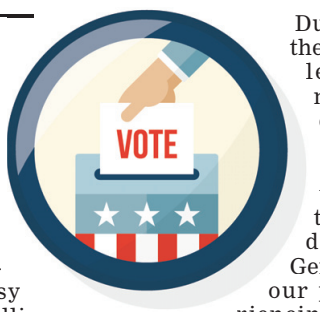
State, Federal Election

Early Voting Begins October 19

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com



HUNTINGDON (September 29) — With the 2016 State and Federal Election early voting / in person voting start date of October 19 approaching, Carroll County Elections Administrator Peg Hamlett and Assistant Administrator Tom Aljancic are busy preparing poll workers, and polling equipment for the process.

During an interview with the McKenzie Banner, Hamlett said, "One of the most-pressing challenges that we are currently facing involves securing enough workers to man the polling locations throughout the county during the November 8 General Election. Some of our poll workers are experiencing health issues and so forth and won't be available to help out with the upcoming election. As a result, we are attempting to find people that are willing to fill those openings."

She added, "I encourage anyone that is interested in assisting as a poll worker to contact the Carroll County Office of Elections at 986-1968."

Voter registration / deadline dates:

Voter registration in person deadline is October 11, 2016.

Early voting / In Person absentee voting starts October 19, 2016.

Last month, Overflow Church in McKenzie marked its first year of service at the unconventional sanctuary of 9 Broadway, and it's been quite a year.

The upstart worship center has become so popular that space in the narrow brick building is running out. Overflow recently added a Saturday evening service on top of the original late Sunday morning service and the second, earlier Sunday service that was added early this year. Besides the extra services, the church has acquired some extra property, office space at nearby 10 Lee Street and the building at 27 Broadway, which is now being used as the children's facility.

Eligible Carroll County Producers Encouraged to Apply for Assistance

Extended Season to Plant Winter Cover Crops

Ethan Pipkin, NRCS Soil Conservationist, looks at a tillage radish pulled from a Soil Health cover crop mix planted with EQIP cost-share assistance.

For agricultural land and non-industrial private forestland producers interested in applying for farm bill conservation program financial assistance in Fiscal Year 2017, the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) in Tennessee has set Friday, November 18, 2016, as the sign-up cutoff date for first evaluation funding consideration. Pending the availability of funds, additional evaluation periods may occur and cutoff dates will be posted on the Tennessee website on the EQIP page. The application deadline applies to the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP) and EQIP National Initiatives.

"When landowners take part in conservation cost share programs, the funds filter through the community, and the initial investment rolls over several times, benefiting the whole area," said Kevin Brown, Tennessee NRCS State Conservationist. The funds from EQIP help farmers improve the natural resources and soil health on private working lands in Tennessee. Conservation practices help the environment while also making the land more productive by addressing issues like water quantity, water and air quality, wildlife habitat, and soil health. Carroll County producers and landowners have received over $1 million through the EQIP program each year for the last few years.

Eligible producers with a conservation plan for their operation receive priority for financial assistance. NRCS staff is available to help producers with conservation plan development. Only applications that meet requirements of the TN EQIP screening tool and are "ready to implement" will be ranked for funding. Applications can be submitted anytime throughout the year.

NRCS's conservation programs address resource concerns such as soil erosion, soil health, irrigation efficiency, impaired water quality and wildlife habitat. EQIP, one of NRCS's largest conservation programs, helps eligible producers plan and implement conservation practices that provide opportunities to improve soil, water, plant, animal, energy, air and related resources on agricultural land and non-industrial private forestland. Historically under-served participants are eligible to receive 90% cost-share while all other participants are eligible for 75% cost-share when installing conservation practices in EQIP.

Many Carroll County farmers are planting winter cover crops after harvesting summer crops like corn, soybeans, and cotton. The purpose of these cover crops is to improve soil health by controlling erosion, building organic matter, increasing available water-holding capacity, and promoting nutrient retention and recycling.

Most cover crops will be planted no-till. Aerial seeding is a no-till method to plant the winter cover but no-till drilling is probably the best way to plant this winter cover. The no-till drilling seeding date has been extended from October 15 to November 1 to help Carroll County farmers to be able to use the best method (drilling) to plant winter covers.

For additional information, including how to "Use Winter Cover Crops on your Farm," eligible producers are encouraged to contact the Huntingdon NRCS office located in the USDA Service Center at 630 High Street in Huntingdon. They can also be reached by phone by calling (731) 209-4153 ext. 3. Carroll County Electric Board

2015-16 Utility Revenue is $35,721,000

smothers@mckenziebanner.com

HUNTINGDON (September 29) — During the regular monthly meeting of the Carroll County Electrical Board (CCEB), utility general manager Danny Brawner informed board members that the annual financial report of Carroll County Electric Department revealed that the utility generated a total revenue of $35,721,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2016.

He said, "Of the $35,721,000 in total revenues received by CCED, TVA (Tennessee Valley Authority) collected 80-percent, amounting to $28,506,000. After all CCED's bills were paid, the utility's net income for 2015-16 was $374,506.00. Overall, revenues were less this year than last year due to the utility selling 10,000,000 less kilowatts than the previous year."

Carroll County Electric Department Office Manager Ryan Drewry added, "The loss in kilowatt sales last year was primarily caused by a reduction in residential electrical customer consumption due to milder temperatures. Commercial kilowatt consumption, however, is always pretty consistent regardless of climate conditions."

Brawner noted that CCED serves 15,603 customers in Carroll County and the north portion of Henderson County.

Brawner informed board members that Noranda had paid all of its final bills to the utility and that new owner Granges AB had met all deposit requirements and signed all contracts required to do business with CCED.

He said, "I am glad that everything worked out with Noranda's sale of the Huntingdon Plant to Granges. Granges has expressed plans to expand the Huntingdon facility in the next few years. TVA looked at the power consumption increases and additional load that a possible expansion by Granges would create to our system and assured us that our system can more than handle it. Everything is looking good."

Brawner said that the utility hired Chance Carlton in August to the position of lineman.

He said, "Chance graduated from North America Training Center in Dickson and has been reading meters for us the last month. We know that he has received the proper training to do the job required of him on the ground and above. He is a fine young man and will do an excellent job for the utility."

Carroll County Mayor Kenny McBride informed the board that site work for the new telecommunications tower behind the Carroll County Jail is nearing completion.

He said, "Contract bid-winner B&E will have the new tower erected and in use by the end of this year. That includes transfer of all electronics currently attached to the Charter tower that will be demolished in January. We have been assured by B&E that no disruption of communications service will be experienced during the transition from the old tower to the new tower by Carroll County Electric Department."

Prior to adjournment, Brawner informed board members that, due to Thanksgiving falling on the fourth Thursday of the month, the November meeting is reset to November 17.

He added, "The December board meeting date of December 29 is unchanged."

The next monthly meeting of CCEB is October 27 at 2:30 p.m.

'Dead Squirrel' Attacker Nabbed

A Huntingdon man was arrested September 24 after allegedly shoving a squirrel in people's faces.

