USA Junior Olympian Ellie Roditis

MHS Senior Competes in Italy

MCKENZIE (September 3) — Less than two months after winning the Silver Medal at the National Junior Shooting Olympics and capping her year-and-a-half quest to earn a spot on the USA Junior Olympic Team, McKenzie High School Senior Ellie Roditis departed the United States on September 5 to participate with the three-women, three-men Team USA Junior Olympics Shooting Team in the 2015 Shotgun Championships September 6-12 at Lonato, Italy.

During an interview with The McKenzie Banner, she said, "I will be flying from Nashville to New Jersey before boarding an international flight to Milan, Italy. I'll be in Italy from September 6-12. I am really excited about going overseas and competing with my teammates and representing our country as part the National Junior Olympics Shooting Team. It's a real honor to do so, and I have worked hard to reach this point."

She continued, "The competition in Italy will further my competition experience as I strive to ultimately compete for Team USA in the 2016 Olympic Games. I'm excited about going overseas in Sep-

No Injuries in Overturned Ambulance

The Tennessee Highway Patrol and the Carroll County Sheriff's Department responded to a report of an overturned ambulance on Tuesday night, September 1.

Trooper Mark Jackson said the out-of-county box-style ambulance was traveling north on U.S. 79 on the two-lane Highway 79 (Jerrell Switch Bottom) when driver Jerry Hester exited the right shoulder, overcorrected, and traveled across the opposing lane and traveled down a slight embankment before overturning on the driver's side.

The trooper estimated the vehicle traveled about 100 feet down the embankment and through trees before coming to a stop. Both Hester of Paris and passenger, Anna Click of Huntingdon, escaped unharmed. They were not transporting a patient at the time.

McKenzie EMS also responded to the scene and helped with traffic control and supplemental lighting.

Rogers Towing was summoned to retrieve the vehicle.

Carroll County Jail

Man Charged with Using Inmate Labor

According to a warrant filed in Carroll County General Sessions Court by Carroll County Sheriff's Investigator Jackie Wallace, on August 25, 2015, the officer charged James William Stallcup, 54, Northwood Drive, Huntingdon, of committing the offenses of using Tennessee Department of Correction inmates, Edward Childers and Timothy Fuller to perform labor on private property located at 915 Grooms Road in Carroll County intended to result in personal gain for Stallcup.

According to the CCGS document Carroll County General Sessions Court Judge Larry Logan recused himself of the case involving Stallcup on September 4. New Judge Vicky Snider will hear the case.

Stallcup has reportedly resigned from his position as maintenance man for the county of Carroll.

West Carroll Considering Uniforms For 2016-17

Parents Invited to Town Hall Meeting September 28

By Brad Sam
brad@mckenziebanner.com

ATWOOD (September 3) — The West Carroll Special School District is considering implementing a uniform policy beginning in the 2016-17 school year. The principals of the three schools in the district made a joint presentation in favor of the change to the Board of Education at the regular monthly meeting Thursday evening.

Junior/Senior high principal Dexter Williams, elementary principal Molly Ashley, and primary principal Jackie Wester came armed with data on a wide range of benefits of uniforms as well as some starting points on building a potential policy.

Retired Teacher Mabry Celebrates 100th Birthday

By Joel Washburn
washburn@mckenziebanner.com

HUNTINGDON (September 6) — Lanier Mabry celebrated her 100th birthday with family, friends, former students, fellow teachers and a whole host of acquaintances and friends who she met along life's journey. Sunday was a special day as she received so many gifts, kind words, hugs, and special written commendations from Governor Bill Haslam and President and Mrs. Barack Obama.

The celebration was at Harmony Hills, an assisted living facility where she has called home since 2011. The teacher of 39 years retired in 1980. She taught generations of McKenzie students, some of whom shared in her special birthday.

Staff members at Harmony Hills were pleased with the great turnout for Mrs. Mabry's celebration. They said her request when she first arrived was she wanted to keep learning.

As former students waited their turn to greet Mrs. Mabry, they exclaimed, "She was my fourth grade teacher." Sara Lee Butler of Huntingdon, now with children and great-grandchildren, was a student of Mrs. Mabry's. Sara was there to help celebrate Mabry's 100th birthday. Greg Jenkins of Arkansas was there to visit with Mrs. Mabry.

Through the years, she taught third, fourth, and fifth grades. Until moving to Harmony Hills, she was a lifelong resident of McKenzie, where she grew up on Forrest Avenue. She married Harry Mabry in 1946 and they bought a home across the street from her childhood home.

She and her late husband had two sons, Jim and Bob. They were members of the First United Methodist Church.

Adding to the celebration on that day was long-time friend, Sue Kelley, a retired teacher, who turns 100 on September 25. Mabry and Kelley started elementary school together, graduated together, went to Bethel College together and then taught in the same elementary school. Sue Kelley taught first, second, and fifth grades.

McKenzie Planners Conditionally Approve Location for Auto Parts Business, Restaurant

McKenzie Municipal-Regional Planning Commission conditionally approved the division of one four-acre parcel into two two-acre parcels along U.S. 79 during its August meeting. The division is to make room for a new auto parts business.

The owners of El Vallarta Restaurant and O'Reilly's Auto Parts Store are requesting approval of their final plat, which divides the existing four acres on which the La Vallarta Restaurant is already located into two two-acre parcels with the new two acres being used for the construction of O'Reilly's Auto Parts Store. The site plan has already met the major requirements for a site plan and has been reviewed by Shelton Merrill, Regional Planner and David Kelly, McKenzie Codes Officer Consultant. The commission discussed the project, but the decision was made to conditionally approve the site plan pending further review. The commissioners had not seen the plat until presentation at this meeting and a cursory review found some minor issues to be corrected. The list below cites some of the new issues found by the cursory review, but it is in no way complete pending further review. Shelton has already notified, Brittney Whitley of The Hutton Company so she can notify the owners for a timely start. The new issues are listed below:

1) The proposed parking stall dimensions did not adhere to the Zoning Ordinance of the city. The zoning ordinance in Section 11-410, (3), (a) states "One parking space shall be equal to an area of two hundred (200) square feet, with minimum dimensions of ten (10) feet by 20 feet. A minimum of four hundred (400) square feet per parking space shall be used when computing parking area to include maneuvering space. The submitted site plan depicts parking stalls having the dimensions of nine (9) feet by eighteen (18) feet;

2) The proposed signs' locations and detail should be made available on the site plan;

3) The proposed lighting plan should be made available on site plan;

4) Due to this property being located within an unnumbered A Flood Hazard Zone, the finished floor elevation of the proposed 6400 square feet facility shall be three (3) feet above the adjacent grade of the existing site. Non-Residential buildings located in all A Zones may be flood-proofed, in lieu of being elevated, provided that all areas of the building below the required elevation meet the requirements in the code.

Commissioners attending were: Bobby Young, Peggy Kee, Ken Mitchum, Jill Holland. Absent was Gene Hale, who resigned. Charles Pruneau, appointee to fill the position, was present but not voting. His nomination to the position will be presented to the McKenzie Mayor and Council later this month.

Peanut Butter Pie

1 graham cracker crust
½ cup milk
1 cup powdered sugar
½ cup peanut butter
1 cup whipped topping

Mix peanut butter, cream cheese, and powdered sugar until creamy. Add milk and whipped topping. Mix well. Pour in crust. Top with whipped topping. Freeze until set up firm.

Heath Bar Cookies

1 cup butter
1 egg yolk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup brown sugar
2 cup all-purpose flour
1 ½ cup coarsely chopped heath bars

Cream butter and sugar. Add egg yolk and beat well. Stir in flour and vanilla, mixing well. Spread into greased 9 x 12 inch baking pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes. Remove from oven. Sprinkle immediately with heath bars. Cool completely in pan before cutting into squares.

Pepper Relish

12 red peppers
12 onions
2 cups sugar
12 green peppers
2 cups vinegar
3 tablespoons canning salt

Ground peppers. Cover with boiling water for 5 minutes. Drain. Add ground onions, vinegar, sugar and salt. Boil 5 minutes and seal in jars.

Arthritis Remedy

3 cups apple juice
½ cup apple cider vinegar
1 cup grape juice

Mix. Refrigerate. Drink daily.

Home Cleaning Formulas

Mold and Mildew: Spray the surface with household bleach. Leave for 10-15 minutes, until the mildew is gone. Rinse with clear water. Spray with ammonia and leave 10-15 minutes. Rinse with clear water again. This is especially good for ceramic tile.

