O'Reilly's Auto Parts Site Plan Approved

McKENZIE — A new auto parts business appears to be coming to McKenzie. O'Reilly's Auto Parts submitted a site plan to construct a new store on U.S. 79 adjacent to the El Vallarta Mexican Restaurant. McKenzie Municipal-Regional Planning Commission approved the plan during its September 23 meeting.

As revised and previously conditionally approved, the requested changes to parking spaces, lighting, building elevation (flood plain details) and other site plan issues have been made on the current site plan presented today. The commissioners had some further questions regarding dumpster screening, etc. that will need to be addressed.

McKenzie recently contracted with the State of Tennessee for residential building

Taylor, Watson Honored At Huntingdon Festival

HUNTINGDON (September 26) — The Watson family and Martha Taylor were honored as the Pioneer Family and the Outstanding Citizen respectively during the 2015 One Way Music and Arts Festival held Saturday, September 26 in downtown Huntingdon.

Mild temperatures under a cloud-covered sky made for perfect weather for the annual event, that started 23 years ago as the Huntingdon Heritage Festival.

Jimmy Watson of Huntingdon and his sister, Laura Watson of Knoxville accepted the honor on behalf of their family during the 10:00 a.m. ceremony on the court square.

The honors for the two were the first of many activities at the festival. The day was filled with art activities, entertainment, and inflatable bouncing activities for the children, and music and story-telling for the adults. There was an abundance of food prepared fresh for visitors of all ages. The ISTEA Express, a "train" was a big hit and transported passengers throughout the day.

The honorees received a plaque from Mayor Dale Kelley and were honored as they stood on the large stage.

Mrs. Taylor is a life-long resident of Huntingdon, born to parents Gailford Bennett and the late Broxie Bennett. She has three sisters and two brothers, Carol Caylor of Germantown, Diane Ward of Lexington, Rhnea Hall of Eads, Weldon and Burton Bennett of Huntingdon. Martha was married to the late Lynn Taylor. They have two daughters, Vicki Williams and husband, Lane, and Jennie Smith and husband, Trevor, a son, Chad Tay-

'In God We Trust' Decals Added to Patrol Units

Despite objections and threats by the 23,000 , 75-percent atheist Madison, Wisconsin-based watchdog group, Freedom From Religion Foundation, law enforcement groups in Tennessee, Missouri, Texas, Florida, Louisiana and other states are adorning their patrol vehicles with "In God We Trust" decals.

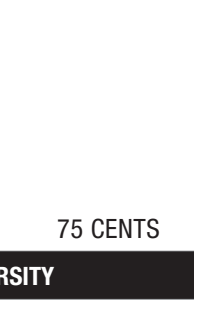

Recently, the Carroll County Sheriff's Department joined with other West Tennessee and nationally-based law enforcement groups in adhering "In God We Trust" decals to its patrol vehicles.

During an interview with The McKenzie Banner, Carroll County Sheriff Andy Dickson said that he is personally embossing Carroll County Sheriff Department with the decal. Each participating

TBI Arrests, Charges Paris Officer in Infant Son's Death

JACKSON — Special Agents from the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation have arrested and charged a police officer from the Paris, Tennessee Police Department in connection to the death of his infant son earlier this month.

Christopher Page

On September 2, at the request of 24th District Attorney General Matthew Stowe, TBI Special Agents began investigating the cause of life-threatening injuries sustained by almost three-month-old Gunner Page at his family's home in Puryear. The infant, the son of Paris Police Department officer Christopher Warren Page, died as a result of his injuries on September 7. During the course of the in-

Carroll County

Unemployment Rate, Labor Force Drop

NASHVILLE (September 24) — The unemployment rate for Carroll County dropped to 8.5 percent in August, from 9.1 percent in July. Unfortunately, the labor force also fell from 12,410 to 12,190, and the county remains in the top ten in the state in unemployment, ranked 88 out of 95 counties.

The August labor force consisted of 11,150 employed and 1,030 unemployed.

Henry County had a rate of 6.5 percent, down from 7.0 in July. The labor force was 13,790, down from 14,120 in July.

Weakley County had a rate of 7.2 percent, down from 8.3 in July. The labor force was 15,500, down slightly from 15,900.

Across the state, the unemployment rate held steady at 5.7 percent, decreasing in 93 counties and increasing in two. Ten counties have a rate of less than 5.0 percent, and one has a rate of 10 percent or higher. The labor force decreased to 3,055,800 from 3,076,800 in July.

Williamson County had the lowest rate in August at 4.1 percent; Hancock County had the highest at 10.7 percent.

Nationally, the unemployment rate decreased to 5.1 percent from 5.3 in July. The labor force decreased slightly to 157,065,000 from 157,106,000 in July.

It was standing room-only at the meeting of the Huntingdon Mayor and Council. Approximately 70 persons, including adults and some children, attended over the issue of changing the distance for beer sales.

Huntingdon Council Reduces Distance Restrictions on Beer Sales

HUNTINGDON (SEPTEMBER 22) — Huntingdon Town Council approved an amendment Tuesday evening to reduce the distance restrictions for on- and off-premise beer sales in the city limits.

With a full house of visitors, approximately 70 adults and some children, Mayor Dale Kelley said the attendance was probably a new record for attendance.

The amendment calls for the distance for the on-premise sale of beer to be changed to 750 feet from 2,000 feet and for off-premise sale to be changed to 250 feet from 1,000 feet. The Tuesday night vote was the second and final reading and no public hearing was necessary.

Huck's Convenience Store, on the bypass and across from the Huntingdon Church of Christ, requested the lower distance restrictions so that the store could apply for an off-premises permit.

Huntingdon resident Charles Porter spoke to council members and the audience and registered his protest of the proposed change. Porter noted the beer and liquor stores near the schools in Bruceton and a store that sells beer near the Baptist church in Bruceton as both unwanted.

It was noted the city received several letters – mostly from children – also asking the council not to vote for the change in distance. Those letters were placed in the minutes of the meeting.

In the vote, Carl Byars, Charles Hodges, and John Sanders voted against and Jeff Bailey, Melissa Powell, Tim Tucker and Nina Smothers voted for the change in distance.

After the vote, Tucker said the city's provision still allows a resident within 300 feet of an establishment requesting the permit to essentially block the application by registering a complaint during the application process. Tucker said there is one resident within 300 feet of Huck's who has indicated he or she will contest the permit request if Huck's should apply.

In other business, Mayor Kelley said the computer server for the city's Finance Department would be replaced at a cost of $10,679 after a lightning strike damaged it. He said the city has filed a claim with its insurance carrier for some reimbursement. The server was scheduled to be replaced in the fiscal year.

Construction at the Third Avenue railroad crossing will begin October 3, said the mayor.

The city received one bid for the painting of the new city hall.

The Council approved the bid of Jeff Goble Painting in the amount of $23,970 for painting the exterior of the new City Hall. His was the lone bid.

United Way board members and local supporters hold signage indicating the new goal of $85,000.

United Way Kicks Off Carroll County Campaign

United Way of West Tennessee kicked off its 2015-16 fund-raising campaign during a luncheon Wednesday, September 23 at Bethel University.

The county campaign chairman is Lauren Aljancic. The advisory board consists of Nathan Smothers, Jimmy Crossett, LaRenda Scarbrough, Tom Aljancic, Paula Atkins, Clint Butler, Melody Heyduck, Mayor Jill Holland, Mayor Kenny McBride, and Walter Winchester.

Scott Conger, CEO of United Way of West Tennessee welcomed everyone to the luncheon. Conger is is the new CEO and he and his wife are both graduates of Bethel University.

The campaign goal is $85,000, an increase over the $82,576 raised in last year's campaign.

PreventaGenix Holds Grand Opening at Trezevant Clinic

By Brad Sam
brad@mckenziebanner.com

TREZEVANT (September 23) — After sitting vacant for four years, the clinic in Trezevant is now open again to serve the health needs of area residents. A Grand Opening with a ribbon-cutting was held Wednesday.

PreventaGenix, owned by Dr. Jeff Young II, is leasing the facility and operating the clinic full time. The company currently has two locations in Jackson and is planning another in Lexington. The office manager of all locations is Kristie Gutgsell, who was in Trezevant for the Grand Opening.

The practitioner at the Trezevant clinic is Deborah Graves, FNP. She is assisted by CNA Chelsea Carroll and receptionists Katie Lindsey and Amy Hays.

The full-service clinic is open Monday through Thursday from 9-5 and Friday from 9-Noon. Most insurance will be accepted, and Graves notes, "If we don't take it, we'll get it." She said that a local clinic would be convenient for area residents, particularly the many elderly that live in Trezevant and the surrounding towns, adding, "We're excited to be here."

Town and county officials and leaders were on hand for the ribbon-cutting, including Carroll County Mayor Kenny McBride, Chamber of Commerce President Brad Hurley, Trezevant aldermen Teresa Goodrum, Bobby Blaylock, James Gilliam, and Debbie Rogers, town attorney Charles Trotter and recorder Kathy Edwards, and Industrial Development Board members Don Barger and Clevon Sowell.

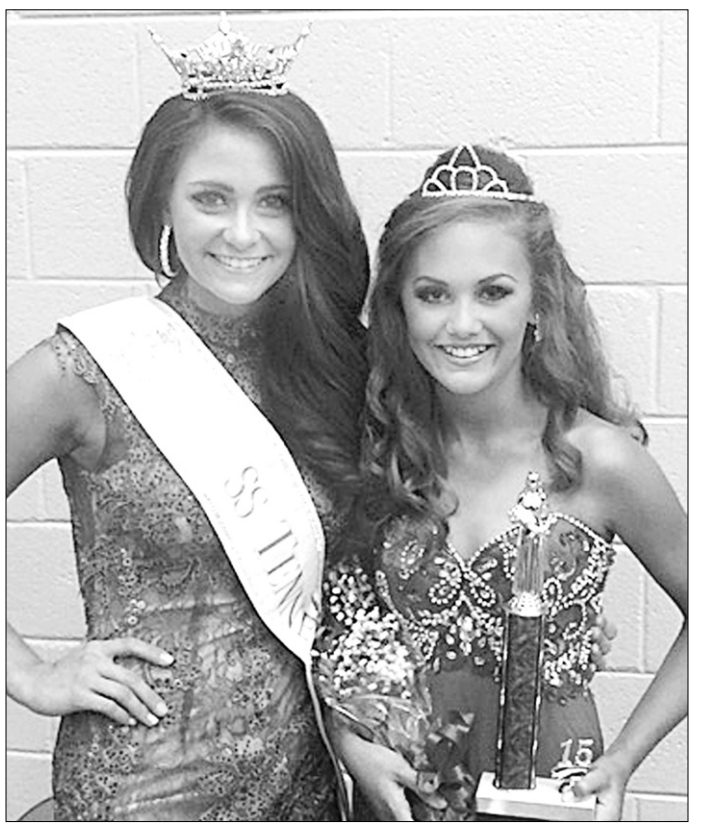

Hurley described the opening as "a great day for Trezevant and a great day for Carroll County."

Barger said, "We're really appreciative of Dr. Young's decision to invest in Trezevant."

Mayor Dennis Mitchell was unable to attend, but also expressed his excitement and pride in the town he serves.

Henry County Implements Text Message Alerts

By Joel Washburn
washburn@mckenziebanner.com

PARIS (September 23) — The citizens of Henry County can register to receive emergency alerts from the various in-county law enforcement agencies and the Emergency Management Agency.

Ron Watkins, director of the Henry County Emergency Management Agency, and David Hamilton, director of the Henry County Alliance.

Hamilton said he was able to secure a $10,000 grant for the county's use through the Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development's Three-Star Program. The money were to be used for safety and health. Five thousand went to the emergency text alert system and $5,000 went to the Henry County backpack program for students.

Watkins and Sheriff Monte Belew explained the text message system can be used to alert citizens of bad weather, hazardous materials, available shelters, lost persons, suspicious persons, closed roads, and other emergencies.

Area residents can sign up to receive the messages at taccalerts.com/henrycountysignup.php. Three questions are asked: your name, phone carrier, and phone number to receive texts.

It is a one-way messaging system, said Sheriff Belew. Persons cannot text emergency agencies through this system.

Captain Damon Lowe said the phone numbers remain confidential.

Earlier this year, the town of Huntingdon's Public Safety Department implemented an emergency text message system to alert residents.

Henry County Purchases New Tracking Dog

PARIS (September 23) — Rowdy, a one-year old bloodhound, is the newest canine officer at the Henry County Sheriff's Department. Rowdy was introduced to the media during a press conference on Wednesday, September 23 at the Henry County Sheriff's Department.

Deputy Stacey Bostwick is the human partner who cares for and works with Rowdy. Bostwick said the bloodhound is very active and has great affection for Bostwick's wife. Rowdy is one-half trained and was purchased at a cost of $2,500.

Sheriff Monte Belew said the dog was purchased in Florida. The price included training and any refresher training if Bostwick thinks Rowdy needs it. The dog is available for use by local law enforcement agencies or upon request by neighboring counties.

Rowdy's first assignment was in the successful search for a lost child on Tuesday, September 22.