According to a report filed by Huntingdon Police Department Investigator Joey Hedge, Robert Rush, 53, 120 Bridgeman Street, was charged with public intoxication, simple possession of schedule VI, open container, and disorderly conduct after HPD officers received a call about a man dressed in camouflage sticking a squirrel, believed to be dead, in people's faces.

The report noted that, upon arrival at the scene, officers found Rush in a highly-intoxicated state.

A search of his person revealed an open bottle of whiskey and a small amount of marijuana.

Overflow

The latter took quite a bit of work, as the building's floors were rotting. A group of volunteers ripped out the floors and filled in the partial basement with 55 tons of gravel before pouring a new concrete slab to be the new floor. After about 15 hours of work, the building was ready for use during the next service.

The expansion is welcome if not overdue, but is by no means the first or last step in Overflow's evolution.

In a Sunday post-service interview with The Banner, Pastor Ryan Anderson and financial administrator Matthew Page explained that in the earliest few weeks, the "church" held services in homes, but when the numbers quickly climbed over 50, it was time to find a bigger place.

Ryan and Matt are both 2001 graduates of Henry County High School, but both also have ties directly to McKenzie. Ryan attended McKenzie High School for several semesters, and Matthew's wife, Sarah, is a 2002 McKenzie High School graduate.

Matthew has lived here for nine years, but Ryan was away from the area for years leading up to the start of Overflow. He lived in Illinois, active in ministry and broadcasting. He hosted a morning radio show, and even served as emcee at the Grand Ole Opry.

Then, just over a year ago, Ryan, Matthew, and a small contingent of worshipers decided to start something here in McKenzie. The idea stemmed from a statistic that in the tri-county area, nearly eight out of ten people weren't attending church.

The goal was obvious. "We targeted the youth and those who've been out of the church for years," said Ryan. And the church's young core was primed to do just that. "We do a little more modern worship," he explained. "A church usually takes on the personality of its leader."

That's certainly true of this church. Ryan is passionate at the pulpit, but entirely relaxed in a personal setting, which the growing congregation demonstrates. But Ryan's ambition is what really bleeds out into his flock, evident in the sermon he concluded minutes before the interview.

In it, he spoke of potential, giving the subject context from as personal as individuals' ability to arise from all manner of troubles, to the state of the church and even the nation. That practical and relatable approach seems to be key. "I think our big secret is community, and that we believe the church can do big things. Also, the life coaching we provide."

Matthew explained that they call it "doing life together."

"We don't judge on what people may be going through. What better place for those people to be?" he said.

Ryan added, "We're a church for anybody, but we may not be for everybody." He said that they applaud the successes of other churches. "We love the community of churches. We think we're better together."

He noted that there are many collaborative efforts in the area, naming particularly the Ministerial Alliance, the Picnic at the Park, the Beating Hearts center, and FCA's Fifth Quarter, which Overflow hosted following the recent McKenzie-Huntingdon football game.

"No church needs to be isolated," Ryan said, pointing out that Overflow has several parent churches. These larger, more established churches provide guidance to Overflow's leadership, helping keep them clear of heresy and any illegality in practices.

The ambitious goals of the church are broader than just religion. Overflow has also its sights set on community development. "We love our city, and we want to help build up the community," said Ryan.

Matthew continued the thought, "We have many business-minded people in McKenzie, and we want to help them be able to provide goods, services, and jobs." He recently attended a conference that addressed what churches can do to that end.

They've already noticed that just drawing in churchgoers from as far as South Fulton and Parker's Crossroads makes a difference as those people often spend money while here.

One of the goals the Overflow hopes to accomplish in the shorter term is finding a permanent location that is large enough to support the growing "ownership" (as opposed to membership) of the church. Ryan is eager to make it happen, but he says, "we're not going to put the church into debt to do it."

He noted that there have been "a lot of things to learn and figure out over this first year," but he's confident that the sky is the limit for the people of Overflow.

Besides Ryan and Matt, the church's staff consists of youth minister Drake Whitworth, administrative assistant Chelsea Butler, and children's directors Aubrey Doyle and Maria Escamilla.

Overflow Church holds worship services on Saturdays at 5:30 p.m. and Sundays at 9 and 11 a.m.

Jail/Sheriff's Department.

The county received a bid of $810,834 from Barger Construction of Huntingdon to construct the facility. It will be the home of emergency dispatch, the Emergency Services Agency, the Carroll County Fire Department, and be the staging and training area for disaster. Presently, dispatch is located on Paris Avenue in downtown Huntingdon, and the EMA and Fire Department are in the County Office Complex.

Mayor Kenny McBride said that the County received a $300,000 Community Block Development Grant (CBDG) to construct the new dispatch facility.

He said, "My recommendation is to borrow $500,000-plus to finish the project with a ten-year payback of said funds."

McBride said the county has enough money in debt service to handle the extra indebtedness without affecting the county tax rate.

Debunking the Newspapers Are Dying Idea

By DAVID CHAVERN

Imagine waking up in a world without newspapers. "Ha!" You say, "I haven't gotten a newspaper in years." But I'm not talking about just the paper delivered by carriers or the postal service. I'm talking about the news online, the links on social media, the email newsletter, the source cited in the television broadcast and the push notification on your phone. The word newspaper no longer reflects the media industry encompassed by the word.

It's time to debunk the idea "Newspapers Are Dying."

The newspaper business has changed a lot. But so what? Lots of industries go through ups-and-downs as technologies and customer preferences change. Name an industry – cars, airlines, energy, retail, accounting, transportation, construction – and the underlying economic drivers look a lot different than they did in the 1980s. That doesn't mean they are "dead" businesses. People want and need the underlying products and services and the industries adapt to be successful in the new world.

We are living in the age of information. According to a University of Southern California study, Americans are absorbing five times more information a day than in 1986. And as the demand for quality news grows, storytelling evolves. I think that we have only just begun to explore the incredible upside of new tools in telling compelling news stories.

All evidence shows that people of all ages want and consume more news than ever. We need to focus on new ways to address the needs of audience. Legacy newspapers are considered trusted sources of information; we must continue to keep that trust as we experiment in the digital age. Live streaming, social media and video are just tools for better stories as journalists fight to keep readers in the know.

This week, we celebrate the 76th National Newspaper Week, where we celebrate newspapers as the "Way to Know." It is a time to be grateful for the news carriers that trudge through the streets hours before you've had your first cup of coffee to deliver you the news. We take this week to realize that what we know comes from hardworking editors and journalists, who decide what information to put in front of us. We celebrate that we can count on them to go into a tragedy and bring us back hope. They make politics human and science easy to read.

I don't want to imagine a world without newspapers, do you?

David Chavern is President & CEO of News Media Alliance.

Hunker Down with Kes

A Nice Guy Who Didn't Finish Last!

It was more than a ritual. It was a way of life. And it didn't matter that we were eight, nine and ten years old. It was as serious as serious would ever get in my lifetime! You called it out with authority. "I'm Stan Musial today." You didn't leave any doubt.

