West Carroll to Re-Interview Three Candidates for Director

By Joel Washburn
washburn@mckenziebanner.com

ATWOOD (October 17) — Three of four candidates for director of schools are being asked to interview for a second time after Monday's meeting failed to produce a consensus winner.

A date and time will be established for Shane Paschall, Dexter Williams, and James Hughes to return to answer more questions. Board members indicated they were comfortable with any of the original four candidates Dexter Williams, Shane Paschall, James Hughes, and Danny Leasure brought to them from the Tennessee School Boards Association.

The lone item on the agenda at the special meeting was the selection of a new director of schools. Betty Wallace is serving as interim director after the board did not renew the contract of Eric Williams, whose term ended June 30.

Jimmy Halford, chairman, handed each member a blank piece of paper and directed them to write their first and second choice for director and then to sign the document. He then asked Kyle Foster, a board member,

Construction Begins on the Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery at Parkers Crossroads

Nearly $6 Million Received from the National Cemetery Administration

NASHVILLE — Tennessee Gov. Bill Haslam and Department of Veterans Services Commissioner Many-Bears Grinder were joined by several federal, state and local officials today as they broke ground on the Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery at Parkers Crossroads. U.S. Rep. Marsha Blackburn (R-TN), U.S. Rep. Stephen Fincher (R-TN), State Rep. Steve McDaniel (R-Parkers Crossroads), State Sen. Dolores Gresham (R-Somerville), Parkers Crossroads Mayor Kenneth Kizer, Henderson County Mayor Dan Hughes and the Friends of the Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery at Parkers Crossroads also participated in the special ceremony.

The 132-acre cemetery will be located at 693 Wildersville Road and will serve more than 45,000 veterans and their families within 17 counties in west Tennessee.

"We are to have this dignified final resting place in west Tennessee for those who served our country and their eligible dependents," Haslam said. "This resource will serve our veterans and their families for decades to come."

The National Cemetery Administration last month awarded $5,754,802.00 in federal funding for the construction of the cemetery.

"This milestone is cause for celebration for our veterans, their families and our local, state and federal partners that joined us in making this project a high priority to improve how we serve Tennesseans in rural parts of our state," Grinder said. "This hallowed ground will serve as a pristine final resting place where reverence and reflection will be fostered."

"The placement of this cemetery in west Tennessee is the realization of years of work," Blackburn said. "We celebrate the groundbreaking of this project and anticipate completion. This facility will allow families to be closer to home as they endure a time of loss."

"I count it a true honor to be part of the groundbreaking of the Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery at Parkers Crossroads,"

BUENA VISTA, Tenn. — The discovery of a dead male body and a report of a naked woman on a rural back road on State Route 114 in Carroll County are being investigated as connected incidents.

The body lay on the ground in a rural area for 15 days before being discovered by authorities. "We are 99 percent sure of the identity of the man," said Dickson, who noted the body was sent to Nashville for an autopsy. Tennessee Bureau of Investigation is in charge of the investigation.

The university was granted a contested case hearing at Friday's quarterly meeting, held on the campus of the University of Tennessee at Martin.

The board's unanimous vote doesn't itself affect the current status of the program, which is

Huntingdon Council Approves New Town Recorder, Donates Fillies' Field to School

Courtesy of the Carroll County News-Leader

Huntingdon Town Council's approval of Kim Carter as town recorder was among the several items of business during the Oct. 11 meeting.

Carter was recommended by Mayor Dale Kelley as the person to succeed Martha Taylor, who is retiring after 21 years in that position. Taylor began working in the town's Finance Department in 1970.

In recommending Carter to the council members, the mayor said, "Subsequently, having knowledge of the various duties, training and experience that makes her highly qualified, I recommend Kim Carter to serve as town recorder, effective Jan. 1, 2017."

He added that the search to fill the position vacancy was advertised in the local paper and all application received were from very highly qualified personnel.

Carter has been employed by the town since 2003 as accounting specialist in the Dept. of Finance and Administration. She completed and obtained state certification as a Certified Municipal Finance Officer in Dec. 2013.

"I'm thankful to Mayor Kelley and the Town Council for the confidence they have placed in me with this appointment as town recorder," said Carter. "I look forward to continuing to serve the citizens of Huntingdon. I have been fortunate to work and train under Martha Taylor for the past 13 years. I am grateful and excited for this new opportunity."

She is married to Scott Carter, principal of Huntingdon Middle School and is the daughter of Ricky and Brenda Lewis of Lexington. She graduated from Lexington High School and received her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Master of Accountancy from the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Kim Carter

The mayor said, in making the recommendation, her knowledge of the duties of the position makes her highly qualified.

In other business, the first of two required readings concerning a stipulation in applying for a beer permit was approved.

The ordinance requires a person making application for a beer permit to be a citizen or lawful resident of the United States for not less than one year immediately preceding the date upon which the application is made to the city of county.

"This brings our law in compliance with the state law," Mayor Dale Kelley told council members.

The Huntingdon Special School District will become the owner of Fillies' Field, along with the small practice field and parking lot on Hillcrest Drive.

Through a resolution, council members agreed to give this land to the school district. However, if the school district ever ceases to use the field, all of the property will revert back to the town.

The mayor said the town wants to be supportive to the school district.

In other business, council members:

• Were informed by the mayor that the Water Department received confirmation from the Dept. of Environment & Conservation of approval of updates to the Town's Well Head Protection Plan. The plan is a designated area for protection of the town's water source.

• Were told by the mayor that the town has received a $327,600 Community Development Block Grant for sewer line extensions on the north side of town. "This is good news," he said. "If a septic tank goes out, the resident must tie onto the sewer line."

• Approved a resolution authorizing the town to submit an application to the Dept. of Justice grant program. A request is being made for new taser equipment for the Huntingdon Police Department. If awarded, it will be a 100 percent grant with no match required.

• Approved a resolution for the town to participate in the TML Risk Management Pool Property Conservation Matching Grant Program. Based on the total insured value, the town should be eligible for up to approximately a $4,000 matching grant.

Illinois Carjacker Cuffed After Crash

According to a report filed by Carroll County Sheriff's Department Deputy Kenny Tucker, an Illinois man identified as Ronnie Webb, 26, of Chicago, was arrested October 8 after evading arrest.

According to Tucker's report, CCSD deputies were responding to a call when they spotted a PT Cruiser with headlights off speeding. As Tucker attempted to catch up to the vehicle, the PT Cruiser reached speeds of 100 miles per hour before the driver lost control and hit a tree.

After impacting the tree, the car burned, resulting in a total loss.

Following the crash, Webb, fled from the scene on foot before being apprehended by CCSD deputies.

During questioning, Webb claimed that his girlfriend who lives in Jackson allowed him to borrow the vehicle.

A check revealed that the car's plates were registered as stolen out of Jackson and that Webb fit the description of the man who had stolen it. Webb was then charged with carjacking by the Jackson Police Department.

KT-Clay Celebrates Minerals Day

By Jason Martin
jmartin@mckenziebanner.com

GLEASON (October 13) — KT-Clay, a subsidiary of Imerys Ceramics, along with other clay mining operations in Gleason celebrated Minerals Day last Thursday. The free event was open to the public with an estimated 1,000 individuals in attendance.

Held on the K-T Clay grounds, tents were pitched providing members of the community the opportunity to gain a better understanding of what takes place in the mining of ball clay. Along with an informative presentation with 3D dimensional renderings of a mine, patrons were able to watch Jim Keeling to turn Gleason ball clay in beautiful handmade pottery.

The employees of the mining operation were in attendance showing their appreciation to the public and handing out food and refreshments along with other goodies.

Operations Manager Arson Potts explained how students graduating from Weakley County have a great opportunity for employment in their backyard. With other 30 companies worldwide, Imerys has over 14,900 employees.

Buford Norden stands on the drilling apparatus used to mine core samples. Norden has been a part of KT-Clay and the clay mining industry for 36 years.

As part of the hands on experience a tour of a mining site was available. Buses carried the interested on-lookers deep into the rural area. Upon arrival the on-lookers watched as ball clay was excavated from the earth and loaded into numerous dump trucks.

Buford Norden, a 36-year veteran, explained his responsibilities on removing core samples. The samples provide a deeper understanding of what lays beneath the surface.

As part of IMA-NA, Industrial Minerals Association-North America, Imerys has taken part in Minerals Day for two years. Minerals Day originated in Europe and has grown since its inception in 2007.

Council Approves Increase In Stonewall Sidewalk Cost

By Brad Sam
brad@mckenziebanner.com

McKENZIE (October 13) — A vote by the McKenzie City Council Thursday will allow a proposed sidewalk project along Stonewall to continue as planned.

The sidewalk will run down Brooks Avenue from Owens Street to Stonewall, then down Stonewall to Woodrow Avenue. The project is funded by a transportation grant with a 20 percent city match. When it was discovered that the cost would be higher than expected, the state agreed to expand the grant, so long as the city also expands its matching funds.

