Bethel University's Twinkle Ball Delights Hundreds

By Brad Sam

MCKENZIE (December 2) — Bethel University recently hosted the fourth annual Twinkle Ball at Baker Fieldhouse. Hundreds of young ladies, mothers, and motherly figures filled the beautiful makeshift ballroom to enjoy a dazzling variety of activities and goodies.

The theme for this year's event was "Let Your Twinkle Shine," with activities that emphasized beauty coming from within. Volunteers wore sashes that read "More than a Pretty Face," which the young ladies could make at one of the many craft tables. Other tables had them crafting ornaments, cookies, "twinkle jar" lanterns, homemade lip gloss, bejeweled hand mirrors, pillowcases, tiaras, sashes, and paper flower bouquets. Each girl got to pick a tote bag with an inspirational quote to carry all of their loot.

There was a "selfie booth" for guests to dress up and take photos from goofy to glamorous, and the young ladies were invited to be announced on the red carpet, where a drove of paparazzi was waiting to give their flashbulbs a workout.

A long banquet table full of delicious snacks, finger foods, and beverages spanned nearly the length of the venue.

Seeming to float through the ballroom were three volunteers wearing large ball gowns that also happened to be tables full of cupcakes. Bethel students Breanna Clayton of Paducah, Khrystian Bynum of Huntingdon, and Brooke Baucum of McKenzie donned the unique dresses, designed by Jasmine Sterling.

Also mingling throughout the event were fifteen young ladies to look up to, three Bethel "athletic queens" and a dozen reigning beauty queens from across the region.

The beauty queens included Miss Tennessee Hannah Robison of Buchanan, Miss Madison County's Princess Abby Ryal of Jackson, Miss UT Martin Natalie King of Paducah, Miss Tennessee Outstanding Teen Allie Pruitt of Humboldt, Miss Tennessee's Teen Princess Desire Dyson of Tipton County, Miss Jackson Iris Princess Olivia Arnold of Trezevant, Miss Nashville Jeannette Morelan of Nashville, Miss Tennessee Soybean Festival Sarah Yarbrough of Jackson, Miss Mid-South Grace Burgess of Memphis, Miss Mid-South Teen Lily Donaldson of Bolton, Miss Jackson Morgan Fitzgerald of Milan, and Junior Miss Southern Belle Emma Martin of McKenzie.

Those young ladies, along with Lady Wildcat soccer player Maggie Swift of Paducah, softball player Mady Kate Gantt of Tipton County, and volleyball player Rebecca Joest of Chicago, posed with guests as a group and individually throughout the evening for photographs, provided by Elizabeth Cook Photography.

In this season of hope, beauty, faith and goodwill, we feel truly blessed to have friends and neighbors like you, and hope that you enjoy a holiday that's as wonderful as you are.

MERRY CHRISTMAS & HAPPY HOLIDAYS

Trezevant Holds Christmas Dinner

TREZEVANT (December 8) — In lieu of the regular monthly meeting, the Trezevant Board of Mayor and Alderman hosted an add-a-dish meal at the community center, joined by fellow town officials and employees and their families.

Christmas Tree Varieties and Care

An evergreen tree decked out in lights and ornaments is one of the universal symbols of the holiday season. The Christmas tree tradition is believed to have originated in Germany in the 15th or 16th centuries, when trees were decorated with edibles, such as nuts and fruits. They were later decorated with candles and eventually lights. Through the centuries, people have trekked to forests, Christmas tree farms and commercial lots to pick the perfect trees for their holiday displays. The National Christmas Tree Association says more than 35 million real trees are purchased each year, making the tree business a billion-dollar industry. While there are scores of evergreen varieties, certain tree types are more popular than others and thus more available for purchase. The following are some of the more popular trees come Christmastime.

- Eastern Redcedar: Branches of the tree are compact and form a pyramid-shaped crown. The trees should be a dark, shiny green color. The eastern redcedar is not a true cedar tree, but a member of the juniper family. This tree can make a great cut tree with a homespun look and a pungent fragrance.
- Leyland Cypress: This cypress is one - of the more popular Christmas trees in the southeastern United States. The tree will be very dark green to almost gray in color. It has little aroma. Some people choose the Leyland because it does not produce sap, which is great for those with sap allergies.