Law Enforcement Appreciation Day

Law enforcement officers from Carroll, Henry, and Weakley counties along with the officers of the Tennessee Highway Patrol serving those areas were honored with a free meal from Big Daddy's Barbecue-McKenzie on Tuesday, September 29. Business owner Mark Anderson and retired THP Captain Robert Earl Melton hosted the event.

Melton said he and Anderson were both former law enforcement officers and they wanted to honor the men and women who serve in that capacity. The officers, along with other first responders, work wrecks, floods, tornadoes, and other events to protect the citizens of the area.

Camp Tyson Book To Be Published

PARIS — Pre-Orders are now being taken for the book, "As If They Were Ours: The Story of Camp Tyson, America's Only Barrage Balloon Training Facility". The book was written by Shannon McFarlin of Paris and is being published by Merriam Press.

The Henry County Tourism Authority Monday morning authorized an initial order of 400 books. The Tourism Authority's predecessor, the Henry County Tennessee River Resort Act board, contracted with McFarlin for the book to be written.

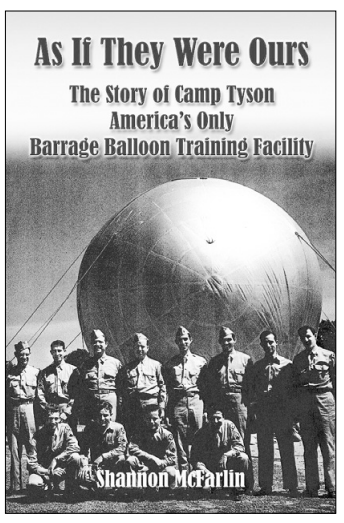

The manuscript is with the publisher along with numerous photos that will be included in the book. The cover is a photo of several Camp Tyson soldiers, including the late James Wilson of Paris, standing in front of an inflated barrage balloon.

Camp Tyson was the only barrage balloon training facility in the United States and was located in the tiny town of Routon, Tenn., a few miles outside of Paris, between Paris and Henry. Camp Tyson was unique and historic for several reasons:

— As the only such facility in the U.S., the soldiers who served there had an experience unlike any other soldiers anywhere.

— Camp Tyson was responsible for the transformation of Paris from a small town to a city, with its influx of hundreds more construction workers, soldiers and their families and subsequent modernization of its infrastructure to accommodate its new citizens.

— Because of Camp Tyson, Paris had an experience unlike most towns in that the camp became engrained in the lives of Henry Countians. Most every home in Paris had a soldier and his family as well as construction workers and their families living with them during the lengthy construction phase of the camp.

— Of special significance, Camp Tyson was the home of the all-black 320th Barrage Balloon Battalion, which was the first battalion to rush onto the beaches on D-Day. They were trained for that battle at Camp Tyson and their accomplishments have been largely unheralded. McFarlin was able to track down several of the African-American soldiers who were trained there and were at D-Day.

— Additionally, both Italian and German prisoners of war were held there during and after the war. McFarlin interviewed former soldiers who remembered the German and Italian prisoners.

McFarlin interviewed over 100 people for the book, including former soldiers who served there, people who worked there, people who housed soldiers while the camp was being built, people who ran area businesses associated with the camp and couples who met because of the camp and later married.

-McFarlin interviewed the late Camp Tyson soldier Eddie Clericuzio of McKenzie, who was the operator of the Park Theatre in downtown McKenzie for many years; McKenzie historian, Joel Summers, the Bill Argo family of McKenzie and Maxine Bursey, of McKenzie. Maxine is 100 years old now and met her husband, who was based at Camp Tyson.

Most of the book is written from first-person interviews. Additionally, McFarlin received many documents never before seen as a result of a Freedom Of Information Act request, as well as many documents from the Library of Congress and other government sources.

The book chronicles the history of the camp, from its construction through its use during the war, the closure of the camp and its subsequent purchase by the Spinks Clay Co.

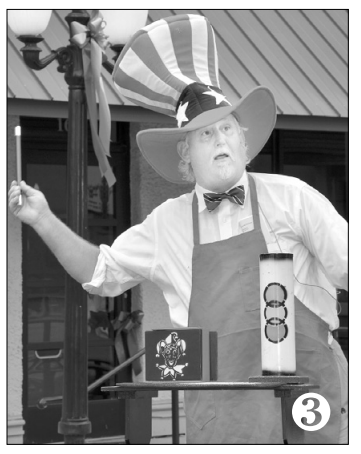

McFarlin holds a bachelor's degree in history and a master's degree in public history from Murray State University. She presently is news director for WENK/WTPR in Paris and Union City; and writes for Paris! Magazine.

Previously, McFarlin worked as a reporter for newspapers in Ohio. She won first place in Investigative Reporting in the Ohio Associated Press contest in 1991 and was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize that year. She won the Hellman Hammett Award from Human Rights Watch in 2000 and is listed in Who's Who Among American Women.

Preliminary estimates from Merriam Publishing is that the book will cost from $15-$20. You can pre-order the book by calling the Paris-Henry County Chamber of Commerce office at 731-642-3431 or e-mailing the office atpariscoc@paristn-chamber.com.

Carroll County Electric Department

Utility Receives Excellent Audit

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenzienbanner.com

HUNTINGDON (September 24) — During the regular monthly meeting of the Carroll County Electrical Department Office Manager Ryan Drewry said the utility company's recent audit by TVA was exception.

He said, "Our recent audit by TVA went very well. The auditor said our audit was as clean as they come. She was pleased with our audit, especially when compared to many other company audits that she has performed."

Drewry said only two minor findings were noted in the CCED audit.

He said, "One of the findings reflected a small, $20 difference in an adjustment charge. Another finding related to our final billing for camper-trailer electrical metering costs at last year's fair. The total amount of differential from what TVA assessed as cost was roughly $350. We have since implemented the use of multiple meters to gather consumption charge billings, thus eliminating the billing discrepancy."

CCED General Manager Danny Brawner said the utility's recently completed fiber installation from Highway 70 in Hollow Rock to the Verizon Tower located on the Vale-Bruceton Road added $78,000 to the utility's cash flow.

He said, "In addition to Verizon paying us the $78,000 today, they are also paying $500 per month to lease our fiber cable. Our initial fiber project helped us to learn a lot about fiber installation. I believe that fiber is the future and that it will used extensively by everyone in the future. I just wish the big fiber project that we were planning to participate in had not fallen through. It would have been good economically for our utility, the county, and all the schools in Carroll County. There are, however, other projects in the works."

At the recommendation of Brawner, the board approved starting the process to purchase three meter-reading trucks to replace three 2006 Ford Ranger trucks with over 135-thousand miles on them.

He said, "We have three meter-reading trucks in use right now that are basically worn out. The vehicles' transmissions have a lot of starts and stops on them, and the doors on the trucks are opened and closed probably 200 times every day. I would like for the board to consider allowing me to trade them in to Dillahunty Ford towards the purchase of three standard size, plainly-equipped, two-wheel drive models. With trade-in, we should be able to purchase the vehicles for a little less than $20,000 each."

Board member Terry Howell asked, "Is money budgeted for these purchases already?"

Brawner replied, "No, but we have funds available to pursue the transaction."

At the motion of Howell, the board approved pursuing the vehicle purchases.

In final business, the board members approved vouchers and minutes of last month's meeting and set the next meeting for October 22 at 2:30 p.m. inspection service and a training workshop for area contracts was conducted September 24 at the McKenzie Municipal Center for all interested parties to inform them about building standards.

The Commission also requested Planner Shelton Merrill to provide copies of the Zoning Map and Zoning Ordinances to local real estate firms for information purposes to reduce confusion that sometimes exists when potential business inquiries need to know what is permitted and what is permitted on appeal. Planner Merrill agreed to provide that information when available in reasonably current form.

Construction on a Family Dollar store, at the intersection of Highland Drive and Oak Street, is at a standstill. Mayor Jill Holland reported a conversation with a contractor authorized by Family Dollar corporate to inspect and report on the Family Dollar Highland Avenue Store work progress. The contractor is a competitor of Team Development LLC, Kevin Keller and has worked with Family Dollar on other projects.

His group made an "on-site" inspection and reported findings and lack of progress to Family Dollar Corporate.

He relayed to Mayor Holland Family Dollar's intent to complete this store as originally contracted with Team Development, probably with another contractor.

Shelton I. Merrell, Regional Planner, SW TN Development District, presented a resolution for McKenzie's legislative body (Board of City Council & Mayor) to designate the planning commission to serve as a Design Review Commission. That proposal was approved and forwarded to the McKenzie Mayor and Council.

Planners also discussed the construction on Magnolia Manor, an assisted living facility, located at the intersection of Magnolia and North Stonewall Street. Based on comments by Charles Pruneau, Mayor Holland and others, it is apparent that the present structure, a phase I expansion of this business, does not reflect the concept that was presented and originally approved by the McKenzie Historic Zoning Commission, according to minutes of the Planning Commission. Cliff Wheelock, the Codes Officer at the time of the McKenzie Historic Zoning Commission approval, made the case for approval for the property owners, Lynda and Kenneth Miller.

Charles Pruneau, Historic Zoning Commission Chairman, David M. Kelly, current Codes Officer, and others are to research the city files for any factual information, plans and other details of the approval to determine what course of action, if any, the city can pursue to convince the owners to complete this project as originally approved in a reasonable time frame.

Planners denied a request to allow an automotive detail/cleaning shop to locate at 93 Spruce Street. Terry Haynes leased the former Ownby Sheet Metal shop from owner, Casey Drewry. Planners decided the business did not comply with the R-2, medium density residential zoning. The commissioners, wishing to assist Mr. Haynes, suggested other locations within the City where he might be able to locate an Auto Detail Shop.

Mayor Holland announced McKenzie was accepted, approved and officially recognized with Main Street signage presented at a meeting in McKenzie on September 16 by Nancy Williams, Tennessee Main Street Program Director and Kathy LaPlante, Senior Program Officer and Director of Coordinating Program Service, National Main Street Center. A Main Street training workshop was conducted for those in attendance by Kathy LaPlante and Nancy Williams following the presentation.

Decals

officer signs a statement agreeing to the decal being placed on his or her patrol vehicle. There are no consequences if the officer decides not to participate.

Dickson said he is personally applying the decals when officers report to work, however, the sheriff said he did not want officers to feel forced to put the decals on their patrol vehicles.

He added, "Our department has decided to join fellow law enforcement across the state and nation."

Dickson concluded, "In God We Trust" is the national motto, and we felt that it was time for us to stand with other law enforcement agencies.

"I want to add that all of the decals we are placing on the vehicles were donated to us at no cost to the taxpayers."

During a recent interview, Freedom From Religion leader Annie Laurie Gaylor said that the decal issue began cropping up about a month ago, mostly in Sheriff's departments in the South. She says it's a "defensive posture" by law enforcement over recent officer-involved shootings of unarmed citizens.

Self-Service

By Clayburn Peeples

I was at Walmart the other night, in a hurry, and both cash registers they had open had lines a mile long, so I went to the self-service section and checked myself out in less than a minute.

Self-service – it has transformed America, and we can give a Tennessean the credit, or blame, for that.

This month marks the 99th anniversary of the 1916 opening of Clarence Saunders's first Piggly Wiggly store. It wasn't, as many people, including Saunders himself have claimed, the first self-service grocery in America. A California store opened in 1915 was the first. With its goods arranged in alphabetical order it was known as the "Alpha-Beta Store."

But it never took off. Clarence Saunders' Piggly Wiggly stores did, and within six years he owned 1,268 of them in 29 states and was selling a hundred million dollars' worth of groceries a year.

And along with his business success came wealth, so much that Saunders decided to construct the finest house ever built in Tennessee.

A flamboyant, self-promoting man, in 1922 Saunders announced that he was going to build a 36,500 square-foot palatial estate on the eastern edge of Memphis. The house, which he announced would be called Cla-Le-Clare, after his three children, would feature a lobby with a pipe organ, a ballroom, an indoor swimming pool, a shooting gallery, a bowling alley and eight bedrooms, each with private bath. On the extensive grounds would be a lake and his own private golf course.

The building was to be built of pink Georgia marble, and almost at once the construction site became a tourist attraction, and as soon as the granite walls became visible, the public dubbed the building "The Pink Palace." It was on its way to becoming a spectacular home place, but in March 1923 Saunders made a disastrous business decision and lost his fortune on the New York Stock Exchange. Within a year, he was bankrupt, and his "pink palace" and the massive estate upon which it sat remained unfinished and fell into receivership.

The company which bought the estate turned Saunders' extensive grounds into Chickasaw Gardens and gave the house to the city of Memphis, which completed and turned it into a museum in 1930.

Sanders had also lost every one of his Piggly Wiggly stores in his financial crash, but he soon began another chain of grocery stores with the odd name "Clarence Saunders Sole Owner of My Name Stores." This name, he said, couldn't be stolen or copied by imitators as the Piggly Wiggly name had.

And once again he prospered. Within a mere six years he had accumulated 675 "Sole Owner" stores and was selling $60 million worth of groceries a year. With his newly regained wealth, he decided to design and build a second lavish estate, also east of Memphis, known as Woodland.

