Casey's General Store Holds Grand Opening

Casey's General Store had the grand opening of its newest Tennessee store in McKenzie on Wednesday, March 13 at 10:00 a.m. The store is located at the 16125 Highland Drive at the intersection of Forrest Avenue.

Cheryl Smith, area supervisor, said Casey's recently opened stores in Paris, Martin, Dresden, Bruceton, Waverly and Dyersburg in Tennessee.

Sarah Harbison of Dresden is the local store manager. The store has 23 employees.

The store provides gasoline, diesel, convenience items, and food, such as pizzas, made-to-order sub sandwiches, chicken tenders, breakfast, and burgers as part of its menu. Store hours are 5:00 a.m. to midnight daily.

Casey's General Store is a publicly traded company headquartered in Iowa.

'Off Premise' Beer Permit Awarded to E.W. James & Sons

By Brittany Martin
bmwashburn@mckenziebanner.com

McKENZIE (March 12) — In a Thursday night meeting, the McKenzie Alcoholic Beverage Commission (Beer Board) voted four to zero with one abstention from Commissioner Kevin Gallimore to award a Type A "Off Premise" beer permit to E.W. James & Sons located at 160 Main Street in McKenzie.

E.W. James & Sons Manager Nick Flippin agreed to abide by all state and local laws concerning the handling and sale of beer at the McKenzie location.

Commissioner Hochreiter asked if the store had already established a policy that the underage employees will not carry out the beer to the customer's vehicle.

Flippin said, Yes. Only a person of 21 years of age will be handing and selling the beer to customers.

Commissioner Hale made a motion to bring up a non-agenda item, Commissioner Hochreiter seconded it.

Hale said, "In a past meeting of the beer board, we discussed, but never changed the age limit for handling the beer to agree with the state - which is 18 years old."

"So many people who work in our grocery stores and convenience stores are under 21 years old. I think this puts an unnecessary burden on the store owners to not hire people under 21 years old at the check out."

Hale continued, "I would like to make an ordinance to amend our beer ordinance to comply with the state law which is 18 years of age to handle beer."

Mayor Holland asked Flippin to elaborate on the issue his store is facing with the current handling age.

Flippin said, "We employ a lot of college students from Bethel. All that we employ are under 21. We're still not going to be able to let the ones under 18 handle it, but we only have three or four under 18 employed right now. The ones that are over 21 are in some type of higher position in the store."

The beer board decided to propose an ordinance with two readings to go before the council to change the city's alcohol handling age to comply with the state's law, which is 18 years of age.

Capitol Talk Features D79 Rep. Curtis Halford

HUNTINGDON (March 13) The second of three Carroll County Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Capitol Talk programs featured Tennessee House of Representatives District 79 Curtis Halford (R).

District 76 Representative Andy Holt (R) will be featured in the third Capitol Talk at the Chamber at noon on April 10.

Introducing Halford to the large crowd gathered inside the Carroll County Chamber of Commerce's meeting room, Chamber President Brad Hurley said, "Mr. Halford, a Republican, serves as the District 79 representative in the Tennessee House of Representatives. He has held that position since being elected in 2008. His service area covers Gibson County and the southern portion of Carroll County. A resident of Dyer, he and his wife, Charlotte, are proud parents to two children and five grandchildren. A retired certified mechanical draftsman with a degree from Tennessee College of Applied Technology, Mr. Halford previously worked for Dyer Fiberglass and served as a Commissioner for Gibson County."

He continued, "Mr. Halford is the chair of the House Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee and Joint Government Operations Commerce, Labor, Transport and Agriculture Sub-Committee. In addition, he is a member of the House Government Operations Committee, House Calendar and Rules Committee, House Agriculture and Natural Resources Sub-Committee, and Joint Government Operations Education, Health and General Welfare Sub-Committee. He is a United States Air Force Veteran. He is a true friend to Carroll County. Please join with me in welcoming him today."

Smiling, Halford began, "I'm pleased to see such a large crowd here this afternoon. As most of you know, the legislative branches are in mid-session. We are working 12-14 hour days, but that's okay. It comes with the job. We are part-time legislators with a full-time workload."

He continued, "Thus far, we have seen 25 gun-related bills filed, the most ever for one session. Two of them have already failed. One of the failed bills sought to legally establish the right for citizens to carry concealed and unconcealed weapons without a permit."

Regarding Tennessee Promise, an initiative created by the state to allow high school students graduating in 2015 and beyond to receive two years of tuition-free community college or technical college education,

Halford said, "Tennessee Promise is a last-dollar scholarship that will cover college costs not met from Pell, HOPE, or TSAA. The program will greatly benefit students, especially those that live in rural areas, to continue their education. Tennessee Promise is a good move for our state. I support the Lottery Program that provides aid to financially-fund our student's on-going educational aspirations."

Continuing his education-based theme, Halford said that three of his bills currently in legislature involve Special School Districts.

"Two of the bills are for tax increases and one involves bond issues," he said.

Another legislative entry by Halford seeks to allow witnesses in other states or nations to utilize "chain of custody" to testify via camera instead of having to travel to the trial location.

Halford is also seeking requirements for natural gas refilling stations to sell fuel by the gallon instead of liter.

"He said, "we have a natural gas refueling station in Gibson County, and I want our customers to be able to fill up their tanks knowing how many gallons they are purchasing."

During the questions and comments portion of the meeting, McKenzie Mayor Jill Holland asked for an update on potential repairs by the National Guard to Carroll Lake in McKenzie.

Halford replied, "Carroll Lake is located in District 76 House Representative Andy Holt's service area. He would be the person to speak to relative to this matter."

Carroll County Mayor Kenney McBride interjected, "State Senator John Stevens has written a letter in our behalf appealing for work on Carroll Lake. I understand that the process is moving forward." Halford replied, "The National Guard would be a great resource to call upon to restore Carroll Lake. They definitely have the equipment and manpower to do it."

Huntingdon Mayor Dale Kelley voiced his strong displeasure of D76 Representative Holt's "Tennessee Freedom from Traffic Cameras" that seeks to eliminate re-negotiation of contracts between traffic camera vendors and towns.

He said, "Our data proves that the traffic cameras we utilize in Huntingdon are helping to slow traffic and aid in eliminating serious wrecks at our red-light intersection located on the by-pass. It would take two police officers to do the job of controlling speeders that our traffic cameras do. I strongly disagree with Representative Holt's pushing for state legislation to encroach on the rights of local government to set policy. I don't appreciate Representative Holt's backing the bill to eliminate traffic enforcement cameras."

McKenzie Mayor Holland added that traffic enforcement cameras located in her municipality were doing an excellent job in reducing speeding and curtailing potentially dangerous wrecks.

She said, "In addition to slowing down speeders, our cameras assist in determining fault in wrecks and solving crimes. The General Assembly is taking on the role of "Big Brother" over towns and cities relative to this matter. How can legislators in East and Middle Tennessee know what is best for towns in West Tennessee?"

Halford replied, "Mayor Kelley and Mayor Holland, Representative Holt and I are friends, but we do not agree on everything. I think that one of the main issues that have led to the push for legislation to abolish speed cameras statewide revolves around one town in East Tennessee misusing their traffic enforcement cameras to create a "speed trap" to generate revenue. Traffic enforcement cameras can be misused, that is true. But, having said that, I'd like to see the speed camera issue remain a local issue and let towns decide whether they want them or not."

Huntingdon, McKenzie and 22 other municipalities in Tennessee currently utilize traffic enforcement cameras.

Carroll County Chamber of Commerce President and Hollow Rock-Bruceton Special School District Board of Education Chairman Hurley voiced concern to Halford regarding a stipulation in Tennessee Promise's guidelines requiring that remediation course costs acquired by a community college student be passed on to the high school that student graduated from.

Hurley said he felt that school boards throughout the state should have the right to certify students' low ACT scores prior to that student receiving tuition-free assistance via Tennessee Promise.

Hurley asserted that if school boards were allowed to validate a student's low ACT score prior to that student's acceptance for Tennessee Promise funds, that proof should in turn disqualify said schools from having to pay for remedial classes taken by lower-achieving graduates.

Hollow Rock-Bruceton Special School District CES Principal Nunamaker Announces Retirement

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

BRUCETON (March 9) — During the regular monthly meeting of the Hollow Rock-Bruceton Special School District Board of Education, Central Director of Schools David Duncan read a letter submitted by Central Elementary School Principal Jennie Nunamaker notifying the board of her retirement on June 30, 2015.

Nunamaker said in her letter that although she was thankful for the opportunity to serve as CES Principal for 17 years, she felt it was time for her to step aside so that a younger, peppier person could take the reins.

Alexander, Thompson and Arnold CPA auditor David Hart informed board members that his firm had found only minor findings in an otherwise excellent audit of the school system's financial records for the 2013-14 school year.

He said, "Our firm has provided your school system with a standard unqualified opinion. Everything is in order outside of a few minor findings. Four of the five findings are found in all school systems. These findings were in activity funds for teacher logs, purchases before requisition of purchase orders, accurate commission totals on vending machines, fund-raiser approval prior to events, and segregation of office duties."

He continued, "We hate to be a bit nit-picky, but these findings have to be addressed. Overall, however, the school is in good shape financially. There has been a slight decline in revenues generated from sales tax, but that is a trend throughout the state. All-in-all, your school's finances are in good standing. Your level of surpluses is greater than most schools, which allows you to expend some money for needed repairs and such without affecting revenues. That is a positive thing."

Nunamaker presented certificates of merit to school Spelling Bee winners Taylor Anthony, daughter of Stacy Anthony-third; Mac Hooten, son of Dan and Jenna Young and Pete Hooten-second; and Madisyn Garrison, daughter of Tim and Brittany Rols and Todd Garrison-first.

Central's Concert Band Nova, under the direction of Van Wadley, performed "Can-Can" for the school board.

Following the performance, Wadley informed the board that the band is constantly involved in performances throughout the year. He said that Nova, comprised of his best marching band musicians, will perform their annual Spring concert in the high school gymnasium on April 19 at 2:30 p.m.

Central Supervisor of Instruction Scot Crocker informed the board that textbook committee's recommended math book for the 2016 school year would be on display at the next month's meeting.

At the recommendation of Duncan, the board approved making up two days missed by weather and allotting the remaining days of Spring Break to students and teachers.