Bathroom tiles: Use baking soda to clean tiles and remove soap and scum from showers.

Carpet odors: Sprinkle with baking soda. Leave 2-3 hours. Then vacuum.

Windows: Add ammonia to water to clean any glassware. If extremely dirty, add a little dishwasher liquid.

Downtown Huntingdon

Condemned Structure Being Renovated

HUNTINGDON (September 3) — If walls could talk, the 105-year-old formerly-condemned building located at 125 Court Square would voice many tales.

Abandoned and placed on the Town of Huntingdon's condemned building list, the once-stately three-story structure was spared from demolition by Huntingdon residents Tommy and Adam Crews in 2014 via purchase from Felix Perry of Nashville.

After assessing the cost of rehabilitating the structure and negotiating a purchase price, the father-and-son team hired Huntingdon construction contractor Mark Bush to oversee the basement-to-roof interior and exterior renovation.

The Crews' then hired Pam Williams and Richard Grant of Huntingdon as architectural consultants.

Adam Crews said that the buildings' problematic structural issues have been resolved and that the interiors have been wholly gutted for renovation.

In keeping with the town's downtown historical enhancement initiative, the Crews' are resolute to restore the building's early twentieth-century brick storefront façade.

Prior to renovation, the building once housed a blacksmith shop; several restaurants; a jewelry store; the former law office and personal library of former Tennessee Governor Gordon Browning; a sign-making company; and a cash-advance business.

Crews said that renovations to the structure are tentatively set for completion in late-spring, 2016.

He said that although the building's future utilization has yet to be determined, suggestions from the community are welcome.

County Commission to Appoint Chairman, Medical Examiner

Carroll County Commissioners will select a person to serve as chairman and chairman pro tempore in its September 14 meeting. Additionally, the commission will appoint a medical examiner and appoint one member to the county's Indigent Care Board.

Each year, commissioners elect the persons who will head their monthly meetings. The chairman presides over all meetings. In his or her absence, the chairman pro tempore serves. Mayor Kenny McBride has been elected to serve as chairman since his election as mayor. Commissioners generally move the position of chairman pro tempore amongst the membership.

Dr. Lee Carter is recommended to serve a second five-year term as medical examiner for the county. The medical examiner, along with a field agent, generally known as the coroner, investigate unattended or suspicious deaths within the county. They work with law enforcement and the district attorney to determine the best course of action on the investigation and whether or not the body should be sent for an autopsy.

Phil Williams of McLemoresville is nominated to continue serving on the Indigent Care Board with a term ending September 2018. Two other nominees, Howell Todd and Billy J. Smith did not advance out of the Resolutions Committee. Either one or both nominees are expected to be resubmitted to the Resolutions Committee at a later date.

McGee Appeal Hearing Delayed

Bruceton City Recorder Annie Hand informed The McKenzie Banner that the appeal hearing requested by fired Bruceton Police Officer Frank McGee before the towns Board of Aldermen slated for Wednesday, September 16 at 9:00 a.m., at City Hall has been changed.

Hand said that the new date for the appeal has yet to be determined.

Bethel University

Progress Continues on Library Upgrade

McKENZIE — Construction continues on Bethel University's library, Burroughs Learning Center. The 50-year-old building is being redesigned to serve as a community storm shelter, which will hold up to 1800 people and withstand winds of up to 200 miles per hour.

The renovation will also give the facility a look that matches the other buildings on campus better than the original white stone facade.

The project is funded through a grant from FEMA and TEMA, acquired with assistance from the City of McKenzie.

During this renovation, the library is temporarily operating out of the Vera Low Board Room in the Vera Low Center.

tember and competing for my country. It is a truly a dream come true. This is a truly exciting time for my family and me."

Pausing, Ellie thanked God, her family, and Lance Rider for helping her to reach this level of competition.

She said, "First and foremost, I thank God for blessing me with the ability to shoot. I thank my parents for their unending support, and thank Lance Rider for always believing in me and for introducing her to International Bunker Shooting. They, along with many others, have helped me to get to this place. I am thankful to everyone that has helped me along the way."

Regarding the competition in Italy, Roditis said, "We don't shoot 125 targets over there. We only shoot 75. I will compete on September 11. The finals are on the same day as the 75-target shoot. The next day, I'll fly home. All of this is going to happen very fast. I'm ready to go over there and give my best effort."

After her competition internationally, Ellie will travel to Tucson, Arizona for USA Junior Olympic Team Fall Selection.

Ellie spoke about the discipline required to shoot at an advanced level.

She said, I have a custom-fitted gun that I shoot so much that it actually feels now like an extension of my arm. I spend a lot of time at the Carroll County Shooting Sports Complex and traveling to Nashville on weekends and during the week working on my technique. It takes time and dedication, but I'm willing to work hard. My main goal is still before me."

Ellie is the daughter of Spiro and Sandi Roditis, and big sister to Stafford. She is the granddaughter to Diane Stafford and the late Nicky Joe Stafford.

Photographic World Travels Display in Paris

The Heritage Center in Paris will host a photography exhibition of photographs of different countries by artist Joseph Routon. In addition to photos from twenty countries the show will include several of Routon's street photographs in NYC and pictures of dancing ballerinas in Washington, DC. The photography exhibition is September 20 - October 31.

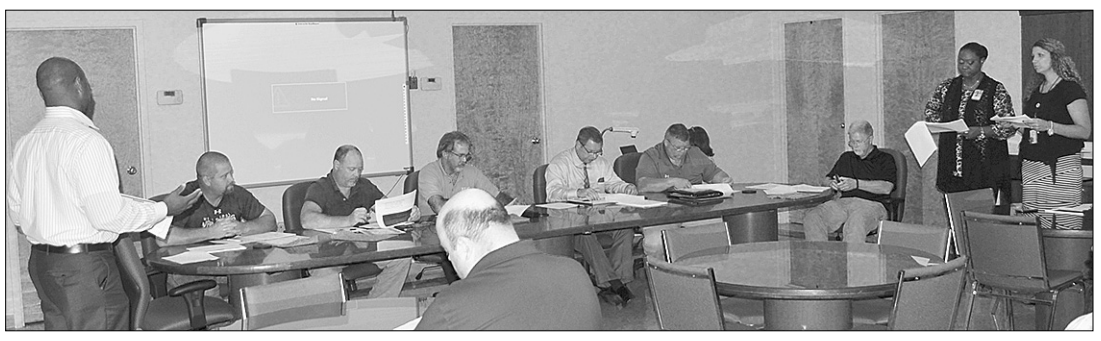

The photographic journey begins in the kitchen of the Rendezvous Restaurant in Memphis and leads through the Amish country in Lancaster, PA, then on to the Christ the Redeemer statue in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. From there: Morocco, St. Peter's Basilica in Rome; Red Square in Moscow; Dracula's Castle in Transylvania, Romania; Auschwitz concentration camp in Poland; Nagasaki, Japan; and back to Philadelphia. His interest in photography began when he was in art school in NYC, when he worked as a photographer for a newspaper. His photographs have appeared on the cover of Budget Travel Magazine, in the Travel Section of the Philadelphia Inquirer, in advertising for the Travel Division of the Smithsonian, and in the United Nations' publication, The InterDependent.

In 2013, an exhibition of his photographs of children in India was presented at the Western Justice Center in Pasadena, CA, to increase awareness of the plight of many of the country's children. Shutterbug Photography Magazine published an article with his photos about his participation in a week-long medical mission trip with the World Cataract Foundation in Mexico. The Paris-Henry County Heritage Center will hold a community-wide reception on Sunday, September 20, from 2:00 p.m. until 4:00, to celebrate the opening of The Photographic Exhibit – World Travels with Joe Routon. The Board of Trustees of the Heritage Center will host the reception. Joe Routon will be in attendance to greet visitors. Joe Routon, raised in Paris and a graduate of Grove High School and Murray State University, will be present for the opening.

Routon, a professional portrait painter who lives and works in a suburb of Philadelphia, studied art at Murray State University, The Art Students League in NYC, The National Academy of Design, and The Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts. All photos on display have been donated by Joe Routon as a fundraiser for the Paris-Henry County Heritage Center and will be available for purchase at $ 10.00 per photo with mat included for pickup at the end of the exhibition. Admission and parking are free. Main parking is at the entrance on Hwy 641 North, three blocks north of the Courthouse Square in Paris. A handicap wheelchair ramp is available at this entrance. Hours for the Paris-Henry County Heritage Center are: Tuesday – Friday 10:00 am – 4:00 pm, Saturday 10:00 am – 2:00 pm, closed Sundays and Mondays.

