FOOTBALL IS BACK!

Dear Banner Sports fans, after nearly nine months of anticipation, high school and middle school football has returned to Carroll County!

The culmination of months of intense conditioning, full-contact practices, and highly-competitive scrimmages have local prep squads McKenzie, Huntingdon, Hollow Rock-Bruceton, West Carroll and Gleason primed to kick off their respective grid campaigns.

In keeping with our long-standing sports coverage tradition, The McKenzie Banner is proud to present to you our 2017 Carroll County Football Special Section.

The pages of this year's football special section are filled with team photos and rosters of area middle and high school football teams; cheerleading squads group photos and identification; coaching staff photos and identification; and insightful interviews with high school head coaches Wade Comer of McKenzie; Eric Swenson of Huntingdon, Jamie Williams of Hollow Rock-Bruceton, Josh Wolfe of West Carroll, and Noah Lampkin of Gleason.

The Banner Sports Team of Joel Washburn, Ernie Smothers, Brad Sam and Jason Martin look forward to roaming the sidelines and supporting every area player, coach and community this season.

Our Banner sports motto is simple: Your team is our team, and every player is our player. We consider it a privilege to highlight your sons and daughters in our sports pages.

Thank you for supporting us as we support your children. See you at the game!

COMER'S REBELS READY TO GO

BY ERNIE SMOTHERS
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

A few days removed from the start of his 17th season as head coach of the McKenzie Rebels, Wade Comer spoke with this reporter about the positives his team has exhibited in the off-season in preparing for its 2017 prep campaign.

He said, "Overall, our team has been doing very well. The players have good attitudes and have been working to get stronger and faster. I am real pleased with how things are progressing for us at this point."

Comer pointed to a recent scrimmage with Lexington as a barometer for determining his team's competitive intensity.

He said, "We jumped out on Lexington and scored early, and they came right back and scored on us. Responding, we marched downfield and scored again and then ramped up defensively to stop them. Our players battled hard and exhibited a lot of mental toughness. I was pleased with their effort."

Offensively, Comer is counting on the leadership of senior quarterback Zach Jarrett (6'5", 215 lbs).

He said, "Zach had a good year last year (2,000 yards passing) and has worked hard to condition himself in the off-season. I am looking to him to take the reigns of our offense and execute our game plan. Zach is the guy we need to lean on to manage the offense and make plays with his head and throwing arm."

He added, "Zach is a hard worker and knows what his role is on this team."

Success for Jarrett and the Rebel offense to pass and move the ball on the ground hinges on senior offensive linemen Connor McReynolds (6'0" 285 lbs) and Xavier Ayers (5'10", 265).

Comer said, Connor and X have taken a leadership role up front on offense and defense. They keep the other linemen in check, and lead by action. I am pleased with the effort of all the seniors on this team. They put in the work and lead by example."

Blessed with pocket protection, Jarrett will have plenty of stealthy targets to pass the pigskin via seniors Cameron Rawls (5'9" 170 lbs), Lucas Waddell (5'8", 165) and junior playmaker Tyler Spivey (5'8", 160 lbs).

Comer said, "We are blessed to have most of our receiving corp back. Our receivers have the experience to recognize defensive alignments and adjust their routes in order to get open in coverage. They are used to catching footballs in traffic and getting open. Cameron, Lucas and Tyler will definitely factor into the success of our team this season."

Comer said he is pleased with the physical and mental toughness of sophomore running back Joseph Miller.

He said, "It is one thing to see a running back break long runs to the outside, but it is something else entirely to see a back battle inside to get the dirty, tough yards necessary to keep drives moving. Joseph is that type of guy. He is willing to pay the price in short yardage situations, and that means a lot."

On defense, the Rebels will lean on senior-driven linebacker leadership of Lorenzo Haynes (6'0", 200 lbs) and Keegan Millsap (5'8" 190 lbs).

He said, "Lorenzo continues to do an outstanding job for us. We moved him to inside linebacker, and that has really solidified our defense. He is the quarterback on the defensive side, and does a great job of keeping his teammates motivated play after play."