Duncan said, "Our teachers work hard and deserve some time off to rest. I think using two days of break is sufficient."

In final business, the board approved the following consent agenda:

Approval of the minutes of the February 9, 2015 school board meeting

Next school board meeting April 13, 2015

Approval of the school systems activity funds audit reports for the fiscal year 2013-14

Acknowledgement of the re-employment in the administration and supervisory positions for the 2015-16 school year: Tim Gilmer-CHS Principal, Attendance Supervisor; Joe Norval-CMS Principal, Special Education Supervisor; Scot Crocker-Instructional Supervisor, Career Technical Supervisor, Federal Projects Supervisor, Special Education Director; Regina McGuire-Cafeteria Supervisor; Trey Crews-Strategic Compensation Supervisor, Testing / Data Assessment, RTI coordinator

Change school calendar to use days approved by Carroll County schools for days missed due to weather

Approval of low bid for insurance by Tennessee Risk Management-Property (all) Liability-$48,539 / workman's compensation-$10,440

Approval of low bid for technology equipment by Central Technologies-$81,095

Approval of low bid for lawn service by James Sloan of unemployment from 7.8 percent in December to 9.3 percent in January, a 1.5 percent increase. From a labor force of 13,850, there were 12,560 employed and 1,290 unemployed. Weakley County's unemployment rate increased to 8.5 percent from 7.4 percent, a 1.1 percent increase from December to January. From a labor force of 15,730, there were 14,400 employed and 1,330 unemployed.

Neighboring Madison County had a January rate of 7.5 percent, Henderson 10.2, Benton, 10.0, and Gibson 9.3.

Williamson, Davidson, Ruthersford, and Sumner counties were the four counties with the lowest unemployment.

Tennessee experienced a small increase in unemployment with a rate of 6.7 percent in January compared to 6.6 percent in December.

Carroll County ranks 91st of 95 counties and remains in the top 10 counties in unemployment. It joins Scott County, Clay County, Van Buren, Cocke, Decatur, Pickett, Houston, Sevier, and Haywood.

Bruceton

a Mid-South representative in attendance if his company would consider lowering their price by $4,000.

The representative replied, "Our turnout gear cannot be compared 'apples to oranges' with Emergency Vehicle Specialists'. Our protective gear is sewn together with lock-stitching, which in essence is a double stitching that prevents a tear from increasing beyond the broken stitch. Their gear is sewn with a single-stitch method that does not impede additional tearing of seams. The content and quality of our gear package is different than theirs."

Bruceton Volunteer Fire Department Chief James Sloan added, "Mid-South's turnout gear will hold up better and is designed to provide greater heat protection. In addition, most companies' turnaround time for turnout gear is about four to six months. Mid-South can get the gear to us in three to four weeks."

In other business, Bruceton-Hollow Rock Little League representative David Thomas, accompanied by league president Rocky Noe and Brad Dean, addressed the board about needed repairs to the town's Little League lights, dugouts, and bleachers.

He said, "As of now, we have 162 youngsters signed up to play Little League ball this year and are expecting even more kids to sign up. We need some folks in our communities to help out by sponsoring youngsters that cannot afford to play. The cost per child is $50. We appreciate those that sponsor kids already, and ask others to step up and help out."

He continued, "We have some Little League events coming up soon. On April 4, we are hosting a Jesse Leaver Scholarship Fund Softball Tournament. Concessions will be sold that day. In addition to the games, kids can play bean-bag toss and check out a variety of National Guard military vehicles. On April 11, an Opening-Day Ceremony is planned for players and parents. No games will be played that day, but all teams will be recognized. Concessions will be sold as well. Our tentative date for Little League Day is May 1. April is just around the corner, and there are some important safety issues that need to be dealt with. We need help from town to get these things taken care of."

Mayor Keeton responded, "Last month, I asked you all for a bank statement of League assets and a list of needs. We need the bank statement before we proceed further. Do you have the financial statement with you?"

Thomas replied that he did not have the statement but would provide it as soon as possible.

Keeton asked, "What do you need in regard to repairs?"

Thomas said that the poor condition of the bleachers was his biggest safety concern.

Keeton said that with shipping cost added, new bleachers cost about $2,000.

He added, "Designate which bleachers need repairing. We will get the city crew to replace the wood and do what is necessary to repair them. What else?"

Thomas said the dugout roofs were sagging and needed to be replaced.

He said, "I bump my head every time I go in or out of a dugout."

Regarding ball field lights, Keeton remarked, "I checked with TVA, and all they will do is provide designs for the lighting. The city will have to purchase materials. Any grant the town submits for park improvements has a 50-percent town match. We can only do so much with town funds because the Little League is a private organization."

Little League representative Dean interjected, "The lighting electrical boxes around the ball field need to be raised. They are low enough to the ground that a kid with a baseball bat could hit one. Also, the flimsy plastic pipe encasing the electrical wiring needs to be replaced with schedule 80 pipe."

He added that Little League stipulations require a measurement of 50 lumens of light at the pitcher's mound.

He said, "We aren't even close to 50 lumens. I don't want any of our kids getting hurting playing ball on a field that is too dark-that could lead to a lawsuit being filed against the town."

Dean advised that although the park's electrical poles were adequate for usage, four new banks of lights were needed to light the field sufficiently.

He said, "Each bank will cost about $1,800."

Keeton responded, "Give us a written list with the number of bulbs and ballasts and repairs needed so that the board can address it. We will do what we can."

Alderman Cliff Sturdivant added, "Prioritize your needs so we will know what to address first."

Dean replied, "Lights, dugout and bleachers-that's the order of need. Also, Little League starts next month. Can we get something done with this year's budget?"

Keeton replied, "We will see what we can do. We need your bank financial statement as soon as possible."

Moving on, Keeton informed the board that one of the minors who had vandalized City Park by driving his vehicle on the grassy areas during the recent snow event had been apprehended.

Alderman Cole observed that the town's police force had really stepped up in issuing speeding tickets.

Addressing Bruceton Police Chief Ronnie Stewart, Alderman Sturdivant said, "I saw one of your patrolman running radar one morning at 5:30 a.m. I appreciate your re-working their schedules to provide more coverage for the town."

Alderman Scotty Higdon said that he was pleased with the numerous positive comments he had received regarding new City Recorder Annie Hand.

The board unanimously approved donations to American Legion Girls State ($175) and Boys State ($150) and a $50 donation to Carroll County Sports Hall of Fame.

Prior to adjournment, Cole asked Keeton if any funds were available for street paving.

Upon Keeton's reply of no, Cole said, "I know I keep asking the same question, but we have to do something soon. The roads will only get worse over time."

The city's rule concerning election day does not apply to liquor stores, that can now sell both liquor and beer under the authority of the Tennessee Alcoholic Beverage Commission and not the local beer board.

Voting for the changes were Vice Mayor Gene Hale, David Hochreiter, Jessie Townes, and Charles Pruneau. Gallimore abstained and Cassie Allen was absent.

Beer can now be sold for off-premise and on-premise consumption on election days and Sundays from 12:01 p.m. to midnight. Sales are already permissible Monday to Saturday, 6:00 a.m. to midnight.

In other business, the council recognized McKenzie Cub Scout Troop 78 (The Webelos) for their service to the community. Recognized were: Daniel Latimer, Seth Ricketts, Maddox Martin and Drew Harvey. The Webelos are currently working on their citizenship badges and participate in several events year round. More recently, they participated in a blanket drive.

Mayor Holland presented each Webelo with a lapel pin and asked them to shake hands with the council members before returning to their seats.

The Council approved the second of two readings, to establish a landscaping policy for new commercial and residential subdivision developments. Presently, the city has no guidelines, however, it does require landscaping for new commercial development. The existing guidelines were subjective, the new guidelines are more definitive. The proposed plan calls for some mitigation of trees if existing trees are removed. The council voted five to zero with one absent to approve the ordinance.

A resolution requesting support of legislation regarding local determination of broadband and Internet services was approved by the council in a vote of five to zero. The resolution emphasizes the importance of access to quality, high speed Internet as a necessity to live, work, survive and thrive in the 21st century. The resolution also mentions a need for competitive options of Internet and broadband providers.

Some Internet and broadband companies do not want to expand to rural areas, Mayor Holland said.

The West Tennessee Mayor's Association and Huntingdon Mayor Dale Kelley recognize the need for broadband in rural areas. Mayor Kelley addressed the Tennessee Senate committee on this issue, Holland continued.

A resolution requesting support of legislation to allow cities to control their own sources of revenue and not the Tennessee General Assembly was also brought before the council. The resolution states that cities should be granted the autonomy to make decisions independently of the Tennessee General Assembly concerning how revenues should be spent. Any effort to limit or restrict local authority or to direct the use of local revenues harms the ideals of self-governance.

"Local governments know better than the General Assembly how their money should be spent rather than having it dictated to them," Mayor Holland said.

Councilperson Hochreiter asked if the resolution targeted a specific piece of legislation going through the state right now or is it a broad resolution?

Mayor Holland answered, it is broad.

Council voted five to zero in support of the resolution.

Additionally, the council voted to re-appoint Garlon Prewitt to the McKenzie Regional Planning Commission.

The council voted to seek bids for a riding lawnmower for the parks department.

Ricky French said, "We need a third mower to keep everything up to date. We're seeking bids for a commercial 60-inch riding lawn mower."

Mayor Holland said she asked French if it was really needed. He said, yes, the city used to have five lawn mowers and now has two. The council voted five to zero with one absent to seek bids for the mower.

During citizen's input, Rosalyn Winston, of McClure Street, addressed the council about kids playing and traffic on her street. She requested a sign be erected stating "Children at play." Additionally, Winston expressed concerns about two electric outages so far this year and two winter storms that inhibited travel on roads in McKenzie. She suggested the city invest in a snow plow to prevent extended periods of hazardous road conditions. Council members shared Winston's concerns about the condition of the roads during the first winter storm February 16-25, but explained that snow plows are expensive, approximately $300,000, and the city felt that money could be better used elsewhere.

Patsy Allen, of Oak Manor Road, addressed the council about the beer ordinance, Allen stated that Sunday is "God's day" and if anyone on the council considers themselves a "Christian" and voted for this resolution, "God help you. God will not let you get away with that."

Allen also expressed concern about the liquor stores in McKenzie.

