit receiver Terrance Sims for a go-ahead score with 33 seconds left and Faulkner led 17-13 at the end of three.

The final score was a Nicholas pass to Keithon Redding with just over two minutes left in the game to give the Eagles the 24-13 victory.

Both squads fought through key penalties in the game. Faulkner had 100 penalty yards while Bethel had 63. The Wildcats had a season low 299 yards on offense. One of the key stats of the game was Faulkner's advantage in passing at 272-97.

Sellers was able to come back in the second half and finished 8-of-19 in the air. Baugus was 5-of-9 in passing. Taye Davis led Bethel in rushing with 76 yards while Sellers had 59 on the ground. Jones led Faulkner with 80 yards on the ground. Trent Miles was a factor with 50 yards on 19 carries. Nicholas completed 26 of his 40 attempts along with the two touchdowns.

Rebels Defeat Panthers, Robinson Breaks Record

By Jason Martin
jmartin@mckenziebanner.com

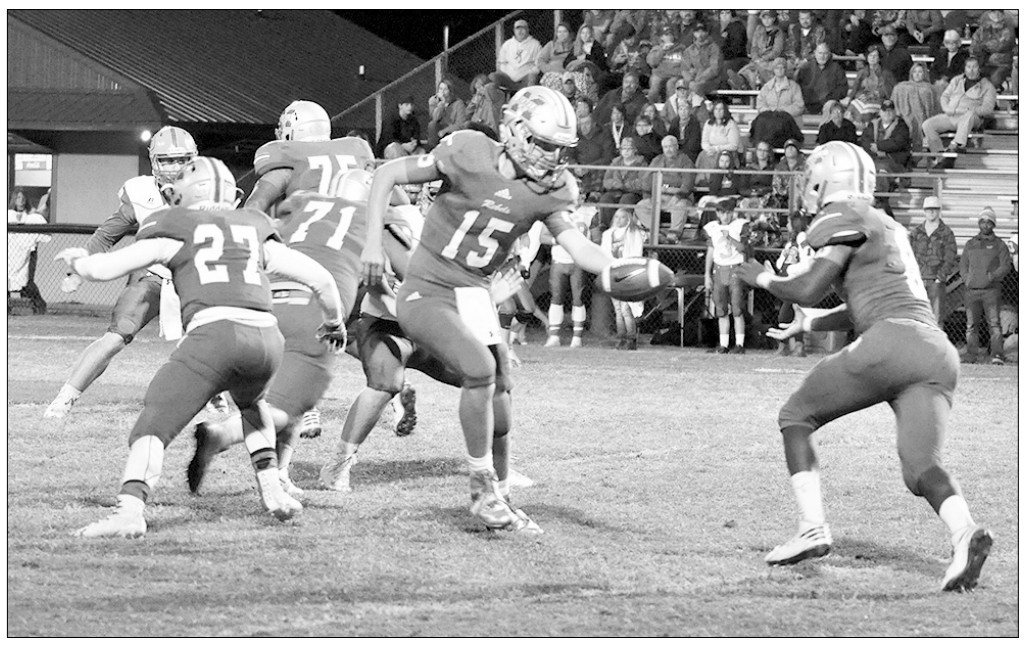

McKENZIE (October 21) — The Rebels snapped their five game slide Friday night defeating the Riverside Panthers 48-17. McKenzie played a well-balanced game offensively and defensively against Riverside.

Eric Robinson led the way with 212 rushing yards, three touchdowns and became the all-time leader in career rushing yards for McKenzie High School with 4,076 yards. The previous record was held by Cody Cook (2001-2004) with 3951 yards.

The Rebel defense held the Panthers to 270 yards and 11 first downs. Offensively, McKenzie accumulated 418 yards; 152 came by way of passing and 266 on the ground with 14 first downs. Zach Jarrett passed for three touchdowns teaming with Donovan Foley for one and Tyler Spivey for two.

Lucas Waddell led the defense with seven tackles followed by Sean Beck, Julius Owens, Jake Trevathan and Paul Watkins each with two solo tackles and numerous assists.

Turnovers and penalties were still a problem for the Rebels. By nights end, they turned the ball over twice on fumbles and had 111 yards in penalties.

Riverside won the coin toss and elected to receive the opening kickoff. The Panthers went three-and-out and punted to the Rebels.

McKenzie looked to score on the opening drive after crossing mid-field but turned the ball over on downs on fourth-and-short from the Panther 39 yard line.

Riverside capitalized on the next drive on a pair for passes totaling 59 yards and an offsides penalty provided a first down. Spencer Odle caught the TD pass from 34 yards out from Drake Smith as Jordan Tyler added the PAT. The Panthers led 7-0 at the opening 4:19 mark.

Region 6 1A Championship

Mustangs Battle, Bow to Wildcats, 34-14

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

HUNTINGDON (October 21) — In a highly-anticipated, Region 6A championship showdown between undefeated and third-ranked Wayne County and tenth-ranked Huntingdon before a capacity crowd at Paul Ward Stadium, Wildcat marquee quarterback and probable Mr. Football finalist Preston Rice consistently eluded the Mustang seven-man rush to exploit Huntingdon's secondary via five-touchdown completions as the Wildcats defeated the Mustangs on Senior Night , 34-14.

Huntingdon was led offensively by Dylan Johnson (11-yard touchdown rush) and Zach Dodson (17-yard leaping touchdown pass reception from Kade Pearson.

Huntingdon was once again led by the relentless tackling of linebacker Marvaughn McClerkin. Also providing big stops for Huntingdon were Michael Arnhold, Austin Avery, Johnson, and Pearson. Consistent quarterback pressure was applied throughout the contest by defensive lineman Clay Carver.

Prior to the game, Huntingdon senior football players, cheerleaders, band members, and AB Club members and their families were honored.