Uniforms

West Carroll principals Dexter Williams (far left), Jackie Wester, and Molly Ashley (far right) present their case for school uniforms.

First, the trio identified some of the issues that a uniform policy would aleviate, such as subjective interpretation of the dress code, the distraction of dress code violations, and competition and bullying among students in regards to name brand clothing.

The three then presented research data from various sources. Two years after uniforms were introduced at a California high school, school crime had decreased by 71 percent, where it had increased by 28 percent in a sample of schools with no uniform policy. Two New Mexico schools saw disciplinary referrals fall by more than 50 percent after they adopted a polo and khakis policy. Another study in New Mexico showed that the percentage of honor roll students increased from 31 to 43 percent when uniforms were introduced.

The principals went in-depth on the cost benefits for parents, showing that a wide variety of uniform items were available at Wal-Mart at prices from $5-$15, while a pair of popular brand name jeans can cost upwards of $50.

Williams, who spent more than a decade in the Jackson-Madison County school system, where uniforms have been in place for years, also told of "uniform swaps" that schools and communities would hold each year, giving parents the opportunity to buy and sell used uniform items and save even more money.

Aside from the economic benefits, a national survey of principals showed concensus that parents would benefit from the elimination of wardrobe battles as well as easier shopping.

The presentation packets given to the board also included copies of current uniform policies at area districts, including Jackson-Madison County, Milan, Weakley County, Bradford, and Humboldt.

Also included were basic proposals for a West Carroll uniform policy, which the principals discussed. Students would be required to wear khaki or dark pants, with skirts and shorts being knee-length. Shirts would be solid color with a collar and tucked in.

The policy would vary at each school, with the primary school allowing for more choices than the other schools. Wester explained that for the youngest students, many of the wardrobe issues weren't yet significant. She went on to point out that, given the activity level of primary students, it was also a good idea to allow for more rugged materials such as denim.

The principals also laid out plans to distribute a survey to every parent and then hold a town hall-style meeting on Monday, September 28 at the junior/senior high school from 6-7 p.m. After hearing from parents, the principals will return to the board to further discuss the issue. The three expressed hope that a decision could be made close to December to allow parents plenty of time to prepare before the following August.

Concluding their presentation, they turned to the board for input and questions. Though no board member voiced direct opposition to the idea, several questioned details of the policy. Kyle Foster inquired about restrictions on shoes. Principal Williams noted that in most uniformed districts, the guidelines on footwear are broad. Several members suggested that teachers be included in the uniform policy. The principals pushed back on that notion, asserting that as the leaders of the faculty, they are accountable for making sure that their teachers are acting in a professional manner. Ashley pointed out that no uniformed school she has seen enforces a uniform policy for teachers.

It was agreed among all parties that details could be discussed further once parental input was evaluated. Director of Schools Eric Williams commended the three on a well-concieved presentation.

In other business, the board elected officers for the current school year. Jimmy Halford was reelected as chairman, as was Mike Foster as vice-chairman. Greg McClain is the new secretary/treasurer, and Kristi Moore, who was absent from the meeting, will be the legislative representative.

The board also approved the installation of a three-compartment sink in the culinary arts classroom at the request of instuctor Linda Black. The sink is neccesary to meet state safety and health codes.

Two annually-recurring overnight field trips were approved. FCS members will be travelling to Doyle, Tenn., later this month, and Beta Club members will go to Nashville in November.

A laundry list of policy updates were approved on second reading, and a first reading was passed on an update to the district's policy on the dissemination and disposal of personal information obtained in background investigations.

It was reported that interest in junior high baseball exceeded expectations and that teacher Adam Welch was open to coaching.

Director Williams announced that he had been elected as the Northwest Representative to the Tennessee State Superintendent Study Council.

Principal Wester announced that WCPS progress reports would be issued on Friday, September 11. The school will have Grandparents Day on Thursday, September 17 and the Harvest Festival on Friday, October 2.

Principal Ashley reported that more than 170 parents attended the recent WCES open house and that progress reports would go out Friday, September 11. She announced that Thursday, September 10 would be Family Literacy Night and that Friday, September 11 would be Grandparents Day. The elementary Fall Festival will be September 18.

Principal Williams announced that teacher observations were underway at WCJSHS. He reported that 10 additional handheld radios had been procured for the school, per the advice of the fire department. In August, two fire drill had been held, both monitored by fire officials. The extra radios were implemented before the second, and made a great improvement in the success of the drill, according to Williams. He also announced that Homecoming would be celebrated Friday, September 11, and that as part of the festivities, the Class of 1990 would be recognized.

The meeting adjourned after just under an hour.

Awards, Ceremonies

By Clayburn Peeples

You've probably heard all about James Harrison's controversial social media post a few weeks ago concerning his son's "participation" trophies. Harrison, who is a linebacker for the Pittsburgh Steelers, came home one day to find that his two sons, aged six and eight, had been given "participation" trophies simply for playing on junior sports teams.

Enraged, Harrison made his sons return the trophies. Here's what he said about it: "while I am very proud of my boys for everything they do, and will encourage them till the day I die, these trophies will be given back until they EARN a real trophy.... I'm not about to raise two boys to be men by making them believe that they are entitled to something just because they tried their best ... cause sometimes your best is not enough, and that should drive you to want to do better ... not cry and whine until somebody gives u something to shut you up and keep you happy. #harrisonfamilyvalues."

This post, as you might expect, was highly controversial. While most people applauded Harrison's action, and some even went so far as to suggest he be named father of the year, others were appalled.

Some of those offended resorted to attacking Harrison's professional playing style. Among the most feared players in the game, is also one of the most fined. His dossier includes more than $150,000 in fines for his on field behavior, and off the field he has made controversial statements about other players and officials, but his is also one of the more inspiring stories in professional football.

The youngest of 14 children, he was so disruptive as a high school player, no college would offer him a scholarship, so he walked onto his college team at Kent State. Because he was considered too short to be a linebacker and too light to be a defensive lineman, he was undrafted when he graduated, but the Pittsburgh Steelers signed him as an undrafted rookie. At first he struggled, and he was released three different times.

He was picked up by Baltimore in 2003 and sent to their NFL Europe team, but they cut him too, and he thought about giving up, and either becoming a truck driver (He still has a commercial driver's license.) or pursuing his dream of becoming a veterinarian, which he still hopes to do upon retirement. But then the Steelers signed him again, in 2004, and by 2007 he was a star, although a controversial one.

So he knows how hard life can be, and he knows how life's prizes are apportioned.

And he knows how few trophies it awards people just for showing up, and he's trying to teach his sons that lesson.

As a father of six, I know how incredibly difficult it is to do that in the entitlement/everybody's special age in which we live, and it is often nothing short of heartbreaking to tell your children they don't deserve prizes they failed to earn.

So we tell them instead that "trying your best is all that matters," or "you tried that's what's important," and it is important, but we do them no favors, and considerable harm, by telling them that's all that matters.

Life is hard, and it is fiercely competitive, and if our children are going to excel, they need to learn that as early as possible.

Some people luck into their careers; some inherit them, and some have them handed to them by their parents, but the vast majority of people who succeed do so through hard work and determination.

Many, many psychological experts have warned us that celebrating children for non, or negligible, accomplishments is actually harmful to them, that it may make them feel good when they are eleven or twelve, but it dulls their competitive edge and blunts their resiliency as they grow older and become adults.

Children need to have a healthy fear of, and experience with, failure. One of the great things about athletics is that it gives children the opportunity to test their mettle in real life, showing them how to correct their mistakes and make their best better. It forces them to strive to do better and set higher standards than just showing up.

These lessons, of course, are not limited to ball fields and basketball courts, but increasingly, coaches are the people who teach them best. There's no grade inflation on the gridiron.

Life is full of winning and losing experiences, full of chances to succeed or fail, and kids need to experience them in the safety of childhood, or they will be shocked and saddened by life as adults.

Our goal, as parents, is to raise children who are morally upright and full of confidence and self-esteem. Entitlement driven ego inflation, with meaningless trophies and participation awards, encourages just the opposite.