Comer noted that Millsap's hard work has led to his return as a starting linebacker.

He said, "Keegan is tough and focused. He has battled back from injury and is ready to play at a high level."

Comer said the defensive secondary will be manned by Cameron and Rawls.

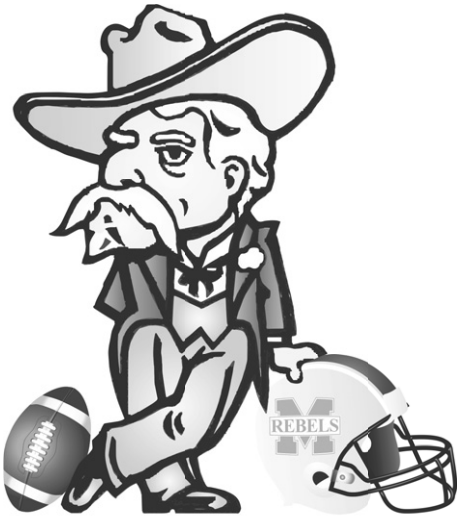

He said, "Both of those guys are fast and work well with each other. We are counting on them to defend in passing situations and make open-field tackles."

He concluded, "The entire time I have coached here, the community has supported our teams and made their presence known in the bleachers behind us. I appreciate it, and so do our coaches and players. When we need something for our team, the community always responds. McKenzie is a great place to coach, live and raise a family. It is a wonderful place to call home."

TIGERS READY TO COMPETE

BY ERNIE SMOTHERS
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

BRUCETON (July 25) — As surface temperatures on Joe T. Herndon Field hovered over 100 degrees during high school media day, Hollow Rock-Bruceton High School Head Football Coach Jamie Williams spoke about his expectations for the 2017 Central Tigers.

He began, “First off, losing 11 seniors to graduation and gaining only six freshmen is tough, but, it is what it is. We are a small school, so we just have to gear up to play with the guys that come out. We aren’t big numbers-wise this year, but the guys that came out want to play football. As always, we don’t operate on excuses around here.”

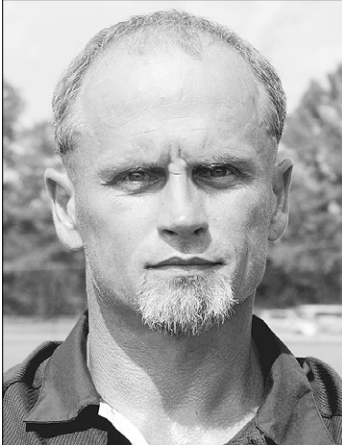

Williams said that he was pleased overall with his squad’s off-season weightlifting and conditioning efforts.

He said, “Our guys worked hard to improve their strength and speed. We did exactly what we are supposed to do to get bigger and faster, and that should help us during the upcoming season.”

He added, “We had a good spring practice and played hard during scrimmages. We had some guys step up as leaders, and you have to have leaders to build around.”

Williams said his team will count on several players this season.

He said, “We have six seniors and 14 juniors that we will rely on heavily, but we also have some underclassmen that are going to battle for playing time. Some of the guys I am counting on this season are Chase and Brady Snider, Brent Cole, Bradley Griffin, Garrett Graves, Dalton Williams, Keith Williams, Anthony Thomas, Ethan Mitchell, Jeffrey Platt, Justin Haskins, Zane Mebane and Lawson Boyd. We also have other players that will earn playing time as the season goes along.”

He concluded, “Football always comes down to executing fundamentals properly. You can’t overstress blocking, tackling and second effort. Players must possess intensity, aggressiveness and unselfish attitudes. They have to possess the right mindset to be successful at practice and during games. It comes down to ‘want to.’”

Central’s two pre-season scrimmages included a three-way fray with South Fulton and Obion County at Obion County on July 28 and skirmish with Scotts Hill at Scotts Hill on August 4.