And again he was fabulously wealthy. So rich that he bought a semi pro football team which he modestly named the "Clarence Saunders Sole Owner of My Name Tigers." Although he had purchased the team mostly in order to publicize his stores, it was so good that in 1929 the Tigers actually defeated both the Chicago Bears and the Green Bay Packers, who had just won the National Football League championship that year.

They were so good that the NFL invited them to join the league, but Sanders refused because he hated away from home games. Instead, he promised to build a home-game-only football franchise in Memphis with a 60,000 seat stadium.

But remember the date, 1929. By the next year both his new grocery empire and his Tigers were bankrupt. Again. Victims of the Great Depression.

Once more, he lost his home and estate, which eventually became the Lichterman Nature Center.

As for Sanders himself, bloodied again, yet still unbowed, he experimented with a new food retailing concept, and in 1936 he introduced the world's first fully automatic automated grocery store, which he called, "The Keydoozle," a play on the words, "key does it." To shop there, customers would insert a key in a slot beneath an item they wished to buy, after which, conveyor belts would take the item to the counter where an adding machine would have already tallied the bill by the time the customer arrived to check out.

"It can't miss," said Saunders, upon opening his first Keedoozle store. "It's the biggest thing I've ever had!"

But it wasn't. He never could get the machinery or the conveyor belts to operate consistently, and after opening only three stores, he abandoned the idea.

But he had another. He always had a new idea. He finally came up with a revised Keedoozle he called the "Foodelectric," but he died of an exhaustion precipitated heart attack in 1953 while trying to perfect it.

So he left the world as a financial failure, but he was a man of huge ideas, and his self-service revolution spread far beyond the grocery business and transformed the entire retail world, so much so that the Smithsonian Institution named him one of the primary creators of 20th-century culture.

Clarence Saunders, one of the most fascinating and influential Tennesseans of all time. His story is one of the most colorful chapters in the exciting, ever expanding volume that is the history of Tennessee.

Hunker Down with Kes

Is This Heaven?

I didn't tell them about the frog. That was between me, Mr. Paschall and Bobby Jackson. It was sophomore biology. Mr. Paschall kept this pet frog to aid in teaching blood circulation. Bobby and I were selected to "prepare" the frog by gently tying it on a board. The idea was to carefully scrape the skin off a back leg to better reveal the veins pumping blood just below the surface. We musta stretched a tad too much or brought the scalpel down a wee bit hard. Mr. Paschall's all time pet teaching frog's hind leg snapped in two like the d-string on a guitar at a Hey Jude concert!

Mr. Paschall's face turned beet red and he begin to shake all over. "I picked the two best boys I had." He glowered at us, and kept repeating, "I picked the two best boys I had." Only some great will power and possibly a Tennessee state law kept him from committing dastardly and permanent mayhem to our bodies.

There was no need to bring up the fight out in the parking lot between the father and the student who wasn't supposed to be dating his daughter. Most everyone saw it right out Mr. Berry's science room window. They were toe to toe, duking it out like Cassius Clay vs. Sonny Liston. This was better than a John Wayne movie! I also made myself a mental note not to ever date this girl again.

I didn't want to incriminate anyone by retelling the cherry bomb story. Ricky Hale helped Bobby Brewer tie them together. I can't remember who placed them in the mailbox. I know for sure we picked our fastest runner to light the combined fuses. I had barely scampered across Stonewall Street and dived over the first row of cotton when the thing went off. We were hoping to make some noise and blow the lid open. I reckon it wasn't a well made receptacle..... the explosion lifted the whole metal box off the post and split it into several pieces! We didn't see it land or anyone come out the front door or if any cars stopped to see what the ruckus was about. We were crawling like scalded dogs through cotton rows, briar patches and a drainage ditch to get away from the scene of the "accident". We didn't stop running till we reached the City Café, where we tried to blend in with Mr. Jack Cantrell and Red Melton like we'd been hanging around all night.

I didn't need to mention the Halloween Carnival in the high school auditorium either. They were all there. Every year! By high school most of us were manning a booth. The girls handled the ring tosses and the cake walk. The boys usually got the darts and the bowling game. Buddy Wiggleton would slip a couple of horseshoes in the "surprise bag" at the fish pond. Some of the young kids couldn't lift the prize out of the pond!

I can still see Bud laughing like it was yesterday.

Of course, we weren't laughing back in the first grade when we were made to buy Valentine cards to hand out to every person in the class. None of us was much into the "Be Mine Forever", "Love You Always", "You're My Best Friend" greeting card thing at such a tender age. It seemed like a subversive communist plot to us.

I didn't deem it necessary to remind the class of how Miss Polly catered to the girls in senior English. She let them get away with murder! But if Terry Harrison stumbled over a dangling participle or Hollis Mayo failed to recite a line from Macbeth, she would get all over us guys. It just wasn't fair.

Time didn't permit me to bring up the spitballs in Latin Class, the matchbox football games in study hall, the food strike, the field trip to Mammoth Cave, slipping out the fire escape to make a doughnut run.....or the incredible silence in the whole school when Mr. Smith announced over the intercom that the President of the United States had just been shot.

I failed to mention how hard we worked on the homecoming floats. And how it took four football players to stuff a single napkin into the chicken wire—one would stand out on the road and watch for Coach Scott, one would be at the door to signal to the stuffer if a sighting occurred! And the fourth would be outback with a flashlight so we wouldn't break our necks running through the woods in the dark.

I can't remember if I mentioned the back booth at Frank's Dairy Bar. That's where we sat as juniors and seniors over a burger and fries and laughed, talked, argued, agreed, disagreed, made up and planned for the moment, the next day and the rest of our lives.

I was honored the class asked for my thoughts on such a momentous occasion. Fifty years has given us time to mature, evolve and reflect. Phil Cook had already eloquently reminded us of those precious memories that we share. David Webb, our president, spoke of the friendships and togetherness that set this class apart. There wasn't much left for me to say. They were so right, the McKenzie High School Class of 1965 was, and is, a special group!

I believe with all my heart that as long as one of us draws a breath, none of us will ever be forgotten.

You know, those Valentine cards we shyly, and somewhat reluctantly, stuck on each other's desk sixty-two years ago.....turned out to be so prophetic.

Respectfully,
Kesley Colbert

80 Years Old! By Paula Watkins

Those of you who know Joe Hearn need to know that he will hit the big 80 later on this week. Heck, we have trees that aren't that old in our yard! All kidding aside, this is a major achievement in his life as well as anybody else's that has celebrated this special birthday. So on with the celebrating!

Joe Hearn deserves some kind of distinction for being our teller of tales. He remembers more events that have occurred during his lifetime than anyone I have ever met. He came in contact with so many folks when he worked at Moseley's and McKenzie Feed and Grain, and has, if you have time to listen, many humorous and heart-rending memories. I have been in line for family visitation at the funeral home and witnessed Joe talking to family members about experiences he shared with the deceased, memories that seemed to cheer up each grieving relative.

Joe retired from public work, but did not retire from the people. He has his own office at the back of his property where I am told he can contemplate about the past as well as plan for the future. He can talk to his chickens and probably gets more sense from them than some folks. I am not sure how much gardening he does anymore, but I do know he has tomatoes. We discuss the progress of our tomatoes at church every Sunday. (By the way, the secret to good tomatoes is some of Joe Hearn's chicken poop!)

The best characteristic a man can have and share with his fellow man is being active in his church. Joe, for I do not know how many years, has been in charge of keeping three pots of coffee going for those sleepy folks to drink during Sunday School. Joe knows that no coffee pot can ever be empty – folks can lose their religion over the lack of caffeine. Joe is the coordinator of our ushers' responsibilities and also our acolytes for the traditional service. One Sunday, Joe lit the candle for our little boy acolyte at the beginning of our service. This little fellow lit the candles on the altar and slowly walked to the back of the church as usual for Joe to extinguish the light. Well, this little fellow decided he would wave the light around and have a little fun with Joe. Seeing Joe smiling and trying to stay quiet was as entertaining as any cartoon. Every once in a while, Joe will ask if I knew some person who had made the news that previous week. He will say, "I didn't know so and so personally, but I am sure there is some good about him." That, my friends, is a lesson in itself.

This is probably one of the shortest articles I've ever written – nothing compared to the legendary Joe Hearn. So many friends, so many memories! So Joe – don't play out on us! This article will not be worth reading if you kick the bucket before next weekend! Happy Birthday my friend!

Fund-Raising Cookout For Morgan Fuller

On Saturday, October 3, the Huntingdon Fire and Rescue and the Huntingdon High School Softball team will grill hamburgers and hot dogs at the Cash Savers Supermarket on East Main Street in Huntingdon. All proceeds will go to "Team Morgan," a group that has formed to assist Morgan Fuller and her family. Morgan, a student at Huntingdon High School, was recently diagnosed with cancer and is undergoing an extensive treatment period at Vanderbilt.

The cost is $6 for either a grilled hamburger or hot dog, chips, dessert and a drink. Hamburgers and hotdogs can be purchased separately.

Area residents are encouraged to support Morgan while enjoying some good food.

Pyrotek Beginning Operations In Gibson County

NASHVILLE — Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development Commissioner Randy Boyd along with Pyrotek officials today announced the company will invest $5 million to begin operations at the company's Trenton facility. The metals manufacturer is ramping up production to support existing and growing sales volume and will create 49 new jobs in Gibson County.

"I want to thank Pyrotek for choosing to reinvest in Trenton and West Tennessee," Boyd said. "Over 300,000 people are employed in manufacturing in our state. We are working to become the most aligned state in the nation when it comes to developing and maintaining an educated and well-trained workforce, which is why some of the most sophisticated manufacturing facilities in the world call Tennessee home. I appreciate the new jobs Pyrotek is creating for our communities and look forward to their continued success."

Through this investment, Pyrotek is upgrading its existing 80,000 square foot Trenton facility, which had previously been idled since 2004. The plant will produce ceramic foam filters, clean aluminum used for beverage can applications, aircraft alloys and refinement of petrochemical applications.

Pyrotek specializes in the development, manufacture and sale of high-temperature materials for industrial applications that are used worldwide.

People interested in applying for a job at Pyrotek can visit www.indeed.com.

Trenton and Gibson County are represented by Sen. John Stevens (R – Huntingdon) and Rep. Curtis Halford (R – Dyer) in the Tennessee General Assembly.

Looking Back
From Our Archives...

10 YEARS AGO- Renovations at the Carroll County Courthouse in Huntingdon began. The project, approved at a maximum of $1.1 million, was estimated to take seven months and included work on two courtrooms, two jury rooms, public restrooms, and a conference room. Judges' offices were also constructed.

*The McKenzie High School Golf team advanced to the state tournament after winning the 26-team region championship.

*High School Football: Huntingdon routed McKenzie, 48-0; Central clobbered TCA, 35-6, on Homecoming; and West Carroll fell to JCS, 35-14.

20 YEARS AGO- High School Football: McKenzie topped Stewart County, 29-13; Hollow Rock-Bruceton blanked Camden, 23-0 on Homecoming; West Carroll lost to USJ, 27-2; and Huntingdon fell to Milan, 21-0.

*A suspected case of red measles prompted the West Tennessee Regional Health Department to order vaccinations for the entire McKenzie High School student body.

*The Huntingdon Historical Museum opened during the annual Heritage Festival, with a ribbon-cutting by Mayor Dale Kelley.

50 YEARS AGO- Alice Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Reynolds of McKenzie, was crowned Fairest of the Fair at the Carroll County Fair in Huntingdon. Other members of the court included First Maid Diana Barker of McLemoresville and Second Maid Ann Webb of Bruceton.

*McKenzie defeated Milan 20-0 in high school football.

White Farms would like everyone to know how fortunate we are to live in Carroll County. We had a field fire last week while harvesting corn on the McLemoresville Highway just outside of Huntingdon. The fire quickly got out of our hands and the Mclemoresville and Trezevant Volunteer fire departments both responded to help us. Word of the fire got to local farmers, Allen Espey and Van Blackketter so they came along with their farm crews to help. The area forestry service also responded to the fire and helped us.

Thankfully the volunteers were able to control the fire saving a house from damage and containing the fire to an approximate 2 acre area. The volunteer firemen are trained very well and knew immediately the action that needed to be taken.

White Farms would like to thank all the fire departments and each person who stopped by to help us. We are very grateful for our small community of volunteer responders.

Thanks again,
White Farms

Silver Threads Quilt Guild

Busy Month for Quilters

Silver Threads Members have enjoyed a wonderful September; it included lots of quilting, participation in Carroll County Senior Day at the fair, and club elections. Club member Tammy Host was elected President of the Silver Threads Quilt Club, replacing retiring President Jean Wininger. Jayne Heinz and Linda Hanna will share secretarial duties. Roselind Cole will continue as treasurer and Mary Toewater will hold the office of Librarian.

Club members enjoyed Senior Day at the Carroll County Fair; this includes the Silver Threads Knitting and Needle Work Club. The knitting club had a beautiful display of hats, scarves and many other items. Many of the items were given out to fair goers. The quilters gave out over 150 tote bags. The bags are always a hit with the guests.