There were plenty of big league guys to choose from, although Stan was everyone's favorite in 1955. He always went first. Buddy Wiggleton would hesitate just a second before declaring, "I'm Red Schoendienst." Ricky Gene Stafford, a big Chicago Cubs fan, would be Ernie Banks or Tony Taylor. If Joe Gooch or Ricky Hale beat me to Stan the Man, I'd settle for Kenny Boyer. Or sometimes I'd roll the sleeves up on my tee shirt and make myself Ted Kluszewski.

You had to be somebody! You weren't going to line up at shortstop in the backyard baseball game as Kesley Colbert when you could be Pee Wee Reese, Johnny Logan, Roy McMillan or Phil Rizzuto. This was before TV made it out our end of Stonewall Street. And way before ESPN, Facebook, iPads and the like…

We had the privilege, thrill and excitement of making up our own pictures!

We didn't need instagrams or streaming devices to keep up. We'd devour the sport pages of the Nashville Banner. We knew how Willie Mays did against Warren Spahn at County Stadium in Milwaukee the night before. We noted Eddie Matthews had three hits, including a game winning homer. We knew who was who.

We were not going to "be" a banjo hitter for goodness sakes. Nor a weak armed pitcher who couldn't break a window pane from thirty feet away. You had to be the real deal to get selected by us. We understood it wasn't life or death. It was way more important than that!

There were only two concrete rules back then. You had to bat the way the player you were that day stood at the plate. If you chose to be Enos Slaughter for instance, you had to hit left handed. If you decided on Jackie Robinson, you hit from the right side. I think Buddy chose Schoendienst so often because he was a switch hitter.

The other rule—and this could be a tough one at times—only one professional player could be represented in each day's contest. There were no exceptions! You could not choose to be Ted Williams if Jackie Burns had already picked him. You could moan, gripe, get mad or go home. None of us really cared all that much. But you could not be Ted Williams! He was "taken"!

It was the same during the football season. I saw the dangdest fight of my life break out one Saturday morning in Terry Brown's front yard. A couple of guys picked Johnny Unitas at the same time. Neither one would back down. I can't remember who threw the first punch but I can tell you fist, elbows, blood and skin were flying in every direction!

It took us a good while to get them separated. Then we had to stop the bleeding. And tape up a couple of fingers. We decided the one who still had his shirt on got to be Unitas. We made them team captains and let'em chose up sides…..and both teams got to kick and punch and bite and run over each other for the rest of the day!

This particular system of "becoming our heroes" to the betterment of our backyard pick up games was the first thing I thought of when I heard that Arnold Palmer had passed away. We discovered Arnold in the Nashville Banner as he slashed his way to victories on the PGA circuit.

We actually had no clue at the time that he was going to turn out to be one of the most successful, richest, humblest and enduring sports figures of our lifetime. We just liked the way he looked in black and white blasting out of a greenside bunker at someplace the Banner called "The Augusta National Golf Club."

We all followed his career over the years. I was enamored with his obvious love for people. I took note that he always credited the strict discipline and teachings of his father as keys to his success in golf, and in life. I know of no other athlete in history who has "given back" more than Mr. Palmer.

Golf took a giant leap up our attention scale in 1961 after Mr. John Padgett and Mr. Ben Everett built the Carroll Lake Golf Course just out Highway 22 a ways. Somehow we borrowed, begged or stole a couple of old clubs and found our way to the first hole. Leon announced loudly, "I'm Arnold Palmer."

David Mark declared without hesitation, "I'm Arnold Palmer."

I stuck my tee in the ground and proclaimed, "I'm Arnold Palmer."

No man on earth, according to our West Tennessee way of playing the game, has ever been so honored!

Most Respectfully,
Kes

Proverbs 31:10-31 has much to say about noble women. Proverbs ends with a picture of a woman of strong character, great wisdom, many skills and great compassion. Her strength and dignity do not come from her achievements. Her beauty comes entirely from her character. Such is the lady, Alice Cassidy. Serving as a faithful secretary at West Tennessee Dairy for 37 years. She has been a portrait of ideal womanhood. We all have learned much from Alice's industry, integrity, resourcefulness, and her concern for the downtrodden much honor goes to a wonderful lady from God.

Rotary Hears About Bethel Bass Team

McKENZIE (September 27) — Garry Mason, head coach of the Bethel Bass Fishing Team, was the featured speaker at the Tuesday, September 27 meeting of the McKenzie Rotary Club. Mason told of how the team started in 2009 and has achieved nationwide acclaim through fishing tournaments, TV shows about the outdoors, New York Times articles, and being the first collegiate team to provide scholarships for its student-athletes.

Mason said the team has 27 anglers, who come from various parts of the United States. He said the emphasis is placed on God, scholastics, and fishing, in that order.

Bethel has five bass-fishing boats and some of the students have their own boat, from which they fish.

John Garrett of the Bethel team will fish in the Bassmaster Classic. He is the lone angler representing collegiate teams throughout the U.S.

Amy Thompson, vice president of Rotary, invited Mason to speak.

Insurance Required for Vehicle Registration in 2017

According to the Tennessee Department of Revenue, beginning in 2017, drivers will be required to have verified insurance to renew vehicle registrations.

County clerks across the state will use an online verification system to check for minimum liability coverage. Failure to demonstrate proof of financial responsibility, or to meet the requirements for an exemption, can result in fines, suspended vehicle registration, and reinstatement fees.

The required minimum limits of liability car insurance are $25,000 for each injury or death per accident; $50,000 for total injuries or deaths per accident; and $15,000 for property damage per accident.

If a vehicle has a regular passenger or motorcycle license plate (anything other than a commercial tag), the owner must carry a policy as outlined above.

If the vehicle has a commercial license plate, that vehicle must be covered under a company general liability insurance plan.

These requirements are part of the James Lee Atwood Jr. Law.

Etheridge Retires As BPU Manager

By Joel Washburn

PARIS — John Etheridge, manager of the Board of Public Utilities based in Paris, was honored for his 35 years with BPU. He retired on September 30.

County Commission Vice Chair Kenneth Humphreys presented Etheridge the Loyal Patriot Award in the absence of County Mayor Brent Greer. He was also honored with gifts from TVA and the Tennessee Municipal Electric Power Associaton.

During his tenure as manager, the electric department modernized its system, including its ability to monitor its entire grid from a central location and also read individual electrical meters through a network.

BPU recently constructed an all-new warehouse of its trucks and equipment on the 218 Bypass.

Prior to his service with BPU, Etheridge worked for Commercial Bank in Paris and McKenzie Banking Company in McKenzie.

Retiring BPU Manager John Etheridge is amused as retired City Manager Carl Holder tells about retired life.

AAA: Oil Prices Rise Amid Volatility

TAMPA, Fla. (October 2, 2016) — Gas prices are about the same - if not less - than last week, in the southeastern United States. During the past seven days, state averages declined 4 cents in Georgia and 2 cents in Tennessee. The state average in Florida is the same.

"Volatility continues in the Southeastern and Mid-Atlantic regions where gasoline prices remained high as a result of the Colonial Pipeline disruption," said Mark Jenkins, spokesman, AAA - The Auto Club Group. "Even though the Colonial Pipeline successfully restarted Line 1 more than a week ago, the effect of the disruption is still being felt in those regions and will take some time to get fully resupplied."