The Tigers square-off against Camden on the road for jamboree action on August 11 prior to battling non-district rival West Carroll in week one action August 18 at Joe. T. Herndon Stadium.

BULLDOGS FOCUSED ON CONDITIONING

BY KENNETH COKER
Dresden Enterprise

The Gleason High School football team is hoping a focus on condition will improve its position.

Coming off back-to-back 1-9 campaigns – the Bulldogs focused on getting into tip-top shape during the offseason in advance of fielding a 19-player team.

“We’ve conditioned more during our off-season than we have in a long time,” said Gleason football coach Noah Lampkins, who is set to begin his 16th year on the sideline. “In past years, we’ve lifted more during our winter conditioning, but this year we incorporated more running. It’s a whole new program and I feel like we’re in the best shape we’ve ever been in terms of conditioning. We’re going to have to be with only 19 players.”

The Bulldogs return seven starters on offense and six on defense.

The Bulldogs begin the season with six seniors.

At the forefront of said senior class is Chandler Brawner (Sr., 6-3, 230), who has taken over at the running back position.

“He’s picked up some speed from last year and gotten a lot stronger,” Lampkins said of Brawner. “He is a big, physical presence. He’s been going to camps at some OVC schools where he has run some pretty good 40 times. We’re looking for good things out of him.”

At quarterback, Gleason is relying on sophomore Nick Oatsvall (5-7, 150) in the team’s new offensive set.

The Bulldogs’ leading outside wide receivers are freshmen Elijah Young (6-0, 220) and Jamison Lifsey (5-9, 145).

Gleason’s inside receivers are senior Terry McKinney (5-9, 150) and sophomore Dawson Arnold (5-11, 160). In addition, freshman Olen Reed (5-7, 175) will see time at wide receiver.

On the offensive line, Lampkins said junior Noah Anderson (5-7, 170) has strength but must learn to use it more efficiently.

At tackle, senior Seth Bowers (5-8, 210) is a returning starter as is senior Greg Graham (6-0, 175). Lampkins also penciled in sophomore Jake Langley (5-10, 220) as a probable candidate at either of the tackle position.

Gleason’s guard positions will be occupied by returning starters junior Caleb Cary (6-4, 325) and junior Seth Jones (6-1, 220). Cary and Jones represent the largest two players on the Bulldog line as well as two of the strongest. Cary moves well for his size, according to Lampkins. Sophomore Cody O’Callaghan (6-2, 210) is also expected to rotate in at guard.

Defensively, Cary, Jones and senior Jacob Gilmer (5-8, 210) are expected to suit up on the line. Freshman Aayden Black (5-9, 195) is also in the mix for snaps on the D-line as is Langley.

At inside linebacker, Anderson, Bowers and O’Callaghan are expected to split reps with Brawner and Young locked in at the outside linebacker positions.

In the secondary, McKinney is locked in at safety while Arnold has moved from cornerback to the other safety position.

Reed and Oatsvall will be called upon at cornerback.

In the special teams unit, Reed will handle extra points and punts with Young serving as the holder on point-after kicks. Brawner is penciled in as Gleason’s kick-off man.

Brawner, Arnold and McKinney are slated to be the Bulldog return men.

Lampkins said, “We’re not real big outside of Caleb and Chandler. We don’t have a game-breaker offensively. There isn’t a big-play guy on the team. I’ve told everybody that we’ve got only 19 players, but I feel like we’ve got our top football athletes out here playing for us.”

That said, Gleason’s regular season schedule has gotten somewhat simpler with the removal of Union City and Trenton from the Bulldogs’ football district.

Gleason replaced the two teams with Hollow Rock-Bruceton and Halls on its schedule.

“I’m happy about our realignment,” Lampkins said. “Anytime a school like ours can take Trenton and Union City off the schedule is a bonus.”

The Bulldog coaching staff of Mike Bennett, Albert Collins, Bryan Sanders, Avery Orr and Archie Rich is unchanged from last season.