Councilperson Pruneau reminded Allen the citizens of McKenzie voted for the liquor stores and that the beer ordinance is a matter of state law. Pruneau also noted that he is a born again Christian and God helps him every day.

Lastly, John Nolen addressed the council about his neighbor's horses' waste producing a horrible smell and creating a nuisance. Mayor Holland assured him that the codes officer was working on it, but suffered a heart attack, is recovering and will continue working on it when he gets back to work.

Suite

to comment on his situation, Mr. Suite said he would continue to focus on giving students a well-rounded education.

"I have been reassigned to the classroom as of last night," said Mr. Suite Wednesday. "My focus has always been on providing the best and most well-rounded education for West Carroll students. This will continue. Classroom teachers are the key ingredient for education. I'm proud to be an educator; and I'm especially proud to be a West Carroll educator."

Mr. Suite has been employed at West Carroll schools since 1996. He served as a classroom teacher and assistant principal before becoming principal of the Junior-Senior High School in Atwood in 2001.

Suite was a finalist for Principal of the Year in Tennessee in 2009. He said he has received the Value-Added Achievement Award for a Highly Effective School five times from 2007-2012. He also served two terms as chairman of the Northwest Principal's Association in 2007 and 2008.

Mr. Suite is a native of Lebanon, Tenn. and has lived in McMoresville since 1996.

WCSSD Director Eric Williams said he reached the decision to make the principal change based on observations over several years. He believes the junior-senior high school needs different leadership. But Williams acknowledged that Suite's reassignment could be controversial with some in the community.

"This was an administrative decision just like the assignment of teachers; there's no story here," said Mr. Williams. "I don't talk about personnel. The director has the legal authority to assign or reassign personnel. This was an administrative decision to reassign Mr. Suite back to the classroom. All of my decisions are based on the best decisions to move the district forward."

Mr. Williams said only one board member criticized the decision.

Williams said the district will advertise for applicants. A committee of teachers and administrators will have input on the selection process to decide on a new principal.

Phil Williams, mayor of McMoresville for 37 years, attended the Mar. 10 board meeting and criticized the decision to move Suite.

"I can't understand it," said Mr. Williams about Suite's move. "When I went to the board meeting I could not understand why he was not rehired as principal of West Carroll Junior-Senior High School. He's done a tremendous job over the past fourteen years. I haven't heard anything derogatory about him. He's a very Christian man and very upstanding; he helps us in the community with many things."

"I think it may be a personal vendetta against him from our superintendent of schools," added Williams. "(The superintendent) says it's not, but I think it is. I think Mr. Williams is not thinking right. I don't think Lex (Suite) has done anything wrong. I don't think he's been reprimanded for anything. Lex was nominated for Principal of the Year in West Tennessee. I don't understand the decision. Just because a man has authority he doesn't need to go overboard, changing a man's career after fourteen years. I think that's really terrible. (Lex is a great guy and he's been a great educator; and he's been a great principal. I hate to see the decision."

Suicide is Tragic; Our Policy is Not to Publish

By Joel Washburn
Editor, The McKenzie Banner

As editor of The McKenzie Banner, and my brother, Jeff, as editor of the Dresden Enterprise have a standard policy concerning suicides. We implement a policy to not publish the details of a suicide unless it involves extenuating circumstances. Some newspapers and other media outlets choose to detail the fact of a suicide.

With or without media reports, word on the street about suicide spreads quickly. In today's society, in which everyone has access to Facebook, Twitter, etc., the news of a suicide can spread virally.

I am a member of the International Society of Weekly Newspaper Editors. Through an Internet ideas exchange, we editors share our thoughts and policies concerning suicides, letters to the editor, political advertising, gay marriage, and same sex dating at the high school prom, to name a few items of discussion. The ISWNE serves as a sounding board for editors to help with some very difficult decisions.

According to a recent dialog amongst ISWNE members, some weekly newspapers publish suicides and others do not. Some publish the details if the family of the deceased requests publication to possibly prevent copycats. In those cases, the news media should publish details of the hardships placed on the family and friends. The Banner and the Enterprise essentially choose not to publish. Here are some of the exceptions to the local "do not publish" policy. If it is part of a crime, such as a murder-suicide or it involves the death of a public official or public figure, some of the details will be published. The gory details will not be published.

I realize all media get painted with a broad brush of public opinion. The shortcomings of one media can damage the reputation of other media representatives who work in the industry.

According to a recent news report by National Public Radio (NPR), rural communities have a high rate of suicide. Suicide is the third leading cause of death for adolescents and young adults, and those who live in rural areas are especially at risk, according to NPR.

For young people between the ages of 10 and 24, the suicide rates in rural areas are nearly double those of urban areas, according to a study published Monday in JAMA Pediatrics. And that disparity is growing, wrote NPR.

The study, which analyzed data from 1996-2010, also found over half of the young people who killed themselves during that time period themselves had used a gun. And the rates for suicide by firearm were especially high in rural areas — about three times the rates for urban areas.

Hunker Down with Kes

“Advise and Consent” Gone Awry

Forty-seven United States Senators recently sent a letter to the Iranian government semi-inviting themselves to the negotiating table. Are you kidding me? I'm not sure which top drawer foreign official the letter was addressed to. I'm a little amazed our boys could find a leader over there willing to accept an epistle from us! But that is another story.

Apparently, these Congressmen feel they can work out a bilateral arrangement (cut a deal) with someone in Iran more efficiently than the president, pope, central casting or the Mt. Mariah Tabernacle Choir. Now, I didn't actually read the entire letter, so I don't know every detail. Of course, you are well aware of the long and expansive history of the "ways and means" of many in the Senate. There's a better than good chance most of the forty-seven who signed off on this thing didn't read or understand all the particulars and ramifications either!

Usually, you don't know if the capital hill boys have helped or hurt until some nation is shaking its finger at us, or the fallout lands in your IRS statement. I think the rallying cry for the Senate is "Let's don't do anything so bad that we can't clear it up right before the next election." The short memory of the American voter is the reason the same ole guys keep going back term after term.

But I've got reason for hope. If the Senate is going into the negotiating business, I want to be the first in line. My grandkids have signed up to "come to Florida" for their spring break. I didn't know a third grader and two kindergartners had earned enough points for a "spring break". My wife is excited as all get out. I've got some hefty reservations.

Our family needs some serious, big time "negotiating". If the Senate can see its way clear to tell people half way around the world how to live, settling a little problem down here on the home front ought to be a snap.

I need an independent third party with some clout to determine the length of stay of these grandchildren. Surely to goodness there ought to be some "term limits" for a spring break! My son and wife think it constitutes a whole week. I think each case has to stand alone. And in this scenario, which will directly affect my peace and tranquility, I think it should be limited to a Tuesday afternoon or until one of the twins breaks the glass in my grandfather clock.

You don't know these people like I do!

The original parleying went like this. Josh called and said the kids really wanted to "come and see us" during their week out of school. Cathy agreed to this bilateral arrangement on the spot. I think the wheat was in the barn before the chaff drifted down to me. My first reaction was, "You're telling me a nine year old and two five year olds just hopped out of bed one morning dying to see pa and gran?" It could be my son "visualized" a free week on the horizon. Maybe some facts were convoluted for convenience sake, sanity or national security. You see why the U. S. Senate would be a natural fit here.

If you think Nuclear War with Iran would be horrific... come over to my house next week and watch those twin girls (did I mention their names are Seek and Destroy?) settle in. And if you think there's any "sugar and spice and everything nice" mixed in with those girls then you'd probably believe the Senate is spending every waking hour working on our behalf.

Do you have to be an ayatollah, posses some high-grade plutonium or win a super bowl to get a letter from the U. S. Senate? Can we wave our hands, create a ruckus, phone in our differences, or do they just pick a situation worthy of their attention? It's for sure they've got time for us. They are not passing any laws this year. Of course, come to think of it, that might be a good thing.

Please don't send ten Republicans and ten Democrats down here. I know how that vote would turn out. And a tie does me no good. I leaned early in this marriage that Cathy wins all the split decisions.

I haven't heard how Iran responded to our offer. If they're like all the other foreign countries they are mulling over how they can get the most out of it when we "sit down at the table" to negotiate. We are the only nation on earth that has never lost a war... or won a peace agreement.

Of course, the Senate will stall, lollygag, filibuster and bandy pork barrel issues back and forth until my house looks like the nuclear bomb went off in the kitchen. I will then get my letter from each side of the aisle... immediately blaming the other party for my misfortunes.

Respectfully,
Kesley Colbert

The Readers Speak ...

Dear Editor:

As it is St. Patrick's Day, I thought your readers would be interested in who St. Patrick really was. For most people, St. Patrick's Day simply means wearing green, hearing Irish music, and having corned beef and cabbage for supper. St. Patrick himself is sometimes overlooked.

He was actually born in England, around 389 A.D. At age sixteen, he was captured and taken to Ireland, where he was a herdsman for a pagan master. After six years, Patrick escaped and returned home. In a dream, he was told to return to Ireland and convert the pagans. From about 412-415, he studied at a monastery to prepare, and was ordained a Catholic priest in 417.

He was sent to Ireland in 431 to assist the bishop. After the bishop died the following year, Patrick, himself, was consecrated Bishop of Ireland. He traveled all throughout the country, teaching the Catholic faith and baptizing converts, despite how much the Druids, a large pagan cult in Ireland at the time, hated him. Patrick even converted several members of the royal family.

Patrick visited Rome in 442, and Pope St. Leo the Great told him to establish the Catholic Church in Ireland. St. Patrick did, thus on his return, establishing more bishops throughout the country.

After winning the whole Irish nation for Christ, this holy man of God, St. Patrick, died on March 17, 461. He was made the patron saint of Ireland, and in that country, his feast day is a Holy Day of Obligation, meaning all Catholics must attend Mass on that day. It is a great day of rejoicing in remembrance of this great man, who brought them to Christ.

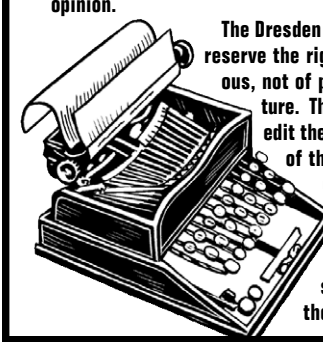

So, maybe we can remember him too, and realize the reason we celebrate everything Irish, and also remember not "the luck o' the Irish", but the blessing of God, that he sent the world as willing a servant as St. Patrick.