Huntingdon won the coin toss and elected to receive. Wildcat kicker Tracy Grove's bounding, game-opening onside kick was pounced on by Huntingdon at its own 39. After Wayne County was penalized five yards for jumping offside prior to the snap, Pearson kept and barreled to midfield to move the chains. Attacking inside, Dodson weaved through defenders to the Wildcat 41. Racing behind his offensive line's lead blocking, Johnson moved the chains at the Wayne County 30. Responding, Wildcat Preston Rice tackled Johnson from behind for a loss of 8 and Cameron Ruddle dropped Dodson in the backfield for a loss of six back to the Huntingdon 44. At the 8:50 mark of the first frame, Pearson fired a pass under pressure that was intercepted By Brian Harris at the Wayne County 14 and returned to the Wildcat 38.

Wayne County crossed midfield quickly via 11-yard sweep right side by Avery Davis and first down toss by Rice to Dawson Mathis at the Mustang 41. The Wildcats moved the chains again at the Huntingdon 25 via Brilee Harris left side rush. Rolling under pressure to escape Huntingdon's all-out pass rush; Rice fired only his second interception of the season to Travious Gordon who returned the ball to the Mustang 27.

Huntingdon netted a tough first down via Johnson rush to the Mustang 37 before Pearson's pass in the left flat was bobbled by a Mustang receiver and intercepted at the 3:58 mark by Wildcat Harris at the Huntingdon 38.

Racing to the line, Rice fired a first down strike to Harris at the 19 before Ruddle was dropped for a loss of two by McClerkin. Davis then battled to the 15 before being brought down by Austin Avery. At the 2:11 mark of the first canto, Rice, facing third and seven, avoided Mustang pass rushers to deliver a 21-yard scoring strike to Brayden Johnson. Hargrove's PAT kick was good as Wayne County led Huntingdon 7-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Battling back, Huntingdon, starting on its 45 via Tyler Perritt onside kick recovery, utilized the elusive rushing of Dodson to net a first down at the Wayne County 37. Johnson then powered to the 24 before darting right side to move the chains at the Wildcat 11. Pearson kept for a gain of 2 before a Huntingdon offside infraction moved the ball back to the 14. At the 10:56 mark of the second quarter, Pearson rolled right and fired a lofting pass that was Banton Price led Faulkner with nine total tackles. Hunter Reid was a big key as well for the Eagles with eight stops. Trey'Von Brown led all tacklers with 12 tackles. He also had a sack giving him 7.5 on the season. The sacks tie him for most sacks in one season. Eddie Brown had the same number in 2006 while former Cat Terrance Thomas accomplished the same feat in 2015.

Coach Elliott commented on his post-game radio show. "Give Faulkner a lot of credit. They did a good job containing our offense. Along with that we were our own worst enemy at times. Too many mistakes and mental errors caught up with us. One game doesn't make a season but we have to fight back and close out strong against three very tough opponents. This league and division is tough no doubt."

snared high in the air by Dodson over a Wildcat defender. Orry Hodo's PAT kick was wide to the right as Huntingdon cut Wayne County's lead, 7-6.

Storming back, Wayne County capped its quick, 80-yard, six-play drive at the 10:04 mark of the second stanza as Rice completed a 19-yard scoring strike to Harris in the right corner of the endzone. Hargrove's PAT boot was good as Wayne County extended its lead, 14-6.

Huntingdon roared back as Keeton Bailey returned the kickoff to the Mustang 34 and Pearson kept for a first down at midfield. Johnson swept left side to move the chains at the Wildcat 40. Pearson then fired a nine-yard pass completion to Bailey before battling inside for a first down at the 27. Ramping up, Wildcat defenders tackled Pearson via misdirection keeper for a loss of ten and defended an ensuing deep pass intended for Bailey before forcing Huntingdon to punt. Tyrese Mebane's rugby-style, end-over end punt bounced at the four and was carried into the endzone by a speeding DeJuan Raglin for a touchback.

On the ensuing snap, Mustang Carver tackled Rice for no gain before the shifty signal caller fired a first down completion to Mathis at the Wildcat 31. Rice kept for a gain of 8 before a questionable late-hit penalty on the quarterback on the next play moved the ball to the Mustang 45. Rice kept on consecutive plays to net a first down at the HHS 31 with 2:30 remaining in the first half. McClerkin stopped Rice following a gain of six before Avery netted a first down at the 20. With 54.5 seconds remaining in the half, Rice rolled in the pocket and fired a touchdown strike to Joe Birchett and Hargrove notched the PAT boot as Wayne County led Huntingdon at the half, 21-6.

Following Elijah Roe's second-half opening kickoff tackle of Mathis at the Wildcat 33, Blaine Bevis snared a 64-yard fly-pattern bomb from Rice to set up first-and-goal at the HHS seven. On fourth and goal, two Wildcat receivers battled for and ultimately dropped Rice's pass in the right corner of the endzone as the ball was turned over on downs at the 11.

Wildcat Birchett tackled Pearson and Dodson for short gains to bring up fourth down as Mustang punter Mebane's shanked 14-yard punt was downed at the Mustang 33.

Wasting no time, Rice dropped straight back in the pocket and fired a 33-yard scoring strike to Bevis. Hargrove's PAT boot was good as Wayne County extended its lead over Huntingdon at the 7:55 mark of the third quarter, 28-6.

The Wildcats quickly forced another three-and-out as Mebane's punt was downed at the Wayne County 27.

Huntingdon linebacker Pearson intercepted Rice on the next Wildcat possession at the HHS 38.

Seizing momentum, Pearson fired a 24-yard fist down pass to Dodson and a 21-yard chain mover to Bailey at the 21. At the 4:08 mark of the third quarter, Huntingdon capped its three-play, 62-yard drive as Johnson accelerated right side to score. Pearson completed a two-point conversion strike to Dodson as Huntingdon cut the Mustang lead to 28-14.

Disaster struck the Mustangs on fourth and 11 as Huntingdon was flagged for roughing the Wildcat punter, giving Wayne County a fresh set of downs at the Mustang 40.

Following stops by McClerkin, Arnhold and Avery for short gains, Rice avoided the sack and completed a first down strike to Danny Rich at the HHS 26. Battling intently, Avery sacked Rice on the ensuing play as the third quarter expired with the Wildcats leading, 28-14.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Rice completed a 21-yard scoring strike to Birchett. Hargrove's PAT was good as Wayne County widened its lead over Huntingdon, 34-14.