The cost of producing gasoline got more expensive last week, thanks to rising oil prices. Crude oil traded higher Friday morning following OPEC's announcement that it had agreed to an oil production freeze. OPEC has provided no details on the agreement or how it will implement production cuts, but members will be meeting again on November 30. Traders will continue to watch for additional announcements from OPEC members and keep an eye on discussions surrounding the upcoming meeting.

CRUDE OIL IMPACTING FLORIDA GAS PRICES

Florida's gas prices were not impacted by the Colonial Pipeline shutdown, but remain prone to fluctuations in crude oil. At the close of Friday's formal trading session on the NYMEX, WTI was up 41 cents to settle at $48.24 per barrel. Friday's closing price is $3.57 more than last week's low on Tuesday. The oil price increase snapped a 29-day streak of declines at the pump, which delivered a total discount of 9 cents during that period. Florida's average price of $2.15 is the same as the averages last week and this time last year.

GEORGIA & TENNESSEE PRICES SHIFT LOWER

Gas prices in Georgia and Tennessee continue to recover from the Colonial Pipeline leak, which caused prices to rise 28 cents in Georgia and 17 cents in Tennessee. Since the restart, state averages have declined 6 cents in Georgia and 3 cents in Tennessee. The Georgia average of $2.31 is 4 cents less than a week ago, but 15 cents more than this time last year. The Tennessee average of $2.14 is 2 cents less than last week, but 14 cents more than this time last year.

Bethel University Renaissance

Bluegrass Director Mougin Named IBMA Mentor of the Year

Bethel University Renaissance's Bluegrass Director Stephen Mougin was named the International Bluegrass Music Association's 2016 Mentor of the Year. This award is presented each year honoring a bluegrass professional who has made a significant impact on the lives and careers of newcomers to the bluegrass industry - musical and professional.

"We are thankful to have Stephen on our team at Bethel," commented Matthew Holt, Executive Director of Renaissance. "His work with our students has taken the Bluegrass program to the next level. We are thankful for all he does, not only for the Renaissance Bluegrass Program, but for all of the young and aspiring musicians and singers in the entire Bluegrass World."

In addition to working with the students in the Renaissance program, Mougin is a guitar player, songwriter, producer, engineer, label owner, and teacher. His years of experience and diverse background make him a perfect fit for working with Renaissance students. Mougin is most naturally a vocal teacher, having earned a degree in music education with a vocal focus from the University of Massachusetts- Amherst.

Through his teaching career, he has released multiple instructional CDs. In 2005 he launched Dark Shadow Recording. His company serves as a recording space, record label, and production studio. In 2006, Mougin began his role as Sam Bush's main guitar player in the Sam Bush band. Sam Bush is one of the most respected Mandolin players in the industry.

Stephen added, "This award means so much to me. Our beloved genre was built on the shoulders of the artistry and mentorship before. May that wonderful trend continue to engage, encourage, and foster the Bluegrass professionals of the future."

For more information about the Bethel Renaissance program, visit www.bethelrenaissance.com or contact their office at (731) 352-6980.

Shooting Hunger Sporting Clays Fun Shoot Benefits Second Harvest

The Shooting Hunger Sporting Clays Fun Shoot to Benefit Second Harvest Food Bank was held on September 29 at the Nashville Gun Club.

Second Harvest Food Bank of Middle Tennessee provides a central distribution center for companies, groups, and individuals who wish to help provide food for hungry people in Middle Tennessee. The organization was designed to collect food that would otherwise be wasted, inspect and sort this food, and distribute it to soup kitchens, pantries, and shelters serving the hungry. During the 2014/2015 fiscal year, Second Harvest distributed more than 29 million pounds of food to over 450 Partner Agencies, providing more than 24 million meals worth of food to hungry children, families and seniors throughout a 46-county service area.

Second Harvest relies on donations and fundraisers such as the Sporting Clays Fun Shoot. The Tennessee Farm Bureau Federation sponsored a five-man team from McKenzie that was composed of Alexis Perry, Drew Beeler, Hannah Chandler, Jacob Pinson and Anders Rider. This single event raised enough money for 200,000 meals for needy individuals. Jacob Pinson won the state-winning country ham that was auctioned at the state fair ham breakfast for $4,500. Jacob donated this ham back to the second harvest food bank to be auctioned one more time for charity.

Area Bands Win at Huntingdon High School Marching Mustang Championship

By Brad Sam
brad@mckenziebanner.com

HUNTINGDON (October 1) — Ten area bands competed Saturday at the Huntingdon High School Marching Mustang Championship at Paul Ward Stadium, with the three participating Carroll County bands all earning multiple trophies.

The bands were judged in five classes and two divisions.

In Class A, Hollow Rock-Bruceton won first place in band, percussion, and drum major, while the guard took second place.

In Class 2B, McKenzie swept all categories, with West Carroll in second place.

In Division I (Classes A and B), McKenzie claimed first place in band and drum major and second in guard. West Carroll's drum major tied for third, and the guard took third place.

One special award was presented. The Ross Hilliard Best Percussion Award, presented in its first year to Dyer County's percussion, is a memorial to a 2008 Huntingdon graduate and member of the Marching Mustang percussion. His band director, Lisa Bryant, described him in these words: "If you needed something done, he was there to help you when you needed it. He would always carry his weight and worked real hard for not only the percussion section, but for the band as well." The award was presented by his Ross' mother, Seta Oxford, his brother, Oliver, and his sister, Arlanna.

Besides those from Carroll County, other participating bands included Waverly, Lexington, Camden, Dyer County, Obion County, Chester County, and Scotts Hill.

The Marching War Eagles won second place in Class 2B in band, drum major, guard, and percussion. In Division I, West Carroll's drum major tied for third, and the guard took third place. Photo by Brad Sam/The McKenzie Banner

Rebels Cage Lions, 32-12

CAMDEN (September 29) — In middle school football action, the McKenzie Rebels, fueled by the stellar offensive production of Noah Floyd (touchdown rushes of 50, 4, and 36 yards) and Will Latimer (touchdown rushes of 7 and 1 yards) and fierce defensive tackling of Chris Barnett and Lincoln McReynolds, capped its 2016 grid campaign via a dominating, 32-12 road win over the Camden Lions.

After winning the opening coin-toss and electing to receive the football, McKenzie made its JACKSON (September 30) — The Rebels traveled to Trinity Christian Academy Friday, looking to bounce back from a three-game skid that followed a promising 3-0 start to the season. Once again, penalties and turnovers plagued McKenzie, and the Lions rolled to a 49-28 win.

Trinity won the toss, but deferred to the second half. Rebel Joseph Miller took the opening kickoff near the 10 and returned it to the 26. Quarterback Zach Jarrett threw incomplete, then Eric Robinson took a handoff for a gain of five. Jarrett passed to Lucas Waddell for seven yards and a first down, then made a lateral toss to Tyler Spivey, who picked up 13 yards to move the chains again. Robinson ran for three, than Jarrett threw incomplete. Robinson got close to another first, but the Rebels faced fourth down. Robinson took the handoff, and jetted 41 yards for a touchdown. Waddell hit the PAT, and McKenzie led, 7-0, with 9:10 left in the first quarter.