Sarah McDonald,
McKenzie.

Huntingdon FBC to Host Women's Retreat

It is time for the eighteenth annual Women's Retreat at Huntingdon First Baptist Church on Friday, March 27, 2015 at 6:00 p.m.. The theme for this event is, Renew, Refresh, Refine. I Kings 13:7 tells us we should come and refresh ourselves... The guest speaker is Teri Lynne Underwood and the guest worship leader is Diann Olson. The cost for the retreat is $25. The retreat includes the banquet, which consists of a meal served by the men of the church, and the conference, consisting of biblically based teachings and musical worship. Child care is provided by reservation only, with a nominal fee of $2.00 per child, which includes the child's meal.

Teri Lynne Underwood is the author of Parenting from the Overflow and Prayers from the Pews: The Power of Praying for Your Church. She blogs at www.TeriLynneUnderwood.com and is a contributing writer for several other websites. Teri Lynne is a popular women's ministry speaker, and a social media and online marketing consultant. She has been happily married to Scott, the minister of music at Calvary Baptist Church in Russellville, Alabama since 1996. They have one teenage daughter and a crazy Basset hound, Buddy.

Diann Olson is a member of First Cumberland Presbyterian Church in McKenzie, where she serves as a pianist for their traditional service and song leader for the contemporary service. Diann is also the School of Discovery director at First CP where she teaches pre-school. She is the mother of two girls.

Women of west Tennessee and surrounding areas are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to Renew, Refresh, Refine! The ministry project is the collection of travel size toiletry items. Bring these items with you to the event. This will be a great night of fun, food and fellowship. For more information, answers to questions or to reserve childcare, call 731-986-5000.

Bethel/Eastside FCE News

Bethel/Eastside FCE members met for their first meeting of the year on March 12, 2015 in the Quilters Room of the Carroll County Complex. The meetings for both January and February were called off because of inclement weather. There were 9 members in attendance with Janice Chandler as hostess.

The meeting was called to order by president, Penny Mays, and roll call was answered with "What was my project for the months of January through March?"

Old Business was discussed. We are the hostess for the County Council meeting on April 13th and the hostess for Spring Rally on April 16th. We discussed the decorations we would use for the Rally and what to bring for Council. A motion was made and seconded to discontinue the scrapbook and to donate the ones we have to the Carroll County Museum if they will take them.

A workshop was set for April 11th to work on the Rally decorations at the Mays Mansion.

The months were gone through and assigned a hostess up until and including September; October and November still pending. A suggestion was made that we have a meeting at Harmony Hill. No date was set. Dues were taken up with many paying for the year instead of month by month.

The meeting was adjourned. An add a dish meal was enjoyed by all.

Next month's hostess will be Penny Mays.

Card of Thanks

Everyone says...

He was a dear friend, he was a joy to be around.

He was a good provider, a wonderful husband, daddy, granddaddy, great granddaddy, and brother.

To us, he was all these things and much much more. He was a man we loved and adored.

His legacy is what he taught us, its the way he made us feel, its the way he always loved us.

The love and joyous memories of him will sustain us in the days to come.

And we will find healing in God's tender embrace, and in knowing others remembered and cared.

We would like to thank Brummitt-McKenzie Funeral Home, MHS Class of 1966, First Baptist Church, McKenzie Church of Christ, and Hospice of West TN for being there for all of our needs.

To Bro. Dennis Trull and Bro. Jim Roberts, you have been a great comfort. As you carry out your work, the love of God shines through.

To all of you, we appreciate your love and support in this difficult time in our lives.

Our Sincerest Thanks,

Habitat For Humanity Hosts Gala Event

Habitat For Humanity of Carroll County hosted its annual Gala on March 12 at the Carroll County Civic Center.

The annual event is to celebrate the successes of providing affordable housing for those area citizens who need a “hand up, not a hand out”. The event also celebrates the work of the many volunteers who keep the local organization going.

The auditorium was filled with guests, who enjoyed an excellent dinner, prepared by Mallard's and served by volunteers from area schools.

Retired minister James Humphreys of Huntingdon was announced as the Volunteer of the Year by Becky Burkhalter, executive director. Burkhalter said Humphreys assists in the resale shop, that helps raise money for the ongoing building projects.

Musical entertainment was provided by Bullet Town Band. It includes Julie Daniels, Carl Byars, Keith Brown, Steve Short, and Jonathan Chappell, who operated the sound board.

PINEAPPLE CAKE

2 cup sugar
2 cup flour
2 eggs
1 teaspoon soda
1 stick oleo, melted
1 (15 oz.) can crushed pineapple with juice

Combine all ingredients. Pour into a deep ungreased pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes or until cake leaves sides of pan. Frost the cake with a can cream cheese frosting.

MONKEY BREAD

½ cup chopped pecans
½ cup sugar

1 teaspoon cinnamon
3 (10 oz.) cans refrigerated biscuits
1 cup brown sugar, packed firm
½ cup butter or margarine, melted

Sprinkle pecans in bottom of a well-greased 10-inch Bundt pan; set aside. Combine sugar and cinnamon. Cut biscuits into quarter pieces. Roll each piece in sugar mixture and layer in Bundt pan. Combine brown sugar and oleo; pour over the biscuit quarters. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 to 40 minutes. Cool 10 minutes. Invert on plate.

DIXIELAND DELIGHT POUND CAKE

1 cup margarine
½ cup shortening
3 cup sugar
5 eggs
3 cup flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 cup milk
½ teaspoon vanilla

½ teaspoon lemon extract
Cream margarine, shortening and sugar in large mixer bowl until light. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Sift flour with baking powder; add alternately with milk to the mixture. Blend thoroughly. Stir in vanilla and lemon extract. Pour into well-greased and floured tube pan (10 inch). Bake at 325 degrees for 1 hour and 30 minutes or until a wooden pick inserted in center of cake comes out clean. Cool in pan 15 minutes; remove from pan and let cool completely on a wire rack. Yield: One ten inch cake

Honor Students Urged To Believe It's Possible

Elementary teachers and administrators are always resourceful. No doubt, it's part of their job description. Gina Hale Gore exemplified that resourcefulness on Tuesday, March 10, when she was the invited speaker at the McKenzie High School Honors Banquet.

The Millennials are rarely but a few feet away from their cell phones, and its component cameras and Internet access. However, in most school situations, students are compelled to put their phones away. Mrs. Gore had a different idea. When she took the podium, she asked the 172 honorees to retrieve their cell phones and make a "selfie" photograph to commemorate the event. Gore, herself, turned her back to the students, placed her cell phone-camera high into the air, and made a photograph with the students in the background.

You ask, where did such an idea originate? The elementary principal got the idea after asking one of her students her favorite song. The answer was, "It's All About that Face," a misinterpretation of the song's lyrics and title, "It's All About That Bass."

In a challenge to the students, based on the theme "I'm possible", Mrs. Gore enumerated these four points: (1) Accept challenges; (2) Begin with the end in mind; (3) Read about people who inspire you; and (4) Try and try until you succeed.

Success is achieved, in part, with self-discipline, self control, and self love.

In closing, she asked the students to look at the "selfie" photograph and entitle it the "I'm possible selfie."

Following her speech, each of the honorees was presented a certificate of accomplishment as he or she crossed an elevated platform. Seniors, who attended all four years, were recognized additionally with a plaque provided by the McKenzie Kiwanis Club. MHS Principal Lynn Watkins announced each honoree's name while Mrs. Gore and Sheila Ridley, MHS guidance counselor, presented a certificate.

Brian Winston, president of the McKenzie Rotary Club, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Madison Green, who plans to attend Vanderbilt University in Nashville. Green is the daughter of Michael and Kendra Earnhardt and Torey Green.

Winston said the McKenzie service club sponsors the annual banquet and scholarship as part of its mission to support the youth and their educational opportunities in McKenzie.

The Dixie Welcomes the Atlanta Pops Orchestra in March

HUNTINGDON — Enjoy an evening of entertainment with the Atlanta Pops Orchestra at The Dixie Carter Performing Arts & Academic Enrichment Center Saturday, March 21 at 7:30 p.m.

The program, "Pops and Songs of the South," features classic Pops tunes by Cole Porter, Andrew Lloyd Weber, and Johnny Mercer and a musical journey through the South with popular melodies and songs from Tennessee and the Deep South to the Bayou.

The Atlanta Pops Orchestra, celebrating its 70th anniversary, is the premier provider of live popular orchestra music program-ming for the state of Georgia, the southeastern United States, and beyond. With a rich history span-ning seven decades, the Atlanta Pops Orchestra has captivated audiences throughout the world with a diverse repertoire of popu-lar music.

Dr. Jason Altieri is the current Music Director of the Atlanta Pops Orchestra and Associate Conductor for the Reno Philharmonic. He is also a strong advocate for young musicians through his position as Director of Orchestras at the University of Nevada and with guest conducting engagements with youth orches-tras all over the United States. He is a native of Georgia and grew up in a musical family with both parents being members of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. He completed high school at the Dekalb Center for the Performing Arts and received a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education at the University of Georgia. He pursued advanced degrees in conducting from Michigan State University.

"Pops and Songs of the South" is sponsored by WRJB 95.9, Magic Valley Publishing, the Camden Chronicle, and the Carroll County News-Leader.

Tickets are $25 each and are available at The Dixie box of- fice in downtown Huntingdon, by calling 731-986-2100, and online at dixiepac.net.

Mustangs Mercy Rule Lions, 12-2

Dodson Leads HHS to Victory

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

HUNTINGDON (March 16) — The Huntingdon Mustangs unleashed an offensive slugfest in their home-opening baseball contest via the plate prowess of Zach Dodson (2-3, 3 RBI), Josh Furr (3-4, two triples, 2 RBI) Brandon Baker (2 RBI) and Jaden Williams (2 RBI) to mercy rule Dresden in five innings, 12-2.

The Mustangs belted out 13 hits while Huntingdon hurler Dodson fanned 10 Lions and held Dresden to two hits including a one-run RBI single by T. Hutcherson.

Mustang pitcher Dodson worked five innings to collect the win. Lion hurler Carlton gave up nine earned runs on 12 hits in 4.1 innings to absorb the loss.

In the top of the first, Mustang hurler Dodson fanned Z. Lewis and A. Thomas and J. Mitchell flew out to short as Dresden went three-up, three-down.