The increase will cost the city $11,687, approved on a 3-1 vote by the present councilpersons. Vice Mayor Gene Hale and Councilperson David Hochreiter expressed concerns over the total cost of the project, citing other pressing needs such as street paving. All present parties conceded that the lack of a sidewalk constituted a safety issue for pedestrians, especially schoolchildren. Hochreiter inquired about other options, namely increased patrols, and was ultimately the lone vote against the measure. Mayor Jill Holland noted that if one child's life would be saved, it was worth the cost.

In other business, the council voted unanimously to establish a maximum amount for purchases with or without public advertisement and competitive bidding. The policy has been in place for quite some time, but it was discovered that no ordinance establishing the rule had ever been passed. Purchases of less than $1,000 will not require a purchase order, while all larger purchases require varying levels of bid procurement, public advertisement, and administrative approval.

The council also voted to approve a raise to each of three street department employees who routinely perform mechanic work that saves the city a significant amount of money. Street Supervisor Johnny Mercer, Robert Jones, and Marvin Kalinowski were commended by councilpersons for their skills and the savings they provide. The total cost of the raises will be $1,144, taken from the $17,500 equipment repair budget.

Action was deferred on an ordinance to adopt the newly-prepared digital zoning map. The matter will be taken up in November, when planners are present to offer clarification to the council.

Mayor Holland reminded the council that a special called meeting would be held on October 20 at 4:30 p.m. to open bids on a heating system for the Police Department and other parts of city hall.

The meeting adjourned in just under an hour. Councilpersons Kevin Gallimore and Cassie Allen were not present.

I hope this site will bring peace to those who knew and loved a veteran, and I hope each time they visit they look back with pride on the courageous contributions these heroes made to our country. We thank God for each and every veteran and pray His blessings upon this sacred space as it becomes their final resting place."

"Parkers Crossroads is a community dedicated to history, recognizing the service of our veterans and cultivating a patriotic spirit that bonds our citizens," McDaniel said. "This state veterans cemetery will serve Tennesseans from several miles and counties away and we believe this dignified resource will be a reverent crown jewel for communities across the region."

"This historic setting will serve as a tribute to veterans of all eras, branches and backgrounds," Gresham said. "To watch this dream become a reality is truly a privilege of public service and will serve as an enduring symbol of our commitment to our fellow veterans for decades to come."

to announce the names on each of the ballots. The vote was as follows:

Misty Mitchell voted 1: Paschall, 2: Williams

Kyle Foster voted 1: Paschall, 2: Hughes

Mike Foster voted 1: Hughes, 2: Williams

Jimmy Halford voted 1: Paschall, 2: Williams

Patrick Lindsey voted 1: Hughes, 2: Williams

William Robinson voted 1: Williams, 2: Hughes

Board members were then asked to discuss the vote and make a final decision.

Robinson said he thought long and hard and had lots of prayer. He said Williams has done a gone job in the first year as principal at West Carroll Junior/Senior High School. His one concern is that Williams was not willing to move his family (from Medina) to the West Carroll School District.

Mike Foster said Williams brings lots of energy, but Hughes demonstrated some strong wisdom. Neither committed to reside in the district, he noted.

Kyle Foster complimented all of the candidates, but preferred Paschall. He had some classroom experience that others lacked.

Robinson noted the community survey conducted by the Tennessee School Boards Association indicated a lack of good communication with the stakeholders in the district.

Lindsey said the interview also indicated the school board members wanted to run the school system.

Mitchell said she liked Hughes because of the technology program he has built in another school system. However, some of the school staff members were concerned about his communication skills.

Dexter Williams, a graduate of West Carroll High School and now principal received the most overall votes (five) in either first or second. However, Paschall received the most first place votes (three), with Hughes receiving two, and Williams receiving one.

Robinson made a motion to hire Williams as the new director of schools. The motion was seconded by Mike Foster. On a roll call vote, the yes votes were Robinson, Halford, and Mike Foster. The no votes were Lindsey, Kyle Foster, and Misty Mitchell.

Halford declared the motion failed in the tie vote.

After the vote, Mike Foster said the board needs to be unified in its selection of a new director.

Halford said he will contact the three candidates receiving votes and ask them to return for a second interview.

deputies located the woman and transported her to Baptist Memorial Hospital-Huntingdon, where she was treated and released to family members. She told officers that she and her boyfriend were traveling in a vehicle when she got out and he drove away. Officers suspected some mental issues with Crowder. The male never reappeared. The Sheriff's Department contacted other law enforcement agencies to see if the male had been spotted in their communities.

On October 6, a farmer was entering his cotton field when he discovered a pickup truck in an extremely remote area. On the passenger side, the front tire and hub were completely worn off and the rear tire was blown. Officers were called to the scene, where Deputy Terry Dickey discovered the body. Agents with the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation were called to investigate the scene at around 2:00 p.m.

"We are 99 percent sure of the identity of the man," said Dickson, who noted the body was sent to Nashville for an autopsy. The preliminary autopsy report indicates no blunt trauma, no gunshots or stab wounds. The sheriff said neither the man nor woman have ties to the community. One story indicated the two were driving through Natchez Trace State Park when they had a flat. They were either in route to Florida or returning from Florida, according to various versions of the story, said the Sheriff. The truck is also at the TBI Crime Lab, said Dickson.

In an interview with The Banner, Bethel University President Walter Butler said of the board's decision, "We are excited that the State Board of Education is willing to go to the next step and let us appeal their original ruling. We anxiously await the board setting a date for that hearing."

Hunker Down with Kes

An Allegory... Of Sorts

Somebody said this morning, "We don't have any choice between the candidates running for president."

I pondered on that long after we'd parted company. Well, actually, we do have a choice. And I understand perfectly well what they were saying. Maybe it's not a good choice to a lot of people's way of thinking. Maybe they don't want to vote for either nominee. Maybe they wish Thomas Jefferson or Abraham Lincoln would drop out of the sky... But there is a choice available here!

It reminds me of my high school senior Homecoming dance. I had to choose between Mary E. Pendleton and Penelope Van Dyke. Merciful heavens! You talk about two candidates that I had some serious doubts about!

I've told you about Mary E. on several occasions. We used her back when we were sophomores as the Homecoming float! We were playing the Huntingdon High Mustangs. We built a corral on Mr. John Charles Sasser's flatbed wagon, threw one of Dwayne Melton's wild stallions in there and had Mary E. wrestle that thing while the parade wandered up Stonewall Street.

Mary E. could be a tad blunt at times and accusatory. Plus, she could beat up most every boy in school. If I chose her and said the wrong thing over by the punch (no pun intended) bowl, stepped on her foot during the first waltz or unknowingly insulted big women in general by making some reference to the Titanic, the evening would sure as shooting end in my own personal disaster! That was an egg shell walk I didn't want to take.

Penelope moved in from West Orange, New Jersey, our ninth grade year. The descending nose and the coke bottle glasses were not the problem—although they didn't help a lick. And, of course, you couldn't help but notice the scar that started a little bit in front of her left ear and meandered down toward her chin. But I could live with that. It was the incessant talking, mostly about nothing, that about drove you nuts!

The very thought of listening to her for three straight hours would make a sane man take a flying leap off the nearest pier. And most always the incessant chattering was about her precious New Jersey. She allowed everything from sweet gum trees to electronic scoreboards were better in the Garden State. Boys were more handsome. Food taste better. The sun sets lasted longer. She alleged with a straight face that they had a Ferris wheel in Atlantic City as tall as a ten story building!

Well, none of us had ever been to New Jersey. I reckon she could tell us anything she wanted to. And she did! From first period through the last bell! She just never shut up on all she had seen and done and been involved in...and listen, when she couldn't talk, she'd write these little notes and send them out to everybody in the class reminding us that she had never made a mistake and we were not to ever question her!

I shouldn't have been in this fix. If only I'd started checking out possibilities earlier! I just figured it would all work out in the end. I waited till the Wednesday before Homecoming to decide I needed to "get with someone" if I was going to the dance.

It dawned on me way too late that the world was moving on...with or without me! That is usually the deal when we get down to a "no choice—got to make one" situation. Or maybe I thought Susie Branon or Linda Quesenberry was just going to walk up and hit me over the head with a club and carry me to the blooming dance!

Maybe it's the Little Jack Horner syndrome; we get caught sitting over in the corner eating the fruits that someone else prepared and expecting things to turn out just like we think they ought to.

I wanted to go with Jane Hill. Or Bonnie Clanton. Listen, Cynthia Wheat was a beautiful young lady. They might not have been as pretty as those New Jersey girls that Penelope was always bragging about—Buddy figured maybe that was the reason Penelope ended up in our little town—but they were "our" girls.

Bonnie was a year older and wouldn't be interested in me. Cynthia was going steady with Jerry. Jane Hill already had a date...at least that's what I told myself. The truth is she wouldn't give me the time of day. I called her "skinny" once back in the fourth grade and she never forgot it.

I consulted my older brother. He was a near 'bout West Tennessee legend when it came to girls, dating, dances and predicaments. "Leon, it looks like I'm down to Mary E. or Penelope Van Dyke."

He deliberated less than half a second on my particular dilemma, "If you could wait one more week till the Halloween masquerade party... either of those girls would be perfect!"