Silver Thread members wish to thank former President Jean Wininger for all the effort she has put into making the club interesting and educational. She has taught more classes than we can count, and organized more activities than we can list. Jean has been president for the past four years. She has accepted the post of Vice President. The club wishes to thank her for all she has contributed Silver Thread members lost an old friend this month, Fred Woods. Fred was not a member of the club, his wife Jane is, but he was a friend, sharing a smile and a howdy, how are you? We will miss him; rest in peace Mr. Fred.

Silver Threads meets on the third Tuesday of the month at 10 o'clock. The meeting is in the quilt room at the Carroll County Complex on High Street in Huntingdon. For more info call Jean 358-4811 or Tammy 694-0602.

Silver Threads Quilt Guild member Linda Hanna displays a Patriotic Lap Robe she made for the veterans home. Members volunteer to make robes each year to be donated to the TN Veterans home. Linda does beautiful quilting and machine embroidery.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late Bobby Joe Norwood wishes to express their sincere appreciation for cards, calls, flowers, food and other expressions of sympathy during his passing. Especially do we thank his many loyal friends, Bro. Clarence Noles and Bro. James Smith for their consoling words and McKenzie Funeral Home for their efficient services, with a beautiful service at Liberty Hill Church.

Family of Bobby Joe Norwood

Card of Thanks

Helen Smith, Judy Fausz, Joyce Hale and Jean Smith, surviving wife and daughters of Charlie (Johnny) Smith are blessed to have so many friends, family and caregivers to whom we wish to express our gratitude: Liberty United Methodist minister Sylvia Newman, Bethel Chaplin Anne Hames, and VFW Chaplin George Nolen for their words of comfort and encouragement of others to share memories, longtime family friend Johnny Arnold for countless handyman chores, taking him to the Veteran's administration in Memphis, and being there with us through some of the toughest times. Liberty United Methodist Church welcomed our family recently and their love and support will always be treasured. Dr. Larry Carruth, the staff of Regional Hospital of Jackson, Baptist Memorial Hospital of Huntingdon, McKenzie Methodist Hospital and McKenzie Health Care will always have a special place in our hearts. Excellent, compassionate care was provided by all. The station three staff at McKenzie Health Care became very dear to us. Special thanks to Kay Allan, Jason Browning and Sara Neville. Jennifer Jackson, the Ascera hospice nurse was so compassionate and professional. A very special thank you to VFW Post 4939 for arranging the beautiful military honors with the escort of the Rolling Thunder. He would have been so proud. He was honored to be an active member of the Post. Brummitt McKenzie Funeral Home did an amazing job with the memorial power point and we received many comments as to how good it was. We were blessed that his two sisters, a brother, two nephews and a niece were able to travel from Virginia in order to celebrate his life with us. Heartfelt thanks to everyone who touched his life. God bless you all.

Beta Sigma Phi Ladies Decorate Downtown

The ladies service organization of Beta Sigma Phi is shown with the beautiful plantings they purchased for the newly constructed Waldren Street medians. Beta Sigma Phi is instrumental for providing many of the beautification projects in McKenzie. The members purchase and plant the concrete pots on the sidewalks of the downtown and the hanging pots around Veterans Park each year. They purchase and decorate both welcome signs and the gazebo for fall with beautiful pumpkins, gourds and scarecrows. The club is dedicated to making its community a better place for the citizens of McKenzie. October 6 is the annual fundraising lunch, benefiting Park Theatre.

Town of Hollow Rock

Robinson Circle Project Nears Completion

HOLLOW ROCK (September 15) — During the monthly meeting of the Town of Hollow Board of Aldermen, Mayor Tim Runions informed board members the Robinson Circle bridge and ditch project was nearing completion.

He said, "Town Public Works Supervisor (Kenny) Chandler said that the only thing remaining to do on the project was paving the roadway. Due to cost of the project being less than expected, we will have some money left over from the grant to utilize for additional paving in town. Via FEMA mandate, we will have to submit separate bids for all paving requests utilizing said funds. The bids will be then be sent to TEMA."

Alderman Bobby Brotherton asked if some of the remaining grant funds could be utilized to purchase a used dump truck to replace the one currently being used by the town.

He said, "We need to get Kenny (Chandler) a used dump truck to replace the old red dump truck we are using now. The old dump truck is on its last leg and can barely pull itself without a load of material in the bed. We need to do something as soon as possible, and it would be to our advantage to use some of the non-used funds available from the grant to purchase a dump truck to replace the one we have. It doesn't have to be new; it just needs to be big enough and strong enough to do the work that we need it to do."

Brotherton, also serving as the town's volunteer fire department chief, informed the mayor and board that Unit Two's passenger side brake system had locked up.

He said, "We changed out the air-fed clamping disc and brake line valves. When we took the unit out for a test drive, we discovered that the brake lines had trash in them. If needed, the unit could respond to a fire call, but we need to get the lines bled so that the braking system is fully-operational."

In other business, Brotherton noted that he had received several complaints from citizens in regard to motorists exiting Highway 70 onto Kee Street at high rates of speed near areas where children play.

Responding, the mayor said, "We need to place "Children at Play" signs on Kee Street and in other places where children gather to play to warn motorists to slow down. Providing safety for our children and adults is a very big issue, and we need to make sure that those signs get placed in areas of concern in a timely manner."

In final business, Runions informed the board that Hollow Rock Police Chief Danny Emerson is preparing the final paperwork required for the 2016 GHSO Grant that the town is approved to receive.

The Elements of Journalism

- Journalism's first obligation is to the truth.
- Its first loyalty is to citizens.
- Its essence is a discipline of verification.
- Its practitioners must maintain an independence from those they cover.
- It must serve as an independent monitor of power.
- It must provide a forum for public criticism and compromise.
- It must strive to make the significant interesting and relevant.
- It must keep the news comprehensive and proportional.
- Its practitioners must be allowed to exercise their personal conscience.

Much like the physician's hippocratic oath, journalists strive to live by these nine prinicples.

Tour de Paws Grows in Second Year

McKENZIE (September 26) — The Carroll County Humane Society presented the second annual Tour de Paws Saturday morning. Though some light rain fell periodically, the mild temperature was a pleasant contrast to last year's cold, damp race. The event drew more participants, too, with 71 total riders compared to last year's 55.

The Tour de Paws raised an estimated $4,000-5,000 after expenses, which will go directly to achieving the goals of insuring that all companion animals have a warm, safe, loving home, assisting and educating the public about proper pet care, giving shelter to abused animals while assisting law enforcement to prosecute their abusers, and utilizing Adoption and Spay/Neuter as the community's animal population control - not euthanasia.

Riders from Tennessee, Kentucky, Alabama, Mississippi, and Georgia departed from McKenzie City Park on routes ranging from 6-100 miles in length, touring scenic backroads in McKenzie, Carroll County, Henry County, and even into Calloway County, Kentucky. Volunteers provided assistance to riders at rest stops and in vehicles along the routes. Upon returning to the park, riders were treated to a picnic.

Organizers were thrilled to once again receive great support from community sponsors, notably Lane Motor Museum of Nashville, Dimensional Swiss Products of Huntingdon, Carroll Bank and Trust, and Edward Jones.

CCHS still has Tour de Paws T-shirts and cycling jerseys available for purchase.

Best of Carroll County is Back! We're Changing It Up This Year!

This year's Best of Carroll County contest kicks off with some new and exciting changes. There will be two rounds of voting starting with Round 1, the Nomination Process. Following the nomination process, Round 2, The Finals round, begins and is the last chance to vote for the three nominees of each category from Round 1.

Carroll Countians can cast their vote for whom they think is the best in each category during Round 1 of the Nomination Process. This part of the process is the same as it has always been in this contest. Vote early and be as specific as you can. Use the official name of the business plus its location, provide the first and last name of a person plus their place of employment, and what city they are from. The business has to have a physical location and business license. It cannot be a home business.

The top three entries or persons receiving the most votes from Round 1 will be entered into Round 2, The Finals. A Round 2 ballot will be published with names of three finalists for each category from which voters will choose their favorite. The business or person with the most votes at the end of Round 2 will be declared the "Winner," the runner up will be declared the "Finalist."

Winners and finalists will be invited to a red carpet awards banquet following the January 2016 publication of the Best of Carroll County special section inserted into The McKenzie Banner. At the banquet, winners and finalists will be presented their certificates and awards.

ROUND 1: Nomination Process

Vote for who you think is the best in each category. Top three entries with the most votes move on to Round 2.

Senior Citizens Day

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

HUNTINGDON (September 17) — A large gathering of senior citizens joined together inside the Carroll County Civic Center to enjoy a day filled with games, entertainment and fellowship during the Carroll County Fair's annual Senior Citizen's Day.

During opening comments, Mary Humphreys thanked S.T. Holmes for providing sound equipment and mics for the program and acknowledged the multi-year musical contributions to the fair by the late Rodney Chandler.

As seniors and guests enjoyed the solo singing of Holmes, duo musical and vocal performance and comedy of Max Bybee and Carl Byars, and the united voices of the Senior Citizens Choir; eleven teams vied for winner trophies in the highly-competitive Rook and High Five tournaments.

Rook winners included: first place-John Mann and Paul Boyd. Runner-ups were Arvil Wilkes and Futrell Wilkes. High Five winners were: first place-Raymond Finch and Pam Carroll. Runner-ups were Norman Hillard and William Smith.

In the ever-popular Senior Fairest of The Fair Competition, nine beauties vied for the coveted crown ultimately won by Sarah Townsend of Bruceton. First maid was Joy Hampton of Hollow Rock and second maid was Mary Bullington of Huntingdon. In the King's competition, nine handsome gentlemen vied for the crown ultimately won by Norman Hillard of Huntingdon. First runner-up was Everett Wyler of Huntingdon and second runner-up was James Falls of Huntingdon.

Other contest winners included: Prettiest Legs-Joy Hampton, Oldest Woman-Lanier Mabry, Oldest Man-Trot Smothers, Couple Married Most Recently-Bobby Joe and Linda Mann, Oldest Married Couple-Troy and Mary Jo Smothers.

Throughout the day, numerous door prizes were awarded to attendees compliments of the following event vendors: McKenzie Health Care, CCC Medical Equipment, AARP, Carroll County Sheriff's Department-Yellow Dot Emergency Medical, Baptist Memorial Hospital Homecare and Hospice, Baptist Memorial Hospital Rehabilitation Sports Medicine, Caring Hands Personalized Home Care, Lakeside Senior Living Community, Silver Threads Quilt Guild, Care-All Home Health, McKenzie Regional Hospital, Life Care Center of Bruceton-Hollow Rock, Carroll County Office on Aging and Senior Center, Cornerstone Healthcare, CB's BBQ, Oak Manor Health Care, State Health Insurance Program, and Volunteer Homecare.

The Adkisson Family

Adkisson Family Celebrates 40th Anniversary of Reunion

TREZEVANT — On September 5-6, the Adkisson Family, after having met for their annual reunion initially at the home of Robert Lee Adkisson, united this year at the original home of Lillie Hurt Adkisson. Lillie (granny) Adkisson, along with her son, Robert (uncle Rob) Adkisson, were the founders of the reunion. The events have also been headed at the home of Martha Hurt (deceased), who was a devoted and beloved family member who is greatly missed by all. Each year, the quilts that she made were raffled off as a door prize. The Adkisson Family Reunion is alternately celebrated at the KOA campground in Nashville.

On Saturday, September 5th, the family enjoyed the annual fish fry. Children of all ages enjoyed jumbo jumpers, splash slide, swimming, and volleyball. The old home place looked so beautiful that day. Festivities were held under a large tent, which accommodated all of the family members from states ranging from Tennessee and stretching as far as California.

The Sunday events were held in Trezevant at Mt. Ararat Missionary Baptist Church Life Center. Events included a meal along with skit illustration about the family's humble beginning. Bingo prizes and door prizes were given to participants.

The Adkisson Reunion scholarship was presented to Michael Huff, who is attending Maryville College in Maryville, Tennessee, and Antonio Taylor, who is attending Jackson State Community College. Each recipient received $500.

Buck-Smith United In Marriage

Rev. Clinton O. Buck (age 83) and Ronda Matlock Smith (71) were married Saturday, September 26, at the church where he is pastor near Somerville, Tennessee. Her nephew, Rev. Brian Hayes, officiated the service.

Dr. Buck was professor 1957-1974 and Dean of Students and Admissions at Bethel College. His first wife, Evelyn, and he raised their children, Philip and Phylis in McKenzie, and she was owner of five H&R Block offices in the area. He was also interim pastor of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church in McKenzie at one time.

Ronda Smith has a son, Keith Garrett, and a grandson, Logan Garrett, in Bartlett. She is the daughter of the late Rev. Ralph V. Matlock, who is a graduate of Bethel College and the late Rachel Matlock. She is retired from Perkins, Inc., Memphis, and has been widowed eight years. Dr. Buck taught Ronda in a Bible class at Bethel College in 1966 along with her sister, Roselyn Matlock and Jim Hayes, Roselyn's husband. Ronda is the daughter of the late Rev. Ralph V. Matlock, a graduate of Bethel College and the Cumberland Presbyterian Theological Seminary, a Cumberland Presbyterian pastor at Jackson and other churches before he died.