Ramping up, Wayne County forced HHS to punt on its next possession at the 9:04 mark of the final frame.

Continuing to battle, Huntingdon forced Wayne County to punt before being forced to punt away at the 6:58 mark.

Following another Wayne County punt, Johnson's 46-yard touchdown dash at the 4:00 mark was negated via hold as the Mustangs ultimately bowed to the Wildcats, 34-14.

This Friday night, Huntingdon (6-2 overall, 5-1 district) travels to Joe T. Herndon Stadium to battle the Hollow Rock-Bruceton Central Tigers (6-3, 5-1 district) as both teams vie for the second-seed in Region 6 1A.

Kickoff at Hollow Rock-Bruceton is 7:00 p.m.

Rebels

...From Sports Front

McKenzie tied it up at 7-7 on the ensuing drive. Jarrett threw is first TD of the night as he found Foley free in the end zone for the 18 yard score. Waddell's PAT was good with 9:58 left to play in the second quarter.

The Rebels kept the Panthers at bay on the next drive with big stops by Trevathan and Lorenzo Haynes.

McKenzie took over on downs deep in their own territory at the 14 yard line. On the opening play of the drive Robinson ran 86 yards to the end zone and wrote his name into the record books as the all-time career leader in rushing yards. Waddell added the extra point as the Rebels took the lead 14-7 with 5:50 remaining in the half.

Riverside added a field goal with 32 seconds remaining. The drive consisted of big plays from Smith. One was a pass for 21 yards to Kyle Roach and 37 yards on the ground after breaking free on the outside right lane. Taylor kicked a 32-yard field goal to narrow the Rebel lead 14-10.

McKenzie wanted to increase their lead before halftime. Attacking by air with a limited clock, Jarrett hit Robinson for eight yards, but a holding penalty looked to end the drive. With a few seconds left on the clock, Spivey zipped down the field and as Jarrett dropped the ball perfectly into his arms for the 42-yard touchdown. The Rebels could not add the extra point but led 20-10 to close the half.

The Rebels opened the second half with Spivey returning the opening kick to the Panther 27 yard line. Robinson advance to the 23 yard line allowing Jarrett and Spivey to team up for another TD. Waddell's PAT was good as the McKenzie led 27-10 with 10:54 left to play in the third quarter.

Smith left the game on the next drive. After taking a big hit, he slide on the next play showing signs of pain and never returned to action. Forced to punt, the Panthers pinned the Rebels deep.

McKenzie went three-and-out on the next drive and Riverside took over near mid-field. Stone Frost led the charge taking over QB responsibilities. In four plays Frost crossed the goal line for a touchdown cutting into the Rebel lead with a Taylor PAT 27-17.

In two plays, Robinson was back in the end zone. His second touchdown of the night was from 45 yards out. Waddell added the extra point putting the Rebels up 34-17 with 2:51 remaining in the third quarter.

After a back-and-forth exchange between McKenzie and Riverside, the Rebels scored their sixth TD of the night with 8:18 left to play. Joseph Miller ran unabated down the field for 47-yard score. The PAT from Waddell was good as the McKenzie was up 41-17.

A botched kickoff return by the Panthers was ruled in favor of the Rebels after the kick was touched by Riverside's Cannon Duke and recovered by Haynes.

From the 7 yard line, Robinson was in for his third touchdown. The Rebels capped off the score at 48-17 with the PAT.

With 7:25 remaining in the game, both teams began substituting. Bryston Diggs took over the running game and Evan Jarrett took over as quarterback for McKenzie drawing the game to a close.

As it looks right now, McKenzie will slide into the TSSAA Playoffs playing in the fourth slot for Region 6-AA.

On the tail of a win and one regular season game remaining, the Rebels will travel to Halls and try to finish the regular season out at 5-5. Game time is 7:00 p.m.

Gleason

...From Sports Front

After another Gleason punt, the visitors ate time off the clock with short gains from Greg Davis and he scored from eight yards out to start the second quarter. George missed the kick, but with 11:49 left in the second, South Fulton led 34-0.

The Bulldogs turned the ball over on downs and Davidson scored again after just two plays on a 29-yard carry. George's kick put the visitors up 41-0 with 8:52 left before halftime.

Gleason punted on its next series and South Fulton put together a seven-play drive that ended with a Scott 16-yard run for the touchdown. George's kick put the visitors up 47-0 with 4:23 left before halftime.

The Bulldogs punted, but clamped down on defense to leave Davis one yard shy of another TD to end the first half.

With eight-minute quarters and a running clock in the second half, the game sped up considerably.

The visitors held possession for the entire third quarter as they picked up short gains on the ground from Davis and Kylen Kelly.

Into the fourth quarter, South Fulton put its final points on the board on a six-yard carry from Caleb Little. George's kick made it a 54-0 game with 5:11 left in the contest.

The Dawgs picked up positive yardage and a pair of first downs on their final series on solid running from Trey Martin, Russell and Arnold, but it came too late and the big W went to South Fulton.

of Kamaya Harris (3), Kayla Pulling (3) and Postlewait (2) to outscore McKenzie in the final frame, 8-7, before bowing, 56-34.

McKenzie was led offensively by Bennett (20), Britt (14), Dyer (10), Callahan (8), Briley Auvenshire (2), and Katie Prather (2).

Huntingdon was paced via the production of Postlewait (10), Butler (7), Lutz (5), Gibson (4), Pulling (3), Harris (3), and Maxwell (2).

Rebels 48, Mustangs 33

Limiting the Mustangs to a deuce by Grant Bartholomew and charity toss by Blake Bradley, McKenzie combined the scoring of Johnathan Moore (5), Jaden Currie (4), Ethan Travis (trifecta), and deuces by Eli Surber and Elijah Seivers to lead Huntingdon at the end of the first period, 16-3.

Battling in the paint in the second clip, Rebel Jake McDaniel notched four deuces and Moore added a three-pointer from the top of the key as McKenzie outscored the Mustangs, 11-6, and led at the half, 27-10.