Don't talk to me about poor choices.

Respectfully,
Kes

And A Child Will Lead Us

By Paula Watkins

I don't know how many of you are users of a social media site. I would guess a bunch of folks. Some say no, they never want to socialize using their phone or computer, and I completely understand. It is quite addictive if you have your phone in front of you. However some of us still use a computer to communicate with friends and family. I enjoy seeing what everybody is up to and how much their family has grown. I do not want to be walking looking down at my phone – kinda' reminds me of the walking dead. And if I do not like something posted, I delight in just telling that computer that I do not want to see any of that kind of mishmash again! It gives me a great feeling of still controlling my life.

Other than family and friends, I would miss the words of advice passed on to us even though we already think we know everything. I read about the trials and tribulations our young parents are facing, and I appreciate the strength and energy they devote daily to make their homes a place of comfort. And more times than not if a parent is not bragging about their family, they are requesting that you include their loved ones in your daily prayers. That makes me so proud to know that parents do rely on prayers for their family to succeed.

I love to read about the achievements of each young person and smile at the more humorous predicaments. In fact I guess the most useable advice or insight comes from the words of our young people. You do not have to be using social media to listen and learn from our young people. You just have to turn your hearing aid up a little, sit down with your young person, and just listen. Oh my, they have so much to share. It is simply amazing what a teenager faces today. Their experiences speak volumes!

There is one particular young man I want to talk about. His name is Lorenzo Townes. If you do not know this super young man, you are missing one of life's treasures – or maybe I should say one of life's greatest sources of entertainment. Lorenzo is an avid Facebook user. He posts some of the most humorous events that he has witnessed or he has conjured up in his mind. Lorenzo loves his grandmother, Meme Marsha! Meme has had a great influence regarding Lorenzo's upbringing. So, Lorenzo now has the opportunity to take care of Meme. Recently he took Meme to Jackson for a little shopping. A car pulled out in front of Lorenzo and he had to slam on the brakes. Meme said, "I know you think you are a cat and have nine lives, but I only have one! So get it together!" A while back Lorenzo posted pictures of the family vehicles all cleaned up for Sunday. Meme told him that it says in the Bible that you can't go to church in a dirty car. I tried that on my spouse, and he ignored me. Imagine that?

But what I really want to talk about is how Lorenzo, as well as many of our young people, have the uncanny ability to reason through some of life's problems and rise above all the baggage that we older adults choose to carry around. Lorenzo posts daily thoughts for us to read. "Never let anyone or group make you feel like you have to seek approval from them to be happy in life." Another was, "Smile and make a difference. Have the kind of day you deserve."

This is not saying that our young folks know everything. There is always a time when you just want to smack 'em! But realize, as this old woman has, we will be led by our children someday. Give them a lot love each and every day. And teach them common sense – they are going to need it! Many hugs for you and yours, and as Lorenzo says, "Have the kind of day you deserve!"

Gleason Woman's Club News

By Julia Fowler

The Gleason Woman's Club met September 27 at 12:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Room of the Gleason First Baptist Church for the September meeting. The hostesses were Julia Fowler and Ruth Townsend. Julia Fowler gave the invocation. The members served themselves from a prepared buffet style luncheon of poppyseed chicken casserole, macaroni salad, cauliflower broccoli casserole, Hawaiian rolls, pickles, fruit, assorted crackers and trail mix with tea, coffee, punch and lemonade to drink. For dessert, everyone enjoyed blueberry pie with whipped cream topping.

Julia Fowler read a poem entitled "The Last Cab Ride", author unknown.

President Pam Belew thanked the hostesses for the delicious luncheon and called the meeting to order. She acknowledged the members that had a birthday in September. Since Secretary Martha Crews was absent, Pam read the minutes for the August meeting and they were approved as read. Treasurer, Peggy Floyd gave the treasurer's report with no corrections or additions. She stated that she sent a check to the Gleason Public Library in memory of recently deceased member Betty Esch.

President Pam Belew read a note from Secretary Martha Crews in which she stated that she was resigning from the club. She said that she had enjoyed being a member of the Woman's Club and regretted that she would not be able to meet with us at this time. Therefore, the membership committee will have to nominate a new person to be elected for Secretary. A motion was made for the committee to report on their nomination at the October meeting.

The club recited The Collect in unison and the meeting was adjourned.

Members present were: Mary Margaret Beasley, Judy Belew, Pam Belew, Peggy Floyd, Julia Fowler, Genie Dilday, Ann Jonak, Ann Phelps, Rubye Snider, Ann Steward, Peggy Stewart, Patty Tilley, Ruth Townsend, Harriet Wilson, and Joyce Wray. Absent members were: Martha Crews and Doris Owen.

Free State-Sponsored Medicare Help Can Save Tennesseans Hundreds of Dollars

Starting October 15 and continuing through December 7, 2016, Tennessee's 1.3 million Medicare beneficiaries will have the opportunity to review their current Medicare plan, including drug coverage, and determine which plan is best for them. Needs and plans change from year to year, and the Medicare system can often be difficult to understand and navigate. But Open Enrollment is something no beneficiary should avoid or ignore.

Thankfully, Medicare beneficiaries in Tennessee do not have to navigate this complicated system alone. A state program provides more than 300 counselors to help guide Tennesseans through the Medicare Open Enrollment process. The State Health Insurance Assistance Program (or TN SHIP for short) is free to all of Tennessee's Medicare beneficiaries.

TN SHIP counselors can review a beneficiary's current Medicare plan and determine the best fit for that individual. The TN SHIP program neither sells, nor endorses, specific plans; it provides free and objective counseling on Medicare plans and solutions. Last year the TN SHIP program saved Tennesseans an average of $2,245 on their annual prescription drug cost. The Commission on Aging and Disability encourages all Tennessee Medicare beneficiaries to review their Medicare plan annually for the following reasons: • Formulary changes – Your plan may be making changes to how and if your medications are covered. • Premium changes – There may be changes in the amount you pay for your plan premium. • New plans – Each year, new plans are introduced that may offer benefits that better fit your situation. • Savings – Switching to another plan may save you money. • Coverage Gap Information – Comparing plans will help you identify when or if you will end up in the Part D coverage gap period. If a beneficiary has questions or needs help reviewing their plan, that person should call TN SHIP at 1-877-801-0044.

Bethel/Eastside FCE

The Bethel/Eastside FCE met in the quilters room of the Carroll County Complex for their October 13th meeting. The hostess was Gwen Joyner who treated us with fall decor on the table for our add-a-dish meal. The meeting was called to order with the devotion and prayer for the meal given by the hostess, Gwen. We all enjoyed a delicious meal and then the meeting got under way.

Meeting was opened with the reading of the Club Collect in unison. Roll call was answered by "What is your favorite Halloween candy?" Candy Corn and popcorn balls were the most popular. The minutes were read from both August and September meetings. They were approved. The treasury report was given. We are still in the black.

Old business: Several places were mentioned for our field trip. The one we were supposed to take in August got canceled. It was suggested that we attend the Renaissance Christmas performance at Bethel University in McKenzie. Information is to be brought back to the November meeting for final arrangements. Next year we are to start discussing this sooner. The flag was brought up that is to be carried for convention at the end of October. Another flag was found that needed a little work. Gwen is to do what is needed. We will make a new flag for next year, hopefully. Many suggestions were given on how to do this. We will take it up again in January.

New business: The council meeting was canceled, neither the president or the vice could be there. There wasn't anything pending to bring up. A few dates to remember are October 30 is State Conference in Murfreesboro, Tn. Pennye, our Council president and Gwen, our agent will both be going. They will be taking the first prize winner, Angie Menne's photo to be entered in the competition. Cookie Exchange will be December 5, 2016, bring a book for Head Start. They would prefer a hardback book by Dr. Seuss but any hardback book will do. Hardback, so it doesn't tear up easily.

The program for the evening was presented by Gwen on "Mix it Up" food in a jar. Often times it is easier to make a basket for a present. Some really good examples of food in a jar are: Country Chili Mix; Cornbread Mix; Chocolate chip cookies; Friendship soup; or hot chocolate, be sure to include the recipe. Also you might put together a basket with a movie, microwave popcorn and a two liter drink for a family fun night.

She passed out a study done by the state showing where Carroll County stands in regards to income, single parent families, unemployment and several other interesting facts.

Next month hostess will be Gail Eubanks. We invite all who would like to come and join us. We meet at 6 o'clock on the second Thursday of each month in the quilters room at the back of the complex. Have a scary Halloween!

As we go through life we are faced with the unbearable, but with God's Grace we manage to get through the hard times. This is going to be a season of firsts for our family: first missed Anniversary October 17th, Birthday October 22, Thanksgiving and Christmas. He was loved by all who knew him along with wife, children, great grandkids, brothers, sister, nieces, nephews, cousins and neighbors who thought the world of him. He is now with his dad, mom and brother that he missed dearly for years. You will never know the value of a moment until it becomes a memory. Memory is life's sweet gift. What we'd give if we could say hello Dad in the same old way. To hear your voice, see your smile, to sit with you and chat awhile. So while you have a father, cherish him with care for you'll never know the heartache 'til you have a vacant chair. We miss you dad, you were one of a kind.