- Colorado Blue Spruce: An attractive blue-green foliage and a good symmetrical form is what attracts many people to the blue spruce. The Colorado Blue Spruce has an excellent natural shape and requires little pruning to look like the perfect Christmas tree. It's not very fragrant, but the tree needles may give off an unpleasant odor when crushed.
- Scotch Pine: A classic conical shape and very good needle retention help make the Scotch pine a popular tree to cut for the holidays. Scotch pines also are quite prevalent thanks to the tree's adaptability to a wide range of climates.
- Eastern White Pine: A delicate green color and long needles are found on this tree. Another popular pine, the rich fragrance of the white pine may make it preferable to those who like their homes to smell of evergreen.
- Douglas Fir: The Douglas fir is one of the foremost Christmas tree species in the United States. It has soft needles that are dark green in color. Those needles radiate in all directions from the branches to give the tree a full look. The needles, when crushed, have a sweet fragrance. Douglas firs tend to live long when cut.

- Fraser Fir: Another popular fir for Christmas is the Fraser fir. The needles are bicolored, with dark green on top and silver on the bottom. More fragrant than its cousin, the Douglas, the Fraser also boasts a slender profile, which makes it suitable for smaller rooms.

CHRISTMAS TREE MAINTENANCE

Nothing can guarantee the health and appearance of a tree after it is brought into a home. But choosing a recently cut tree that has good needle retention can help. Here are other tips for a long-lasting tree.

- Use a sharp saw to cut an inch off of the trunk base to remove the sappy covering that forms from cutting. This will improve water intake.
- Fill a tree stand reservoir with warm water. Expect the tree to drink heavily in the beginning.
- Keep the reservoir filled every day and check to see how much water the tree is using.
- Place the tree far from heaters or other drying sources.

The Benefits to Buying Local This Holiday Season

Shopping local this holiday season can benefit your community in various ways.

Holiday shopping dominates many people's free time between the day after Thanksgiving and the final days before Christmas. While many people may shop 'til they drop on Black Friday and Cyber Monday, those days still account for a relatively small amount of the hundreds of billions of dollars that are spent each holiday season.

Shoppers now have a bevy of options at their disposal as they embark on holiday shopping season. Traditional in-store retailers are still around, and online shopping continues to grow in popularity with each holiday season. But many holiday shoppers are looking to buy local this holiday season, and such a decision can pay a host of dividends for both shoppers and the communities they call home.

- Buying local benefits your local economy. Studies from Civic Economics, an economics and strategies planning firm, found that independent, locally-owned retailers return a far greater percentage of their revenue into their local economies than national chain stores. One such study examined the disparity between revenue recirculation among independent, locally-owned businesses in Raleigh, North Carolina, versus four major national chains in the city. The former recirculated 51.1 percent of revenue into the local economy, while the latter recirculated less than 14 percent. Similar results were discovered in many cities, indicating that buying local not only benefits local business owners, but also the communities those owners and their customers call home.

- Buying local creates jobs in your community. One of the biggest ways local business owners in Raleigh recirculated their revenue in the local economy was job creation. While national chains also create jobs, such jobs only benefit your community if the chains are located within your community. If your local mall is a considerable drive away, chances are the chains within that mall are not employing many of your fellow community members. Local businesses in your community are more likely to employ residents of your town.
- Shopping local may provide access to more unique gifts. In addition to the economic benefits of buying local, shoppers may find merchandise made by local craftsmen is more unique than mass-produced items found on the shelves of national retailers. Recipients may cherish more unique items that they cannot find on their own, and that appreciation may even spur them to visit more local retailers after the holiday season has come and gone, benefiting their own communities in so doing.

- Local business may provide a more personal touch. Buying from national chains has its advantages, but customer service is not always one of them. Should your loved ones encounter problems with their gift that requires assistance, they might be forced to wait on the phone for extended periods of time as they and thousands of others wait for customer service representatives to answer their calls. Local businesses do not deal with nearly the volume of customers as national retailers and, therefore, are capable of addressing concerns more quickly and personally than large chains.