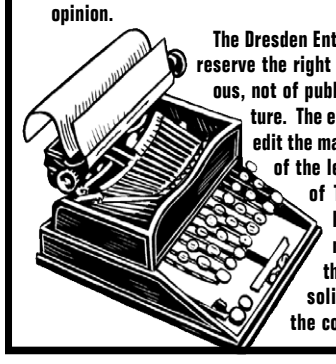

Yes, there are limits to what we should ask kids to do, and yes, perfection driven parents and coaches can go too far, and sometimes do, but demanding that children be the best they can be is not too much.

Anything less is not enough.

Hunker Down with Kes

Branch Rickey Called It 'Addition by Subtraction'

Don't ya'll think this election thing has done got out of hand! There are people running for president that I've never heard of. And, after listening to some "back and forth" amongst this gang, I realize why we've never heard of them! It is rhetoric on top of rhetoric, mostly pointing out what the other fellow DOESN'T have to offer. To make matters worse, the ones we have heard of don't seem to be making enough sense to separate themselves from the pack.

I hope and pray my candidate hasn't announced yet.

I remember years back when the chairman of the deacons at our church died. The church never bothered to appoint another one. Most folks declare to this day that was the best year the church ever had. Attendance was up. Baptisms increased by leaps and bounds. The choir never sounded better. The Haskin brothers had a "reconciliation". Sister Crowley got up one Sunday and testified. And the sheaves just kept on pouring in.....

You reckon that could work on a national level.

Daddy got mad at the guy heading up one of the car dealerships in town. This was in the late '50's and it had to do with some work done on his truck. Suffice it to say they didn't fix it to Dad's satisfaction. When the owner wouldn't "make it right", Dad went after him with a monkey wrench. After they finally got some semblance of order restored, Dad declared that "NOBODY would be better than what they had running this outfit"!

Now, there is some food for thought.

But it would present some serious problems. If we didn't have a president half the people in the world wouldn't have anybody to complain about. Who would throw out the first pitch at the Washington Nationals' home opener? Who would slant the State of the Union address to make themselves look good? Who would take those expensive vacation trips at the taxpayers' expense?

Y. D. Moore was the mayor in McKenzie, Tennessee, when I was a boy. I don't think he ever ran for the office. I know he never came to our house and ask for a vote. I never saw a sign saying "Vote for Y D" stuck in anybody's yard. And if he had'a put some kind of announcement of his impending election on television, if would have done him absolutely no good in three/fourths of the houses in town!

I never heard him give a speech. I never saw him cut a ribbon. If they had a town hall meeting, I was too young to attend. He didn't go to the football games on Friday nights. I'm not sure where he went to church. He would wave to us when we passed his house on our way to the picture show. And he did introduce Jim Alexander who introduced Governor Frank Clement when he spoke from the "Banner" balcony overlooking the square.

But mostly Mr. Moore stayed out of the way. I'm not saying he wasn't important. I'm not saying he didn't play a role in our city. And I'm certainly not saying he was just a figurehead or inept in any form or fashion. He just seemed content to visit a little at the barber shop and sit in on a few checker games up at the park bench across from Freeman's Menswear.

In short, he didn't do a whole lot of governing. But that was exactly what we needed at the time! We had about the best run town on the planet. Everybody seemed to get along. We had electricity and water piped right out to our house. Police Chief Aaron Pinson kept order with a smile and a friendly word. Most of the roads as you got close to town were paved. The Fourth of July parade was something to behold. I'm telling you with my hand up, the sun shined on us year 'round!

If America was run half as good as that today, we'd be applauding every president we've ever had.....and we wouldn't be shaking our collective heads about what to do with the upcoming election. Now, you can say "it's a bit more complicated today,", "no way those 1950 tactics could work in 2015", "you're being silly and unrealistic", "get your head out of the sand".....

But why couldn't less government be a viable option. Why and how did it get so big and complicated? Who let that happen?

Let me tell you something, if Y. D. Moore was fixing to get us into a war with Huntingdon, if he was hinting at raising taxes, if he "executive ordered" something the town didn't like, why my Daddy would have been charging his house with a monkey wrench faster than you could say, "Recall". And Aaron Pinson would have been right behind him, followed closely by Chandler King, J. A. Abernathy, Robert Hall and the whole rest of the town!

I think back on it now and realize..... I don't know to this day if Mr. Moore was a Democrat or a Republican.

How refreshing!

Respectfully,
Kes

It Might Rain... By Paula Watkins

.....then again, it might not. Listen my children – those of you who do not remember our local weather man, Raymond White. Everybody listened to WHDM radio at 9:00 a.m. to hear Mr. White's daily weather prediction. Even a factory in Bradford, TN would tune in to WHDM and use the public address system to air the forecast. Sewing machines stopped humming and packers stopped packing. Everybody wanted to hear Raymond White. Folks say Mr. White was approached by the Grand Ole' Opry about giving his weather information on KORN. He just didn't realize that he was a natural born comedian – it certainly wasn't his intention. He was serious about the weather. You just didn't know by listening to his five minute weather spiel whether you needed to carry an umbrella or wear snow boots. He didn't want us to say he "missed it". Mr. White kept part of his weather equipment installed down by the railroad tracks. He would walk down there early every morning to get the readings before the radio broadcast.

This being said, some of us have taken it upon ourselves to predict what the winter of 2015-16 will have in store for our little town. It began back in July; July 4th in fact. You remember that we had a very cool July 4th. We had a very cool July last year, and we had an above average snowy winter. There seemed to be thicker shucks on the corn this year – my mother-in-law said this was a sure sign of a cold, wet winter. The number of fogs during August has, for as long as I can remember, predicted the number of snows we can expect. If this bit of folklore holds true, you better go to cutting wood for the fireplace if you haven't already started.

The sure-fire, never wrong likelihood of a snowy winter is the persimmon seed. Stay with me, young people and learn about nature's way of forecasting the weather. The persimmon seed is ninety percent accurate; even more accurate than Raymond White. First, you have to find a persimmon tree and squish around the fallen persimmons rotting on the ground. (There used to be a persimmon tree on the site of the Twin Pools – wonder what happened to the tree?) You take that little black seed and split it open to reveal a fork, knife or spoon in the center of the seed. If a fork or a knife is in the middle, it means a mild winter. But you better batten down the hatches if you see a spoon. A spoon means that we will be shoveling a lot of snow. Several friends have seen spoons and more spoons.

And I forgot to include the wooly worm! If you see wooly worms with broad brown stripes, there will be a cold winter. A white wooly worm means a snowy winter. And on and on we go, just like Raymond White. It really doesn't matter what the weather has in store for us. It's just difficult for Mother Nature to please all the people, all of the time. In the middle of the winter, we will swear that we will never fuss about hot weather ever again! And here we are in the middle of hot weather, and we are wishing for some rain and cooler temperatures.

My advice to one and all is to buy cans of Vienna sausages, beans and wieners, crackers and peanut butter when you can find these items on sale. You never know..... And as Raymond White would sign off, "R. White, good day."

MCKENZIE — Bette Marie Smith Edwards, 83, of McKenzie , died Sunday September 6, 2015 at McKenzie Health Care Center following a lengthy battle with Alzheimer's Disease. Funeral services are at the Cedar Avenue Chapel of Brummitt-McKenzie Funeral Home on Friday, September 11 at 11:00 a.m. with the Reverend Byron Forester officiating. Burial will follow at Shiloh Cumberland Presbyterian Church Cemetery in McKenzie. Visitation at the funeral home is Thursday, 5:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Bette was born November 16, 1931 to the late Durell Brooks Smith and Annie Lee Lankford Smith. She wed Buddy (Max M.) Edwards November 10, 1967 and theirs was a glorious marriage. He preceded her in death. Her first marriage was to D.K. (Kenny) Mitchum.

Bette was a graduate of McKenzie High School and a member of Shiloh Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Holmes Community College Sports Hall of Fame and the Carroll County Sports Hall of Fame. Her skill and competitive drive for excellence in whatever she did exhibited themselves as she played basketball and bridge, in sewing, dancing, and cooking and as an accurate and avid hunter. Other passions were reading, classic movies and, yes, Elvis Presley. Prior to her illness, she was active in her church and community in various roles of service.

Her most valued role was as wife, mother and homemaker, which she made her life's work. Together Buddy and Bette parented Mary Ann (Steve) Baker, Mark Mitchum, Carie Neal (Dan) Bradfield, Kathy (Jeff) Meyers, Lora Lee (Rick) Goforth and Bub (Dian) Edwards, all of whom survive. Their home was opened to numerous friends, students and family members for extended periods of time as personal needs arose. It was also a regular site of celebrations that drew many beyond the immediate family.