Miss Tennessee Preliminaries Set for Martin, Huntingdon

Two preliminaries contests for the Miss Tennessee/Miss America scholarship pageants are October 29 in Huntingdon and November 5 in Martin.

Miss UT-Martin, Miss Tennessee Soybean is November 5

Miss University of Tennessee at Martin/Miss Tennessee Soybean Festival Scholarship Pageant officials announced today the 2017 Miss University of Tennessee at Martin/Miss Tennessee Soybean Festival Scholarship Pageant — one pageant, two crowns — will be held on Saturday, November 5 at 7 p.m. in the Harriet Fulton Theatre on the UT Martin Campus.

Executive Director Katrina Cobb said she is impressed with the caliber of this year's contestants.

"We are very pleased with the number of intelligent, ambitious and talented young women who have entered the competition to date," Cobb said. "We encourage other qualified contestants – students and residents of West Tennessee -- to register to participate before the October 24th deadline."

Contestants will compete in five phases of competition, including personal interview, lifestyle and fitness, evening gown, talent and on-stage question. During the competition, each contestant will also discuss her chosen platform, a social or community issue of concern to herself and our society at large.

The winners of the Miss University of Tennessee at Martin and Miss Tennessee Soybean Festival crowns will receive up to $1500 in scholarship funds for her college or graduate school education. The winners will also receive a gift bag from local businesses valued at over $1000. Additional scholarship funds will be awarded along with Miss Congeniality and People's Choice awards.

During their year of service, Miss University of Tennessee at Martin and Miss Tennessee Soybean Festival will speak to business leaders, community groups and others about their platform issues. They will also compete for the title of Miss Tennessee in Jackson in June 2017.

"Miss University of Tennessee at Martin and Miss Tennessee Soybean Festival will not only serve as role models for young women and as ambassadors for the Miss America Organization, they will also urge girls and young women to develop their leadership skills and to take an active role in their communities," said Cobb.

More information about participating in the Miss University of Tennessee at Martin/Miss Tennessee Soybean Festival Scholarship Pageant is available at www.utm.edu/pageants or by contacting Cobb at pageants@utm.edu.

The First Miss Dixie PAC Pageant is October 29

HUNTINGDON — For the first time, The Dixie Carter Performing Arts and Academic Enrichment Center is hosting a scholarship pageant and Miss Tennessee preliminary.

Miss Dixie PAC is Saturday, Oct. 29. The one-day event to select a representative for The Dixie and Huntingdon honors the late Dixie Carter. Special guest, Grace Burgess, Miss Tennessee 2016, will join us as the master of ceremonies for the pageant. Applications to be in the pageant are available on the dixiepac.net website. "Dixie was an exemplary representative of a Southern woman with grace, talent, brains, and beauty," said Lori Neal Nolen, executive director of The Dixie.

"With this title, we look to provide a well-spoken woman a forum in which to share her talents and intelligence through program support in educational efforts and community service."

The late Dixie Carter, a native of McLemoresville, was named Miss Huntingdon and placed first runner-up for the Miss Tennessee crown in 1959. She graduated from Memphis State and made her professional acting debut in a 1960 production of "Carousel" in Memphis. She moved to New York in 1963 where she continued to work on stage.

Carter, however, is best known for portraying Julia Sugarbaker, an opinionated Southern business owner in Atlanta, on the CBS television show "Designing Women," which ran for seven seasons. It wasn't her first time on TV; Carter also earned roles in "On Our Own," "Filthy Rich," and Diff'rent Strokes." In 2007, she scored her first Emmy nomination for her recurring role on the soapy ABC drama "Desperate Housewives."

Carter also had success as a cabaret singer in the 1980s and 90s.

She married actor Hal Holbrook in 1984, and both were instrumental in helping the town of Huntingdon build the first-class performing arts center, which was named in her honor in 2005. Home of the Hal Holbrook Theatre, The Dixie has hosted some of the finest songwriters and musicians in their respective genres, world renowned symphonies, popular plays, and unique children's programs not often found in small town Tennessee.

Tickets for Miss Dixie PAC pageant are $15 each and are available at The Dixie box office in downtown Huntingdon, by calling 731-986-2100, and online at dixiepac.net.

See you at The Dixie!

By Jason Martin
jmartin@mckenziebanner.com

The City of Gleason was awarded a 100% grant for improvements of the sewer system. (L to R): Ted Townsend, Chief Operating Officer for the Department of Economic and Community Development, Diana Poole, Mayor of Gleason, Tony Terrell, Director of Gleason Water and Sewer, and Governor Bill Haslam.

GLEASON (October 13) — During the regular monthly meeting of the Gleason City Board, Mayor Diana Poole and Tony Terrell of the Public Works Department informed the board of the 100% grant the city received from the state. The grant totally $223,511 is for improvements of the city's sewer lagoon. The improvements are to begin in the following week and should be completed at the beginning of 2017.

The grant originated from the Department of Economic and Community Development. This is the last year for 100% grants to be issued by the state.

"I am extremely proud of Gleason and felt honored to have the chance to represent the city in Nashville," remarked Mayor Poole on her trip to Nashville with Terrell to receive the symbolic check. The mayor continued, "I am also proud of our board along with Dale (Stephens) and Tony (Terrell) for all they have done in letting everyone know that it (repairs/improvements) needed to be done. I also encouraged the governor to help in recruiting industry to Gleason and Northwest Tenn."

In other business, Bill Yates of the Police Department informed the board of the possibility of 100% grant from the Department of Justice. The possible $15,000 grant would go towards replacing outdated vests and aged radios. The first portion of the grant application must be completed by November 1 and the second by November 18.

Following a recommendation from the Parks and Recreation Board, the alderman and mayor agreed to the hiring of Billy Borneman and Chad Brawner. Responsibilities along with pay will be divided between Borneman and Brawner.

Gleason's public library filed a report of collecting over $600 in donations through a road block fundraiser. The money is going toward a matching technology grant for new equipment in the library.

With no community grievances/concerns or new business the meeting adjourned after 25 minutes.

Kimberly Faye, a 2005 graduate of McKenzie High School and Judicial Administrative Assistant and Law Clerk to the Honorable Frank G. Clement Jr-Tennessee Court of Appeals, was recently selected as a Nashville Top 30 Under 30 honoree.

The Middle Tennessee Chapter of CFF released a listing of 30 business professionals including Kimberly they believe have made significant impacts in their community through leadership and volunteer work.

Kimberly Faye is the daughter of Chuck and Cindy Gaskins of McKenzie, Tenn.

On April 7, 2017 Kimberly, along with their colleagues, friends, and families, will gather to celebrate one another's accomplishments at the newly renovated Sheraton Hotel.

After graduating from McKenzie High School, Kimberly went on to receive a Bachelor of Science degree in 2008 from Middle Tennessee State University and Juris Doctor Degree from Nashville School of Law in 2015.

Kimberly is a member of the Nashville Bar Association; Tennessee Bar Association; Tennessee Association for Justice; Harry Phillips American Inn for Courts; and Lawyer's Association for Women-Marion Griffin Chapter.

As a member of Nashville's Top 30 Under 30, Kimberly will be campaigning to raise money for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Close to 90 cents of every dollar donated will go towards researching a cure for cystic fibrosis, care services and educational programs. Those interested in helping Kimberly or any other members of Nashville's Top 30 Under 30 reach their goal can do so by visiting the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation – Tennessee Chapter website. Visitors can simply donate via the website or help by purchasing a ticket to the Nashville 30 Under 30 gala.

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation was founded in 1955 with the mission of supporting research and education over the genetic disease. Cystic fibrosis attacks the lungs and digestive system and affects about 30,000 children and adults in the United States. More than half of the patients suffering from cystic fibrosis are diagnosed with the disease by age two. Prior the establishment of the CFF children diagnosed with cystic fibrosis rarely lived long enough to attend elementary school. Thanks to the efforts of organizations like CFF and their supporters, many who have been diagnosed with cystic fibrosis are living well into their 30's and 40's.

State Graduation Rate Hits New High

NASHVILLE (October 11) — Education Commissioner Candice McQueen announced Tuesday that the 2015-16 graduation rate of 88.5 percent is the highest on record since the state changed to a more rigorous calculation of graduation rates in 2011.

The latest statewide graduation rate was up nearly a full percentage point since last year and overall has increased three percentage points since the state implemented the more rigorous calculations. This year, nearly 60 percent of districts saw their graduation rates increase or stay the same when compared to last year's rates.

"Our schools and districts should be proud of the work they have done to support students on their journeys to and beyond high school graduation," McQueen said. "High school graduation is a critical step in allowing students to embark on their chosen paths in life. However, as more Tennessee students are earning their diplomas, we must ensure that they are all leaving with the knowledge and skills to be successful in college and the workforce."