Trinity was pinned back at the 11 to start the ensuing drive, and quickly faced third-and-12. Lion quarterback Tristan Bonsetter threw to Kevin Davis to pick up 38 yards. Good defense by Lorenzo Haynes and Jake Trevathan forced Trinity to make a fourth-down decision, but an offside penalty gave the Lions a fresh set of downs. Bonsetter threw incomplete, then kept for a 43-yard touchdown. A good PAT tied the contest at 7-7 with just over five minutes left in the first frame.

Jarrett started the next drive with a pass to Donavon Foley, who dragged the defender Bonstetter for a sev-

ERIN (September 30) — In machine-like fashion, the Huntingdon Mustangs utilized an 80-yard kickoff return for score by Zach Dodson; a Kade Pearson one-yard touchdown rush; a Pearson to Dodson 80-yard touchdown pass; a Pearson 56-yard touchdown strike to Keeton Bailey; A Dylan Johnson ten-yard touchdown rush; a Bryce Johnson 23-yard pass interception return for score; a Johnson 17-yard scoring dash; and a Brandon Lawton 51-yard quarterback keep score to lead the 0-5 Houston County Fight Irish 56-0 at the half en route to a dominating, 63-0 win.

Defensively, Huntingdon was again led by the intense, sideline-to-sideline tackling of marquee linebacker Marvaughn McClerkin (10 tackles) and the gritty tackling of Clay Carver, Bryce Johnson, Austin Avery, Pearson, and Tyrese Mebane.

Huntingdon's offensive line dominated the Fighting Irish defense the entire contest.

Houston County won the opening coin-toss and elected to defer possession until the second half.

Setting the tone for the game, Mustang speed merchant Zach Dodson fielded the Fighting Irish kickoff at the Huntingdon 20 and weaved 80 yards to paydirt. Johnson added the two-point conversion as Huntingdon led at the 11:46 mark of the first quarter, 8-0.

Following Brandon Lawton's kickoff tackle of Arturro Zarzanno at the Houston County 20, the Fighting Irish netted a first down via fullback Chance Parker's right side bull before a chop block penalty moved the ball back to the Houston County 15. Unable to move the ball, the Fighting Irish punted as Huntingdon took possession at midfield.

Attacking immediately, Dodson raced for an 18-yard gain to the Fighting Irish 32. Mebane gained three yards right side before Johnson was ATWOOD (September 30) — The West Carroll War Eagles picked up their first win of the season in dominating fashion in a 64-12 homecoming victory against the Gleason Bulldogs.

The much needed triumph came at an opportune time as the War Eagles make the trek to take on the undefeated Union City Tornadoes next Friday night.

From the coin toss to the sounding of the horn, West Carroll controlled the momentum of the game. Gleason opened the game with a failed attempt at an onside kick giving the War

CINCINNATI, OHIO (October 1) — The Bethel Wildcats continued their winning ways with a 48-14 win over Cincinnati Christian. The No. 23 Wildcats improved to an unprecedented program-best, 5-0 record.

With the loss, CCU fell to 0-6.

The Cats jumped out 27-0 in the first half and cruised to 34-point victory.

Bethel's Devan Raymer scored on a 13-yard run capping a nine-play, 95-yard drive at the 8:35 mark of the first quarter. Logan Wheat's point after gave the Wildcats the 7-0 lead.

Taye Davis scored six minutes later on a 43-yard gallop and the Wildcats were off and running at 14-0 at the end of the quarter.

At the 11:55 mark of the second stanza, Kerry Sellers II hit Vonte Owens on a 10-yard touchdown pass. Wheat's PAT was no good but Bethel led 20-0.

Davis scored again on a 17-yard scamper as the Wildcat lead grew to 27-0. CCU's T.J. Jemison scored on a five-yard run to cut the Wildcat lead to 27-7 with 4:25 left in the half.

Bethel answered with 31 seconds left as Sellers rushed in from nine yards out as the Wildcats led at the half, 34-7.

The second half offered Bethel Coach Chris Elliott an opportunity to play almost everyone that made the trip.

Braxton Baugus found Raymer on a screen pass and the former Dresden High School star took it to the house from 40 yards out as the lead grew to 41-7. Nolan Chowbay, throwing his first touchdown pass as a Wildcat, hit Marvin Rudd on an 81-yard strike as the Cats increased its lead, 48-7. CCU's Jordan Frost responded with a dazzling, 50-yard touchdown run. Eagle kicker Seth Mayer's PAT split the uprights as Cincinnati Christian trialed and eventually lost, 48-14.

Bethel outgained the Eagles 526-237 in total yards. It was a rare day for the Wildcats in that they had more yards passing (284) than running yards (242).

Davis had a game-high 141 yards on 13 carries.

Jeremy Beaulieu, Marcaous Bailey and Colin O'Brien led the Wildcats with six tackles each. Trey'Von Brown followed with five stops. Brown, Jeremy Johnson and Tyrone Wilson each recorded a sack in the win. Karrheem Darrington had an interception which was his third of the season.

Jordan Frost led CCU with 88 yards rushing. Michael Williams of CCU led all tacklers with 10 total stops.

Coach Elliott commented on the win. "I thought we played pretty well today. We got off to a good start and that is always a good thing. We actually had more passing yards than running today which is unusual for us. We did however put a degree of emphasis on our passing game coming into today." He added, "Kerry did a good job in the game and made good decision I felt. It was good to get Baugus and Chowbay in and they played pretty well. Wheat did a good job with the extra kicking duties today. Casey (Kammerzell) was out due to his brother's wedding. I also felt our line play was effective on both sides of the ball."

Elliott talked about his defense. "The defense did a good job. They made some nice plays and are improving each week and that is what you like to see. We will get back to practice next week and prepare for what we know will be a very tough game at Union."

The Wildcats stay on the road with a trip to face Union College in Barbourville, Kentucky Saturday. The Bulldogs are 3-2 on the year and are 1-0 at home thus far.

ALAMO (September 29) — The Lady Rebel soccer team wrapped up its district schedule Thursday against the Lady Cavaliers at Crockett County High School.

McKenzie was edged out in the contest, 3-2, despite eleven saves by goalkeeper Carissa Britt and a pair of goals by Hannah Bilger.

The loss takes the Lady Rebels to 6-3-2 on the season. Their final district record is 3-3, putting them in fifth place.

McKenzie will finish the regular season on Thursday in Lexington, then the district playoffs begin, with the Lady Rebels returning to Alamo on Monday, October 10 for a rematch with the Lady Cavaliers. Game time has not yet been announced.

War Eagles

Eagles prime real estate for their first possession.

In four plays, Tristen Fuller for West Carroll crossed the goal line from 20-yards out. Jeremiah Bryant added the two-point conversion as the War Eagles went up 8-0 at the 10:32 mark of the first quarter.