In the bottom of said inning, Huntingdon came out swinging as Dodson reached first on an infield error and stole second. Dodson then stole third base before scoring via Kade Pearson's sacrifice grounder. Josh Furr followed by ripping a triple to left field before being played by Brandon Baker's sacrifice fly to centerfield. Digging deep, Lion hurler Carlton struck out Ben Clift as Huntingdon led early, 2-0.

Lion Quincy McDonald provided the only offense for his squad in the top of the second via single as Mustang pitcher Dodson struck out K. Sawyer, B. Cooper and B. Carlton.

Huntingdon added three runs in the bottom of the second via Jaden Williams' sacrifice bunt and Dodson's two-run triple off the right field wall to extend their lead to 5-0.

Dresden went three-up, three-down in the top of the third as Mustang hurler Dodson fanned T. Hutcherson, K. Hutcherson, and Z. Lewis.

Huntingdon failed to score in the bottom of the third as Brandon Baker ground out to short, Clift singled to right, Kolton McMinn

New Scoreboard Memorializes Nicky Joe Stafford

By Joel Washburn
washburn@mckenziebanner.com

(MARCH 16) — Family, friends, players from McKenzie High School and McKenzie Middle School baseball all honored the memory of Nicky Joe Stafford, the late real estate broker and developer and passionate supporter of youth sports. Monday, a new scoreboard was dedicated in his memory at McKenzie Park.

Nicky Joe Stafford grew up in the north end of McKenzie on Como Road, just across from an open field that is now known as McKenzie Park. No doubt, he spent many hours playing and hunting in those open pastures and fishing in Mr. Moore's pond - now known as the pond at the park. The park was developed into the late 1970s during the Swat Scarbrough mayorship, when Stafford was well into his adult life.

McKenzie Youth Sports, McKenzie High

School Baseball and McKenzie Middle School Baseball utilized the opening home game of the MHS Rebels to dedicate the new scoreboard. On the beautiful sunny day, the MMS and MHS teams lined first and third baseline as the Stafford family stood just behind home plate.

From the press box, Josh Kee read a prepared statement detailing the new scoreboard and how it became a reality.

Kee said, "In a game, where many statistics are kept - strikes, balls, runs batted in, etc., there is one set of statistics that is not kept. For example, the number of teams and volunteer coaches, the hours spent investing in the lives of children, the minutes spent throwing balls with a person's own children. We just do not keep records of these events, but they are no less precious because we know that it is due to

Washburn Leads Lady Rebels To Win In Season Opener

Lady Rebel Audrie Washburn hurls a strike. She threw a one-hit, five-inning shutout for McKenzie, walking two batters and hitting one with a pitch while striking out five. Washburn was also 4-4 at the plate, with a home run and two RBIs.

By Brad Sam
banner@mckenziebanner.com

McKENZIE (March 16) — Lady Rebel hurler Audrie Washburn threw a gem in her varsity debut Monday, allowing only one hit in a five-inning shutout of the visiting Gleason Lady Bulldogs. Washburn and catcher Autumn Pratt also led the team offensively, each belting a home run in the 10-0 victory.

Washburn induced three straight groundouts to begin the game, then led off the home half with a bunt single. Madison Green drew a walk, and Carla Craddock was hit by a pitch to load the bases with no outs. The Lady Rebels would fail to score as the next two batters popped out and Washburn was caught stealing home.

Audrie Washburn gave up her lone hit to Lady Bulldog Brittany Corum to lead off the second frame. Washburn threw Corum out stealing amidst a walk to Avery Story, then struck out Jasmine McKinney on three pitches. Story stole two bases as Washburn walked Ericka Denton, but a nine-pitch strikeout to Hannah Lemonds stifled the threat. Lady Bulldog Emilee Ricketts walked Emily Lunn to begin the bottom half, then stuck out Anna Comer. Bailey Nelson tapped a bunt single to the right side, advancing Lunn to third.

Fillies Overwhelm Gleason, 16-0 Maggie Ross' four RBIs Leads Fillies

GLEASON (March 15) — The visiting Huntingdon Fillies jumped out to an early lead on Gleason and captured an easy 16-0 victory over the Lady Bulldogs.

Erupting offensively, Huntingdon plated 10 runs in the first three innings.

A hit by pitch, a fielder's choice, and a two-run double by Maggie Ross in the first inning and an RBI double by Lydia Hayes, an error, an RBI single by McKenna Moody, and a two-run single by Carson Hatch during the second inning fueled Fillies' offense early.

Fillies hurler Sara Beth Hayes held Gleason hitless over two innings, allowed no earned runs, walked none, and struck out three.

Morgan Fuller came in to relieve Hayes for the win. In three shutout innings, Fuller struck out two, walked none, and gave up two hits.

Lady Bulldog Emilee Ricketts allowed 16 runs in five innings, walked eight and struck out four to take the loss.

Rebels Defuse Rockets In Home Opener, 13-2

By Brad Sam
banner@mckenziebanner.com

McKENZIE (March 16) — The Rebels got a strong performance from pitcher Jack Surber and added ten hits to the sixteen walks they were issued by Clarksburg as they beat the Rockets, 13-2.

Surber began the game by striking out Trevor Gooch, and gave up a single to Trent Gooch. Rocket Ryan McDaniel reached on an error, but Surber induced a flyout and a groundout to end the early threat. Rebel Mitchell Lunn drew a leadoff walk from Rocket pitcher Hunter Perterson, then Noah McEwen reached on a bad throw. Surber singled to score Lunn, but McEwen was forced out. Noah Lowrance walked, and Chase Kelly reached on a fielder's choice that retired Surber. Brandon Baucum drew another walk, but Bransen McCaleb grounded out to end the inning in a 1-0 McKenzie lead.

Surber forced two groundouts to start the second. After issuing a walk to Austin Pritchard, Surber struck out Cameron Bindig on three pitches to end the half-inning. The Rebel bats warmed up in the home half as they juiced the bases on a single from Stuart Spring, a fielder's choice by Lunn, and a walk to McEwen. Surber drove in two with a triple, then Lowrance added another with a single. After two frames, the Rebels lead 4-0.

A leadoff walk and two stolen bases relinquished to Trevor Gooch didn't amount to any runs in the third as Surber retired the next three batters, striking out one. The Rebel offense peaked in the bottom half as they scored five runs on just two hits. Six walks in the inning forced three pitching changes for Clarksburg before a slick double play finally ended the inning. Rebels McEwen and Kelly delivered the two McKenzie hits, and the lead was 9-0.

Surber issued a walk to Hunter Peterson and hit Trent Boyd with a pitch to start the fourth. He escaped untouched again, however, picking off a runner, inducing a first-pitch flyout, and striking out the final batter. The Rebels drew three straight walks in the home half, forcing another pitching change. Bulldog Riley Carden settled in for the rest of the game, but gave up two runs on a passed ball and a sacrifice fly by Surber. After four

Fillies Overpower Lady War Eagles, 8-3

Lydia Hayes' Hitting Key to Win

HUNTINGDON (March 11) — Fueled by Lydia Hayes strong 4-4 plate performance, the Huntingdon Fillies defeated the West Carroll Lady War Eagles in a seven-inning hilt, 8-3.

Huntingdon jumped on top to stay via Hayes' two-run double in the first and RBI single in the third to plate Cheyenne Childress.

Battling back, West Carroll scored two runs in the top of the fourth via RBI double by Kaitlin Pigue and groundout by Lexie Little. Digging deep, Fillies' hurler Sara Beth Hayes struck Lady War Eagle Mikayla Morris out to end the West Carroll rally.

Responding, Huntingdon plated four runs in the bottom of the fourth via a West Carroll error, a steal of home by LeAnn Webb, a groundout RBI by Childress, and a L. Hayes' RBI double.

Fillies Hurler S. Hayes allowed three earned runs on six hits and walked one while striking out five over seven innings to tally the win.

Lady War Eagle Meagan Delaney walked four, struck out one and allowed three runs to absorb the loss.

Lady Tigers Defeat Lady Bulldogs, 6-2

BRUCETON (March 11) — Despite pouring rain and a muddy field conditions, the Hollow Rock-Bruceton Central Lady Tigers opened their 2015 campaign with a 6-2 home victory over the Gleason Lady Bulldogs.

Central was led offensively by Olivia Lowry and Tiffani Hughey, who combined four hits and three RBIs.

The Lady Tiger's out-hit the Lady Bulldogs, 10-6 while Gleason committed five errors in the contest.

Gleason was led by Autumn Faulkner's 2-2 (single, double) plate performance.

Gleason jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the top of the first before Central plated two runs via Gleason error and Tiffani Hughey RBI groundout.

Gleason plated one run in the top of the fourth to cut central's lead to 3-2 before the Lady Tigers tallied three runs in bottom of said inning via Hughes RBI double and a Gleason error. Neither squad scored in the fifth, sixth, nor seventh innings as Central captured a hard-fought, 6-2 win.

Lady Tiger hurler Alexas Goodwin scattered two runs, struck out three, walked three, and gave up six hits in seven innings to collect the win.

Lady Bulldog pitcher Emilee Ricketts allowed six runs in six innings, walked one and struck out one to absorb the loss.

innings, the Rebels lead 11-0. Blanking the Rockets in the fifth would have ended the game, but Clarksburg managed to scrape out two runs to extend the contest. Two walks by Surber and a single by Trent Gooch loaded the bases, and a Ryan McDaniel groundout plated the first Rocket run. Surber caught a runner sleeping at second, then gave up another run on a Brett Altom single. Surber's next pitch was popped up to first to end the inning. With the score 11-2, the Rebels needed just a run to end the game. Brandon Baucum led off with a promising single, and advanced to second on a successful McCaleb sacrifice. After moving to third on a passed ball, Baucum was thrown out at the plate on a fielder's choice. Lunn grounded out to end the threat and give Clarksburg another chance to bat. on the mound in the sixth for McKenzie and retired the side, striking out one. Bulldog Riley Carden recorded two quick infield outs to start the home half, and it looked like the game would go to the seventh inning. Noah Lowrance singled and stole second to put the game-ending run into scoring position, but Carden put Chase Kelly on to give Clarksburg a forceout opportunity. In the next at-bat, Baucum drove the second pitch deep to center for a two-run, game-ending double and a 13-2 victory. Rebel Jack Surber recorded the win, allowing two earned runs on three hits while walking five and striking out four. Bulldog Hunter Peterson took the loss, giving up four earned on five hits in two innings while walking four. Surber was also 2-4 at the plate with a triple and five RBIs. Brandon Baucum went 2-2 with a double, two RBIs and two walks. Mitchell Lunn was 0-2, but drew three walks, stole two bags, and scored four runs.

these countless moments that the game of baseball is alive and well. "So today, we celebrate and remember one man's love of the game of baseball. Nicky Joe Stafford coached many Little League and Babe Ruth teams. After his passing, a man, who the family barely knew, brought a picture from The McKenzie Banner of his team, that Nicky Joe coached.