Following a locker room pep talk by Mustang head Coach Brandon Sims, Huntingdon roared back into contention and ignited its fan base behind the 12-point scoring of Bartholomew (two treys, two deuces, two charity stripe conversions) and contributions of Javon Pritchard (three-pointer) and two-pointer by Hayden Sullivan to outscore McKenzie in the third clip, 17-6 and narrow the Rebel lead to 33-27.

Responding to Rebel head coach Josh Kee's instruction and the urging of its fans, McKenzie combined defensive take aways with three deuces by Moore, a deuce and two charity swishes by McDaniel, a Seivers two-pointer and Currie free throw toss to outscore Huntingdon, 15-6, and earn a pivotal, 48-33 road win over the Mustangs.

McKenzie was sparked offensively via the scoring of Moore (16), McDaniel (12), Surber (8), Currie (5), Seivers (4), and Travis (3).

Huntingdon was led offensively by Bartholomew (16), Pritchard (7), Bradley (4), Malek Cannon (4) and Sullivan (2).

GREENFIELD (October 21) — The West Carroll War Eagles hit the road Friday to take on the Yellowjackets. Both teams contended with the sudden coldsnap that ended a run of unseasonably warm weather, as evidenced in the turnovers and dropped passes on both sides. Greenfield made several big plays and had an advantage on penalties that proved to be the difference as the Yellowjackets came out with the win, 25-14.

West Carroll received the opening kickoff and began at the 33. A backfield fumble on first down doomed the drive, which resulted in a three-and-out. Patrick Becker's punt set up the Yellowjackets with favorable field position at the War Eagle 45.

Yellowjacket Brantley Baxter started with a pair of runs to move the chains, then quarterback Will Northcutt passed to Grant Huffstetler for a 31-yard touchdown. Kicker Ethan VanCleave split the uprights on the PAT, and Greenfield led, 7-0, early in the first frame.

Starting at their own 45, the War Eagles handed off to Tristen Fuller for an eleven-yard gain. Another fumble on the next snap resulted in a short loss, then Tristen carried a pile of defenders for most of a nine-yard gain. Jeremiah Bryant picked up four for a first down, then Greenfield jumped offside to move the ball up five yards. Tristen and P.J. Odom each lost a yard, and consecutive false starts by West Carroll set up third-and-long. Quarterback Trace Fuller's pass went through the receiver's hands, and the War Eagles faced fourth-and-long. Bryant took the handoff and nearly converted, but was several yards short.

Taking over at the Greenfield 25, Baxter ran for eleven, then Huffstetler managed just a yard. Northcutt passed to Jacob Lewis for eleven yards to near midfield, then to Dusty Irby for 48 down to the 5. Baxter made it down to the 2 on first-and-goal, but Greenfield fumbled on the next snap, recovered by West Carroll.

A false start took the War Eagles from the 1 to the half-yard line to start, and Trace kept for just a short gain. Tristen ran for three, then Trace broke through for ten yards and a first. Tristen found a hole and rushed 34 yards to midfield, and Odom picked up another four as the first quarter ended. Becker carried for four to make third down manageable, but another false start negated the gain. Tristen got the four back, but a fourth down pass by Trace was dropped.

Huffstetler ran for three, then Nyrail Jackson picked up 18 on his first carry of the game. A Northcutt pass was dropped, but Baxter ran for a first on the next snap. A holding penalty set the Yellowjackets back, and Northcutt overthrew Jackson. Huffstetler picked up seven, then Northcutt missed Lewis to bring up fourth down. Northcutt completed to Huffstetler for what would have been a first down, but a fumble on the play was recovered by West Carroll.

Trace started with an incomplete pass, then Tristen gained four. Becker took the long way around the backfield before finding a path for a 41-yard carry, then Tristen picked up four again. Odom was stopped cold to bring up third down, and Tristen lunged forward to move the chains. Bryant gained six, then went eleven for a touchdown. Tristen attempted the two-point conversion, but was stopped just short by Huffstetler. With 3:46 remaining in the half, the Yellowjacket lead was cut to 7-6.

Greenfield started the ensuing drive near midfield, and Huffstetler gained nine. Jackson followed with a 14-yard rush to move the chains. Northcutt made a good pass, but Becker made a great play to knock the ball away. Baxter found a hole for 13 yards, then Huffstetler was stopped for no gain. Baxter took another turn and managed three, then Northcutt threw incomplete. On fourth-and-eight, Jackson ran for an eleven-yard touchdown. He then tried for two, but met a host of War Eagles at the line. With just over a minute until intermission, the Greenfield lead was 13-6.

Starting at the 26, Trace made a deep throw that was dropped, then threw incomplete twice more before Becker punted with four seconds left.

Northcutt tried a deep pass, but it sailed incomplete and the half ended.

Greenfield received the second-half kick, and started with a dropped pass. Jackson broke out for a 47-yard run, then Huffstetler lost a pair. Jackson then took a handoff and scrambled all over the backfield before jetting to a 22-yard touchdown. The play was called back on a blocking penalty, and the Yellowjackets faced second-and-30. Northcutt found Kelly Ricketts for eight yards, then Irby for 26. Jackson scrambled again, but netted just three yards on first-and-goal. Northcutt kept the next snap for a four-yard score. Huffstetler failed on the two-point try, but the Greenfield lead grew to 19-6.

West Carroll started deep, but Bryant went for 20 right away. Trace scrambled for a yard, then Bryant picked up 43. Tristen rushed for six, then for five and a touchdown. Bryant walked into the end zone for a two-point conversion, and the deficit was cut to 19-14 with 5:39 remaining in the third frame.

West Carroll attempted an onside kick, but Greenfield recovered it at the 40. After an incomplete pass, Jackson was taken down for a loss of four by War Eagle Colin Simmons. On third-and-14, Northcutt threw to Irby for 16 yards and a first down. Huffstetler gained a pair, then Northcutt kept for seven. Huffstetler gained less than a yard on third-and-one, but then West Carroll jumped offside to reset the chains. Greenfield jumped next to lose five, but Northcutt found Jackson for 35 yards. After an incomplete pass and then a short gain by Jackson, Huffstetler was stopped for no gain as the third quarter ended. Starting the final frame on fourth-and-goal, Northcutt made a three-yard pass to Ricketts for the touchdown. Again, the Yellowjackets were unable to convert for two, and the score was 25-14.