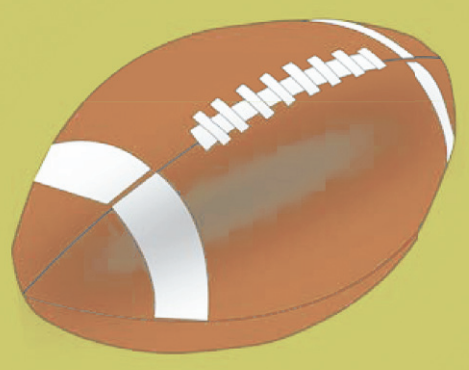

Rev. and Mrs. Clinton O. Buck

The newlyweds will continue to live in Memphis, and he will continue to be the part-time pastor of Mt. Carmel Cumberland Presbyterian Church near Somerville.

Mustangs Overwhelm Rebels, 49-21

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

HUNTINGDON (September 25) — Before an overflow crowd at Paul Ward Stadium, the state's sixth-ranked Region 6 1A Huntingdon Mustangs (5-0) fused the solid blocking of their veteran offensive line with the production of quarterbacks' Dylan Johnson (17 carries, 165 yards, 49-yard touchdown run, Kade Pearson (12 carries, 123 yards, two-yard scoring leap, 13-yard touchdown pass to Ben Clifft) and tailback Zach Dodson (10 carries, 91 yards, rushing touchdowns of 60, 13, 15, and 19-yard scoring reception) to stockpile 424 yards in total offense en route to defeating the McKenzie Rebels (3-3), 49-21.

Battling against the Mustang's stingy defense, McKenzie netted a total of 70 yards rushing via the combined efforts of Eric Robinson (13 carries, 37 yards, nine-yard touchdown dart), Jack Surber (11 carries, 26 yards, two-yard scoring rush), and Tyler Spivey (one rush for 7 yards).

Despite being sacked five times during the contest by Huntingdon's blitz-heavy defense, Rebel quarterback Surber competed furiously, completing 15 of 32 passes for 248 yards including a six-yard scoring strike to Donovan Foley.

McKenzie was led defensively by the aggressive tackling of Mitch Merrick and Cameron Oakley.

Huntingdon won the opening toss and elected to receive.

War Eagles Fall to Golden Tide

By Brad Sam
brad@mckenziebanner.com

ATWOOD (September 25) — West Carroll hosted the Peabody Golden Tide of Trenton Friday night in region play. The War Eagles were looking for their first win of the season, but it wasn't in the cards. The Tide rolled to a 35-0 lead at the half, but West Carroll kept fighting in the second. The offense threatened a few times, and the defense held Peabody scoreless to keep it a 35-0 final.

Peabody won the toss and elected to receive. Starting at the far side 42, Brandon Johnson ran for 3 yards, stopped by Logan Chrisman. Quarterback Jacob Taylor tossed to Johnson for 12 yards and a first down, then threw to G T Hayes, who was met for a loss by Chase Birdwell. Another pass found Kendrick Malone for 12 to move the chains. A repeat of the previous play was stopped at the line of scrimmage by Antonio Walker. Passing for the fifth consecutive snap, Taylor found Hayes, but so did Jacob Bullington just beyond the line. Hayes ran for 7 to set up fourth-and-2 from the War Eagle 25. Johnson reset the downs with a 3-yard run, then Taylor threw to Keyvon Goodwin for a 22-yard score.

Austin Smith kicked the extra point, and Peabody led 7-0 with 8:42 remaining in the first quarter.

OXFORD, MISSISSIPPI (September 25) — Before a multitude of Ole Miss football fans and school supporters assembled in the Inn at Ole Miss-Gertude C. Ford Ballroom, former Hollow Rock-Bruceton Central High School Tiger All-Stater, Ole Miss All-American, and five-time NFL Pro-Bowler Patrick Willis was enshrined to the prestigious Ole Miss M-Club Alumni Hall of Fame.

Already recognized as one of the nation's top linebackers when he earned first team All-America honors in 2005, Patrick Willis became a consensus All-America selection as a Rebel senior in 2006.

The talented former All-State linebacker and Mr. Football recipient from Hollow Rock-Bruceton High School set the standard for defensive play, not only in college football, but the pros as well, receiving the Butkus Award and Lambert Award as the nation's top linebacker in 2006.

A two-time SEC Defensive Player of the Year, Willis was named the South Team Defensive MVP at

Wildcats Defeat Kentucky Christian, 36-28

Courtesy Bethel SID

GRAYSON, KENTUCKY (September 25) — The Bethel Wildcats evened their record at 2-2 on the season with a 36-28 road win over Kentucky Christian in Grayson, Kentucky.

A touchdown pass to Quincy Walden from Braxton Baugus and three field goals by Casey Kammerzell gave Bethel a 16-7 lead at halftime.

KCU cut the Wildcat lead to 16-14 with a third quarter touchdown but Bethel responded with a nine- yard touchdown run by Devin Raymer to put the Cats up 23-14 at the 8:21 mark of the quarter. The Knights came right back with a 41-yard pass play to cut the Bethel lead to 23-21 with just over six minutes left in the quarter. Later in the stanza the Wildcats blocked a short field goal attempt by KCU and then the offense drove the ball 80 -yards and scored on a one-yard rush by Baugus to move out to a 30-21 lead with 12:36 remaining in the game. The Knights would not go quietly as they scored on another touchdown pass with 9:50 left to pull within 30-28. A 55-yard punt return by Walden put the Wildcats at the Knight 20-yard line and a few plays later Bethel scored on a short touchdown run by Devin Raymer. The Wildcats missed the point after following a bad snap. Bethel led 36-28. The defense stopped the Knights on the following series and forced KCU to punt. Bethel was unable to move the ball and had to punt with two minutes left. KCU moved the ball down to the BU nine-yard line and had it

Mustangs Defeat War Eagles, 46-16

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

ATWOOD (September 24) — One week after witnessing their phenomenal 23-game winning streak end via a heartbreaking, 62-60 double-overtime loss to Trenton Rosenwald, the Huntingdon Mustangs returned to their winning ways by overpowering West Carroll, 46-16.

Displaying true sportsmanship, Mustang Head Coach Nathan Wallace pulled his starting offensive and defensive units at the end of the first period with Huntingdon leading, 24-0. From that point on, Wallace steadily emptied his bench as youthful Mustangs built a 46-0 lead. Continuing to play hard, West Carroll lit the board in the second half as War Eagle runningback Jeremiah Bryant jetted for touchdown darts of 66 and 36 yards.

The War Eagles won the coin toss but deferred possession to the second half.

kick at the HMS 45. Making their intent known immediately, Huntingdon lit the scoreboard on the first play from scrimmage as DaQuon Robinson blazed 65 yards down the right sideline to paydirt. Brandon Lawton added the two-point conversion as Huntingdon led at the 7:46 mark of the first canto, 8-0.

Forcing WC to punt on fourth-and-9 from their 36, HMS capitalized as Mustang Daniel Sullenger blocked Antonio Williams' kick.

From the WC 25, HMS coupled a short quarterback keeper by Lawton with a 13-yard bull by Konner Pearson to set up Robinson's 15-yard scoring burst. On the two-point conversion attempt, hit in the backfield, Robinson escaped the grasp of War Eagle linebacker Dylan Bates to score as HMS widened its lead at the 3:21 mark of the first quarter, 16-0.

Unable to move the ball against the revved-up Mustang defense, WC punted away on fourth-and-18. Gathering in the spiral at the HMS 46, Robinson turned on the jets to score from 54 yards out. Lawton added the two-point conversion as HMS increased their lead at the end of the first quarter, 24-0.

Fueled by the tackles of Colin Finch, Sullenger, and Bo McLemore, HMS forced WC to punt on fourth-and-12 at their 34.

Mustang Hunter Ledsinger returned the WC boot to the War Eagle 43 as HMS skipper Wallace pulled his first team. At the 7:39 mark of the second frame, seventh-grade quarterback Sebastian Kee rumbled to the house. HMS' two-point conversion was stopped as the Mustangs' lead grew to 30-0.

WC's offensive struggles continued as Williams was forced to punt on fourth-and-8 as HMS' Ben Taylor returned the boot to the Mustang 43. Keeping the ball, Mustang quarterback Kee rumbled left side to the WC 5. At the 5:44 mark of the second clip, McLemore scored left side and Connor Pearson added the two-point conversion as HMS pulled away, 38-0.

With 5.3 seconds remaining in the second clip, Mustang Kee intercepted War Eagle Zach Hardin's pass and jetted 75 yards untouched to the end zone. Pearson added the two-point conversion as Huntingdon led 46-0 at the half.

Playing for pride, WC's Bryant returned the second-half opening kickoff to the War Eagle 34. On the next play, Bryant raced left side before weaving through Mustang defenders 66 yards to score. Bryant added the two-point conversion as WC trailed HMS at the 6:54 mark of the third frame, 46-8.

WC's final score of the season occurred with 3:03 remaining in the contest as Bryant erupted 36 yards down the left sideline to paydirt and added the two-point conversion as HMS celebrated their 46-16 win.

HMS concludes their 2015 football season on Thursday, October 1 at home against the Hollow Rock-Bruceton Middle School Tigers. Kickoff is 6:30 p.m.

first and goal with 51 seconds left. After a pass interference call KCU had the ball at the Bethel two-yard line with eight seconds left. Bethel's defense stopped the Knights on a running play and won 36-28. KCU fell to 0-4 on the season.

Stats were not available after the game and will be posted when available.

Bethel remains on the road again next week in a year which finds them playing only four home games all season. The Cats travel to Williamsburg, Kentucky to play the Patriots of The University of the Cumberlands. Kick-off is slated for 12:30 p.m. CST.

War Eagles

...From Sports Front

Starting deep in their own territory, the War Eagles turned to Gavin Knight heavily on the first drive. On 4 straight runs, Knight made gains of 5, 4, 2, and 5 yards. War Eagles Tristan Fuller and Trace Fuller were each stopped for losses to bring up fourth-and-long and a punt.

Facing a short field, Taylor tossed to Malone for a 19-yard gain. Johnson ran for another 8 into the red zone. A pass interference call against West Carroll set up first-and-goal. Birdwell nearly picked off Taylor's next pass, prompting a pair of runs by Johnson to complete the touchdown drive.

Smith's kick was again good, and the Tide led 14-0 with 4:05 left in the first.

Tristan Fuller returned the ensuing kickoff to the 32 for improved field position. A holding call set the War Eagles back, then Knight was stopped for no gain. He tried again and managed 10 yards for a manageable third-and-5, but a fumble was picked up by Peabody to end the threat.

Johnson ran for 5 on first down, but was taken down for a loss on second by Chance Townes and Colin Simmons. Taylor threw to Malone for 10 yards and a first down. Johnson was forced out of bounds at the line of scrimmage by Bullington, then stopped again after a yard by Fuller, Simmons, and Connor McReynolds. Malone took a handoff for several yards as the first quarter ended.

Starting the second on fourth down from the 5, Taylor tossed to Hayden Baugus for the touchdown. The PAT was good, and Peabody led 21-0 just into the second quarter.

Tristan Fuller returned the kickoff to the War Eagle 33, then ran on first down for 4 yards. He ran twice more for a total of 8 and a first down. Patrick Becker rushed for 3, then Knight lost a yard. Knight took the snap again, but threw an interception to Reco Buchanan.

Johnson ran on first down for Peabody, but was stopped after a yard by a host of War Eagles. On the next snap, he escaped 3 tackles in the backfield before bolting 67 yards to paydirt.

After another good kick, Peabody led 28-0 with 8:35 remaining in the first half.

Trace Fuller threw incomplete to start the War Eagle drive. Tristan Fuller rushed for 4, then Knight was tackled for a loss to force a punt.

Starting near midfield, Malone caught a pass for 20 yards, then Johnson ran 33 yards for the score. After the PAT, Peabody's lead was 35-0 midway through the second quarter.

On the ensuing drive, Knight rushed 3 times to earn a first down. Tristan Fuller was stopped for no gain, then Trace Fuller passed to Chase Nash for a gain of 3. Another pass went to Antonio Walker for 5 yards, then Tristan Fuller ran 6 to convert on fourth down. Knight then rushed 11 for another first. The next play was called back for a personal foul penalty against West Carroll, then Becker was stopped for no gain. Tristan Fuller lost 5, then Becker ran for 10 as time ran out in the half.

Tristan Fuller returned the second-half kickoff to the 32. Knight lost 2 yards, but ran twice more for 11 and 4 yards and a first down. Knight rushed once more for 3 yards, then Tristan Fuller went 4. After a false start, Becker was stopped for a loss, forcing a punt.

Taylor threw incomplete on first down, then Johnson ran for a touchdown. A block in the back penalty wiped out the score, and a false start set Peabody back even farther. Johnson ran for 26 past midfield, but the next play resulted in a fumble recovered by McReynolds.

Knight was stopped for a loss on first down, then gained back the yards on second. Then, Knight's pass was intercepted by Keyvon Goodwin.