Bette is also survived by beloved daughter-in-law Sherry, 14 grandchildren, Stephenie (Tim) Rogers, Roger (Melanie) Baker, Brooks, Luke and Witt Mitchum, Julie Bradfield, Lisa (Ryan) Griffin, Jana (Bubba) Stafford, Brian (Kristin) Meyers, Laura (Jeremy) Clemmer, Blake (Amber) and Mark (Christie) Goforth, Ben and Rachel Edwards and great-grandchildren, Timothy and Julianne Rogers, Nicholas and Delta Baker, Lute McCaslin, Seth Stafford, Brayden Cooley, Presley Goforth and Georgia Kate Goforth.

In addition to her parents and husband, Bette was preceded in death by her brother, Robert Douglas Smith and a great-granddaughter, Lila Ruth Griffin.

The family requests memorials be made to The Pat Summitt Foundation, online or at 520 W. Summitt Hill Drive, Suite 1101, Knoxville, Tn. 37902. (paid obit)

A Life Remembered "Homer"

James Lewis Foster

September 7, 1942 - December 23, 2014

Miss me, but let me go when I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room. Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long, and not with your head bowed low, remembered the love that we once shared.

Miss me, but let me go for this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the master's plan, a step on the road to home, when you are lonely and sick of heart go to friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me, but let me go.

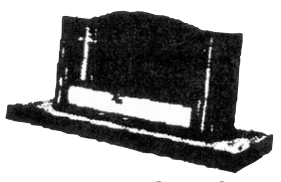

Your presence we miss, your memory we treasure, loving you always, forgetting you never.

Our love, Patti, Lindsay, Tyler, Mckalee, Scott, Dale, Byron, Jennifer, Josh, Everly, Wakely, Bobby, Cheryl, Jeff, Kim & Eddie

Lions Blank War Eagles, 47-0

By Kenneth Coker
Dresden Enterprise Sports Editor

West Carroll's Tristan Fuller stiff-arms Dresden's Alex Warren.

DRESDEN (September 4) — The Dresden Lions blanked West Carroll 47-0 in Region 7A action on Friday evening.

Dresden converted every possession for a touchdown for the second consecutive game, while pitching the program's first shutout since 2009.

Offensively, the Lions churned out 417 yards and 16 first downs compared to West Carroll's 30 yards.

Dresden quarterback Dresser Winn once again keyed the Lions' offense. The 6-foot-3 junior finished 8-for-9 for 194 yards with three touchdown throws.

Winn also led Dresden in the rushing yardage department with 85 yards and a touchdown among his four carries.

Next on the Lions' rushing list was usual yardage leader Dylan Yates, who ran for 71 yards with two touchdowns (seven total carries).

Dresden wide receiver Brice Williams topped the touchdown reception list with two TD catches and a total of 59 receiving yards.

Quincey McDonald - who saw time in relief of Winn at quarterback once the second string entered the game in the fourth quarter - rushed for 46 yards and accounted for 22 receiving yards.

Austin Thomas had a game-high four catches for 113 yards.

Defensively, Alex Warren made a team-best 12 tackles (four for a loss with a sack and a half), Jordan Mitchell accounted for nine stops (one for a loss) and Hudson Nanney totaled nine takedowns (three for a loss).

West Carroll earned only two first downs during Friday's defeat.

If any fault could be found in Dresden's showing, it was the penalty yards - a recurring problem for the squad this season.

All totaled, the Lions were whistled for 90 penalty yards with four automatic West Carroll first downs resulting.

Dresden (3-0, 2-0 in 7A) travels to Ballard Memorial this Friday. West Carroll hosts Lake County this week.

The Lions received the opening kickoff on Friday and wasted little time in gaining good field position as Williams hustled to the Dresden 40-yard line on the return.

Winn threw to Thomas behind the line of scrimmage on first down and Thomas tried to connect with Williams on a trick play, but the effort fell incomplete.

Next, Dylan Yates moved the chains with a 23-yard breakaway before Winn found Thomas for a 13-yard positive.

On the fourth play of the drive, Winn called Williams' number and the catch resulted in a 25-yard touchdown.

Dravine Irvine's point-after try was blocked, but the Lions held a 6-0 with less than a minute gone from the first quarter.

West Carroll notched seven yards on three plays (a pair of three-yard Trace Fuller carries and a two-yard Tristan Filler rush) before lining up for a fourth-and-two.

After netting a first down, the War Eagles were forced to punt as the Lions began their next possession pinned back at their own five-yard line.

Dresden's longest drive of the outing was next.

All totaled, the Lions needed six plays to find paydirt with Winn slashing through the defense on a 75-yard keeper for six-points.

Yates carried the two-pointer across as the Lions held a 14-0 advantage at the end of the first quarter.

West Carroll again got a first down via a Dresden penalty before opting to punt on fourth-and-three as the second period began.

The Lions took over on their own 45-yard line and Winn went to work, hooking up with Thomas for a 24-yard gain on the first play.

Three snaps later, Winn again called Thomas' number on a 36-yard aerial for Dresden's third touchdown of the evening.

At the start of West Carroll's next drive, Trace Fuller found Patrick Becker, before Yates took down Tristan Fuller behind the line of scrimmage for a loss and Warren sacked the quarterback to result in a fourth-and-20.

WC punted, but Dresden muffed the catch and the War Eagles took over at their own 47-yard line.

It didn't matter, though, as the Lions ultimately forced another punt after Warren made two more tackles for a loss.

Dresden tacked on another touchdown three plays into the drive that followed when Yates scooted in from four yards out.

West Carroll was unable to gain a first down on its next drive as it had been for all the first half.

Warren took down Trace Fuller for a five-yard negative on the War Eagles' fourth-down attempt to force a turnover on downs as the host team took over at WC's 40-yard line.

Winn and Williams got together for their second touchdown connection - a 34-yard play - of the ensuing drive.

Irvine's point-after was no good as the Lions held a 34-0 lead at halftime.

After West Carroll's initial third-quarter drive resulted in another punt, which Williams partially blocked, Dresden added to its lead.

With 6:47 remaining in the third quarter, Yates raced across the goalline.

Irvin's PAT was good as the Weakley Countians took a 41-0 lead.

For the remainder of the game, the clock ran continuously due to the TSSAA's mercy rule.

West Carroll earned a first down for the first time during the outing when Grayson Knight darted forward 12 yards midway through the third quarter.

Later in the drive, the War Eagles moved the chains for a second time when Trace Fuller bulled forward five yards.

Ultimately, WC fumbled on fourth-and-four - resulting in a five-yard loss and a turnover on downs.

On Dresden's ensuing drive, McDonald took over as signal-caller.

The junior - who played the position all of last season - carried three times for 48 yards before yielding to Ricco Taylor. Taylor made the 16-yard trip to the end zone to cap the Lions' scoring summary.

McKenzie School Board Elects Officers

During its September 1 meeting, the Board of Education for the McKenzie Special School District elected its own officers and representatives.

John Austin and Greg Barker were re-elected as chairman and vice chairman respectively. Lance Rider was elected treasurer, and Elaine Brown as elected as the school's representative to the Tennessee Legislation Network with Lance Rider as the alternate member.

Greg Barker and Michelle Horton were absent.

The board approved policy changes affecting the administration of medicine to students, surveying students, and background investigations for staff and faculty, who have direct contact with students. The policies changes were either recommended by the Tennessee School Boards Association or to comply with new state laws.

The policy on medicines allows designed and property trained school personnel, not just the nurse, to administer students' medicines or to assist students as they self-administer. The school must have written approval and instructions from the parents. The policy also allows personnel to administer glucagon in emergency situations to diabetic students. Also, students with pancreatic insufficiency or cystic fibrosis can self-manage their medications without assistance.

All newly hired personnel shall undergo a background check. The fingerprinting is completed on Bethel University's campus.

Collecting, disclosing or using information for marketing policies were implemented. It is very difficult to survey students without parental consent, said Lynn Watkins, director of schools. None of the data can be used for marketing, according to the policy.

A new policy entitled Student Assignment mandates the principal separate alleged victims of child sexual abuse from alleged perpetrator if the abuse allegedly occurred while the child was under the supervision or care of the school.