A penalty on the kickoff set West Carroll back at the 10 to start. Becker got the team out of trouble with runs of eleven and 17 yards, then Tristen gained 30 across midfield. Jarrius Weatherford was dropped for a loss, then Trace threw incomplete. Bryant managed six to bring up fourth-and-eleven, but Trace's pass fell incomplete.

Greenfield committed two costly infractions on the ensuing drive and went three-and-out. War Eagle Logan Chrisman got a piece of the punt, giving the War Eagles excellent field position at the Yellowjacket 39.

Bryant gained seven on a pair of runs, then Tristen picked up 23 to set up first-and-goal at the 9. He made short gains to the 4, but lost half a yard on third down. Trace kept on fourth, but was stopped for a loss.

Jackson made a pair of first-down runs, then Huffstetler was dropped for a loss of six by a host of War Eagles. Jackson lost three to Chrisman, Simmons, and Darrell Williams, then Northcutt threw incomplete and Greenfield punted.

Bryant quickly picked up 17, then Trace threw incomplete. Tristen moved the chains, then Trace made a pair of incomplete throws. Next, Becker took the reverse and passed incomplete, then Trace did the same to turn the ball over on downs with 1:40 left in the contest.

The West Carroll defense kept hope alive, forcing another three-and-out.

With less than 20 seconds remaining, Trace threw a deep pass, but it was picked off by Northcutt, who took a knee on the next snap to end the game for a 25-14 win.

West Carroll didn't complete a pass, while Greenfield's Will Northcutt was nine of 21 for 87 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

On the ground, West Carroll led Greenfield, 246-203 yards.

Jeremiah Bryant led the War Eagle offense with eleven carries for 116 yards and a touchdown. Tristen Fuller had 16 rushes for 90 yards and a touchdown. Patrick Becker had seven carries for 55 yards.

Nyrail Jackson led the Yellowjacket rushing attack with eleven carries for 111 yards and a touchdown. Brantley Baxter rushed eight times for 59 yards.

Defensively, Chris Shear and Patrick Becker led West Carroll with seven tackles each. Blake Davidson had six takedowns, while Logan Chrisman had five and Colin Simmons had four.

Greenfield's Grant Huffstetler, Will Northcutt, and Nicholas Mitchell each had seven tackles.

The War Eagles will wrap up the season Friday at home against South Fulton. Seniors will be recognized at 7 p.m., with kickoff at 7:30.

McKenzie Police Reports

False report / violation order of protection — According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Kyle Beauchamp, on October 23 at approximately 2:15 a.m., Brianna A. Howard, 26, Allen Street West, McKenzie had made multiple calls to the Carroll County 911 dispatch center. During the calls, Howard either said nothing or gave a false name and information about an incident reportedly occurring. During Howard's last call, dispatch was able to locate a residence located on Allen Street. The officer, assisted by MPD Patrolman Mark Boaz, contacted Howard at said location at which time the defendant lied about calling 911 and had deleted the call log on her phone. After continuing to speak with Howard, she did admit to calling 911 multiple times because her boyfriend was making threats towards her. Later that day at approximately 5:40 p.m. another incident took place and Howard admitted that another person had attacked her but she lied about the person's identity because the person that allegedly attacked her was living with her at the time and that she didn't want him to get into trouble for being there because she did not know if the order of protection that was filed against her in regard to said person was still active. At that time, Howard was arrested for the listed offenses and transported to Carroll County Jail with a $500 bond assigned to filing a false report and $1,000 bond affixed for violation of protection order.

Theft — According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Billy King, on October 22 Drew Duncan, 22, Bell Avenue, McKenzie came to MPD to report that his debit card and $80 in cash was stolen out of his wallet. Duncan said that he had last seen his wallet at McDonald's on October 21 at around 10:00 p.m. He noticed that the wallet missing the following morning at 6:00 a.m. Duncan stated that he found the wallet in his driveway at approximately 1:00 p.m. that day with the debit card and money missing. Duncan said he did not know who stole the money or debit card.

Theft — According to a report filed by MPD Sergeant Jeff Winberry, on October 20, the officer responded to call from Bruce L. Ingmire, David Street, McKenzie stating that someone had stolen a Donald Trump campaign sign from his yard. Ingmire said he had last seen the sign at approximately 5:00 p.m. on October 19. Ingmire valued the sign at $10. He also requested extra police patrol in the area.

Assault — According to a report filed by MPD Sergeant Jeff Winberry, on October 18, the officer responded to a call stating that a fight was occurring at Little General located on Magnolia Avenue. Upon arrival, Laura Ann Darnell, 42, Highway 190, McKenzie exited the store and stated that Vicki Lee Harper, 50, Park Circle, McKenzie, exited her vehicle, kicked off her shoes, and allegedly attacked her as she sat beside the ice machine. The report noted that a witness that observed the entire altercation identified Harper as the main aggressor. Harper was them charged with the listed offense.

Assault — According to a report filed by MPD Sergeant Ryan White, Allison R. Mercer, 22, Forrest Avenue, McKenzie came to MPD to report that she had assaulted and that her dog had been stolen. Mercer said that she went to her friend's residence located on Main Street to let her dog out while she was at work. She stated that a man identified as "Yo" later identified as Maurice A. Gladney, 25, Hamilton Street, McKenzie stopped at the residence after observing her with the dog and chased her across the back parking lot, grabbed her from behind, and began to struggle with her for the dog before snatching the dog's leash and exiting with the animal. A witness verified Mercer's account of the incident. The officer then spoke to Gladney who stated that he had contacted Mercer early that day about getting the dog back and was told that he could not have the dog. He said that, upon seeing him at her residence, Mercer did run from him with the dog and he did chase her. He further stated that Mercer resisted his efforts to get the dog. After speaking with both parties, Gladney was charged with assault on Mercer. After both parties stated that the dog was originally owned by Gladney but gave different accounts regarding the length of time the dog had been away from Gladney. All parties were advised the dog is civil matter.