Taylor kept on first down for Peabody, gaining 11 for another first. Peabody held on the next play for a large penalty. Johnson gained 3, stopped by Nash. Taylor passed to Goodwin for 6, then threw incomplete as the third quarter ended.

Peabody punted the ball away to start the final quarter, setting up West Carroll deep in their own territory.

P.J. Odom ran twice for short losses, then gained a couple on third-and-long. A personal foul against Peabody gave West Carroll a fresh set of downs. Odom gained a yard, then Trace Fuller threw incomplete. Odom ran for 3, but the War Eagles were forced to punt.

Justin Penn ran 15 yards for the Tide. On the next play, a fumble was recovered by War Eagle Brandon Moon.

Odom lost yards on consecutive runs, then gained 4 on third down. He gained just 2 on fourth-and-long, and Peabody took over on downs.

Peabody ran 2 plays for short gains before time expired on a 35-0 Golden Tide victory.

In the loss, War Eagle Gavin Knight carried 16 times for 62 yards.

West Carroll will travel to Gleason Friday for another Region 7-1A matchup. Also in Region 7-1A play, Peabody will host Dresden.

no gain by Cameron Oakley. Rebel Eric Robinson tackled Johnson after a gain of four to set up third-and-six as Huntingdon called its first time out. On the ensuing play, Rebel linebacker Mitch Merrick tackled Johnson for a loss of three as Huntingdon punted away on fourth-and-nine from their 48. Rebel Waddell returned Tyrese Mebane's boot from the MHs 13 to 25.

Robinson bulled for five yards up the middle before Foley dropped a pass in the left flat to bring up third-and-five. Pressured by Mustang linebacker Austin Russell, Surber fired incomplete as Waddell's punt was downed at the HHS 24. Rolling right in the pocket, Johnson fired a completion to Bailey who was tackled by Lorenzo Haynes at the Mustang 40. At the 7:51 mark of the first frame, Mustang tailback Dodson took an inside handoff and exploded through a gap in the right side of the line 60 yards to paydirt. Jayden Williams added the PAT boot as the Mustangs led McKenzie, 7-0.

After Robinson returned the Mustang kickoff to the MHS 27, Surber fired a first-down pass to Spivey at the MHS 40. On the ensuing play, Mustang linebacker Pearson batted-down a Surber pass attempt. Under pressure, Surber fired consecutive incompletions as Michael Floyd's punt was returned by Bailey to the 26. A penalty on the play, however, moved the ball back to the HHS 16. Erupting left side, Pearson accelerated across midfield before being brought down at the MHS 36. Following a Johnson three-yard gain, Rebel Blake Baker tackled Dodson for a four-yard loss. Facing third-and-11 at their 37, Pearson fired a first down strike to Ben Clifft at the MHS 23. Taking the shotgun snap, Johnson kept to the 19. At the 3:54 mark of the first canto, Johnson rolled left and fired a scoring strike to Dodson. Williams converted the PAT boot as Huntingdon increased their lead, 14-0.

Unable to sustain their next offensive drive, MHS punted on fourth-and-10 as Floyd's boot rolled out of bounds at the HHS 44. Penalized 15 yards at the end of a Johnson rush for a personal foul that moved the ball to the MHS 31, the Rebel defense responded as Oakley stopped Pearson for a gain of two and Haynes tackled Dodson on a sweep to bring up third-and-six. Taking the reverse handoff, Dodson was swarmed by MHS defenders for a loss of six. Bailey's punt flew straight up in the air before being downed at the MHS 24 as the first quarter expired with HHS leading MHS, 14-0.

Determined, McKenzie's Robinson bulled for a first down at the MHS 35 and HHS was flagged for pass interference as the ball was placed on the Mustang 47. On third-and-six, Surber fired a first down strike to Noah McEwen at the HHS 36. Behind strong pass blocking, Surber moved the chains via 13-yard completion to Spivey at the HHS 23. Spivey rushed up the middle for a gain of seven before Surber scrambled on fourth-and four and completed a first-and-goal strike to McEwen at the HHS eight. At the 7:02 mark of the second clip, MHS completed their 12-play, 74-yard scoring drive via an 8-yard run from Eric Robinson. Waddell's PAT boot was no good as MHS trailed HHS, 14-6.

As hitting escalated, both teams exchanged punts.

Starting on their 43, Huntingdon quickly entered Rebel territory as Pearson powered left side to move the chains at the MHS 25. Pearson netted a first down at the 13 before Dodson raced left side to score. Williams PAT boot was true as Huntingdon widened their lead to 21-6 at the 3:00 mark of the second quarter.

On McKenzie's ensuing possession, disaster struck as Surber's lofting spiral was intercepted by Mustang Bailey and returned to the MHS 13. On the ensuing play, Pearson heaved a touchdown arc to Clifft and Williams added the PAT boot as HHS led, 27-6.

Determined, MHS answered quickly. From the MHS 29, Surber and rambled 16 yards for a first down before firing completions to Robinson to set up a six-yard scoring strike to Foley with 24.5 ticks remaining in the second tilt. Surber kept for the two-point conversion as MHS trailed HHS 27-14 at the half.

Robinson returned the HHS second-half opening kick to the MHS 25. MHS was flagged for holding on the first play from scrimmage as the ball was moved back to their 15. Surber spiraled a dropped pass to Foley before Mustang Bailey defended an underthrown pass intended for McEwen who had raced past him into the clear. Flushed from the pocket, Surber scrambled for a gain of 18 to bring up fourth-and-two as Floyd's ensuing punt was downed at the HHS 22.

Determined Pearson bulled 18 yards up the middle and dove for a first down at the MHS 48 on third-and-three as HHS burned a timeout to attend to Johnson's leg cramps. At the 7:49 mark of the third frame, Johnson stunned the capacity crowd by erupting 49 yard to score. Williams' Pat kick split the uprights at HHS widened their lead over MHS, 35-14.

Determined, Surber answered a sack by HHS defender Trevor Pritchard by firing a first down strike to McEwen at the MHS 33 and moved the chains again with a completion to Foley at the MHS 48. Robinson was dropped for a loss of two by Austin Russell and Surber fired an incompletion under duress before being sacked again by Pritchard as Floyd's punt was downed at the HHS 28 at the 2:51 mark of the third period.

Utilizing a combination of rushes by Johnson, Dodson, and Pearson, the Mustangs methodically marched behind their offensive line across midfield to the MHS 31 as time expired in the third stanza with HHS up, 35-14.

On the first play of the final frame, Johnson kept right side to move the chains at the MHS 18 and Pearson fought inside to the 11 before bulling to the two to bring up first-and-goal. At the 10:14 mark of the fourth square, Pearson leaped over the pile to score and Williams notched the PAT boot as HHS pulled ahead, 42-14.

Battling back, Robinson returned the HHS kick to the MHS 32. After almost being intercepted by Mustang Termaine Buck and being sacked by Michael Arnhold, Surber eluded Sadarius Hutcherson and completed a pass to Spivey at the MHS 39. Facing fourth-and-two, Robinson fought for a first down up the middle. Dropping back in the pocket, Surber unleashed a bomb that was caught by Waddell for a 58-yard gain to the HHS 10. Robinson fought for a gain of one before Surber kept to the HHS 3. At the 4:26 mark of the fourth period, Surber scored inside. Waddell's Pat boot was good as MHS trailed HHS, 42-21.

Mustang Williams covered MHS' onside kick at the HHS 44. Following a three-yard gain by Pearson, Johnson erupted across midfield to the 31 before being brought down by Waddell. A personal foul at the end of the play against MHS moved the ball to their 15. On the next play with 4:26 remaining in regulation, Dodson followed an armada of HHS blockers left side to score. Williams' PAT boot was true as the Mustangs defeated the Rebels, 49-21.

This Friday night, Huntingdon celebrates homecoming against undefeated and tenth-ranked Region 6 1A opponent Houston County at 7:00 p.m. while McKenzie hosts a conference showdown with TCA at 7:30 p.m.

Bethel University Homecoming Offers Many Activities for the Community

MCKENZIE — Bethel University's Homecoming 2015 weekend, scheduled for Oct. 16, 17 and 18, offers many activities for the community including an open house on Saturday for prospective students to tour campus and take part in the Bethel experience.

Homecoming week begins with a Blessing of the Animals service on Wednesday, Oct. 14.

"This has become a Homecoming week tradition," said Myra Carlock, Director of University and Alumni Events.

According to Carlock, the service is officiated by Reverend Dr. Anne Hames, the University Chaplain, and the Reverend Dr. Jon Carlock, Professor of Religion and Philosophy. Refreshments will follow the service. The service will begin at 5:30 p.m., in the Bethel University Alumni Garden.

Also on Wednesday night is a Coffee House in the Daily Grind in the Marrs-Stockton Music Building.

"We invite area alumni back to showcase their talent, along with current students, faculty and staff," Carlock said. "We're really hoping the community will come to this event to enjoy this talent showcase."

Carlock said the Coffee House begins at 9 p.m. and that the event is free and open to the public.

For those interested in art, an alumni art exhibit is Thursday, Oct. 15, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Dickey Fine Arts Building. The Bethel University Art Department will present a showing of the works of Bethel alumni. The exhibition, featured in the Kathy Sacks Art Gallery, will include work of Dudley Condron, Kathleen Sacks, Cindy Mallard, Wayne Bannister, Jason Cole, Kara Barnhardt, Kelly Dupree, Emily Laforce and Kayla McKenzie. An opening reception begins at 6:30, and the artists will attend.

Thursday evening also features the premiere of Bethel Academic Theatre's presentation of Evita, the Tony Award-winning musical by Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice. Evita will show throughout Homecoming Weekend with performances on Friday and Saturday evenings and on Sunday afternoon. Evening performances begin at 7:30 p.m., and the Sunday matinee performance is at 2 p.m. Tickets are available at the door and are $7 each.

The 15th Annual Homecoming Golf Tournament kicks off Friday, Oct. 16 events. Golfers tee off with a shotgun start at 10 a.m. at Carroll Lake Golf Club.

"We want to remind golfers in the area that this is not solely for our alumni," Carlock said. "Any golfer who wants to sign up to play is welcome."

The tournament is a 4-person scramble, and the fee to play is $55 per person or $220 for a team of 4. Tournament fee covers green fees, cart and lunch. Those interested can contact Jennifer Glass at glassj@bethelu.edu or at 731-352-4259 to register.

At noon on Friday, the community can come and enjoy a Recital Hour presented by the Division of Music. The event includes performances, both vocal and instrumental, and begin at noon in the L.J. Turner Recital Hall in the Marrs-Stockton Music Building. The event is free and open to the public.

On Friday afternoon, the community can get a preview of Wildcats Men's Basketball. A Purple and White Scrimmage begins at 4 p.m. in Crisp Arena. This event is free and open to the public.

Also at 4:00 is a book signing by Bethel alumnus Josh Harper, who currently pastors the Second Congregational Church in Memphis. Harper has released his first book, "Last One Picked," and he will be signing copies for those who wish to purchase one. The book signing continues until 6 p.m. in the Vera Low Center for Student Enrichment.

Alumni will have three opportunities Friday evening to catch up with former classmates and friends. A mixer will be from 4:30 until 6:30 for those who graduated in 1945, 1955, 1965, 1975, 1985, 1995, 2005, and 2015. The event will be held in the Kathy Sacks Art Gallery in the Dickey Fine Arts Building.

The Alumni Dinner, Athletic Hall of Fame Inductions and Alumni Award Presentations are 6:00 until 8 p.m. Reservations are required for this event, and tickets are $15 per person. To make a reservation, contact Myra Carlock at carlockm@bethelu.edu or at 731-352-4090.

From 9 until 11 p.m., the Golden Grads Class of 1965 will have their 50-year reunion at T-Birds on the Square in McKenzie. If you are a local member of Bethel's class of 1965, please contact Al Buoyance at 540-297-8784 or at 840-520-6578 to get more information.

Another great community event is the Bonfire and Spirit Rally in the parking lot behind Wildcat Stadium on Friday at 8:30 p.m. There will be performances by Bethel Bluegrass, Renaissance Regiment, and the Wildcat Cheerleaders and Dance Team. It's a free public event.

Saturday, Oct. 17 events begin with a Wildcat Run 5K Sprint and 1 Mile fun run/walk. The event is sponsored by the Bethel University Physician Assistant Program, and the proceeds benefit NBIA. The race begins at 8 a.m. Registration is required, and there is a $20 entry fee for the Super Hero Sprint or a $10 fee for the 1 mile fun run. Those interested can contact the Bethel Physician Assistant Program for registration at 731-407-7660 or they can email mbarb44@bethelu.edu.

Registration for Enrollment Services' Prospective Student Open House begins at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday. Campus tours begin at 9:00, and then students will take part in Wildcat Alley, tailgating and the Homecoming football game. To register, call 1-844-497-0265 or go to www.bethelu.edu and select "Schedule a Visit."

A preview of the Lady Wildcats 2015-16 team is at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday with scrimmage play in Crisp Arena.

Bethel's Annual Homecoming Wildcat Alley begins at 10 a.m. and continues until 1:30 p.m., which is kickoff for the Wildcats football team. Wildcat Alley is open to the community, and participants can mix, mingle, tailgate, and enjoy area vendors' special treats and booths. There will also be performances by Renaissance.