Gleason looked to respond, but their opening drive stalled at mid-field. Forced to punt, the Bulldogs left the War Eagles with good field position at the West Carroll 41 yard line.

On first-and-ten, Patrick Becker blazed down the field for 50-yards and a fresh set of downs. Jacub Gilmer made a touchdown saving tackle for Gleason. Two plays later, Bryant was standing unscathed in the end zone for a War Eagle TD. Trace Fuller added two points on the conversation as West Carroll increased the lead 16-0 with 6:55 left in the first quarter.

The first turnover came off a Bulldog interception. Bryant brought down the pigskin for the War Eagles at the Gleason 49 yard line.

West Carroll capitalized off the turnover. Caleb Matlock caught a pair of passes putting the War Eagles in scoring position. Becker advanced the ball to the red zone and Tristen Fuller was in for the TD and the two-point conversion at the 3:22 mark as West Carroll went up 24-0.

Gleason kept the ball on ground closing the first quarter.

Still in control, the Bulldogs moved closer to the end zone via solid runs by Heath Keeling and Chandler Brawner. On first-and-goal from the one yard line, Timothy Russell called his own number and put Gleason on the board. The conversation was no good as West Carroll's lead was trimmed 24-6.

Another failed onside kick

by Gleason put West Carroll at mid-field. The War Eagles were forced to punt for the first time of the night.

Pinned deep in their own territory, the Bulldogs turned the ball over on downs after electing to run the ball on fourth-and-two from their 21 yard line.

Short yardage was easily manageable for the War Eagles. Trace Fuller added six to the score board from six yards out followed by Bryant for the two-point conversion. West Carroll led 32-6 with 7:24 left in the half.

The War Eagles scored on their next possession after a Gleason punt. On the third play of the series, Bryant went off the right guard on a fake end-around for a 20-yard touchdown. With a catch by Christopher Sheer, the War Eagles led 40-6 with 3:43 left on the clock in the first half.

The Bulldogs scored a second time in the half as Russell completed a pass to Trey Martin for a first down. On third-and-long, Brawner was in the end zone. The two-point conversion was no good as Gleason trailed 40-12 at the 2:09 mark of the second quarter.

West Carroll closed the half out with their sixth touchdown of the night. Tristen Fuller totted the mail in from two yards out as Becker added two ending the half 48-12 War Eagles.

With the mercy rule in effect, the running clock started with the opening of the second half. Gleason would go three-and-out and West Carroll would strike pay dirt.

PJ Odom entered the game and got the War Eagle TD plus the two-point conversion. At the 5:09 mark of the third, West Carroll led 56-12.

Gleason would respond in an attempt to make the score respectable. Dawson Arnold got the call and tore down the field for 74-yards. On the next play, Dawson was in for the TD. The two-point conversation failed as West Carroll led 56-18.

The third quarter drew to a close as the War Eagles readied themselves for their final TD of the night.

To open the final quarter of action, Jarius Weatherford was in the end zone after breaking two tackles and gaining 61-yards. Caleb Martin added two points on the conversion. With 11:18 left to play, West Carroll led 62-18. Down but not done, Gleason would score the closing points of the match up. Arnold and Brawner worked in tandem picking up first downs and moving the Bulldogs in scoring position. Russell teamed with Martin on third-and-twelve placing Gleason on the one. Brawner crossed the goal line for six points capping off the game 62-24.

At end of the night, the War Eagles accumulated 390 yards on the ground. Bryant led the pack with 161 yards followed by Tristen Fuller with 135 yards. For Gleason, the Bulldogs rushed for 228 yards and passed for 56 yards. Brawner led the ground attack with 160 yards.

Next Friday night, Union City will be the target as the War Eagles travel to Tornado Alley. Gleason will have an additional week of preparation and recovery time as they are on their bye week.

tackled for a loss of three by Ezra Roche. Digging in, Houston County stopped Huntingdon short on fourth and four to take possession at the 7:01 mark.

Houston County failed to net a first down on the ensuing drive and punted with Keeton Bailey signaling for a fair catch at the Huntingdon 43.

Showcasing his speed and shiftiness, Dodson raced 56 yards right side via counter into Houston County territory before being knocked out of bounds at the 1. At the 5:00 mark of the first quarter, Pearson walked into the end zone and Mebane added the two-point conversion as Huntingdon grew its lead, 16-0.

Despite gritty rushes by Parker, the Fighting Irish punted again as Bailey signaled for a fair catch at the Mustang 30. A holding call against the Mustangs during the punt moved the ball back to the HHS 20.

Striking instantly, Pearson fired a pass in the flats to Dodson. Gathering in the pigskin, Dodson broke tackles and weaved 80 yards to score. Orry Hodo's PAT boot split the uprights as the Mustangs led Houston County at the end of the first quarter, 23-0.

Forcing Houston County to punt, Huntingdon tacked on an early second quarter score as Pearson fired a 56-yard scoring strike to Keeton Bailey. Hodo's PAT boot missed to the left as Huntingdon widened its lead, 29-0.

Strong tackles by Carver, Michael Arnhold and relentless pass rush pressure by Corey Leavitt forced Houston County to punt away again as Gomez' 16-yard punt was downed at the Houston County 42.

On the next play, Johnson's 46-yard touchdown rush was negated via hold. Undaunted, Pearson kept the ball and raced 37 yards to move the chains at the Houston County 17. Pearson followed with a seven yard gain before Johnson darted right side ten yards to score. Hodo's PAT boot was good as Huntingdon led, 36-0 at the 6:49 mark.

On Houston County's next possession, Mustang defensive lineman Bryce Johnson snared a tipped pass and rambled 25 yards to score. Hodo's PAT was no good as Huntingdon stretched its lead to 42-0.

After McClerkin and company stopped Houston County's offense cold, Mebane returned Gomez' short punt from mid-field to the Fighting Irish 16. At the 3:45 mark, D. Johnson raced right side 16 yards to score. Hodo's PAT kick was good as Huntingdon's lead ballooned to 49-0.

With 1:39 remaining in the first half, freshman reserve quarterback Brandon Lawton broke tackles in the backfield and scampered 51 yards to score. Hodo added the PAT boot as Huntingdon led Houston County at the half, 56-0.

Switching to reserves for the entire second half, Huntingdon's freshman team contained Houston County's starting offense and added an addition score via Lawton 77-yard score with seven clicks remaining in the third quarter as Huntingdon went on to defeat the Fighting Irish, 63-0.

This Friday night, Huntingdon (4-1) celebrates Homecoming against Region 6A opponent McEwen (5-1). The Warriors were riding a 5-0 streak before being defeated last week by the Hollow Rock-Bruceton Tigers, 21-6.

Kickoff at Paul Ward Stadium is at 7:00 p.m. with Homecoming royalty crowned at halftime.

en-yard gain. Unfortunately, two carries by Robinson were stopped for no gain, and McKenzie punted.

Trinity took over at the 27, and Lion Viktor Horton broke out for 22 yards. He gained another four to cross midfield, then Bonstetter was dropped for a five-yard loss by Dee Browning. He tried again, but met Nicholas Bills at the line of scrimmage. A screen pass on fourth-and-long was well defended by Bills and Miller, and McKenzie took over on downs.