As Micky (Stafford) grew, Nicky Joe would coach his son's teams. Along with Glenn Hayes, Ray Berryman, Tom Nolen, Doyle Connell, Buddy Rorer, and Keith Parker, Nicky Joe coached with a passion. He instructed and mentored the kids his life touched. He even took some of the teams to St. Louis to see Major League action. Simply put, he loved baseball. He loved the influence sports have on a young person's life. He loved the discipline, teamwork, and life skills that participation in sports teaches. "Funny thing is, he hated the tiny scoreboard that did not always work. He grew frustrated, especially in a close game, to not know the score, etc. So as a family, the Staffords chose the McKenzie Youth Baseball league for memorials when Nicky Joe passed. With the generous donations of many, we now dedicate the new scoreboard to the memory, of not only Nicky Joe Stafford, but to these countless volunteers for caring about children and loving baseball...

"We would like to thank the following people and businesses for their help in making this scoreboard a reality. They are: McKenzie Homerun Club members, McKenzie High School and McKenzie Middle School players and coaches, (Parks Director) Ricky French and McKenzie City Park and Recreation, Andy Wilson and Carroll County Lumber, Keith Robertson Backhoe, Republic Builders, GSC Sign Company, McKenzie Youth Baseball and a special thanks to the following Homerun Club members for the installation of the scoreboard: Chris Harris, Eddie Birdwell, Will Stephens, Stuart and Meredith Darron, and Murray McCaleb. Finally, a very special thank you to the many who honored Nicky Joe Stafford by providing a monetary donation in his name."

Washburn

...From Sports Front

Beth Barcroft singled on a line drive to score Lunn and send Nelson to third. Nelson scored on a throw before Washburn bunted the first pitch for a single. Barcroft then scored on another throw before Madison Green singled. Washburn scored on yet another throw, and Carla Craddock was hit by a pitch. Potts then singled on a liner to left, loading the bases. Next, Autumn Pratt singled on a grounder to third, scoring Green. Lunn lined out to left and Comer popped out to short, however, to strand the three baserunners. After two innings, the Lady Rebels led 5-0. Lady Bulldog Emilee Ricketts popped out to start the third inning, then Audrie Washburn hit Madison Arnold with a first-pitch screwball. Autum Faulkner reached on a fielder's choice, but Emily Bell grounded out to short to end the half-inning. Lady Rebel Bailey Nelson was hit by the first pitch from Ricketts in the home half, then Beth Barcroft flew out to center. Washburn blasted the first pitch over the centerfield wall for a two-run home run to increase McKenzie's lead to 7-0, but the next two batters were retired. Washburn retired the side on eleven pitches in the fourth, including a three-pitch strikeout. In the bottom half, Autumn Pratt belted a one-out solo homer to give the Lady Rebels an 8-0 advantage after four frames. In the top of the fifth, Audrie Washburn again sat down the Lady Bulldogs in order on eleven pitches, including two three-pitch strikeouts. Beth Barcroft singled on the first pitch from Ricketts in the home half, then Washburn dropped a bunt single. Madison Green singled to bring in Barcroft, and before another pitch, Washburn advanced to home on a throw to end the game at 10-0. Audrie Washburn threw a one-hit, five-inning shutout for McKenzie, walking two batters and hitting one with a pitch while striking out five. Lady Bulldog Emilee Ricketts took the loss, allowing ten earned runs on twelve hits while walking three batters and striking out two. Lady Rebel Audrie Washburn was 4-4 at the plate, with a home run and two RBIs. Autumn Pratt was 2-3, also with a home run and two RBIs. Madison Green and Beth Barcroft were also 2-3, each with an RBI.

Mustangs

struck out swinging, and Elijah Wilkerson ground out to short. Dresden's offensive struggles continued in the top of the fourth as the Lion's went three-up, three-down as Thomas ground out to second, Mitchell ground out to short, and Sawyer was thrown out at first via dropped third strike. Huntingdon failed to score in the bottom of the fourth but continued to lead Dresden, 5-0. The Lions offense got on track in the top of the fifth as Cooper ripped a hard grounder to third and beat the throw to first base. Q. McDonald advanced Cooper to second via sacrifice bunt and Carlton walked to place runners on first and second. Stepping to the plate, T. Hutcherson belted a RBI single to left to score Cooper as runners advanced to first and third. On the ensuing play, Carlton scored via Huntingdon throwing error as the Lions narrowed the Mustang lead, 5-2. Ramping up in the bottom of the fifth, Huntingdon's hitting machine spun into high gear as Furr led off with a triple off the right field wall and plated via Baker's single to center. Clift then smacked a RBI triple off the right field wall and stole home on the next play via passed ball to widen the Mustangs lead to 8-2. McMinn grounded out to second for the first out of the inning before Wilkerson doubled to right field and Williams advanced to first via infield fielding error to place runners on first and second. Barmore singled to load the bases before Dodson launched a RBI single over the Lion centerfielder. An additional run plated after Pearson was hit by a pitch as Huntingdon grew their lead to 10 -2 and Dresden brought in relief pitcher Deran. Stepping to the plate, Mustang Furr smacked a two-run RBI to right to invoke the mercy rule as Huntingdon celebrated their 12-2 district win over Dresden.

MATTER OF RECORD

McKenzie Police Reports

Indecent exposure-On February 23 at approximately 9:39 p.m. Stephanie Blane contacted MPD from her residence in Dover to report that a man had exposed himself to her 18-year-old daughter inside Dollar General Store in McKenzie. Mrs. Blane was instructed to have her daughter come to the police station to file a complaint. On February 24, Bethel University student Priestly Blane, accompanied by her father, Scott Blane, filed a complaint at the police station regarding the incident. In her statement, Ms. Blane said she had stopped by Dollar General Store between 5:30-6:00 p.m. on February 23 and that a white male exposed himself to her when she met him while walking down one of the aisles in the rear of the store. Ms. Blane said the man exposed himself to her twice more before leaving the store. She noted that the man was wearing a brown (work) jacket, brown athletic pants, and a cap. She said the man was about average in weight and height. Ms. Blane said she watched the man from the checkout counter as he left the store and drove away in a white van embossed with diagonal stripe down the side with a logo. She said she thought she saw the word "glass" on the logo. Ms. Blane's father said he had found that Jack Morris Glass Company was using vehicles with a similar logo and contacted their Jackson office and spoke with the regional manager and owner of the company and was assured that they would assist in any way possible to determine if one of their employees was involved. MPD Lieutenant Richard Sawyers contacted the manager of the Jackson office and was informed that two employees were in McKenzie on the date of the incident. Neither of the employees matched the description of the suspect. The officer then contacted the manager of Dollar General Store in McKenzie and requested a copy of the security video. The video revealed the suspect following the victim into the store and showed the suspect staring directly at Ms. Blane as he exposed himself to her. Video also showed the suspect leaving the store as the victim was checking out and could be seen driving away in a white van with a white stripe down the side. It was determined by watching the video that the suspect vehicle did not match the stripe / logo on Jack Morris company vehicles, so the two employees were eliminated as possible suspects.

Unlawful drug paraphernalia-According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Trey Boucher, Christopher M. Cozart, Windol Street, McKenzie was arrested on March 13 at approximately 6:41 p.m. at his residence on a warrant for theft under $500. After Mr. Cozart was arrested, the patrolman, during a routine search, found a glass pipe in the defendant's left cargo pocket of his pants believed to be used to smoke narcotics with. The defendant was then charged with the listed offense.

Disorderly conduct-According to report filed by MPD Patrolman Kyle D. Beuachamp Jackson, the officer, accompanied by MPD Sergeant Chad Davis, responded to call reporting that approximately four males and a female were fighting in front of a residence located at 135 Woodrow Avenue. Upon arrival, the reporting officer saw two females and one male in the front yard. They immediately stated that two males left in a black van with Indiana tags. When asked what had happened, Ms. Delorus Webb (grandmother) stated that her daughter (Cynthia Webb) and her daughter's ex-boyfriend (L.C. Ball Jr.) were arguing before Ball's friend (Dominique D'Andre Jackson) and her brother (Raymond T. Hands) got into a verbal argument because Ball and Jackson had shown up at the house and were not supposed to be there. Ms. Webb said she met with her boyfriend so that he could see their two children. She said that the two went separate ways after the visit but he followed her to her mother's residence although he was not supposed to know where she lived. As a result, a loud verbal argument ensued involving the two, Mrs. Hands, Mr. Ball from Indiana and Mr. Jackson. She stated that the argument did not become physical in nature. After the officers left the scene, Ball and Jackson returned to the residence. After another call was placed regarding their presence at the residence, officers responded to find the two had left prior to their arrival. Shortly thereafter, MPD Sergeant Davis performed a traffic stop on a black mini-van bearing Indiana registration owned by Ball Jr. who was driving and Jackson was occupying the passenger seat. Ball said that he had met up with Bell to visit his children and had noticed his young daughter had a bad diaper rash so he took her to the hospital to have it checked out. After dropping Mrs. Webb and his children off, he said Mrs. Webb (mother) came out talking to him. Raymond Hands then allegedly came out of the house upset and yelling before going back to the house and retrieving an aluminum baseball bat and came out swinging. Ball and Jackson claimed they were struck by the bat but were able to escape and drive away. Both men then came to MPD and wrote statements in order to press charges on Mr. Hands for aggravated assault. The officer stated that after the two filed their complaints they left for Indiana and stated they would return if the District Attorney found probable cause to issue a warrant for Mr. Hands. Jackson and Ball were advised not to return to 135 Woodrow Lane or they would be arrested for criminal trespass. They said they would not return.