"Keep in mind that community members can take part in our Ultimate Tailgate Competition," Carlock said. "There is a $50 entry fee, and judging will begin at noon. There will be three divisions for tailgating – one for students, one for alumni and one for all others. Prizes will include bragging rights, trophies and BU swag."

To sign up for the competition, contact Nick Batey at bateyn@bethelu.edu.

Other Saturday events include alumni games for baseball and softball at 1 p.m., Wildcat Soccer at 1 p.m., and the Homecoming football game at 1:30 p.m. at Wildcat Stadium.

An evening with Renaissance, the Bethel Performing Troupe, rounds out Homecoming on Sunday, Oct. 18 beginning at 6 p.m. in Crisp Arena. This is a free performance by Renaissance.

For general questions about Bethel University's Homecoming 2015 events, contact Myra Carlock at carlockm@bethelu.edu or at 731-352-4090.

Wildcat Soccer Beats Talladega, 2-0

Courtesy Bethel SID

MCKENZIE (September 23) — The Bethel Wildcats snapped a two-game losing streak by beating the Talladega Tornadoes 2-0 at Wildcat Stadium. The Cats ran their record to 2-4 on the season while Talladega dropped to 0-8.

Bethel controlled the tempo for the most part in the first half and finally scored with just under four minutes left in the first period when Samuel Goni found the back of the net to give the Wildcats a 1-0 lead. Austin Toman and Rushayne Marrett were credited with assists. Bethel had eight shots with four on goal attempts in the half. Talladega had nine total shots with two on goal.

Scott Couper scored a goal in the first five minutes of the second half to give the Wildcats a 2-0 advantage. Jerry Wiltshire and Luke Sellers had assists.

The Cats finished with 10 shots on goals while the Tornadoes had eight shots on goal. Bethel goalie Mark Weir had eight saves on the night.

Bethel returns to action October 1 traveling to William Carey. The Wildcats play on the road until October 8 when they host Brewton-Parker.

Bass Cats Back In the Limelight

Courtesy Bethel SID

Bethel University Bass Coach Garry Mason has announced the Bethel University Bass team has been invited to participate in two national outdoors television programs this upcoming October. The shows will highlight some of the Bethel Bass Team students as well as the entire program at Bethel.

The first show is "Pros against Joes" and is hosted by Elite Angler, Brent Chapman, and will air as an internet web show that will have new episodes airing every week starting the first week of November, 2015. Promotion for the Bethel fishing program will include being a part of the social media campaign package of this new creative concept to the outdoor sports sector. The filming of this show will be on the Carroll County One Thousand Acre Recreational Lake and Gibson County Lake on Oct 5-7, 2015.

The second program the team has been invited to participate in is the nationally known syndicated television show, "Fishing University". The hosts are Charlie Ingram and Ray Brazier, both of whom are previous tournament anglers and leaders of the professional fishing industry. Two Bethel Anglers will fish with the television hosts for two days on the Arkansas River near Pine Bluff, Arkansas. This episode of Fishing University will be filmed on Oct 20-23, 2015. This will be the third time the Fishing University television show has showcased Bethel University and its Bass Fishing program.

Coach Mason commented on the events and programs. "We are very excited and honored Bethel University and its Bass Fishing program have been chosen to be highlighted on both of these great outdoor television shows and we look forward to being a part of this great opportunity."

McKenzie Police Reports

Driving on suspended / revoked license-According to a report filed by MPD patrolman Kyle Beauchamp, on September 30 at 9:00 a.m., the officer stopped a 1995 Mercury Sable driving along Stonewall Street for a non-functioning brake light. The vehicle's driver, identified as Timothy Frank Darda, 29, Humboldt-Gibson Highway, Humboldt, was unable to provide proof of insurance at the time of the stop and was subsequently arrested for driving on revoked.

Vandalism-According to a report filed by MPD patrolman Trey Boucher, Dominic L. Teague, Hamilton Street, McKenzie, stated that sometime between 6:00 p.m. on September 25 and 9:00 a.m., September 26, an unidentified person scratched the driver side back door and headlight cover of her white-colored, 2009 Dodge Charger while the vehicle was parked at her residence. Damage to the vehicle was estimated at approximately $400.

DUI-According to a report filed by MPD patrolman Adam Bailey, on September 26 at approximately 7:05 p.m., Thomas M. Teague, Park Cove, McKenzie, called MPD to report that there had been a hit-and-run at the corner of Cedar Street and University Drive. This report was filed moments after another 911 call stated that someone was driving a silver-colored, Ford F-150 recklessly down Stonewall Street. Responding to the traffic accident, the officer was advised that the license plate of the Ford F-150 belonging to Danny Nunnery, Witt Street. Upon arriving at Nunnery's address, the officer observed Nunnery sitting in the driver seat of the damaged vehicle with the motor running, door opened, and interior dome light on. Nunnery reportedly told the officer that he had a vehicle and that someone had followed him to his home and called dispatch to report his vehicle tag number. The officer, upon observing an open beer in the vehicle's center console, the officer was told by Nunnery that he had been to the "Country Club" and had driven home and was not aware of any damage to his vehicle. Upon being informed that the officer was doing a DUI investigation, Nunnery reportedly asked the officer what it mattered as to how many drinks he had consumed. The officer noted that Nunnery was unstable on his feet during the conversation. Nunnery rated his sobriety as a "1" on a scale of 10. Nunnery, after performing poorly on field sobriety testing, refused to submit to blood-alcohol testing. He was then transported to Carroll County Jail without incident.

Theft-According to a report filed by MPD patrolman Nick Lowe, on September 23 at approximately 9: 52 a.m., MPD received a call from Merchants Outlet Mall regarding a theft. Upon arrival, the officer spoke with a store representative who informed him that someone had stolen a green-colored Mongoose bicycle from the sidewalk in front of the business. The bicycle was located earlier in the day near rite-Aid and was being processed as evidence. In addition, a Coke display crate and fireplace grate had been taken from the sidewalk as well and used in the attempted burglary. The report noted that no suspects had been identified at this time. In a related report, a complaint was received that a front window had been broken out at the Rite-Aid Pharmacy at 7:48 a.m. by a store employee as she arrived for work. The rear door had been forced partially open but no store contents were missing. The stolen bicycle previously noted was found outside the store.

Fraudulent use of credit-debit cards-According to a report filed by MPD Sergeant Rick Sawyers, William Hardy, Cherry Avenue, McKenzie, came by MPD to report that someone had used his credit card to make unauthorized purchases at Pockets and Raceway in McKenzie. Hardy had obtained a copy of the transactions from his bank and had already contacted both businesses to inquire about security videos. The officer spoke to the manager at Pockets and was informed that the transaction receipt and video of the beer and cigarette sale had been located. The subject in the video making the transaction appeared to be Mr. Hardy's grandson, identified as Thomas Kelly Hardy, 22, same address listed. Mr. Hardy confirmed that the suspect was his grandson. The officer informed Mr. Hardy that his grandson would be charged with the listed offense.

Huntingdon Police Reports

Shoplifting

•A Cedar Grove man was cited into court on September 21 after allegedly stealing from a local store.

Sergeant Brad Allen charged Dylon Michael Hopper of 16 Summit Chase Road with theft under $500. According to Allen's report, officers received a call from Huntingdon Wal-Mart security in regards to a shoplifter. Store security told officers that Hopper had taken several items from the store without paying.

Theft

•Authorities are looking into a recent case of theft from a newspaper machine. Ron Park of the Carroll County News-Leader reported to authorities on Sept. 22 that he put sixty newspapers in the paper machine outside of Cash Savers in Huntingdon on Sept. 15. According to Park, he found that the lock to the machine had been taken off and placed behind the machine and that all the money was missing from the machine when he returned on Sept. 22. Park said he was unsure if he securely locked the machine before leaving on Sept. 15. With 29 papers remaining in the machine, it is estimated that as much as $23.75 in change was stolen.

Leaving the Scene

•A Huntingdon woman was arrested on September 17 after allegedly fleeing the scene of an accident.

Patrolman Randy Kelley charged Kathy D. Hart of 334 Benton Street with driving while revoked #1, leaving the scene of an accident, violation of financial responsibility law, and violation of registration law. According to Kelley's report, Hart was driving a Dodge pickup truck on Benton Street in Huntingdon when she collided with an unoccupied vehicle parked in the street. The collision caused over $400 of damage. Hart then fled the scene. A check of Hart's license revealed that it was revoked. Hart could not provide proof of insurance, and Hart allegedly registered the truck under a false name and address.

Theft

•A member of the Carroll County Fire Department District 8 reported to officers that five twenty-four packs of drinks went missing from the Carroll County Fair between September 18 and 19.

Drug Possession

•A Huntingdon man was cited into court on September 18 after a traffic stop.

Sergeant Chris Cole charged Bud Smith of 521 Lisa Lane with simple possession of a schedule VI drug and possession of drug paraphernalia. According to Cole's report, officers stopped Smith as he was driving on West Main Street. Smith was asked if any illegal items were in the vehicle. Smith admitted that marijuana was in the ashtray. A small baggy of marijuana, a smoking pipe, a glass bong, and rolling papers were found in the vehicle.

Shoplifting

•A Huntingdon man was cited into court on September 17 after allegedly stealing from a local store.

Sergeant Brad Allen charged Michael Anthony Tharpe of 2019 Northwood Drive with theft under $500. According to Allen's report, officers received a call from Huntingdon Wal-Mart about a shoplifter. Store security told officers that Tharpe had taken several items from the store without paying.

Carroll County Sheriff's Reports

Drunkenness

•An Atwood man was arrested Sept. 21 when officers allegedly found him in an intoxicated state in a convenience store parking lot in Atwood.

Deputy Scotty Davis charged Robert Brian Espey, 47, of 35 Old Atwood Road with drunkenness. According to Davis' report, officers went to the Oasis Convenience Store after receiving a call about an intoxicated man sitting in a car in the parking lot. Upon arrival, officers found Espey standing next to his vehicle. Davis reported that Espey was unsteady on his feet and smelled strongly of alcohol.

Firearm Violation

•A Hollow Rock man was arrested Sept. 20 after allegedly making suicide threats involving a firearm.

Deputy Mike Smith charged Kevin Dale McMackin, 40, of 205 Arlie Neely Road with unlawful possession of a firearm and public intoxication. According to Smith's report, officers responded to McMackin's residence after receiving a call from relatives stating that McMackin had threatened to harm himself and had walked off into the woods, taking a handgun with him. They told officers that they heard a shot, and then McMackin briefly came out before walking back into the woods. Upon arrival, officers started searching the area around the home for McMackin, who was finally found lying facedown in some tall weeds in the back yard with the handgun beside him. A computer check revealed that McMackin had a felony conviction on his record and could not legally possess a firearm. Smith also reported that McMackin smelled strongly of alcohol and admitted to drinking several beers.

Domestic Assault

•A Hollow Rock man was arrested Sept. 19 after he allegedly attacked a Hollow Rock woman at their mutual residence.

Deputy Carlton Cupples charged William Joseph Koebel, 36, with domestic assault. According to Cupples' report, Stacy Gossage called the police on Sept. 18 and told officers that she and Koebel has gotten into an argument, and, at one point, Koebel took her house keys and then grabbed her around the throat and started choking her while trying to take her cell phone. She said Koebel then left in a white panel van. Upon arrival, officers observed that Gossage had abrasions on her neck. Officers found Koebel that next day at his residence and placed him under arrest.

Assault/Resisting Arrest

•A Huntingdon woman was arrested Sept. 18 after allegedly fighting with officers following a domestic incident at her residence.

Deputy Mike Taylor charged Sherry Lynn Carvalho, 53, of 1035 St. Paul Church Road with domestic assault and resisting arrest. According to Taylor's report, officers responded to a domestic disturbance at Carvalho's residence. Officers found Carvalho on the front porch behaving in an agitated manner and speaking incoherently. Family members told officers that Carvalho had been cussing and had shoved her sister down, after which family members locked Carvalho out on the front porch. When officers tried to take Carvalho into custody, she physically resisted and caused officers to fall off the porch. Taylor reported that he fell, and Carvalho fell on top of him, causing him to aggravate and earlier shoulder injury. Carvalho has been ordered to undergo a mental evaluation.

Renaissance Theatre to Present 'Next to Normal'

McKenzie — Bethel University's Renaissance Theatre presents a musical production, "Next to Norma." on September 24-27 and October 2-3 at Bethel Performing Arts Center, 652 Stonewall Street North in McKenzie.

This award winning production tells the story of a typical American family and how they deal with pain and grief, struggling to make sense of the circumstances of their lives and keep their family strong. As each character battles their own demons, this story takes us down a path of dealing with mental illness, fear, loss, and ultimately what holds a family together. A modern rock score, challenging and current thematic material, and intense characters will make this an unforgettable theatrical experience.

Brian Hill, director of Renaissance Theatre commented, "This show is something new to add to our incredible line-up of shows from the Renaissance Theatre program. I firmly believe that this production will positively impact individuals who have dealt with difficult issues such as addiction, loss, and mental illness. The material is challenging, but I know that audiences will love the story and feel a strong connection to the characters and situations that they are facing. We are all looking for healing and hope, and this story will present a hope-filled view of life and the struggles we face."