Definition of schedule VI — According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Dennis Adkins, on October 16 the officer was approached by a citizen regarding a man that was standing on the railroad tracks on West Walnut Street. Upon turning off of Stonewall onto West Walnut in his patrol car, the officer observed the subject standing on the train tracks. The man then reportedly threw something on the ground and took off walking towards the intersection of Walnut and Main Street. The officer noted that the man was swaying unsteadily on his feet and talking to himself. After exiting the police vehicle and instructing the man to stop, the man identified himself as Anthony Blake Clark, 27, Barksdale Street, McKenzie. The report noted that while conferring with the officer, Clark was talking very fast, sweating profusely, and asking the officer about people he might know. After asking Clark if he had anything on his person, the officer performed a pat down for weapons and retrieved a lighter and a small plastic bag containing 1.400 grams of marijuana. After placing Clark under arrest, the officer discovered the subject had an active warrant out of Weakley County. The officer, upon walking to the location where he had observed Clark discard something, located a half-consumed marijuana cigarette on the ground. Clark was then cited into Carroll County General Sessions Court and transported to Carroll County Jail to be held until Weakley County could arrange transport.

Carroll County Sheriff's Reports

Filing a False Report — A Trenton man was arrested October 22 after allegedly giving false information to officers.

Deputy Ethan Parham charged Earl Singleton II, 29, with filing a false report. According to Parham's report, deputies were dispatched to a Trezevant address after receiving a call stating that there was a fight involving a gun and knife there. When deputies arrived, they found that the report had been false. Raven Williams was at the residence and showed deputies a text she had gotten from Singleton that said, "Answer your phone or the police will be at your door." Deputies were able to confirm that the call they had received was from Singleton.

Drug Possession — A Trezevant man was arrested October 19 on drug charges. Deputy Kenny Tucker charged Shawn Murphy, 22, of 200 Front Street with drug violations. According to Tucker's report, deputies were contacted by Lexington police in regards to a missing car that a Lexington man had taken. When deputies found the car, Murphy was driving it. Murphy's license was found to be revoked and a blunt in the car was in plain view. Deputies also found about a gram of meth, a small bag of marijuana, and a glass pipe with residue in it.

Assault — A Bruceton man was cited into court October 16 after a dispute. Deputy Jackie Boals charged Gerardo Salazar, 46, of 151 Highland Street with simple assault. According to Boals' report, Salazar was in the backyard of Barbara Eubanks' and Brent Klinzing's residence when he grabbed a plastic crate from Eubanks, causing her to fall and cut her legs. When Klinzing tried to help Eubanks up, Boals allegedly put Klinzing in a headlock and made him hit his head on a brick wall.

Drug Possession — A McNairy County man and woman were cited into court October 15. Deputy Dennis Adkins charged Kirk Sanders, 24, of Guys with public intoxication, possession of schedule VI, and possession of drug paraphernalia, and Christa Russell, 37, of Adamsville with possession of schedule VI and possession of drug paraphernalia. According to Adkins' report, Sanders was found on the ground in Atwood, smelling of alcohol and marijuana, unsteady, and with slurred speech. The vehicle he was found next to belonged to Russell. A marijuana grinder and some marijuana in the vehicle were in plain view. Two blunts, a glass pipe, and a bong were also found.

Disorderly Conduct — A McKenzie woman was cited into court October 15. Deputy Michael Taylor charged Valerie Cannon, 36, of 350 Old McKenzie Road with disorderly conduct. According to Taylor's report, Cannon was causing a disruption and threatening to harm others at the halfway house she was staying in.

Fraud — Deputies are investigating a case of fraud. Jennifer Mullins reported to deputies on October 17 that there was an authorized charged to her bank account.

Fraud — Deputies are investigating a case of fraud. Angela Tippitt of Huntingdon reported to deputies October 17 that several unauthorized charges had been made to her bank account.

Fraud — Deputies are investigating a case of fraud. Misty Pierce of Huntingdon reported to deputies October 17 that there was an authorized charge to her bank account.

Vandalism — Deputies are investigating a case of vandalism. Jerry Holmes of Huntingdon reported to deputies October 19 that his property had been vandalized and several items were missing.

Fraud — Deputies are investigating a case of fraud. Shannon Overall of Huntingdon reported to deputies October 19 that several unauthorized charges had been made to his bank account.

Driving on Suspended License — A McKenzie man was cited into court on October 19 after a traffic stop. Deputy Michael Taylor charged Mark Lee, 26, of 61 Forrest Circle with driving on a suspended license. According to Taylor's report, Lee was stopped on Fairview Church Road and a computer check showed his license to be suspended.

Assault — A Huntingdon man was arrested October 16 after a domestic dispute. Deputy Carlton Cupples charged Aubrey Cameron Kyle, 24, of 620 Kyle Road with two counts of domestic assault. According to Cupples' report, deputies received a report from Kyle's parents that he had been threatening to kill them. They also reported that several days prior he had put a pistol in his own mouth and pulled the trigger on an empty chamber, though the other five chambers had live rounds in them. After Kyle was arrested he became belligerent and had to be restrained.

Fraud — Deputies are investigating a case of fraud. Cindy Williams of Huntingdon reported to deputies on October 19 that someone had made an unauthorized charge to her bank account.

Theft — Deputies are investigating a case of theft. Rhonda Crawford of Bruceton reported to deputies October 3 that a truck and watering tank had been stolen from her property.

Violation of Financial Responsibility — An Atwood woman was cited into court October 17 after a car accident. Deputy Christopher Adams charged Amy Elizabeth Moody, 46, of 131 Holmes with violation of financial responsibility. According to Adams' report, Moore was involved in an accident in Atwood and did not have insurance.

Fraud — Deputies are investigating a case of fraud. Shelby Pruitt of Huntingdon reported to deputies October 18 that someone had made unauthorized charges to her bank account.