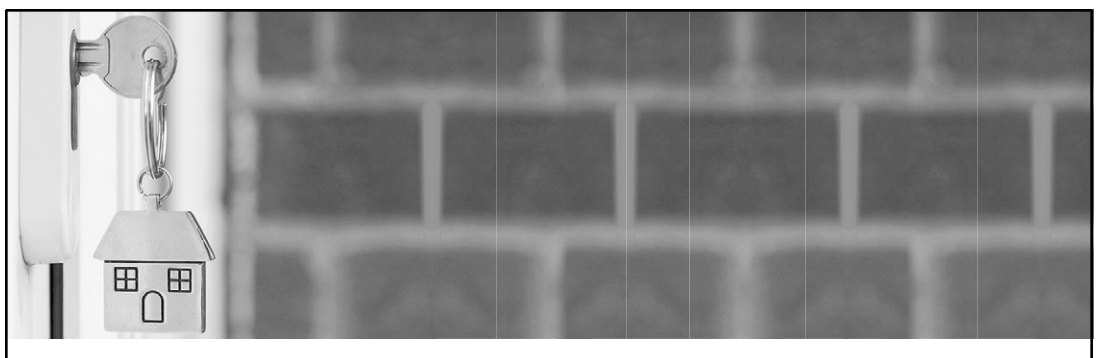

Watkins announced the high school was the subject of a randomly-selected audit by the Office of Civil Rights. The survey crew checked the portions of the school, measured door and hall widths for compliances, and restrooms and sinks. Watkins said the sink needs a moderate modification to designate one area as handicap and insulate the plumbing underneath to protect when a person rolls up in a wheelchair.

Board member Lance Rider said the survey staff was very complimentary of the school staff and its programs.

The board approved to continue to participate in the Tennessee Risk Management Trust Intergovernmental Cooperative for worker's compensation and liability insurance.

In the director's report, Watkins announced the hiring of Tamara Nanney in the cafeteria, and new substitute teachers – Alec Meddings, Wilberinia Pearson, Yolanda Hunt, and Jeremy Bilger.

Dancing with Local Stars to Raise Money for The Dixie

HUNTINGDON — What do a state representative, college president, pharmacist, and baseball coach have in common. They all will dance to raise funds for The Dixie.

Six brave and gracious contestants are shining their dancing shoes and working on their moves all to raise money at the 2015-2016 season opener fundraiser for The Dixie Carter Performing Arts & Academic Enrichment Center.

Just like the hit TV show "Dancing with the Stars," the event partners professional dancers with six local celebrities to learn a dance routine the week prior to the Saturday, September 12 show.

Three scores determine the winning dancers. Those include: Pre Votes, Live Audience Votes, and Judges' Scores. Pre Votes will be available online, over the phone and in person two weeks prior to the show at The Dixie Box Office.

The cost per vote is a $1 donation for The Dixie's Academic Enrichment opportunities and the School Time Performances. Celebrities include Amy Thompson, Alan Eubanks, Susan Cary, State Rep. Curtis Halford, and Dr. Logan Hampton.

Alan Eubanks is the principal of Huntingdon Primary School and head baseball coach at Huntingdon High School. Alan and his wife, Kelly Barnett Eubanks, have three sons, Gray (9), Hayes (5), and Mac (2 months). They attend First United Methodist Church. He is a graduate of Union University and the University of Tennessee. Alan enjoys spending time with his family, reading, and of course, baseball.

Amy Thompson is the director of Development with Bethel University. She is a qualified major gift officer and is a former Bethel College athlete in both cheerleading and soccer. Her husband is Rusty, the head baseball coach at Bethel and they have two sons, Ripken and Thomas Rex. They are members of Blooming Grove United Methodist Church in McKenzie. Amy is a graduate from the University of Tennessee and at one point worked for Dr. Lee Butler at the Huntingdon Animal Clinic in Huntingdon. Amy has a strong connection to Bethel University -- her father, Russ Ensell, received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Bethel, her brother, Ben Ensell, received his bachelor's degree and his Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies from Bethel, her sister, Renee, her Brother, Gabe, and his wife, Candice, have all graduated with their Bachelor's. It's clear Amy has a personal passion to help President Walter Butler build a strong Bethel Forevermore so students for years to come can have the opportunities Amy and her family have had.

Susan Cary is a native of Huntingdon. A graduate of Huntingdon High School and she attended The University of TN at Martin where she was a member of the Chi Omega Fraternity for women and active in student government. Susan studied pre-law and pre-pharmacy as an undergraduate. She received her PharmD degree from Samford University school of Pharmacy in Birmingham, Alabama. After completing her doctorate, she did a residency in hospital pharmacy at Baptist Hospital in Memphis and has worked in hospital, retail, and community pharmacy. Susan is serving her local community at City Drug Company. She is a member of the First Baptist Church and serves on The Friends of The Dixie Board. She is married to Mike Cary and they have three children, Carter 13, Campbell 11, and Claire 9. Susan's love for dancing began with her daddy while standing on his toes.

State Representative Curtis Halford is from Dyer and represents Gibson County and part of Carroll County. He is a veteran of the United States Air Force Reserve, and a member of the Gibson County Planning Commission, County Chamber of Commerce, and a former board member of Carey Counseling Peer Support Group and the National Rifle Association. Curtis has service in a multitude of public offices including Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee, Government Operations Committee, Senate Government Operations Sub-Committee, and the National Conference of State Legislators, just to name a few. Recent awards received include the Tennessee Veterinary Medical Association Legislator of the Year 2015, Northwest Tennessee Development District Legislator of the Year 2011 & 2015, and CNG for Tennessee Award 2015. He has been married for 50 years to his wife, Charlotte, they have two children, Lori and Brad, and five grandchildren, Kate, Charlotte, Noah, Jeremiah, and Titus. Curtis is an elder and a member of the board of trustees at Cumberland Presbyterian.

Dr. Logan Hampton was named 10th president of Lane College by the Lane College Board of Trustees on June 12, 2014. Dr. Hampton has a doctorate in higher education from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, received a master's degree in student personnel services from Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, La., and a bachelor's degree in biology from Arkansas Tech University. He also is a graduate of the Harvard Institute of Management and Leadership in Education. Before UALR, Hampton held positions at Texas A & M University, Texas Christian University, and the University of Central Arkansas. Prior to coming to Lane College, Dr. Hampton served in numerous student services capacities at UALR. His most recent appointment at UALR was Vice Provost for Student Affairs. In this position, Dr. Hampton served as the chief student affairs officer and led the student development and student life programs, including judicial affairs, budgetary and administrative services. In addition to working as a higher education administrator, Dr. Hampton was a member of the Board of Trustees for Arkansas Baptist College. He and his wife, Susan, are the parents of three children: Elise, Crystal and Logan III. The final contestant will be announced very soon so please stay tuned! Tickets for Dancing with our Local Stars are $50 each and are available at the Box Office in downtown Huntingdon, by calling 731-986-2100, and online at dixiepac.net.

Online voting begins Saturday, August 29. For voting in person and over the phone please contact the Box Office during regular business hours Mon-Fri. 10am-4pm. See you at The Dixie!

Lady Patriots Edge Lady Rebels in Extra Innings, 4-3

PARIS (September 1) — Despite out-hitting Henry County 10-1, McKenzie saw their 3-3 tie fade in the bottom of the eighth inning as Henry County plated their winning run and earned an emotional, 4-3 home win.

Henry County pitcher Smith fired seven strikeouts, walked five, and surrendered 8 hits in 7 1/3-innings to claim the win.

Lady Rebel hurler Anna Washburn fanned six, walked five, surrendered only one hit (Putman), and gave up no earned runs in 7 2/3-innings to absorb the tough loss.

Lady Rebel Lilly Bennett gave her squad a 1-0 lead in the top of the first by singling to plate Dani Dyer.

Following a scoreless second frame for both teams, Lady Rebel Jenna Taylor singled to score Dyer as McKenzie widened their lead over Henry County, 2-0.

In the bottom of the third, the Lady Patriots plated three runs to capture the lead, 3-2.

McKenzie knotted the contest, 3-3, in the top of the fourth as neither squad scored in the sixth or seventh innings, forcing the contest into extra innings.

After The Lady Rebels failed to score in the top of the eighth, Henry County scored one run in their final at-bat to secure the 4-3 win.