Evading arrest-According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Jeff D. Winberry, the officer was on routine patrol when he turned around on a vehicle that suddenly sped away and turned onto Magnolia Avenue. Upon approaching the vehicle, a black male exited the right rear and took off running. The subject did evade apprehension at that time. The subject, identified in the report as DeMarcus M. Robinson, Magnolia Avenue East, McKenzie, left his wallet and cell phone in the vehicle as he exited. A person identified as Allison Mercer attempted to acquire the vehicle but was advised that it would not be released to her but that he could come and get it. The report noted that the subject has warrants out of Weakley County.

All other larceny-According to a report filed by MPD Sergeant Chad A. Davis on March 11, the manager of Pockets in McKenzie advised that an elderly white female driving a brown Chevrolet Impala entered the store and requested the clerk to turn on a fuel pump so that she could fill up her vehicle and advised the clerk she would re-enter the store to pay. The subject proceeded to pump $25.02 worth of fuel into her vehicle before driving away without paying. The subject could not be identified at the time of the report and investigation into the matter is on-going.

Assault Domestic related-According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Trey Boucher, Brandi Oliver stated that on March 10 at approximately 3:25 a.m., he and Jonathan Chance Burke, Chestnut Avenue, McKenzie, got into an argument and that Burke had pushed him and hit him in the nose. When police officers were called to the scene, Burke could not be located. Oliver then refused to write a written statement but allowed his statement to be recorded on video. Burke was located that same morning at 6:23 p.m. at a residence located on Chestnut and arrested for the listed offense.

Theft from building-According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Jonathan K. Goodrum, Tabitha Ann Gwaltney of McKenzie stated that Bentley Ellis, David Street, McKenzie, had stolen coin money in the amount of $100 from her residence. She claimed that a witness called from Quick Stop advising that Ellis was outside the store attempting to sell the coins for dollar bills. Before speaking to the witness, Ellis allegedly said that he had taken some coins from the residence that belonged to Gwaltney and used them to buy personal items from Quick Stop and was trying to sell the rest of the coins for paper money outside the convenience store. The subject was then arrested and transported to Carroll County Jail for theft under $500. Coins were recovered that were identified by the victim.

Warrant service-According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Trey Boucher, Brandy Lee Oliver, Chestnut Avenue, McKenzie, was located on March 10 at approximately 3:38 a.m. at a residence at the above listed residence and arrested for a failure to appear warrant out of Weakley County.

Possession of a prescription drug without a prescription / possession of a Schedule II drug-According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Billy King, the officer responded to shoplifting call at Casey's General Store on March 13. Upon investigating the matter, the officer spoke with Jennifer Rolan at McDonalds about the stolen items and she gave permission to the officer and Sergeant Lowe to search her vehicle and car for the missing items. During the search of her purse, the officers discovers metal case containing one 10 milligram hydrocodone pill and one and one-half cyclobenzaprine hydrochlorine pills and a short tube the subject advised she used to snort powder. She said she snorted Hydrocodone from time to time because of teeth pain. She further noted that she had received the hydrocodone from a former co-worker by the name of T.K. who met with her somewhere on Forrest Avenue in a maroon van. She also stated that she did have a prescription for the one and one half pills but did not have the prescription with her at the time. Rolan was cited into General Session Court for the listed offenses.

Two Arrested For Drugs

Christopher D. Smith, age 35, and Tonya K. Swafford, age 32, both of Huntingdon, were arrested and charged with two counts of Possession of a Schedule II controlled substance (methamphetamine and hydrocodone) with the Intent to Deliver or Sell (TCA 39-17-417) on March 12 in Huntingdon. Both were also charged with Possession of Drug Paraphernalia (TCA 39-17-425). Smith and Swafford are being held in the Carroll County Jail with bond set at $100,000 and $75,000 respectively.

The arrests were made after a drug investigation by Huntingdon Investigator Joey Hedge, in which it was determined that drugs were being sold from of the residence occupied by Smith and Swafford. A search warrant for the residence, located at 10320 Lexington St. in Huntingdon, was obtained by Investigator Hedge and executed on the referenced date by officers of the Huntingdon Police Department and the Carroll County Sheriff's Dept along with the Sheriff's Dept. K-9. The arrests were filed by Johnny Hill, deputy director of the Huntingdon Police Department.

Approximately 32 grams of methamphetamine, hydrocodone pills, drug paraphernalia and $1815 in cash were seized in the course of executing the warrant.

WHEN SHOULD YOU STOP ADVERTISING?

1. When man becomes a creature of habit so thoroughly he will certainly buy this year where he bought last year.
2. When younger, fresher and spunkier competitors in your field no longer try to take your customers away through advertising.
3. When population ceases to increase and no new folks want to live and work in your town.
4. When you have convinced everyone who ever has or ever will visit your business that they will now and forever get better buys from you.
5. When business principles reverse themselves and the non-advertiser does more business than the successful advertiser.
6. When people stop making tremendous strides in business through well-planned printed advertising.
7. When you no longer want to work with customers, and you're tired of making money.

CALENDAR

FAMILY CAREGIVER SUPPORT GROUP

A monthly caregiver support group open to persons caring for family members meets at 7 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month at First United Methodist Church, 16 McTyeire St., McKenzie. This is an opportunity to share and learn from other people facing the ongoing challenges and frustrations of caregiving. It's an hour each month when you can get practical answers and support from people who know exactly what you are going through. If you know someone who would be interested in joining this group, please pass the word on to them.

FREE PERISHABLE FOOD GIVEAWAY

Long Heights Baptist Church welcomes all who have a need for perishables at 260 Old Paris Rd, McKenzie. Join us on the second and fourth Wednesday night of each month at 8 p.m. Also, there is a clothing ministry available. Come early to fellowship and hear a word from God through Pastor Kenny Carr.

MCKENZIE CARROLL COUNTY UNITED NEIGHBORS

Trezevant Board Discusses Drainage Issues, Budget

By Brad Sam

banner@mckenziebanner.com

TREZEVANT (March 10) — The Board of Mayor and Aldermen for the Town of Trezevant gathered Tuesday evening for a lengthy meeting. Action was taken on several agenda items, but the majority of the meeting was spent discussing the town's drainage issues and walking through the earliest draft of the 2015-16 budget.

Aldermen James Gilliam and Bobby Blaylock, as liaisons to the water/sewer and street departments, respectively, laid out some immediate and long-term issues to the town's drainage. Gilliam began by noting that these issues are mostly invisible to the average citizen, but will eventually affect everyone. Besides the repairs to the drainage system in general, which the board has discussed in previous months and is actively seeking funding options to address, a concrete slab on Park St. is obstructing a drainage pipe, causing backup and eventually a blowout. The location also means that CSX may need to be involved in any repairs, a daunting thought for aldermen who have attempted to deal with the rail company in the past.

The board ultimately approved a motion for street supervisor Danny Mitchell to communicate with the owner of the land containing the concrete slab about the problem and possible solutions. Mitchell will report to the board next month.

In budget discussions, Mayor Dennis Mitchell laid out his preliminary outline of the 2015-16 finances, with comparisons to the current fiscal year. He also declared to the board that he would like the town to start putting aside some money each year for a "rainy-day" fund, citing the many unforeseen issues that can and have come up for the small municipality.

At the end of the lengthy and tedious process, Alderman Gilliam commended Mayor Mitchell, town recorder Kathy Edwards, outgoing CMFO Annie Hand, and others that contributed to compiling the draft, and the board was optimistic about the coming budget process.

In other business, the board approved an altered plan for the purchase of a dump truck. Instead of bringing the purchase before the board at a regular meeting, water supervisor Murray McCaleb and street supervisor Danny Mitchell in conjunction may pursue a truck on the market, so long as it is within the budget. Since the funds appropriated for the purchase grow periodically, the two will be able to check with City Hall when necessary for the current allotment.

Aldermen also approved a contract with the county, redrafted by town attorney Charles Trotter, that would provide ongoing cooperation until 2018. The contract has been presented to the county attorney.

Assistant town recorder and chief municipal financial officer (CMFO) Annie Hand, departed for Bruceton, will be replaced by Jeff Goad, who is currently a part-time officer for the town. He is a full-time officer for the Milan Police Department and works on budget issues. He expressed plans to complete the CMFO program and remain with the town for the foreseeable future.

Alderman Teresa Goodrum informed the board of Police Chief Kelvin Whitney's intention to present an applicant for part-time officer at an upcoming meeting. Full-time Milan officer Gray Scott would replace Brent Autrey, who has been hired by the Jackson Police Department, which doesn't allow officers to work at other departments.

Robert Parrish, representing the ball leagues, sought and was granted town approval to work on the mounds on the ball fields and to install a water heater in the concession stand. No town funds are needed for the upgrades.

Alderman Pam Bryant took that opportunity to remind citizens that workdays at the fields will be every Saturday beginning at 9 a.m. from April 13 until the season begins.

The meeting was adjourned after two hours and forty minutes.

PINNACLE OF EXCELLENCE — Mayor Dale Kelley presents Carroll County News-Leader editor Shirley Nanney with the Pinnacle of Excellence Award at the March 10 Town Council meeting.

Bid for Items for Sports Complex Awarded

Pinnacle of Excellence Award Presented

Huntingdon Town Council members awarded a bid for fencing and bleachers for the most newly developed portion of Kelley Sports Complex on Buena Vista Rd. during the March 10 meeting.

WESTENN Fencing, Inc. of Jackson, who had the low bid of $60,969, was awarded the contract.

"There was one other bid for $78,069 from Ramm Fencing" said Mayor Dale Kelley.

During the meeting, Shirley Nanney, editor of the Carroll County News-Leader, was presented the Pinnacle of Excellence award, the highest award that the town presents to an individual or organization.

The award was in conjunction with Nanney being recognized for her induction into Tennessee Press Association's 50-year Club. Come June, she will have worked in the newspaper business 53 years. The award was presented by Mayor Dale Kelley on behalf of himself and the Town Council.

The award is given in celebration of excellence for extraordinary achievement, exceptional performance and exemplary standards.

Nanney expressed appreciation to the council for the award and said she was truly thankful for her health that had enabled her to work in a profession that she enjoys immensely.

She was one of 15 from across the state to be inducted in the club and the only woman.

"That's pretty phenomenal and most deserving," said the mayor.