After an incomplete pass and an unsuccessful rush attempt, the first quarter ended. The first play of the second frame was another incompletion, and Rebel Michael Floyd punted for the second consecutive series.

Bonstetter took the first snap at his own 15 and kept it for an 85-yard touchdown sprint. The point-after was good, and Trinity led, 14-7, early in the second quarter.

Lion Noah Holsinger sent the ensuing kickoff into the end zone for a touchback. Jarrett went to Foley first, but Trinity interfered to give the Rebels 15 yards. Robinson rushed for five, then tried again only to fumble the ball. Luckily, Foley dove on the loose ball, but an incomplete pass on third down forced another Floyd punt.

Horton started with a 15-yard carry to get near midfield. Then, Bonstetter made a short pass for two yards. Horton gained a pair, but a holding call set the Lions back. Bonstetter was dropped for a short loss by Xavian Ayers and Julius Owens on second down. Horton gained just six to bring up fourth-and-long, and Trinity punted. An unfortunate roll on the kick pinned the Rebels inside the 1 yard line.

Robinson pounded the ball seven yards to escape the goal line, then kept hammering for five, two, and four yards. His next carry was good for 21 yards, then he was stopped after a short gain. He found space again for another 22, then Jarrett threw incomplete. Robinson went back to work, picking up 23 before going the final 17 for the touchdown. Waddell's PAT tied the game at 14-14 with 3:44 left in the first half.

Trinity started deep and gained three on a rushing attempt. Then, Lion quarterback Lane Forsythe dropped back and threw one deep. Floyd nearly intercepted the pass, but, inexplicably, it bounced off his fingertips into the hands of Lion Riley Graves for a 70-yard touchdown. Holsinger stayed perfect on PATs, and Trinity led, 21-14, with just under three minutes until halftime.

Holsinger kicked for another touchback, and Jarrett started with an incomplete pass. He then tossed to Robinson for a gain of five. A throw toward Cameron Rawls resulted in a pass interference call to move the ball near midfield. Two more incomplete passes brought up third down, and, again, a pass was deflected off a Rebel's hands into a Lion's. Jarrett hit his target of Foley, but Bonstetter was there to grab the tipped ball and ran it back 42 yards for a touchdown. With a minute and a half until the intermission, the Trinity lead increased to 28-14.

McKenzie delivered a much-needed response as Jarrett dropped back with the first snap and found Spivey for a 76-yard touchdown. Waddell stayed perfect with the point-after, and the Rebels still trailed, 28-21, just nine seconds after the previous Lion score.

Trinity scored again in just three plays. After an 18-yard run, a reverse to Graves netted 45 yards. Then, Bonstetter kept for a ten-yard touchdown run. After the PAT, Trinity had increased the lead to 35-21 with just under a minute on the clock.

Jarrett completed a few passes, but multiple penalties stifled the drive, and the half ended.

The Rebel defense regrouped and came out stronger in the third, forcing a quick three-and-out thanks to big tackles by Owens, Floyd, Bills, and Zack Sadler.

Robinson ran three times from deep in Rebel territory, but couldn't move the chains, and Floyd punted.

A penalty cost Trinity five yards before the first snap, and Forsythe's pass to Graves cost another five as Waddell made the stop in the backfield. Then, Forsythe's pass was picked off by Luke Spivey.

Two incomplete passes and a short Robinson run forced another punt by Floyd.

Waddell dropped Holsinger for a short loss, then Bonstetter ran for seven. Next, Horton took the handoff and broke out for a 61-yard touchdown. After the kick, Trinity led, 42-21 with 4:28 remaining in the third quarter.

A penalty during the ensuing return set the Rebels back deep. Jarrett found Foley for 13 and a first down, then tossed to Robinson for three. The next two passes fell incomplete, and Floyd punted.

Starting just across midfield, Bonstetter ran five yards, then lost three to a Jake Trevathan takedown. Holsinger rushed for five, stopped by Lorenzo Haynes to force a fourth down. The Rebels jumped in the neutral zone before the snap, and the chains moved. Rebel Rusty Sawyers broke up a run in the backfield, then a Bonstetter run was negated by a holding call. Forsythe threw incomplete, then Horton gained just five on third-and-long. The first play of the fourth quarter was a deep punt by Holsinger.

Jarrett found Foley for 30 to start the drive, then Robinson lost three. Jarrett was then sacked on back-to-back snaps, and Floyd punted.

Horton ran for first downs on the consecutive snaps, then a holding penalty set Trinity back. Horton was stopped after a short gain by Sean Beck, then Bonstetter met the same fate against Haynes and Paul Watkins. Horton tried one more time to bring up fourth down, then Forsythe's pass fell incomplete.

McKenzie went to short passes at the sidelines to attempt to conserve time. Jarrett found Foley, Spivey, and Waddell to piece together a first down, then hit Foley for back-to-back firsts. Waddell picked up eight, then Jarrett was nearly intercepted again. Spivey caught another on his way out of bounds to move the chains again, then Jarrett found Waddell for three. A couple of incompletions brought up fourth-and-six, but Foley converted at the Lion 4. Two throws later, Foley caught one in the end zone. Waddell's kick made it a 42-28 deficit for McKenzie with just three minutes left in the game.

The Rebels attempted an onside kick and nearly recovered. The defense did force a three-and-out to get the ball back with just over a minute remaining.

Jarrett threw incomplete, then found Rawls for a sizable gain. A pass to Waddell earned another big chunk of yardage, but the next toss was intercepted by Lion Ty Layman and returned 66 yards for a score. The PAT gave Trinity a 49-28 lead with 35 seconds left.

Trinity put the exclamation point on the victory by recovering an onside kick and then taking a knee to end the game.

Trinity led in total offense, 502-467 yards, despite McKenzie taking more snaps, 76-56.

Rebel quarterback Zach Jarrett was 24 of 45 passing for 315 yards with a pair of touchdowns and a pair of interceptions. He completed six passes to Tyler Spivey for 134 yards and a touchdown. Donavon Foley had nine catches for 102 yards and a touchdown. Lucas Waddell caught five for 40; Cameron Rawls had a pair of catches for 30 yards. Runningback Eric Robinson had 23 carries for 163 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Trinity alternated between two quarterbacks. Lane Forsythe did most of the throwing, connecting on three of seven passes for 67 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Tristan Bonstetter was one of two for 36 yards. Riley Graves caught two passes for 65 yards and a touchdown. Runningback Viktor Horton carried 21 times for 184 yards and a touchdown. Bonstetter rushed eleven times for 155 yards and three touchdowns.

Rebel Lucas Waddell had five tackles, including two for a loss. Sean Beck and Paul Watkins also had five takedowns, Lorenzo Haynes had four, and Jake Trevathan had three, including one for a loss.

Noah Holsinger led Trinity with eight tackles.

intent known immediately as Noah Floyd sped right side and outran Lion defenders 50 yards to paydirt. Eli Surber's two-point pass attempt fell incomplete as the Rebels led at the 7:06 mark of the first quarter, 6-0.