Over the past few years, Tennessee has been raising expectations for both students and educators, and the state has seen significant gains as a result. These outcomes, including increases in graduation rates, are a testament to the work being done in schools across the state. The most notable gains and overall achievements are:

12 districts improved their graduation rates by five percentage points or more. The districts with the most significant gains were Alvin C. York (18.1 percent), Tullahoma City (11.6 percent), Trenton Special School District (11.1 percent), and Grundy County (10 percent).

95 districts—over 70 percent of the districts in the state—have graduation rates at or above 90 percent, up from 81 districts last year. Fentress County, Alcoa City, South Carroll Special School District, Milan Special School District, Meigs County, and Crockett County all had graduation rates at or above 99 percent.

76 districts—roughly 60 percent of districts in the state—had graduation rates at or above 90 percent for both 2014-15 and 2015-16.

More information, such as graduation rates for individual subgroups, will be available on the State Report Card, which will be released later this fall.

For individual district data, please reach out to your local school district. For media inquiries, please contact Sara Gast at (615) 532-6260 or Sara.Gast@tn.gov.

Bethel's only score in the first stanza was a 37-yard field goal by Casey Kammerzell.

The Wildcats answered in the second quarter with a program-record 42 points and outscored CU in the quarter 42-7 to take a 45-26 lead at halftime.

Highlighting the scoring in the second frame were two touchdowns by Bethel's Devan Raymer. The first was on a one-yard run followed by a 24-yard touchdown pass reception from Kerry Sellers II. The second touchdown by Raymer was set up after the Cats received a gift in a muffed kick-off return by the Tigers. That score cut the Wildcat deficit to 19-17 with 7:11 left in the half.

CU's Wade Holtsclaw responded by scoring on an eight-yard pass play from Hunter Brown as the Tigers led 26-17 with 6:07 left.

What followed was an avalanche of points by the Wildcats. The Cats answered the CU score with Sellers hitting Quincy Walden on a 26-yard pass allowing Bethel to pull to within 26-24. Another muff by the return unit of the Tigers gave the Wildcats a short field. Sellers found Walden again, this time from 35 yards out and the Wildcats took their first lead at 31-26 with 4:08 remaining in the first half. Bethel wasn't finished as Huntingdon product Logan Diebold powered to paydirt via two-yard run and the Wildcats led, 38-26. It appeared that would be the score at the break but Walden returned a punt 61yards for a touchdown with 13 seconds left and Bethel had the 45-26 halftime lead.

The Wildcats came out on fire again in the second half scoring touchdowns on a Sellers strike to Breon Melvin from 24 yards out, followed by a Bobby Wright one-yard plunge to give the Cats a commanding 33-point lead at 59-26. Bethel scored on seven straight possessions, but did not score again for the rest of the game.

CU's defense came alive and on the next five possessions and stopped the Wildcats by forcing a punt or picking up a turnover. Rejuvenated, the Tiger offensive unit scored on four of its next five possessions.

Holtsclaw started the rally with a remarkable catch for a 14-yard TD to spark the Tigers with the first of 27 unanswered points.

After both squads traded turnovers it was Campbellsville who answered as Tyus Alcorn grabbed his second TD – a 35-yarder from Brown - cutting Bethel's lead to 19 points, 59-40.

Brown rushed for a one -yard TD with 10:20 left, cutting the score to 13, 59-46.

Holtsclaw's second touchdown reception – a four-yarder — cut the Bethel lead to six, 59-53.

Bethel failed to sustain a drive again and Campbellsville took over driving the ball inside

McKENZIE (October 14) — After an extra week off for recovery and preparation, the Rebels looked to put an end to their downward spiral. Instead of picking up a district win against the 1-6 Jackson Christian (JCS) Eagles, the Rebels were defeated 44-27 in a night of fog, flags and miscues.

JCS took the opening kick after winning the coin toss. Starting near mid-field, the Eagles crossed into Rebel territory and drew first blood as Ethan Bartel booted a 28-yard field goal. With 8:16 left the play in the first quarter, JCS led 3-0.

McKenzie was unable to respond. Shortly after crossing the 50 yard line Tyler Spivey fumbled the ball. It was recovered

CLARKSVILLE (October 14) — In Region 6 1A high school football action, the state's tenth-ranked Huntingdon Mustangs (6-1 overall, 5-0 region), led by the offensive production of Zach Dodson (three rushes for 114 yards, touchdown scampers of 57 and 18 yards, 41-yard touchdown pass reception), Dylan Johnson (nine rushes for 101 yards, touchdown carries of eight and five yards), ATWOOD (October 14) — West Carroll hosted the Humboldt Vikings Friday night in a region contest. After giving up two quick touchdowns, the War Eagles played the Vikings tough for a stretch before eventually succumbing to penalties and big plays. As dense fog descended on the field, the game slipped away and Humboldt claimed the victory, 43-8.

Humboldt won the coin toss and elected to take the first possession. Quarterback Izaya Brown ran for a first down, and runningback Joseph Cook was stifled twice before breaking away for a 60-yard touchdown. The PAT was good, and the Vikings quickly led, 7-0.

Starting deep, West Carroll was called for holding on the first snap. Jeremiah Bryant ran for nine, then Patrick Becker took it another eight to bring up a manageable third down.

by JCS's Zach Simpson for a 50-yard touchdown. Bartel added the PAT as the Eagles increased their lead 10-0 at the 6:57 mark in the opening quarter.

The Rebels were quick to rebound from the turnover. Starting at their 35 yard line, Eric Robinson found running room and busted free for a 65-yard touchdown. Lucas Waddell's extra point was good as McKenzie cut into the JCS lead 10-7 with 6:45 left to play in the first quarter.

The Eagles next drive showed potential but was stalled as Zach Sadler, Bransen McCaleb and Julius Owens each came away with big stops. On fourth-and-long from the 20 yard line, Bartel came in to attempt a 37-yard field goal. The kick was no good and the Rebel offensive was back in control.

McKenzie marched 80 yards on the ensuing drive for their second score. Robinson and Joseph Miller teamed up for the ground attack. JCS donated 25 yards after two back-to-back offsides penalties and an unsportsman like conduct call on their sideline. As a holding penalty looked to hamper the drive, Zach Jarrett guided the air assault hitting Sean Beck for 26 yards and the first down.

Crossing into the red zone, Miller finished the drive crossing the goal like on first-and-goal. The PAT was no good, but the Rebels took the lead 13-10 over the Eagles with 7:26 left to play in the second quarter.

The McKenzie lead was short lived. JCS started at their 47 yard line and scored to end the first half. The drive consisted of four first downs coming from a balanced attack.

Luke Robertson and Will Buehler led the way. Buehler completed four passes two of which were caught by Hayden Love averaging 11.5 yards apiece. Multiple penalties called on the Rebels hurt the chance of a defensive stop. Buehler added the final points of the quarter from eight yards.

Unable to find an open receiver, Buehler tucked the ball away and ran up the right side unscathed. Bartel's kick banged off the uprights in a failed PAT. JCS regained the lead 16-13 with 42 seconds remaining in the half.

McKenzie looked to score before the closing of the half. Jarrett completed a five yard pass to Spivey and 44-yard bomb to Cameron Rawls. As time ticked away, the Rebels were forced to attempt a 42-yard field goal, but to no avail as the kick came up short.

The second half opened with a light fog rolling into the confines of the stadium increasing the slickness of the field and ball.

The Rebels took the field with a renewed vigor and ferociousness. Robinson took the ball from the Rebel 38 yard line, and in eight plays beat and banged his way down the field giving McKenzie the lead. Waddell's kick was good with 8:37 left on the clock in the third quarter the Rebels led the Eagles 20-16.

JCS was unable to move the ball with much success as the Rebel defense stood strong and an Eagle holding penalty killed the drive. Gunnar Lewis came on the field to punt for JCS. The punt took an Eagle bounce rolling end-over-end for 30 plus yards totally the kick out at 53 yards.

As the fog thickened the Rebels began to struggle. McKenzie went three-and-out on their next drive. The next offensive series for the Rebels ended in a turnover in the red zone.

Looking at second-and-five, McKenzie kept it on the ground. Miller attempted to pick up the first down but was unable to hang on to the slippery pigskin. The Eagles recovered and took over deep within JCS territory.

Three plays later, JCS took the lead back and held it for the remainder of the game. Rufus Whitmore broke his first of three long touchdown runs of the night. Touchdown number one was from 54 yards out and Bartel added the extra point. The new score was 23-20 with 10:25 left in the game.

Trying to retake the lead, McKenzie was hit with a holding penalty forcing the Rebels into passing situation. Jarrett was intercepted by Hayden Love.

Starting from their 40 yard line, JCS only needed one play to find the end zone. Whitmore's number was called, and he took it to the house for 60 yards and the TD. The extra point was good, and JCS was up 30-20.

A highly questionable chop-block and a sack stalled the Rebel drive as they turned the ball over on downs.

Whitmore scored his third long TD of the night from 61 yards out. The Eagles led 37-20 with 5:27 left to play after Bartel's PAT.

Waddell's kick return put the Rebels at mid-field. Jarrett's arm led the Rebels downfield with nine consecutive pass attempts and seven completions. Looking at second-and-goal from the five yard line, the Rebels failed to complete the pass. At the end of the play, the back judge blew his whistle and threw the dreaded yellow flag. Fortunately for the Rebels, the official had all he could take from an obnoxious fan from behind the end zone and had the individual removed.