West Carroll Co-ed Softball Game to Benefit Morgan Fuller

The West Carroll baseball and softball teams will play a co-ed slow-pitch softball game on Saturday at 10 a.m. on the baseball field. Funds raised from the event will go toward the medical costs of Morgan Fuller, a Huntingdon High School student battling cancer.

Admission will be $3, and concessions will be available. Players are also pre-selling tickets for a chicken and bean plate. Donations will be accepted.

High School Football State Rankings

Dresden Continues to Top 1A

NASHVILLE (October 24) — For the ninth-consecutive week, the Dresden Lions (9-0) continue to own the top spot in Class 1A high school football. Wayne County (9-0) remained in 3rd place after defeating Huntingdon on the road, 34-14.

Despite the loss to the Wayne County, Huntingdon continues to occupy 10th place in 1A.

In Class 2A, Adamsville (9-0) remains at #1 with Waverly (8-1) maintaining 7th.

In Class 3A, the Milan Bulldogs (7-2) remain at 8th; Liberty Magnet (7-2) maintained 6th place; and Dyersburg (9-2) stays at 10th behind top-seed Alcoa (8-1).

Huntingdon Police Reports

DUI

•A Trezevant woman was arrested October 14 during a traffic stop.

Patrolman Paul Hugueley charged Deborah Williamson, 47, of 6485 Main St. East with driving under the influence #2 and violation of implied consent. According to Hugueley's report, Williamson was stopped after Hugueley observed her swerving as she drove down Lexington Street. Her speech was slurred and she smelled of alcohol, but she would not agree to perform field sobriety tests. She did agree to her car being searched, and two bottles of vodka, one of which was open and partially emptied, were found. She then refused to submit to a blood alcohol test.

Drug Possession

•A Huntingdon woman was arrested October 11 after a traffic stop.

Patrolman Paul Hugueley charged Brooksey Wadley, 25, of 11400 Lexington Street with possession of drug paraphernalia, possession of schedule II methamphetamine, and driving while revoked #2. According to Hugueley's report, Wadley had an active arrest warrant, and was asked to leave her vehicle at a relative's residence where she had been stopped. On the way to the Carroll County Jail, Wadley gave permission for officers to search her purse. A cut down straw that is commonly used to snort drugs and a substance that field tested positive for methamphetamine were found in her purse.

DUI

•A Huntingdon man and woman were arrested October 13 after a traffic stop.

Patrolman Brian Bennett charged Dasie M. Seivers, 35, of 1122 Green Oaks Drive with driving under the influence and driving while suspended, and Matthew Stephen Smith, also of 1122 Green Oaks Drive, with public intoxication. According to Bennett's report, he was on patrol near Green Oaks Apartment Complex when he saw a vehicle attempting to drive up a grassy hill. When he initiated his blue lights, a man went running from the vehicle. The driver, Dasie Seivers, remained in the vehicle. She was uncooperative and claimed a man had not just gotten out of the vehicle. She told Bennett her license was suspended, and she failed field sobriety tests. Later that morning, Bennett spotted the male subject, Smith, walking on Mustang Drive. After a foot chase, Bennett was able to take him into custody.

Public Intoxication

•An Atwood man was cited into court October 12.

Sergeant Chris Cole charged Frederic Crawley, 36, of 322 Peggy Lane with public intoxication. According to Cole's report, officers were dispatched to Murphy Oil after customers reported that Crawley was harassing people for a ride or money. When Cole arrived, he noticed Crawley had bloodshot eyes and slurred speech. Crawley admitted to drinking and said he was just trying to find a ride home from other customers.

Burglary

•Officers are investigating an act of vandalism.

Donna Taylor of Huntingdon reported to officers on October 13 that someone had broken into her neighbor's home, and she thought someone could still be in the residence. Investigator Joey Hedge entered the home and found it had been severely vandalized with an estimation of more than $1000 in damages. Entry into the house was made through a window.

Theft

•A Benton County man and Huntingdon juvenile were charged after allegedly stealing from a local store.

Investigator Joey Hedge charged Thomas Tittle, 18, of Camden with three counts of theft under $500. According to Hedge's report, Wal-Mart store security had footage of Tittle and a juvenile stealing items. Tittle was contacted by officers via phone, and he admitted to stealing items and that the juvenile was his nephew.

Theft

•A warrant has been issued for a Henry County man after he allegedly stole from a local store.

Investigator Joey Hedge charged Tristen Teague, 21, of Paris with theft under $500. According to Hedge's report, Wal-Mart contacted officers in regards to a shoplifter. Teague had taken two flashlights and exchanged them for a gift card. When officers arrived, he was gone.

Theft

•A Huntingdon woman was arrested on October 3.

Patrolman Paul Hugueley charged Amanda Abrams, 27, of 11420 Lexington Street with theft of property under $500. According to Hugueley's report, officers were contacted by Wal-Mart security. Store security had footage of Abrams removing items from their packaging and hiding them in her shirt.

Domestic Assault

•Two Huntingdon men were arrested on October 11 after a domestic dispute.

Sergeant Brad Allen charged Lonnie Baucom, 58, of 278 Knox Street with aggravated domestic assault and Donnie Baucom, 58, also of 278 Knox Street. According to Allen's report, officers were dispatched to the Baucoms' residence due to a panic alarm. When officers arrived, Lonnie told officers his brother Donnie had punched him and left. When officers located Donnie, he said Lonnie had pulled a knife on him and said he would kill him before the night was over. Lonnie admitted that was true.

Possession of Drug Paraphernalia

•A Madison County woman was arrested October 8.

Investigator Joey Hedge charged Tabatha Robertson, 40, of Jackson with possession of drug paraphernalia. According to Hedge's report, Robertson was pulled over for swerving. When she gave Hedge permission to search her vehicle, he found two syringes and a glass pipe. Robertson said the items were used to smoke methamphetamine.