Nanney said publishers Dennis and Lisa Richardson had always given her the freedom to write as she saw fit. Her husband, Ray, she said, is supportive of her profession and even helps out with making photos if she needs him to do so. Several employees, with whom she has worked over the years, were present. She thanked them for their support and their roles in the newspaper.

In other business, the council accepted the audit for the 2013-2014 Fiscal Year. The mayor said there were no findings. "It is a very good audit," said Kelley. The audit showed $9,284,149 in General Fund assets.

The mayor commended town employees for the job they did recently in clearing the snow from the streets. "They did such a great job," he said. He also noted the work that TDOT did in clearing the main thoroughfares in the area of the snow.

A report on the Dept. of Public Safety's activities for February showed in the police division there were 8 burglar alarms answered, 119 calls for investigations, 11 funeral escorts, 21 emergency 911 calls, 2 shoplifting, 1 D.U.I. arrest, 13 vehicle crashes and 27 ambulance assists. In the fire and rescue division, there were 57 fire drill training hours, 9 medi-vac safety stand-bys, 1 fire alarm call, 2 burn permits issued, 3 funeral escorts, and 17 smoke alarms donated.

Honoring America's Farmers On National Ag Day March 18

Carroll County Ag Day joins the nationwide effort to celebrate the American farmer and agriculture with a special one-day event on Friday, March 20 at the National Guard Armory, Mustang Drive, Huntingdon. The public is invited to participate 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

The event features 20 educational stops to address where and how food and fiber products are produced. Area farmers are participating by providing planting and harvesting equipment for display inside the Armory and on the parking lot of the Carroll County Civic Center.

For more than 40 years we have celebrated National Ag Day as a time to pause and honor the American farmer. Today, our farmers are the most productive and efficient in the world with each one helping feed more than 144 people. We thank you, as well as everyone who plays a role in producing the food, fiber and fuel our country and the world depends upon.

This year National Ag Week is March 15 – 21 and is highlighted by National Ag Day on Wednesday, March 18.

And there is another very important date in March we want to remind farmers about this year: March 31 is the last day to make several important choices on federal safety net programs that could make a big difference for their farms through 2018.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Farm Service Agency (FSA) is urging farmers and landowners across the nation to finalize their decisions by March 31 on updating crop yield histories and reallocating base acres for new safety net programs established by the 2014 Farm Bill, known as Agriculture Risk Coverage (ARC) and Price Loss Coverage (PLC). Updated yields and base acre reallocations could help improve a farmer's potential to recover payments when a weather disaster or unexpected changes in the marketplace negatively affects their income.

March 31 is also the last day to decide which program – ARC or PLC – is the right one for their operation. Each program provides unique protections. The best choice will depend on factors specific to their individual farm.

FSA, in cooperation with a number of universities, has provided online Web-based tools, found at www.fsa.usda.gov/arc-plc to help make this important decision. The online tools have already helped more than half a million farmers so far.

If you have not yet considered your PLC or ARC options, take the time today to explore the web tools and then contact your FSA county office if you have questions. Celebrate Ag Day and Ag Week with the peace of mind knowing your farm will be protected as you make plans to enter the fields this spring.

If you don't make a decision by the March 31 deadline, then you will be assigned Price Loss Coverage, the default program, and lose payments for losses incurred in 2014. However, if you complete your ARC or PLC election by the deadline, you will be protected against 2014 price or revenue losses.

Don't let this opportunity slip by. Finalize your yield or base acre decisions, complete those conversations between landowners and producers, and conduct your final reviews to determine how ARC or PLC can help you. Avoid that end-of-the-month rush, and make an appointment today. Your FSA county staff in Tennessee is standing by ready to help.

Sincerely,
Gene Davidson
State Executive Director, Tennessee

McKenzie Banking to Enter Merger

MCKENZIE — MBC/Foundation Bank, a division of McKenzie Banking Company, a $123 million, family-owned and managed community bank, announces it has entered into a merger agreement with The Farmers Bank of Woodland Mills, Tenn. The Farmers Bank was chartered in 1910 and has $12 million in assets. The merger is the result of multiple conversations and extensive due diligence over the last year.

President Chad P. Wilson remarked, "It has been a joy to get to know the stakeholders of The Farmer's Bank of Woodland Mills. We appreciate the 105-year history of The Farmers Bank working hard to build relationships and earn loyalty in the communities that it serves. We look forward to continuing that tradition, bringing financial technology enhancements without losing sight of the primary value of face-to-face banking. We give thanks to God for making this opportunity possible, and look forward to welcoming the Woodland Mills staff and clients into our financial community."

The Farmers Bank President Larry Langford commented, "The directors, officers and staff of The Farmers Bank are excited and looking forward to working with the McKenzie Banking Company/Foundation Bank in making this merger a complete banking transition to a stronger institution for our customers and the communities of Obion County, Tenn. and Fulton County, Kentucky."

The Farmers Bank of Woodland Mills will operate as a branch of Foundation Bank, a division of McKenzie Banking Company. MBC/Foundation Bank has 8 other branches in West Tennessee. The merger takes place July 27th, 2015, pending shareholder and regulatory approval.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that McKenzie Banking Company; 676 N. Main Street, McKenzie, TN 38201 has made application to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation for their consent to merge with the Farmers Bank; 114 S. Thompson Street, Woodland Mills, TN 38271. It is contemplated that the offices of the above named institutions will continue to be operated by McKenzie Banking Company, as the surviving bank. The one office of The Farmers Bank will operate under the name Foundation Bank, a Division of McKenzie Banking Company.

Any person wishing to comment on this application may file his or her comments in writing with the Regional Director of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation at its area office at 6060 Primary Parkway, Suite 300, Memphis, TN 38119, not later than April 17, 2015. The non-confidential portions of the application are on file at the area office and are available for public inspection during regular business hours. Photocopies of the non-confidential portion of the application file will be made available upon request.

Office on Aging Hosts Valentine's Party

HUNTINGDON (February 13) — The Carroll County Office on Aging recently hosted a Valentine's party for the seniors of the area.

Approximately fifty senior citizens attended. Refreshments were served, and attendees played bingo.

Thirteen men and thirteen women competed in the Senior Sweetheart contest, won by Raymond Finch and Lonnelle McMillan, both of Huntingdon.

Seven couples entered the "Not-So-New Newlywed Game", which was won by Eldon and Joy Hampton of Bruceton.

Members of Veterans of Foreign Wars 4939, military service representatives, and Mayor Jill Holland display the gifted items headed to military personnel in harm's way.

Students, Citizens Send Gift Packages to Military

MCKENZIE (March 9) — Students from McKenzie Middle School and the citizens of McKenzie have generously provided more than $1,000 of "necessary items" for the military men and women in harm's way.

Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Post 4939 and its Ladies Auxiliary in McKenzie, members of the Paris Landing American Legion, Veterans Service Officer Leo Horn and Thomas O'Bryant, and McKenzie Mayor Jill Holland were in attendance at the VFW Post to express their appreciation to those who donated to the cause.

Junior Milam, commander of Post 4939, said he is very pleased with the response to the request for donated items for the military men and women.

He noted the citizens and students were very instrumental in supporting the troops. First United Methodist Church of McKenzie also helped in the efforts, said Milam.

Leo Horn said this is the annual collection event is supported by American Legions at Paris Landing and the Unforgotten Motorcycle Club.

VFW Post 4939 also provided $100 to help with shipping the gifted items to the troops.

Phillip Coleman and Jessica Hochreiter of the local VFW Post were instrumental in coordinating the event.

Donated items included: Wet Ones, tissues, socks, toothpaste, baby wipes, popcorn, beef jerky, deodorant, soap, crackers, peppermints, hand sanitizer, ink pens, mac and cheese, body powder, cotton swabs, shavers, and other items of convenience.

Coleman said military personnel appreciate receiving the items in which they have no or only access to receive otherwise.

Dorothy Cook, a Henry County deputy sheriff and a veteran of Desert Storm, said she appreciated receiving some of items when she was in service.

The men and women praised McKenzie Middle School's Student Council and teacher Sherrie Austin for coordinating the school effort.

Horn said some of the student groups in Henry County hope to collect items all year and present the items on Veterans' Day.

Bryan Chandler

Sharon Board Names New Police Chief

By David Fisher
david@dresdenenterprise.com

The Sharon Board of Mayor and Aldermen named a new police chief during the regular monthly meeting, Monday, March 9.

After accepting the resignation of former Police Chief Jeff Mathews, Board members voted unanimously to appoint McKenzie native Bryan Chandler as Sharon's new police chief. Chandler, who is a certified police officer working full time with the Bradford Police Department, will work part time as Sharon's Police Chief. The 14-year veteran said he began his law enforcement career at UT Martin, and in addition to working as a police officer in Bradford, has served as a member of the Weakley County Sheriff's Department for nine years.

Chandler, who resides near Martin, said he has developed a plan to use part-time officers from other towns modeled on the plan used by the City of Trezevant, which has saved the municipality thousands of dollars annually. He stated THP and the Weakley County Sheriff's Department have agreed to help fill in as needed to cover accidents and other emergencies, so Sharon will have continuous law enforcement coverage. Chandler explained, since part-time officers are already certified and are receiving benefits in other towns where they work full-time, this saves the City of Sharon a lot of money.

One of the changes he envisions for Sharon P.D. is a new and easier way to do paperwork. He also wishes to apply for Governor's Highway Safety grants to purchase vehicle-mounted cameras. He notes only one of the City's three police vehicles have cameras.

Bethel to Host Open House

MCKENZIE — Potential traditional undergraduate students can get a good idea of what Bethel University is all about Saturday, March 21, by attending an Open House hosted by the Bethel University College of Arts and Sciences Office of Enrollment Services. Held on the McKenzie campus, the Open House will allow students to tour the campus and to meet with campus representatives. Additionally, students will get the chance to interact with current Bethel University students.

The tentative schedule includes registration at 8 a.m., in the Vera Low Center for Student Enrichment; an 8:45 welcome followed by a Wildcat Fair, campus tours and then lunch. Closing remarks will be at 12:45.

One special event for this particular Open House will be an opportunity to see Bethel's Renaissance Performing Arts Group present "Easter with Renaissance." This is an optional part of the Open House event. Tickets are free, but Open House participants and their guests must RSVP to get these tickets.

Those who wish to attend the March 21 Open House are encouraged to contact Bethel's Office of Enrollment Services either by phone at 731-352-4030 or by e-mail at admissions@bethelu.edu.