Buying local not only benefits small business owners, but it also pays dividends for their customers and the communities they call home.

Merry Christmas

During this holiday season and every day of the year, we wish you all the best.

Trezevant Christmas Parade a Hit

By Brad Sam
brad@mckenziebanner.com

TREZEVANT (December 10) — The weather was perfect Thursday night for a Christmas parade: dry and just cold enough to feel like the holidays. Hundreds from Trezevant and the surrounding communities took advantage, lining Highway 79 all along the parade route.

The West Carroll Marching War Eagles, a couple dozen individual entries, and a ton of Carroll County emergency vehicles delighted the crowd. Kids enjoyed scrambling for the candy thrown by nearly every participant. At the conclusion of the parade was a dazzling fireworks display.

Then, city officials awarded trophies to the top three entries and to the Marching War Eagles. First place went to Clay Fowler and his festive go-kart. Second was awarded to Alton Crossno for his decked-out Corvette featuring the Grinch and Cindy Lou Who. Third went to Rogers Hydrant Service for their float featuring Mickey and Minnie Mouse.

Farmers and Merchants Bank (soon to be Centennial Bank) awarded its $100 prize to Shawna Burton for her golf cart-turned-sleigh.

Dear Santa,

Love, Fletcher, Ridley, and Carver Holt

Dear Santa,
I am 8 years old and this year I have been on my best behavior at most times. I have had to be reminded about good behavior on occasion, but for the most part, I have been the best I can be. For Christmas this year, I would like a puppy, a drum set with headphones, Smelly markers, a Wii (wishful thinking), a soccer ball with a goal, and a remote control racecar. Please remember my sister, Ridley She would like a new baby doll and some new jewelry. Since last Christmas, my new baby brother, Carver has been born. He is super cute! For Christmas, I would like for you to give him a high chair, so he can sit at the big table with us and some bathtub toys. Please remember all of my other friends and family. They have been good as well. Thanks for all the gifts you decide to give me. I know I will be a happy fella on Christmas morning.
Love, Fletcher Holt
P.S. I will leave you some Chocolate milk and present for you. For the reindeer, I will leave a note on the front door. Be sure and look for the reindeer food outside the back door closest to the fireplace.

Dear Santa,
I am only 5 months old, but I am the sweetest little guy. My Big Brother and Sister think I have been perfect!! For Christmas, Daddy and Mommy would like for me to have a high chair, some more diapers, blue car for me to play in and whatever else you think would make me smile. I love to chew on things, so anything for my mouth, would be perfect!! Please remember my Big Brother, Fletcher. He would like a drum set with headphones and remote control racecar. My Big Sister, Ridley, would like a Doc Vet and a new big girl bike. Please remember all my friends at Ms. Mona's and the rest of my family. I can't wait to see what you bring me for my 1st Christmas!

Love, Carver Holt
P.S. Brother and Sister will take care of leaving you and the reindeer some sweet treats!!

Dear Santa,
My name is Ridley and I am 5 years old. I have tried really hard to be a good girl this year, even though I have been a stinker at times. For Christmas, I would like a Doc McStuffins Pet Vet, a Anna and Elsa big girl bike since I can ride without training wheels now, a popcorn maker like Ms. Mona's, an Easy Bake oven for cooking with Nannie and some surprises would be great! I also ask that you please bring my big brother, Fletcher a drum set that he can play, but it MUST have headphones in case he gets too loud. Since last Christmas, my baby brother, Caarver has been born. He hasn't asked for anything, but he would love a high chair and anything he can chew on. Please remember all of my other friends and family, because I know they have tried really hard to get on the nice list this year. O yea, I am so glad that Eubie, Elda and Connick finally made it to our house. They always bring some 'extra' giggles to us during Christmas and I can't wait to see what speial things you bring.
Love, Ridley Holt
P.S. There will be cookies and milk for you and some carrots for the reindeer.