With no foul on the offense, the Rebels looked to capitalize on third-and-goal. Jarrett hit Donavon Foley for three yards and the TD. Waddell added the extra point. With 3:38 left to play, McKenzie trailed 37-27.

As time dwindled away, JCS would score again with 1:44 left on the clock. From seven yards out on a quarterback keeper, Buehler was in for his second TD of the night. The PAT was good as JCS capped the score at 44-27.

The Rebels elected to run the clock out as substitutions were made by both teams. Bryston Diggs took over the running responsibilities as the game ended.

Final statistics were fairly even. The Rebels ran 72 plays to the Eagles' 63. McKenzie led in total yards 407 to 375. JCS out rushed McKenzie 294 to 241, but McKenzie was on top in passing yards with 166 to 81.

For the Rebels, Robinson had 227 grounds on the ground and 10 yards receiving. Jarrett was 16 for 27 in passing with one TD and one interception. Rawls had two catches for 40 yards, Waddell had a pair of catches of 38 yards and Foley had four for 34 yards.

The leading rusher for the Eagles was Rufus Whitmore with five carries for 214 yards and three TDs.

Defensively, Paul Watkins and Julius Owens led with five tackles with Waddell and Beck at four each. Owens and Beck recorded the Rebel sacks.

Turnovers and penalties were the enemy of the Rebels once again. The Rebels turned the ball over three times. On penalties, McKenzie was flagged 11 times for 145 yards, and JCS was penalized eight times for 80 yards.

With one district win and two district games remaining the Rebels find themselves between a rock and hard place looking towards a playoff berth. Next week the Rebels are home against the Riverside Panthers for Senior Night. Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

War Eagles

...From Sports Front

Unfortunately, the next play resulted in a fumble, recovered by Humboldt.

Brown kept the first snap for a 24-yard touchdown. Another good point-after kick gave the Vikings a 14-0 lead with 8:01 remaining in the first frame.

Becker picked up the ensuing kickoff near the 11 and returned it to the 26. Bryant took the handoff on first down and broke five tackles en route to a 74-yard touchdown. Tristen Fuller ran in for the two-point conversion, and the Viking lead was cut to 14-8.

Humboldt started at the 34, and Cook ran to near midfield. Brown kept, but was caught in the backfield by Fuller for a loss of four yards. He tried again but met Blake Davidson and a host of War Eagles. He took to the air on third down for a big first-down completion, then handed off to Cook for five. Brown kept for another first down, then kept again for an 18-yard touchdown. Another PAT made the score 21-8 near the end of the first quarter.

West Carroll started the next drive with good position at the 35. Becker ran for 12, then P.J. Odom picked up nine. Tristen Fuller was stopped for no gain, then quarterback Trace Fuller kept the ball to dive for the first down. Tristen ran for seven, then Odom for five and another first. Trace threw to Chris Shear for a short gain, then Tristen was stopped for no gain as the quarter ended. Bryant lost a few yards to start the second frame, bringing up fourth-and-11 at the Viking 29. Becker managed just five yards, and Humboldt took over on downs.

Brown passed to Terrell Champion near the sideline, who then went 76 yards for another score. The PAT was good, and Humboldt led, 28-8, with 10:45 left in the half.

Starting at the 28, Tristen ran for a short gain, then Bryant for a short loss. Trace threw to Tristen for a gain of eight, then Tristen took the direct snap to lunge forward for the first down. Odom was stopped for no gain, then Trace threw across to Becker for a loss. The same play gained eleven, but it was then fourth-and-five. West Carroll faked the punt, and Tristen moved the chains. Trace fielded a high snap, but was sacked for a huge loss. One direct snap to Bryant made no gain, but the next netted eight yards. Still facing fourth-and-long, Becker punted away.

Cook ran for five, then Brown threw incomplete. The quarterback kept for a good gain, but a flag for holding negated the play. Brown gained just five on the retry, and Humboldt punted for the first time in the game.

With time winding down in the half, Bryant ran for a short gain, then Odom picked up the first down. Tristen lost a yard, then Trace completed a pass to Caleb Matlock, who also lost a yard. Next, Trace threw to near the goal line, but the pass was picked off by a Humboldt defender.

Brown kept it to run it out of his own end zone, then passed to Kenneth Champion, Jr., for a big gain as the half came to an end.

West Carroll received the second-half kickoff, a squib to Shear at the War Eagle 40. Becker lost a pair, the Tristen picked up three. Trace's third-down pass was incomplete, and Becker punted.

Cook ran for five, then Jaylon Stewart picked up the first down and crossed midfield. Randy Pirtle made a large gain, but a holding penalty set the Vikings back. Stewart gained a few, then Pirtle lost a pair. A fumble on third down forced Humboldt to punt. The kick was tipped by West Carroll and grabbed by Humboldt, leading to a long conference by the referees. Eventually, the ball was awarded to the War Eagles at their own 45.

Tristen gained four, then another 13 to move the chains. He gained another pair, then lost it. Trace made incomplete passes on third and fourth down, and the Vikings took over.

Brown kept on first down and was swarmed in the backfield by Colin Simmons and a host of War Eagles. Cook tried next and pushed his way to the original line of scrimmage. Brown kept for 18 yards and first, then Cook gained five into the red zone. Stewart gained eight to bring up first-and-goal, then Pirtle was stopped for no gain by Simmons and Logan Chrisman. Cook ran again, and Becker made the stop at the 1. West Carroll was penalized on the next snap to move the ball inches from the goal line. Then, Humboldt fumbled and Simmons made the recovery for West Carroll.

Starting at the 2, Trace kept for a short gain, and a face mask penalty against the Vikings moved the ball to the 9. He kept again for a yard as the third quarter ended. Becker lost a pair to start the final frame, then Trace kept for four. The quarterback then completed a pass to Bryant, and a late hit by Humboldt added bonus yards. Tristen ran twice to move the chains and cross midfield, then Bryant took a pair of handoffs for another first down. Odom lost three yards, then Trace threw to Matlock for five. He threw again on third and fourth, both incomplete, and Humboldt took over on downs at the 25.

Brown kept on first down, stuffed at the line by Chrisman, Davidson, and a host of War Eagles. Then, Cook found a hole, breaking away for a 75-yard touchdown. Brown completed the two-point pass attempt, and the Vikings led, 36-8 with seven minutes left in the contest.

The thick fog gave Becker trouble locating the ensuing kickoff, but he recovered to make a great return. Unfortunately, a penalty set the War Eagles back at the 20 to start. Odom ran for a pair, then Trace was hit hard in the backfield and fumbled the ball away.

Viking Keyshawn Stewart ran for five down to the 1, then punched it in on the next snap. The PAT was good, and Humboldt's lead was 43-8 with 5:11 left in the game.

The Vikings attempted an onside kick, but West Carroll made the recovery at midfield. Freshman quarterback Zach Hardin took over under center. Twice, he had trouble with the snap and lost significant yardage. He kept on third down for no gain, and Becker punted away with just over a minute left.

Viking Michael Brown ran for a 57-yard touchdown, but a holding penalty negated the play. Time expired before another snap.

West Carroll was led offensively by Jeremiah Bryant with ten carries for 98 yards and a touchdown. Tristen Fuller rushed 14 times for 68 yards. P.J. Odom ran six times for 30 yards, and Patrick Becker carried four times for 25 yards. Quarterback Trace Fuller was five for 12 passing for a net loss.

Logan Chrisman and Blake Davidson led the War Eagle defense with seven tackles each; Chris Shear had six takedowns.

The War Eagles will travel to Greenfield Friday. Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

Mustangs

Kade Pearson (six of 10 pass completions for 153 yards including scoring strikes of 41 and 29 yards), Brandon Lawton (31 yard scoring rush) and Keeton Bailey (29-yard touchdown reception), amassed 509 total yards offensively to rout the young but scrappy Clarksville Academy Cougars (1-6), 49-0.

Huntingdon was led defensively by the aggressive tackling of Marvaughn McClerkin, Kade Pearson, Bryce Johnson, Austin Avery, Clay Carver, and Michael Arnhold.

Huntingdon won the opening kickoff and elected to receive. Dodson returned Cougar Nick Whitlow's game-opening boot from the 19 to the Mustang 43. Following a pass drop by Johnson, Dodson, healthy after sustaining a pre-season back injury, exhibited his trademark speed and elusiveness as shook tackles and spun through missed tackles to score from 57 yards out at the 11:40 mark of the first frame. Tyree Mebane raced left side to add the two-point conversion as Huntingdon led early, 8-0.

On the ensuing kickoff, Hodo's deep boot was caught by Cougar Garrett Bauer at the 4 and was brought down by Mebane at the 11. Employing the spread offense, Cougar quarterback handed off to tailback Bauer as the big back moved the chains at the C.A. 21. Bracey then battled inside for a gain of four before being brought down by Bryce Johnson. Bracey was then tackled by McClerkin for no gain and Robinson overthrew his open receiver as the Cougars 42-yard punt was downed at the Huntingdon 33.