WEST CARROLL HIGH SCHOOL • WAR EAGLES

WOLFE TOUTS WAR EAGLES' YOUTH, CORE LEADERS

BY ERNIE SMOTHERS
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

Entering his second season as head coach at his alma mater, West Carroll's Josh Wolfe said that, although his 2017 installment of War Eagles are somewhat youthful, he is impressed by the leadership of his seniors and juniors and overall dedication of his 33-member squad.

He said, "Off-season weight-lifting and conditioning went really well. This was the third off-season program for my guys under my direction and they knew what my expectations were for them. I'm proud of how they bought into our team philosophy and worked to better themselves. Their commitment to West Carroll football will pay dividends this fall during the regular season."

Regarding spring practice, Wolfe said he saw improvement in players on both sides of the ball.

He said, "The guys came out this spring and worked hard. Some stepped forward and showed the coaches and myself their intentions to make the starting lineup. I was impressed by junior returning starting quarterback Trace Fuller. He is one of our leaders. Another kid I am impressed with is sophomore Jeremiah Bryant. He is one of the best players around, blessed with speed, power and football I.Q. He is humble and hard-working. Jeremiah worked hard in the weight room, and I am really looking forward to seeing him run the football."

Wolfe said he was counting on senior Carter Deer and juniors Darrell Williams and Levi Hays to anchor the line on both sides of the ball.

He added, "Senior Noah Brasher is healthy again and will start at linebacker and tight end. I'm also expecting good things from junior lineman Armani Bonds. Senior Chris Shear brings a lot of competitive fire to the table as well. I don't want to leave others out because everybody is working hard and giving their all. I'm proud of the intensity and desire to improve I see in all of our players."

Wolfe concluded, "We will definitely expect some of our underclassmen to step forward and contribute. Although we are young experience-wise in some areas, we have strong leadership from our upperclassmen. We are ready to compete."

Huntingdon Mustangs Head Coach Eric Swenson

HHS READY TO COMPETE FOR CROWN

BY ERNIE SMOTHERS
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

Coming off last year's undefeated regular season and controversial 27-26 second-round state playoff loss to Nashville Christian, the Huntingdon Mustangs dedicated their off-season workouts to build strength and stamina in their quest to complete unfinished business.

Projected to reach the TSSAA Class A state championship game by esteemed prep football prognosticator Murphy Fair, the 2017 Huntingdon Mustangs, fortified with a new, synthetic turf home field, are primed for a season filled with exciting challenges and monumental expectations.

Armed with All-State, pre-season senior selection's Kade Pearson (quarterback / runningback / linebacker, 5'11", 215 lbs.) and rugby-style punter and runningback Tyrese Mebane (6'0", 185 lbs.), the quantity of talented players peppering Huntingdon's gridiron roster is imposing.

In addition to Kade Pearson and Mebane, Huntingdon's backfield features football newcomer Elijah Wilkerson (senior, 5'11", 165) who won a starting nod during spring practices. A voracious tackler at middle linebacker, Marvaughn McClerkin (senior, 6'0", 195 lbs.) will also handle fullback chores. Other key offensive weapons include quarterback / runningback Brandon Lawton (sophomore, 5'7", 160 lbs.) Dallas Willis (junior, 5'10", 160 lbs.) and Kelby Pearson (junior, 6'1", 170 lbs.).

Known for its run-first offense, Huntingdon is again blessed with big horses up front such as Chris Chaney (junior, 6'3", 265), Bryce Johnson (senior, 5'11", 220 lbs.), Tyler Perrett (senior, 5'11", 205 lbs.), Tyler Lutz (senior, 5'9", 200 lbs.), Daniel Arnhold (junior, 5'8", 170 lbs.) and Clay Carver (senior, 5'10", 160 lbs.) and Brett Huss (sophomore, 5'7", 170 lbs.).

Huntingdon's defense will feature linebacker McClerkin, Kade Pearson and Austin Avery at linebacker, along with Hunter Ensley (sophomore, 6'0", 175 lbs.) Willis, Mebane, Lawton and Wilkerson in secondary slots.

We are always on your team.