On the ensuing Rebel kickoff, Elijah Seivers raced downfield and tackled Lion Rex Blackburn at the Camden Junior High 25. Ramping up defensively, Rebel Chris Barnett dropped big Lion fullback Brayden Pace in the backfield for a loss of five. Barnett and Lincoln McReynolds then combined to stop Lion quarterback Chance Patton for a huge loss to force Camden to punt on fourth and 16 with the ball being downed at the McKenzie 33.

Disaster struck for the Rebels two plays later when McKenzie receiver Sevier's tipped-pass was intercepted by Blackburn and returned for a score. The Rebels snuffed Camden's two-point rush attempt as the game was knotted 6-6 at the 3:23 mark of the first quarter.

Seivers returned the Lions kickoff to the McKenzie 44. Determined, Rebel runningback Floyd rushed left side for a first down at the Camden 45. Surber then completed a five-yard pass to Seivers before Floyd jetted through a gap in the Rebel line to move the chains at the Lions 33 and followed with rushes of 9 and 3 yards to advance the ball to the Camden 21 as time expired in the first quarter with the game tied, 6-6.

Resuming play in the second quarter, Seivers swept left side for a gain of 2. On the next play, Camden was penalized for a horse collar tackle on Seivers as the ball was moved to the Lions 6. Floyd battled up the middle to the 4 before following his line surge into the end zone. Floyd's two-point conversion rush was no good as McKenzie led Camden 12-6, at the 5:53 mark of the second quarter.

Shutting down Camden's offense cold on its ensuing drive, the Rebels quickly advanced the ball to its 35 as Floyd weaved through defenders across midfield for a first down at the Camden 40. With 2:00 remaining in the first half, Floyd ignited left side and sailed 36 yards to paydirt. Surber's two-point conversion pass to Jaden Currie was good as McKenzie widened its lead over Camden at the half, 20-6.

Camden's offensive woes continued at the start of the second half as McKenzie defenders forced the Lions to punt on fourth and 6 as the ball was downed a the Rebel 23.

Continuing to impress, Floyd raced right side across midfield before being tackled at the Camden 35. Will Latimer rushed right side to move the chains at the Lions 13 and added a tote to the 78 before scoring right side at the 4:02 mark of the third quarter. McKenzie's two-point conversion rush failed as the Rebels grew its lead at the end of the third quarter to 26-6.

McKenzie added its final score of the season at the 6:04 mark of the fourth quarter via Latimer 1-yard rush to expand its lead over Camden 32-6.

Playing for pride, Camden quarterback Cade Lopez scored from three yards out as time expired as the Rebels celebrated its 32-12 road win.

Crunch! Rebel defensive lineman Chris Barnett lowers the boom on Lion fullback Brayden Pace.

According to Hugueley's report, a neighbor witnessed the Wadleys drive to the residence of Megan Eckenrode, get out of their car and repeatedly strike, kick, and bite Eckenrode. Bethel University Homecoming

Golf Tournament to Be Named To Memorialize Wilcoxson

McKENZIE — Bethel University's annual Homecoming Golf Tournament will officially be named The Jerry Wilcoxson Memorial Golf Tournament at this year's event Friday, Oct. 21 at Carroll Lake Golf Course.

Wilcoxson, who died in 2015, was a long-time educator, administrator and coach at Bethel. One of his most notable roles at Bethel was as golf coach.

"Coach Wilcoxson positively influenced and impacted many students in his role as golf coach," said Bethel President Walter Butler. "It is very fitting that this annual event is named in his honor."

Butler said the club house space at Carroll Lake Golf Course is also undergoing some renovations that will serve as a reminder of the legacy Coach Wilcoxson left behind.

"We could have this tribute to Coach Wilcoxson in some space on the Bethel campus," Butler said. "But after much thought and consideration, the tribute seems more meaningful to fellow golfers at our local course. We are very grateful to club owners Jerry and Nan Stanley for graciously allowing Bethel to honor Coach Wilcoxson in this way."

Butler said there will be an open house to see the new space beginning at 9 a.m. prior to the tournament that morning.

"Registration for the tournament begins at 9 a.m., but even if you don't plan on playing in the tournament, I encourage you to come to the open house and to see this tribute to Coach Wilcoxson. Some of his family members have indicated that they plan to attend, and I know they would love to see those who had friendships with him," Butler said. "Then at 10 a.m., there will be a brief dedication with the shotgun start for the golf tournament following."

The golf tournament is a four-person scramble, and all local golfers are encouraged to take part.

The tournament fee is $55 per person or $220 per team. The fee covers green fees, cart, lunch and prizes.

"With a good turnout we will have two flights with first and second place cash prizes in each flight," Butler said.

To reserve a team or an individual spot in the tournament, contact Jennifer Glass at glassj@bethelu.edu or at 731-352-4259. Space is limited, so reservations are recommended. However, space permitting, anyone can register the day of the tournament beginning at 9 a.m.

McKenzie Police Reports

Simple possession or casual exchange — According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Kyle Beauchamp, on Monday, September 26, MPD received a call from McKenzie Health Care Center regarding a woman that came to their office seeking pain medication for a hurt back. According to the caller, the woman, identified as Michelle M. Feagans, 46, Melton Avenue, Camden, pulled a foil-type package from her purse and stated that she had bought the item from a friend and wanted to know if she could purchase the same medicine at the medical center. The nurse on duty at the time stated that she recognized the packaging as being that of a schedule II narcotic that could only be obtained legally via prescription. The nurse then called MPD to report the incident. Upon arrival, Patrolman Beauchamp asked Feagans about the foil packaging, she reached into her purse and produced an empty foil rapper with the words "Buprenorphine and Naloxone buccal film" imprinted on it. The officer observed that the package was open and empty at which time Feagans said it was open and empty when she entered McKenzie Health Care. She said a friend had given her the empty package so that she could show the package to a doctor in order to have that type of medicine prescribed to her. The nurse informed the officer that the package was unopened when Feagans showed it to her and that she had returned the unopened package to Feagans prior to calling MPD. Feagans continued to stand by her account that the package was opened prior to her arriving at the center. After receiving permission to search Feagans' purse, the officer found a small clear plastic pill bag containing a small blue pill with an "M: imprinted on one side and "30" on the other side. The pill was then determined to be a 30 milligram oxycodone tablet that Feagans had a prescription for. At that time, Rainey put her hands up and told the officer that she came to Parenti's home to question him about some credit card charges when he became irate and chased her with a hockey stick. Releasing Rainey to allow her to go to MPD to give her statement, the officer returned to Parenti's residence and observed the windows of the home painted with the words "liar" and "thief" Parenti told the officer that when he walked outside and saw her painting the words on his windows he told her to leave, she chased him with the baseball bat. After statements by Mr. Roegge and the boyfriend of Mrs. Roegge, Mrs. Roegge was arrested for the listed offense for striking her father after he attempted to stop her from assaulting her boyfriend. The boyfriend informed the officer that he was returning home to Chicago and would not be available to appear in court and that his relationship with Mrs. Roegge was finished. Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