On the first play of the next drive, Mustang quarterback Pearson fired a strike to Keeton Bailey for a 67-yard touchdown. The score, however, was blanked via an illegal receiver downfield penalty that moved the ball back to the Huntingdon 28. On the next play, Huntingdon's fumble was recovered by the Cougars on their 28.

Ramping up defensively, Huntingdon coupled no-gain tackles of Bragg by Arnhold McClerkin and pass pressured incompletion by Robinson to force the Cougars to gamble on fourth and 15. Rolling right in the pocket, Robinson attempted a screen pass that was deflected incomplete as the ball was turned over to the Mustangs at their own 33.

Exploding through a gap in the offensive line, Johnson veered right side and raced across midfield to the Cougar 26 for a gain of 33 yards. Taking to the air, Pearson completed a strike to Bailey to bring up first and goal at the 7. Responding, Cougar defensive lineman Will Lankford stormed into the backfield and tackled Dodson for a loss of four. On third and 13, Dodson pounced on a high-snap fumble back at the Cougar 25. On fourth and goal at the 25, Pearson fired a completion to brother Kelby Pearson at the six as the ball was turned over on downs.

Following a three yard gain by Bragg and fumble recovery by Robinson, Bragg was stopped for no gain by Austin Avery as Cougar Eli Norman's punt from the back of his end zone sailed 47 yards and was downed at the Mustang 48.

Johnson fought for a gain of one before ripping an 18-yard gain to the Cougar 33. Two plays later, a face mask penalty against C.A. during a sack of Pearson moved the ball to 23. Racing right side, Johnson darted to the 9 before racing left side to score. Orry Hodo's kick was good as Huntingdon led Clarksville Academy at the end of the first quarter, 15-0.

Following Hodo's booming touchback kickoff, Kelby Pearson and Clay Carver shut down the Cougars as Norman's 35-yard spiral was downed at the Huntingdon 43. Johnson then bolted right side to the Cougar 33 with a personal foul against C.A. at the end of the play moving the ball to the 18. Jetting around left end, Dodson employed "shake and bake rushing" to weave 18 yards to paydirt at the 10:10 mark of the second stanza. Hodo's PAT boot split the uprights as Huntingdon grew its lead to 23-0.

Huntingdon's defense continued to clamp down on the Cougars as Norman's punt was returned by Bailey from the Mustang 32 to 42. Taking the deep snap, Kade Pearson powered across midfield for a gain of 32 to the Cougar 28. At the 8:06 mark of the second canto, Pearson finished the drive with a pinpoint scoring pass to Bailey down the right side line. Hodo's Pat kick was good as Huntingdon expanded its lead over Clarksville Academy, 30-0.

Continuing to win their battles up front, Mustang's Carver and McClerkin forced the Cougars to punt as Bailey fair-caught Norman's punt at the Mustang 34. A penalty at the end of the play moved the ball back to the Huntingdon 24.

On the ensuing play, Pearson fired a 22-yard chain-mover right side to Amarion Gordon at the Huntingdon 46. As Huntingdon's offensive line took control, Dodson weaved for a gain of 13 to the C.A. 41. A helmet-to-helmet, "spearing" penalty after the play against the Cougars moved the ball to the C.A. 24. Continuing to impress, Pearson fired a first down strike to Bailey via slant pattern at the five. At the 4:32 mark of the second quarter, Johnson scored up the middle. Hodo's PAT kick was no good as Huntingdon's lead grew to 36-0.

Down but determined, C.A. moved the chains via 24-yard keeper by Robinson before consecutive tackles by McClerkin and an open field tackle of Robinson by Travious Gordon forced C.A. to gamble on fourth and four from the Mustang 43. Rolling right in the pocket, Robinson fired a pass incomplete right side as Huntingdon took over on downs at the 2:04 mark.

Responding immediately, Dodson raced 22 yards via sweep to the Cougar 41. With 1:41 remaining in the first half, Huntingdon punctuated its dominating second frame as Dodson snared the pass by Pearson and made tacklers miss en route to a 41-yard score. Hodo's PAT was no good as Huntingdon led the Cougars at the break, 42-0.

Going with reserves the entire second half, Huntingdon notched a 31-yard yard touchdown rush by quarterback Brandon Lawton and threatened to score inside the five before the running clock expired and Huntingdon celebrated its dominating, 49-0 road thrashing of Clarksville Academy.

This Friday night, the Mustangs celebrate Senior Night by hosting the fourth-ranked and undefeated nemesis Wayne County (8-0) in a crucial, 6 1A battle. Kickoff at Paul Ward Stadium is 7:00 p.m.

Wildcat Football Rises to 16th

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI (October 17) — Defending national champion Marian (Indiana) holds the No. 1 ranking in the sixth regular-season edition of the NAIA Football Coaches' Top 25 Poll, the national office announced Monday. The Knights collected all 14 first-place votes and 314 total points, and have been the unanimous top choice all season. The Bethel University Wildcats moved up two slots to No. 16 in the poll.

The Wildcats remained unbeaten on the season with a 59-53 win at Campbellsville University in Campbellsville, Kentucky this past Saturday. The Cats spoiled Homecoming festivities for the home crowd with the victory and moved their record to 7-0 and 1-0 in the Mid-South Conference.

CU outgained Bethel in total offense at 639 to 577. CU had 556 passing yards but Bethel dominated on the ground at 291-83.

Devan Raymer finished with a game high 135 rushing yards putting him fourth on Bethel's all-time career rushing list. Kerry Sellers II wound up with 92 rushing yards along with four touchdowns passes.

Bethel's Jocquise Upton had five receptions followed by Quincy Walden with four. Walden also had a 61-yard punt return for a touchdown.

Jeremy Beaulieu led Bethel with twelve total tackles and a key interception. Joshua Burns also picked off a Brown pass which proved to be huge for the Wildcat defense. Karrheem Darrington had seven total stops for the Wildcats.

Bethel's Beaulieu (Defense), Sellers (Offense), and Walden (Special Teams) were named as Mid-South Conference West Division Football Players of the Week.

For a second-straight week, No. 16 Bethel (7-0) is the only unbeaten team not ranked in the top 10 – Marian (7-0), Baker (7-0), Reinhardt (7-0) and Lindsey Wilson (8-0) are the others. The Wildcats, who broke into the Top 25 on Sept. 26, face Faulkner (Alabama) on Saturday. Arguably the toughest portion of Bethel's schedule is still looming, as the Wildcats travel to Lindsey Wilson on Nov. 5 and host Reinhardt in the regular-season finale on Nov. 12.

the Bethel forty but eventually came up short when Brown failed to connect on a fourth and 15 from the Bethel 37-yard line missing an open receiver in the end zone. The Wildcats took over and after two first downs escaped with the dramatic win.

CU outgained Bethel in total offense at 639 to 577. CU had 556 passing yards but Bethel dominated on the ground at 291-83.

Raymer finished with a game high 135 rushing yards putting him fourth on Bethel's all-time career rushing list. Sellers wound up with 92 rushing yards along with four touchdowns passes.

Bethel's Jocquise Upton had five receptions followed by Walden with four.

Brown finished connecting on 36 of his 67 attempts for CU.

Jeremy Beaulieu led Bethel with twelve total tackles and a key interception. Joshua Burns also picked off a Brown pass which proved to be huge for the Wildcat defense. Karrheem Darrington had seven total stops for the Wildcats.

Coach Chris Elliott was pleased with the win but said his team has to start and finish with more consistent play. "We played really well in the second quarter and parts of the third but we are flirting with danger with mistakes we are making. Seventeen penalties for 152 yards is unacceptable. We are pleased to get out of here with this win in what turned out to be a crazy affair. We had 96 snaps and scored 59 points and had to hold on to win. We will take it at this point but know we have to get back to work. It will be good getting back home for the first time in a month."

The Cats return home for the first time in four weeks hosting Faulkner Saturday at Wildcat Stadium. The Homecoming game begins at 1:30 p.m.

Chamber Promotes County's Outdoor Attractions

Carroll County has long been known to outdoorsmen as a great area for hunting game, but lately, the county became known for many other outdoor activities as well. With the development of the Carroll County 1000-Acre Recreation Lake, pastimes like fishing, swimming and boating have grown in popularity among visitors to the county. The Carroll County Shooting Sports Park is also drawing new visitors to the county for tournaments and other activities not found in the surrounding counties.

Promoting tourism in Carroll County is one of the missions of the Chamber of Commerce. President Brad Hurley stated, "We recognize that some of our best attractions can be found outdoors, and we want to make visitors to our area aware of that as well. This is why we have created a new rack card that promotes many of the non-profit outdoor venues in Carroll County."

The cards feature images of the 1000 Acre Lake, the Shooting Sports Park and TWRA Carroll Lake. It also provides a brief description of each entity and a location map.

"We will be distributing these cards in rest stops along I-40 and at other locations throughout the area to better promote all of Carroll County's outdoor offerings."