Show times are 7:00 p.m. except for September 27th, when we will have a 2:00 p.m. matinee. Tickets are only $10. Bethel Faculty, Staff and Students will receive free admission to all performances.

To reserve tickets for "Next to Normal" contact the Renaissance office at 731-352-6980 or email us at renaissance@bethelu.edu.

Branson on the Road Hits The Dixie Stage October 3

HUNTINGDON — In the mood for Branson style entertainment without the road trip?

The Dixie Carter Performing Arts & Academic Enrichment Center has the show for you! The 2015-16 Dixie Live Concert Series kicks off Saturday, Oct. 3 with Branson On The Road, an award-winning, toe-tapping show that brings the best of Branson to audiences across the country.

Featuring Debbie Horton, Donnie Wright, and Brian Capps, Branson On The Road is the kind of show you thought was long gone in this day of overproduced music, overused special effects and performers singing to tracks. The trio blends hilarious comedy, rhinestone costumes, and great folk, traditional, bluegrass, rockabilly and gospel music in the same tradition of the Grand Ole Opry and Louisiana Hayride. The show delivers the Branson traditions of roots music and family fun.

Branson On The Road are cast members and weekly performers on the PBS show "Kelly's Kountry Junction. They are also monthly featured performers and play the opening theme for the RFD television show "Midwest Country."

Debbie Horton is the co-host of Branson On the Road. Her biggest musical influences are Johnny Cash, Luther Perkins, and Mother Maybelle Carter & The Carter Sisters. Her style of guitar playing is a combination of all of those legends. Horton is the only woman to have ever played lead guitar for Johnny Cash.

Co-host Donnie Wright is an expert musician and arranger who has been a part of the Branson music scene for more than 40 years. A versatile musician, Wright plays fiddle, mandolin, guitar, banjo, and bass and provides a good deal of comic relief on the show.

Brian Capps provides vocals and plays the upright base with Branson On The Road. He is the driving beat of Branson On The Road, but Capps is also an Americana music star thanks to his most recent release "Walk Through Walls." Fans can hear Capps' music on Sirius/XM radio.

Tickets for Branson On The Road, which begins at 2 p.m., are $15 each and are available at the Box Office in downtown Huntingdon, by calling 731-986-2100, and online at dixiepac.net.

Speaker Beth Harwell Announces Task Force on Rural Economic Development Event

NASHVILLE — House Speaker Beth Harwell (R-Nashville) and Representative Curtis Halford (R-Dyer) announced last Thursday that the Speaker's Task Force on Rural Economic Development will be holding a town hall in Milan in an effort to bring more attention to rural economic development issues. The event, which will be held at the Hawkins-Whitby FEMA Safe Room on Williamson Street, will take place Thursday, October 1st, 2015 at 6:30 PM. Approximately three in ten Americans, and almost half of all Tennesseans, live in a rural area or small city.

"Nearly half of Tennessee's population lives in what is considered a rural area," said Speaker Harwell. "By bringing state leaders together in this region and having a serious discussion about their strengths and the challenges they face, we can more effectively advocate for them at the state government level. Representative Halford serves as Chairman of the House Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee, and he is a natural leader on these issues. I am looking forward to finding long term solutions related to economic and workforce development."

The mission of the Speaker's Task Force on Rural Economic Development is to identify and recommend strategies to maximize the economic potential of Tennessee's small cities and rural areas. By identifying barriers to economic growth and ascertaining strategic opportunities, the Speaker's Task Force will develop and propose sound, sustainable economic strategies to bolster our state's economy, drive prosperity, and improve the quality of life for all Tennesseans. Speaker Harwell created the task force in early 2014. Representative Ryan Williams (R-Cookeville) serves as chairman.

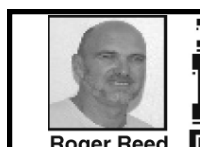

"The members of the task force have met regularly during the legislative session, and now we're looking forward to holding a series of public events to have discussions with citizens across the state," said Rep. Williams. "This event marks the first of a series, and I appreciate Rep. Halford working with us on these issues."

"This will be an excellent opportunity to make your voice heard," said Rep. Halford. "I encourage anyone who is interested to come out to the Hawkins-Whitby FEMA Safe Room to learn more about the initiatives we're focused on, and give us input on those issues that matter to you."

Find more information on the Speaker's Task Force on Rural Economic Development, or to sign up for updates, please visit www.ruraltennessee.org.

FREE Lifeline Service
Available for Income-Eligible Residents

If you participate in public assistance programs or meet monthly income level guidelines, you may qualify for a free phone* + 250 Minutes & Unlimited Texts.

To apply visit www.enroll.accesswireless.com

Free phone is provided by Access Wireless. Access Wireless is a service provider for the government-funded Lifeline Assistance program. Lifeline assistance is provided by i-wireless LLC, d/b/a Access Wireless, an eligible telecommunications carrier. Lifeline service is non-transferable. Lifeline benefits are limited to one per household. A household is defined, for the purposes of the Lifeline program, as any individual or group of individuals, who live together at the same address and share income and expenses. Violation of the one-per-household rule constitutes violation of FCC rules and will result in the customer's de-enrollment from Lifeline. Only eligible customers may enroll in the program. Consumers who willfully make false statements in order to obtain a Lifeline benefit can be punished by fine, imprisonment, or can be barred from the program. Customers must present proper documentation proving eligibility for the Lifeline program. Your information will be validated against public records and any discrepancies could result in delays or denial of service.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

MMS Student Of the Week

Kristin Bradberry was chosen as student of the week by Mrs. Gretchen Boucher. Kristin is a fifth grader who likes to play golf and drive the golf cart. She wants to go to college and major in Art.

Mrs. Boucher says Kristin is a joy to be around. She is always smiling and helpful. Kristin is a leader and a friend to everyone. She is on the Student Council and a member of First Cumberland Presbyterian Church in McKenzie.

Kristin is the daughter of Brent and Sarah Bradberry of McKenzie.

TCAT-McKenzie Recognizes Perfect Attendees

Twelve students achieved perfect attendance for the 2015 Summer Trimester at TN College of Applied Technology at McKenzie.

Those students receiving Perfect Attendance Certificates were:

Administrative Office Technology- Doris Berryhill and Merlene Pritchard.

Automotive Technology- Ashton Beal, James Collins, Austin Iverson, Jason Kelly and Cody Lockhart.

Industrial Maintenance- Jeffery Shavers, Joshua Cary and Tommy Gunter.

Production Automation- Christopher Adams.

Welding- Jason Lyles.

Graduates Jason Lyles and Jeffery Shavers also obtained the distinction of maintaining Perfect Attendance for the entire length of their enrollment.

TCAT McKenzie would like to congratulate these students on their outstanding achievement.

National Employ Older Worker Week

"National Employ Older Worker Appreciation Event" was co-hosted by the Carroll County EDC office, an host agency for the program along with the McKenzie and Huntingdon Housing Authority. This celebration was to show appreciation to the host agencies in the county that provide training opportunities for the participants and those employers that have hired from the SCSEP program.

The Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP) has served the Northwest Tennessee Area for over 30 years. Helping seniors over the age of 55 with low income and placing them with a non-profit organization, where they work 20 hours a week to build marketable skills that will assist them in finding employment. Without employers and host agencies, the program would not be successful in helping seniors get back into the workforce.

Carroll is One of Six Counties to Participate in Select Tennessee

NASHVILLE — The Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development announced today the counties chosen to participate in the Select Tennessee Property Evaluation Program (PEP). Launched earlier this year, the goal of PEP is to improve the inventory of industrial sites and buildings in Tennessee by evaluating potential properties, advising counties on where investment may be most beneficial and what steps are needed to address issues. The counties selected are Carroll, Cumberland, Hamblen, Overton, Shelby and Sumner.

"Developing and maintaining industrial properties is one of the most vital things communities can do when it comes to potential business recruitment," TNECD Commissioner Randy Boyd said. "By working with counties throughout the state to evaluate and improve their sites, we ensure that a steady pipeline of market-ready inventory exists for future economic growth."

Based on the principles of the department's Select Tennessee Site Certification Program and with the assistance of the site selection firm Austin Consulting, PEP will benefit counties through emphasizing the importance of and assisting with planning for the future.

"The counties that go through PEP are committed to doing what it takes to make themselves more marketable, which in turn will increase their competitiveness to attract new business, investment and jobs," TNECD Site Development Director Leanne Cox said. "I congratulate Carroll, Cumberland, Hamblen, Overton, Shelby and Sumner counties for being selected, and I look forward to working with them to help strengthen Tennessee's recruitment efforts."

"The Select Tennessee Property Evaluation Program is designed to help communities throughout the state with assistance from a site selection firm who has the ability to target properties for future industrial development," Austin Consulting Managing Director Frank Spano said. "TNECD deserves special recognition for implementing this type of forward-thinking program that will assist all counties to critically assess new and existing industrial sites for the next generation of economic development."

For counties selected to participate, the program includes: an educational webinar on the site selection process; a review and on-site visit by Austin Consulting; and a comprehensive assessment addressing each property's strengths, weaknesses and recommended next steps to improve marketability.

Selection is based on the ability to demonstrate local need and market demand for industrial properties and also on the county's ability to assemble viable properties with market potential.

The application process begins with the submission of a Letter of Interest. Upon receipt of the letter, counties will be provided with the application. Completed applications for the spring 2016 round are due in March of next year.

Carroll County has no certified industrial sites and is consistently among the 10 counties with the highest unemployment rates. It is one of ten counties that does not participate in the Governor's Three-Star Program for economic readiness.

How To Pass Your Estate To Your Family Quickly, Easily, and Intact

Who Is Inheriting More Money From Your Estate: The Government Or Your Family?

If you've ever wanted to eliminate worry because you don't have a program in place to protect your estate and your family without a slew of untimely legal and tax problems, then this will be the most important seminar you ever attend. I am going to show you how to bulletproof what you have today and what you leave your kids tomorrow. You'll be able to take advantage of proven estate planning legal strategies without you or your loved ones having to deal with Probate courts, long estate settlement delays, Medicaid recovery, nursing home poverty, and death tax.

Hi, I'm John Stevens and I am presenting an upcoming free seminar. It's a mini-couples' estate planning retreat, revealing estate planning strategies.

- How can I keep the government out of my estate settlement?
- What are the two most expensive mistakes families make trying to avoid nursing home poverty?
- How can I keep my in-laws from having influence over my estate settlement?
- How can my family avoid the 40% estate tax, and other taxes when I die?
- How do I start the five year look back period for nursing homes?
- Why do most lawyers love Probate, and want my estate to go through it?
- Should I have a Last Will or Trust (or both!)?
- Is my spouse well protected in case of my illness, disability, or death?
- How do I keep my estate plan up-to-date without it costing a fortune?
- How do I ensure that my estate won't incur legal expenses when I die?

"We have been thinking for more than a year that we needed to do something about our estate. A few weeks ago, we heard John Stevens speak at a seminar and decided it was time to do something. We went to Senator Stevens' office for a consultation and were convinced he was the best person for the job. We got him to do an Irrevocable Living Trust, and we were well pleased. He was professional, considerate, and made every effort to answer our questions and concerns. A few days ago we finalized our estate planning and we are happy to have it behind us." UT Martin Dedicates Dwight Gatwood World Percussion Room

MARTIN (September 25) — Dozens were on hand Friday afternoon as the University of Tennessee at Martin honored Dwight Gatwood, of Huntingdon, professor emeritus of music, with a dedication ceremony to officially name the Dwight Gatwood World Percussion Room in the university's Fine Arts Building. Gatwood began his UT Martin career in 1972 as an assistant professor of music and was promoted to full professor in 1986. He retired in 2008 after 36 years of dedicated service to the university. He is currently director of music at Huntingdon First United Methodist Church, a position he has held since 1983. Dwight and Dianne Gatwood and their son, David, have given gifts totaling more than $93,000 to the university and the fine arts program over the years, and David is a UT Martin alum. Town of Bruceton

City Recorder Receives State CMFO Certification

BRUCETON (September 8) — During the regular monthly meeting of the Town of Bruceton, Mayor Robert T. Keeton III informed board members that City Recorder Annie Hand had received her Chief Municipal Financial Officer certification from the state.

As stipulated via the Municipal Finance Officer Certification and Education Act of 2007, all municipalities within the state of Tennessee must employ a chief financial officer, who is either a Certified Municipal Finance Officer (CMFO), or an individual who is exempt from the educational requirements leading to the CMFO designation. Municipal Technical Advisory Service (MTAS) administers the educational program and testing to achieve the CMFO designation. The Act designates the Comptroller's Office as the certification authority.

Mayor Keeton advised that the appeal hearing for terminated Bruceton Policeman Frank McGee was still on hold due to ongoing discussions with the town and McGee's lawyer pertaining to the securing of a date for the hearing.

Keeton said that Bruceton Volunteer Fire Department Chief James Sloan was still working with the state regarding the fire department's grant petition for funding to rebuild the station that was destroyed by fire last year.