Thompson Joins Bethel SID

MCKENZIE — The Bethel University Sports Information office added another staff member recently with the signing of Memphis native Logan Thompson. The Junior Business major previously attended Faith Heritage Christian Academy and Southwest Community College.

The son of Mark and Laurie Thompson of Memphis, Logan will serve as a SID student-assistant.

He was a member of the Home Schooled National Champion basketball squad and varsity all-region as a junior during his prep career. He averaged 10 points, nine rebounds and four assists.

He was named a Tennessee Scholar during his prep days.

Bethel Director of Sports Information Dave McCulley commented, "Logan is a fine young man who brings a great degree of maturity to our office. He loves sports and will fit in nicely with our group. I am very proud of the quality of people we have in our office as we serve our many student-athletes and coaches."

Rebels Plow Pioneers 44-7

By Jason Martin
jmartin@mckenziebanner.com

DYER (September 4) —The McKenzie Rebels made the journey to Gibson County last Friday night to take on the Pioneers. This game marked the opening of Region 6 Class 2A play for both teams. It was a night filled with humidity and team effort as the Rebels came away victorious by a score of 44-7.

The Gibson County Pioneers won the opening toss and elected to receive the kick. After 10 plays and 31 yards, the Pioneers turned the ball over on downs at the Rebel 30 yard line. The Rebels' opening drive ended with a Jack Surber 32-yard punt.

The Pioneers were on the move with their second possession. Chipping at the Rebel defense, the Pioneers racked up over 50 yards. Gibson County was 17 yards away from the end zone. On their heels, the Rebels could not stop the Pioneers as Cantrell Jackson ran into the end zone with 1:44 remaining in the 1st quarter. Henry Todd's PAT was good as Gibson County took the early lead 7-0.

The Rebels were fired up and determined after the Pioneer touchdown. With a little deception and a lot of razzle-dazzle McKenzie responded in just one play. Starting at the Rebel 48 yard line, Surber faked the handoff to his back. That's all it took for Surber to make his move to the left edge as Gibson County pursued the invisible ball at the line of scrimmage. Surber's 52-yard touchdown left McKenzie down one after a missed PAT with 1:29 left in the 1st quarter.

McKenzie's defense came alive as Gibson County opened the 2nd quarter. The Pioneers were forced to punt on their next possession. McKenzie COLLINWOOD (September 4) — Early in this gridiron season, Huntingdon is making it look easy. After a convincing win to start their season last week in Camden, the Mustangs made the long trek to region foe Collinwood for an encore. The backfield trio of quarterbacks Dylan Johnson and Kade Pearson and runningback Zach Dodson ran for two touchdowns each as the Mustangs routed the Trojans, 42-6.

Collinwood won the toss and elected to receive. Mustang kicker Jayden Williams continued his impressive start with a strong boot for a touchback. Trojan Clayton Lockley took the handoff on first down, but was met by Kade Pearson for a loss. Lockley tried again, but was stopped at the line of scrimmage by Cory Levitt. Quarterback Ty Robertson looked to pass on third down, but was sacked by Jonah Davis and Austin Russell. Deep in their own territory, the Trojans were forced to punt.

Starting at the Collinwood 44, Huntingdon committed a false start to move back 5 yards. Dylan Johnson took the first snap and ran 7 yards, stopped by Trojan Brylie Fisher. Next, Johnson handed off to Zach Dodson, who was met in the backfield by Trojan Michael Scott. The next snap played out the same way, except that Dodson managed 11 yards before Scott made the stop. With a fresh set of downs, Pearson took the snap, gaining 12 after a huge block by Sadarius Hutcherson. Pearson's second carry went for went for 5 yards, but the play was called back for holding. The next play was also waived off, this time on offsetting penalties. Pearson rushed for 7, then Johnson for 12 into the redzone. Still needing 2 yards on third down, Pearson rushed for 10. Pearson kept again on first-and-goal from the 2, pushing across for the score.

Williams made a good kick for the point after, and Huntingdon led 7-0 with 6:38 remaining in the first quarter.

Williams made another strong kickoff nearly into the endzone, and Austin Russell stopped the return at the 11. Michael Scott ran twice to start the second Trojan drive, gaining a total of 3 yards. A third down pass attempt by Robertson was broken up by Pearson, and Collinwood was again forced to punt.

Robertson made a good punt to the Huntingdon 35, but Keeton Bailey made returned the ball all the way to the Collinwood 27. On the first snap, Johnson faked a handoff to Dodson, then ran the 27 yards for the touchdown.

A false start backed up the PAT to the 10, and the kick was no good. With 4:37 remaining in the first, Huntingdon led 13-0.

Tigers Sink Vikings, 45-0

By Ernie Smothers

LINDEN (September 4) — In Region 6 1A high school football action, the Hollow Rock-Bruceton Central Tigers (3-0), coupled the production of Zayveon Johnson (rushing scores of 16, 5, 66 yards), Ryan Cole (touchdown touches of 2 and 5 yards), with a 45-yard scoring strike from freshman tailback Brady Snider to Logan Belew and respective 35-yard fumble returns by freshmen Jeffrey Platt and Brent Cole to defeat shutout Perry County, 45-0.

Central's defense was led via the strong tackling of Cody Knuutila, Dalton Davis, Chase Snider, Dalton Caswell, Ryan Hughes, and Isaiah Donald.

Receiving the opening kickoff, Perry County tested the Tiger defense early by marching for four first downs before turning the ball over on downs deep in Central territory.

After Central was forced to turn the ball over on downs on their initial offensive drive, Perry County, utilizing a tight, toe-to-toe line formation, shuffled straight ahead dives with misdirection reverses to march across midfield before being stopped once more deep in Tiger territory.

Switching gears, Central's offensive line battled up front as totes by Zayveon Johnson and Isaiah Donald marched the football across midfield and into Viking territory. At the 3:31 mark of the first frame, Johnson broke into the Viking secondary before being hauled down by Brandon Johnson at the Perry County 6. Johnson then plowed right side to the one before a five-yard illegal procedure call moved the ball back to the 6. Attacking the middle, Johnson bulled to the 2. With 1:33 remaining in the first stanza, Ryan Cole raced right side

HUNTINGDON (September 1) — With the game tied 4-4 in the top of the seventh, Lexington's offense exploded for nine runs in their final at-bat to claim a hard-fought, 13-6 win over Huntingdon.

Lady Tiger pitcher Sydney fired seven strikeouts in seven innings to secure the win.

Fillies' hurler Adyn Swenson struck out ten in seven innings to absorb the loss.

Lexington combined nine hits and 10 RBIs via the efforts of Presley (4 RBIs including two-run homer), Morgan (4 RBIs including a two-run homer and two-run triple), Skylar (2 RBI) and solo RBIs by Auya, Sydney, and Haley.

Huntingdon was paced offensively via the efforts of Fuller (solo homerun, two RBI singles), Addison Postlewait (2-4, RBI), and Swenson (RBI).

Lexington went up 2-0 in the top of the first via Morgan's homer.

Huntingdon answered in the bottom of said inning as Fuller rocketed a solo blast over the fence.

Following a scoreless second for both squads, Huntingdon knotted the game at 2-2 in the bottom of the third.

Lexington added one run in the fourth and Huntingdon responded with a run in the fifth as the game was knotted, 3-3.

After both teams plated one run respectively in the sixth, Lexington unleashed to plate nine runs in the top of the seventh.

Huntingdon scored two runs in their final at-bat as Lexington won, 13-6.

In a slugfest for both teams, Lexington out-hit Huntingdon 14-11.

Huntingdon led Lexington in errors in the contest, 4-0.

Zach O'Kelley Named Bethel Assistant SID

Courtesy Bethel SID

MCKENZIE (September 2) — Zach O'Kelley is the new Assistant Sports Information Director at Bethel University.

The son of Claude and Janice O'Kelley of Florence, Alabama, Zach is a 2000 graduate of Brooks High School and 2015 graduate of Bethel with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Business Administration (Accounting Emphasis).

He came to Bethel as a member of the Wildcat bowling team.

For the last three years, O'Kelley has worked as a student assistant in the Sports Information Department at the school. He has been instrumental in aiding the sports information department in streaming athletic events with Wildcat Vision.

O'Kelley has been actively involved as an umpire with Babe Ruth / Cal Ripken Baseball in West Tennessee.

He resides in McKenzie.