Anyone wanting cards for distribution can contact the Chamber office at 731-986-4664.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

McKenzie Police Reports

Driving on suspended / revoked license — According to a report file by MPD Patrolman Mark Boaz, on October 13 at around 2:00 a.m., the officer was on patrol going north of Cedar Street nearing the intersection of Cedar Street and Highland Drive when he observed a black vehicle parked at Cornerstone gas station. Turning around, the officer logged the vehicle and noticed that it was unoccupied. After checking to see if someone was inside or near the vehicle, the officer observed someone inside the gas station. Tapping on the window, the officer asked the person inside the store, identified as Kayla Wilbanks, if the vehicle belonged to her and she stated that she was test-driving the vehicle and was in the process of purchasing the car. Upon requesting Wilbanks' driver license, the subject stated that she did not have them. Dispatch then informed the officer that Wilbanks' license was suspended. The officer then informed Wilbanks that he was not going to write a citation for driving on suspended because he had not seen her operating the vehicle but that she needed someone to pick her up and drive her home. Shortly thereafter, a white-colored, 2007 Toyota Yaris driven by Cainan Thomas Copeland, 23, Hillview Apartments, McKenzie, arrived to pick up Wilbanks. The officer then ran Copeland's license and discovered that they were revoked. At that time, Copeland was issued a citation for said offense. A passenger in the Copeland vehicle, determined to possess a valid driver license, was allowed to move Wilbanks' vehicle and drive all involved home.

Driving on suspended / revoked driver license / speeding / financial responsibility — According to a report filed by MPD Patrolman Cody Coleman, on October 15 at approximately 3:00 a.m., the officer was sitting in his patrol vehicle on Highland Drive across from Tri-County Motors running radar when the radar gun detected a vehicle approaching town traveling at 55 mph in a 40 mph speed zone. At that time, the officer performed a traffic stop of a silver-colored, 2007 Chrysler 300 registered to Megan Hoffman, Woodrow Avenue, McKenzie. Stopping the vehicle, the officer requested the driver license and insurance of the driver, identified as Ledabria D. Aldridge, 25, Halliburton Street, Trenton. An NCIC computer check revealed that Aldridge's driver license was revoked for failure to satisfy a citation in Madison County. Upon requesting proof of insurance for the vehicle, the passenger, identified as Sharie M. Kalis, stated that she did not have proof of insurance because the vehicle belonged to her mother. Kalis was advised to drive the vehicle because her license was valid. Aldridge was then cited into Carroll County General Sessions Court for the listed offenses and her driver license was seized due to its being revoked.

Edlin, Varnell, 1971 Basketball Team to be Inducted

By Dave McCulley
Bethel University Sports Information Director

MCKENZIE (October 3) — Bethel University will honor two former athletic greats and one outstanding former team with inductions into the prestigious Bethel Athletic Hall of Fame Friday night, October 21 , 2016. The Alumni Awards and Athletic Hall of Fame Inductions is in the Vera Low Center for Student Enrichment, Crisp Wing. The event begins at 6 p.m. with reservations required.

The 2016 inductees are: Chris Edlin (1985)-Golf; Lon Varnell -Men's Basketball; and the1970-1971 Men's Basketball Team.

Prior to this year, eighty-one people and one team had been enshrined into the hall. The 2008 National Championship soccer team was the first team to be inducted at the 2013 ceremonies.

Here is a look at the 2016 Hall of Fame Class:

Chris Edlin played four years of varsity golf at Bethel College from 1981-1984. Chris graduated from McKenzie High School in 1980 after leading the Rebel squad to the district championship his senior year. Recruited by Bethel Coach and Hall of Famer Jerry Wilcoxson, Edlin was known as a consistent performer for the Wildcats, averaging 79.1 for four years on challenging courses. The Wildcat golf teams had a 26-11 overall record during his career as well as impressive showings in VSAC and NAIA District 24 competitions.

As a sophomore, Chris shot an impressive round of 69 against Rhodes College at Fox Meadows Golf Course in Memphis, taking medalist honors and leading the team to an impressive team total of 291. The victory total remains one of the lowest in Bethel Golf history (1982). He earned NAIA All-District 24 honors the following season and received the Most Improved Bethel Golfer Award. As a senior, Edlin was named team captain and was low medalist in four of the five matches during the season. The squad finished 7-2 on the year with Edlin having the low stroke average for the team. He was named the 1985 Rotary Club Bethel College Athlete of the Year.

An all-around athlete, Edlin was an avid 5-Kilometer runner and amateur boxer while attending Bethel. He won the West Tennessee Golden Gloves Bantamweight Championship prior to graduating from Bethel in 1985. He was named Golden Gloves Outstanding Boxer in 1985 and 1989.

He was inducted unto the Carroll County Sports Hall of Fame in 2015. He was Ringside Masters World Boxing Champion runner-up in 2010 at the age of 48. He captured a Masters National Boxing title that year in the Lightweight Division. He was again World Boxing champion runner-up in 2015 at the age of 53. In 2013, Chris was the Tennessee State Senior Olympic 400-Meter Champion in the 50-54 age division. In 2015 he won the 50-Meter Senior Olympic State Championship Sprint.

He has been instrumental in the success of the UTM Pike Fights, refereeing and officiating the event for 27 years. He is licensed by the Tennessee Athletic Commission as a professional boxing referee.

Chris resides in McKenzie and has two daughters, Rachel and Rebekah. He has one grandson, Easton Edlin. He serves as a youth services officer for the Carroll County Juvenile Court.

Lon Varnell was a native of Adamsville. He played baseball, football and basketball at Freed-Hardeman College while majoring in English and Religious Education. After graduating from Freed, he began his teaching and coaching career at Shiloh and Saltillo high schools. An innovative coach, he was the first to use the hook shot and the 2-3 zone defense.

In 1940, Lon came to Bethel to coach and finish his last two years of college work. His first Bethel squad posted a 27-4 record. When the school dropped athletics because of the war, Varnell coached at McKenzie High School.

In 1944, the "Baron of the Bluegrass", Adolph Rupp, invited Varnell to work with him at the University of Kentucky. There he helped recruit one of Kentucky's fabled teams, "The Fabulous Five."

Bethel re-instated athletics following the end of the war and Varnell returned to coach basketball and baseball. The basketball team lost only one game while his baseball team went undefeated.

Varnell became head basketball and assistant football coach at the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee in 1948. Coach Rupp recommended him for the job stating, "Next to me, Lon Varnell is the best coach in America."

Varnell coached at the University of the South for 22 years, winning 58-percent of his games while playing DI and DII schools as well as conference foes.

In 1948, he began working with the Harlem Globetrotters as a promoter and advance man. He traveled worldwide with them and was instrumental in opening doors for the team to play in the South.

Lon set up a fall baseball tour in the mid 1950's with two teams of black big league players who barnstormed throughout the South...Players included Willie Mays, Hank Aaron, Don Newcombe, Joe Black, Ernie Banks, Roy Campanella, etc.

In 1951, his University of the South team won 53 of 57 games played on a tour of Europe and North Africa. They won the World Tournament in Geneva, Switzerland.

Five Rhodes Scholars played on his teams as well as several outstanding coaches including former Kentucky coaching great, Joe B. Hall.

Sports Illustrated magazine described Varnell in February 1969 as "a legend in his own time-a coach, a Methodist minister, coal mine operator, car dealer, political manager, hardware store owner and promoter of entertainment."

Upon his retirement from coaching in 1970, he established Varnell Enterprises at Nashville, an agency that would be recognized as one of the top entertainment promoters in the country. Stating that victory is in the struggle, not in the gold medal that hangs around your neck, Varnell said, "You can make a success sure by effort, sacrifice, enthusiasm, unselfishness, and self-control. You are the master of your own destiny."

In the worlds of sports and entertainment, Lon Varnell was certainly a master of his own destiny and a victorious leader.

Varnell was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall-of-Fame in 1973 and served as its president in 1977. He passed away in 1991.

1970-1971 Men's Basketball Team –The Bethel Wildcat Men's 1970-1971 Basketball Team remains to this day one of the more popular teams in Bethel history.

The Wildcats, ranked 14th in the nation, defeated No. 10 Georgetown in the NAIA District 24 tournament in the first year of Baker Fieldhouse before competing against No. 1 Kentucky State in the district title game. Kentucky State won the game and went on to win the NAIA National Championship.

Bethel finished 25-5 on the year. Four players averaged in double figures.

The starters for the Wildcats were, James Penn, Joe L. Reaves, Kenny Booher, Don Eichorst and David Cosby. Don Stanford and J.C. Popplewell were valuable members of the squad appearing in almost every game. Other key members of the team were, Tom Cunningham, Tom Copple, Dudley Crowder, Frank Navarro and Ruben Owen.

The team was coached by Hall of Fame Coach Doug Hines.

The team was third in the NAIA in rebounding. They were eighth in the nation in margin of victory at 20.9 points per game. They were 17th in team defense. Reaves and Penn were named all-district.

Former Bethel professor and Dean of Students and Admissions Dr. Clinton O. Buck said, "I worked with this team and Coach Hines. They were wonderful to work with. They were an outstanding team and even more so, simply outstanding people. I am so happy about this well-deserved honor for them."