SUBSTITUTE TRUSTEE'S NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That, WHEREAS, by Deed of Trust recorded August 13, 2012, of record in the Register's Office of Henry County, Tennessee, in Record Book 355, page 472, M.S. LUCERO (NOW DECEASED) AND WIFE, LINDA LUCERO, did convey in trust, to CURTIS MAYO, TRUSTEE, a tract of land hereinafter described, to secure the payment of the indebtedness described in said Deed of Trust to BANK OF GLEASON; and,

WHEREAS, said Deed of Trust provides that in the event of default in the payment of the debt secured by said Deed of Trust, when due, or in the event of failure to comply with any of the conditions and/or covenants of said Deed of Trust, the whole amount of the unpaid principal sum, together with all interest due and accrued upon the same, together with all other payments agreed to be made, shall, at the option of the holder, become due and payable immediately without demand or notice thereof; and,

WHEREAS, W. Kent Jones was appointed Substitute Trustee by Appointment of Substitute Trustee, as allowed in Record Book 355, page 472, Register's Office of Henry County, Tennessee; and,

WHEREAS, default has been made in the payment of the indebtedness secured by said Deed of Trust and there have been other violations of the conditions of said Deed of Trust, and the owner and holder of said debt has instructed the undersigned Substitute Trustee, to foreclose said Deed of Trust.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority in me vested as such Substitute Trustee, I will on the 18th day of November, 2016, offer for sale and sell in front of the Courthouse in Paris, Tennessee, at the hour of 10:05 a.m. to the last, highest and best bidder, for cash in hand, free from the equity of redemption, homestead, dower and curtesy rights, and all other rights or exemptions of every kind, and all unpaid taxes, to effect satisfaction of principal, interest and costs due on said promissory note(s) and Deed of Trust aforementioned, as well as to pay all attorney's fees and costs necessarily incident to this foreclosure, the following tract of land, situated in the 4th Civil District of Henry County, Tennessee, more particularly described as follows:

> Being all of that property known as Map 144, Parcel 16.00, Assessor of Property's Office, Henry County, Tennessee. For source of title see Record Book 154, page 621 and Deed Book 198, page 61, Register's Office of Henry County, Tennessee.

The street address of the above described property is believed to be 669 Dorsey Rd., Henry, TN 38201, but such address is not part of the legal description of the property sold herein and in the event of any discrepancy, the legal description herein shall control.

The debtors' equity of redemption, homestead, dower and all other rights or exemptions of the debtors are waived in said deed of trust, and the title is believed to be good, but said real estate will be sold and conveyed by me as Substitute Trustee and not otherwise.

OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES: Unknown heirs of M. S. Lucero (now deceased). If applicable, the notice requirements of TCA 35-5-117 have been met.

Said sale will be made by Substitute Trustee only, without covenants of seizin or warranties of title, and title will be made subject to any unpaid taxes and assessments and all valid restrictions, liens, covenants or easements, if any, of record on said property.

The right is reserved to adjourn the day of the sale to another day certain without further publication, upon announcement at the time and place for the sale set forth herein, or with publication setting out the new date, time and place for the sale.

This law firm is acting as a debt collector. This is an attempt to collect a debt and any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

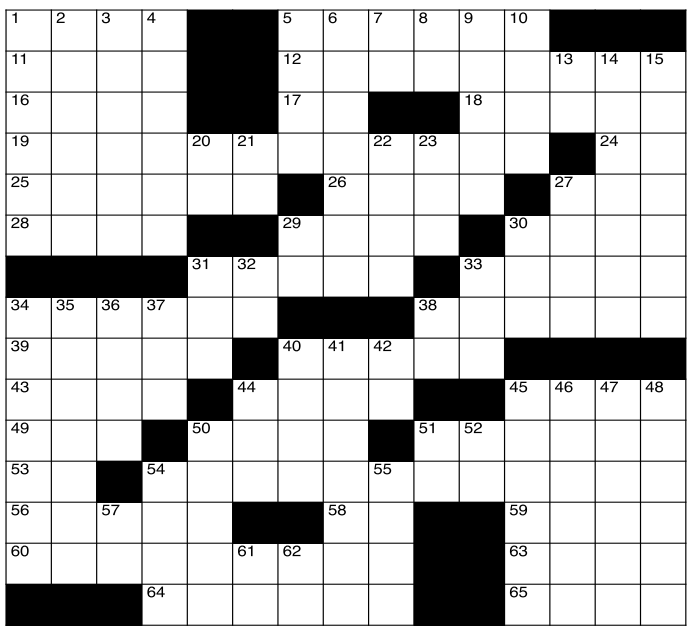

Dated at Huntingdon, Tennessee, this the 18th day of October, 2016.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

MISS DIXIE PAC PAGEANT IS OCTOBER 29

HUNTINGDON — For the first time, The Dixie Carter Performing Arts and Academic Enrichment Center is hosting a scholarship pageant and Miss Tennessee preliminary.

Miss Dixie PAC is Saturday, Oct. 29 at 7 p.m. The one-day event to select a representative for The Dixie and Huntingdon honors the late Dixie Carter. Special guest, Grace Burgess, Miss Tennessee 2016, will serve as the master of ceremonies for the pageant. Applications to be in the pageant are available on the dixiepac.net website.

"Dixie was an exemplary representative of a Southern woman with grace, talent, brains, and beauty," said Lori Neal Nolen, Executive Director of The Dixie. "With this title, we look to provide a well-spoken woman a forum in which to share her talents and intelligence through program support in educational efforts and community service."

The late Dixie Carter, a native of McLemoresville, was named Miss Huntingdon and placed first runner-up for the Miss Tennessee crown in 1959.

Annual Rotary Auction Converts to Live, Non-Televised Event

McKENZIE — Major changes are in store for the 2016 McKenzie Rotary Club Charity Auction on Saturday, November 19. For the first time in the auction's long-running history, the auction will be an in-person, live event and not televised.

The event begins at 10:00 a.m. at McKenzie High School's Theatre. Bidders will place their in-person competitive bids as in traditional auctions. There will be no bidding by phone. Licensed auctioneer Mickey Stafford is volunteering his services to conduct the auction.

As in years past, members of the McKenzie Rotary Club are asking area businesses and individuals for donations of new merchandise to auction.