Bethel Director of Sports Information Dave McCulley said, "We are very pleased Zach has joined our staff on a full-time basis. He has been a very good student assistant and is very knowledgeable in what it takes for our office to be effective in covering the many sports (28) programs we have. He is very loyal and has a great passion for his work. He has also been the key to our streaming with Wildcat Vision. We look forward to him continuing to be an asset to our mission."

to score. Fighting back, Perry County blocked Ryan Hughes PAT kick as the Tigers led, 6-0.

Perry County returned the Tiger kickoff to their 20. Determined, Viking fullback Demarius Lee carried Tiger defenders for a first down at the Tiger 37 as time expired in the first canto with Central leading, 6-0.

As play resumed in the second quarter, Tiger defenders Cody Knuutila, Dalton Davis, and Austin Hardin combined for big stops to force Perry County to gamble on fourth-and-one. Taking the snap from center, Viking quarterback Martin kept up the middle to move the chains at the PC 31. On the ensuing play, tailback Hensley took the double reverse and darted right side for a first down at midfield. Martin kept for another first down before Central's defense clamped down, forcing the Vikings to punt on fourth-and-ten with the ball being downed at the Tiger 25 at the 6:36 mark of the second square.

Reacting, Tiger Johnson utilized a block by Logan Belew to spring outside before being tackled at the CHS 40. Donald bulled for a gain of five before Cole erupted across midfield before being tackled by Brandon Jackson. Following a tough, five-yard tally by Johnson, freshman tailback Brady Snider took a pitch from Bratton right side and fired a 45-yard touchdown strike to Belew. Bratton's two-point conversion rush was stopped as Central led Perry County, 12-0, at the 3:25 mark of the second frame.

Utilizing big tackles by Knuutila and Hughes, Central forced Perry County to punt away.

At the 1:11 mark of the second period, Tiger speedster Johnson erupted through a gap in the Central line and ignited 66 yards to score. Hughes PAT was true as Central increased their lead, 19-0.

Disaster struck Perry County on their next offensive drive as Tiger Dalton Davis picked up a Viking lateral and returned the ball to the PC 34. On the ensuing play, Johnson romped to the Viking 5. With 3.3 seconds remaining in the second clip, Johnson plunged to paydirt. Hughes PAT kick was no good as Central led Perry County at the half, 25-0.

Tiger Ethan Mitchell recovered PC's second-half opening onside kick. Donald raced for first down at the Viking 36 before Bratton's pass was intercepted by Larkin and returned to the Viking 21.

Tiger linemen Dylan Thompson and Knuutila forced Perry County to punt with Donald fair-catching the spiral at the Tiger 46.

Bratton fired a first down completion to Josh Gentry at the PC 42 before B. Snider moved the chains at the 27 behind a "student-body" blocking front led by Donald. Johnson toted Viking defenders Watkins and Green to the 15 before Cole bulled up the middle to the five.

Tiger senior defensive lineman Cody Knuutila (55) led Central's shutout of Perry County.

At the 6:53 mark of the third period, Cole darted through a gap to score and Hughes added the PAT boot as Central extended their lead over Perry County, 32-0.

As Central began to shuffle in reserves, both teams fought for field position and exchanged possessions as the third period ended with the Tigers in control, 32-0.

In the final frame of action, Central's freshmen accounted for two defensive fumble returns for scores as Jeffrey Platt and Brent Cole galloped 35 yards respectively to give the Tigers a dominating 45-0 win over Perry County.

This Friday night, the Tigers host the McNairy Central Bobcats in non-region action. Game time is 7:00 p.m.

McKenzie Marching Rebels add spirited music after a Rebel touchdown.

Rebels

found success on a 10 play 66-yard drive that included a Gibson County horse collar penalty providing the Rebels with a much-needed 1st down. Sitting second and goal from the 5 yard line, Surber drug a host of Pioneers into the end zone. Electing to go for two, Surber hit Donavon Foley with a hot pass giving McKenzie the lead 14-7 with 6:08 left in the half.

Gibson County fumbled the kick return and a blanket of Rebels recovered the pigskin. McKenzie was in prime scoring position sitting 1st and 10 from the Gibson County 29 yard line. Eric Robinson did most of the work on the series picking up 22 yards that included a 3-yard touchdown. Surber kept the two-point conversion increasing the Rebel lead to 22-7.

The Pioneers looked to rebound from the 22 unanswered points from the Rebels, but the McKenzie defense stayed the course. Mitch Merrick of McKenzie sacked Jackson leaving the Pioneers third and long. Looking far and wide for a 1st down, Jackson hit Nicholas Shands in mid-stride for a 31-yard strike. Gibson County could not move the ball but a mere 7 yards, turning the ball over on downs.

McKenzie took over and so did Surber's arm. From the Gibson County 31 yard line, Surber threw a stunning pass that flew perfectly over Robinson's right shoulder into his waiting hands. Cradling the ball in his arm, Robinson crossed the goal line for a 69-yard Rebel touchdown. Surber and Merrick teamed up for an additional two points, mounting the McKenzie lead 30-7 with 2:21 remaining in the 2nd quarter.

The Rebels took over following a Pioneer 13-yard punt as the final minute of the half ticked away on the clock. Surber hooked up with Robinson for 30 yards as the back went out of bounds at the Pioneer 15 yard line. The duo of Surber/Robinson struck again, this time for 7 yards out for another Rebel touchdown. Lucas Waddell's PAT was good; Rebels closed the half out 37-7 over the Pioneers.

The second half opened with Gibson County catching McKenzie off guard. The Pioneers were able to recover the onside kick. After a sack supplied by McKenzie's Cameron Oakley, Gibson County went three and out.

Taking over on downs, McKenzie and Gibson County began a slugfest. Both teams battled back and forth picking up a handful of yards. Each possession resulted in turning the ball over on downs or being forced to punt the ball away. It cannot go without saying, the 3rd quarter belonged to McKenzie's defense with hard hits and sacks provided by Merrick, Oakley, Julius Owens, DeJan McNulty, Blake Baker, and the entire defensive line.

As the 3rd quarter drew to a close, McKenzie tacked on the last points of the game. Robinson scurried to pay dirt from 6 yards out. Followed by a successful Waddell PAT, the McKenzie lead was 44-7.

With the clock running via the "Mercy Rule," emotions began to run high for the Pioneers. After unsuccessfully obtaining a 1st down, Gibson County punted the ball away. On the return, the Pioneers began shoving the Rebels. Officials littered the field with yellow hankies just in time to prevent the two opponents from coming to blows. Gibson County was accessed the unsportsmanlike conduct penalty, but both teams received a warning.

As the 4th quarter resumed, McKenzie began rotating in substitute players. They stood strong and held their ground against Gibson County's first stringers. As the clock struck zero, McKenzie picked up the regional win. The Rebels improved their record to 1-0 in region play and 2-1 overall. The Gibson County Pioneers fell to 0-1 in the region and 1-2 overall.

Statistically the Rebels dominated the Pioneers. McKenzie picked up 359 total yards. 149 yards came in rushing. Surber led in rushing with 91 yards and 2 TDs followed by Robinson's 54 yards and 2 TDs. In passing, Surber was 11 for 21 going for 210 yards and 2 TDs. Robinson led in receiving with 101 yards and 2 TDs followed by Foley with 56 yards.

The McKenzie defense held the Gibson County Pioneers to 185 total offensive yards. In passing, the Pioneers were 4 for 16 going for 106 yards. On the ground, the Pioneers accumulated 79 yards. The average distance per play was a sheer 3.6 yards.

Next Friday night will be homecoming in McKenzie as the 2A Rebels take on the 3A Camden Lions. Game time is set for 7:30 p.m.

Williams kickoff sailed out of bounds, and the Trojans began their third drive from the 35. Lockley carried on first down for no gain, then Robertson's pass fell incomplete. Fisher caught a shuffle pass on third down, but gained just a yard. Collinwood again went three-and-out, punting for the third time.

Pearson took the first snap 81 yards to the endzone, but a holding call near midfield negated most of the run. Dodson ran for 9 yards, then Pearson for 6 for a first down in Trojan territory. Johnson broke free for 23 yards before he was forced out by Jeremiah Tidwell. From the 20, Dodson found a clear path to the endzone.

Tyrese Mebane rushed for the two-point conversion, and Huntingdon led 21-0 near the end of the first quarter.

Williams kicked off to the 3 yard line, where Lockley returned it to the 21. A face mask penalty against Huntingdon moved the ball another 15 yards, giving the Trojans their best field position of the contest. Christian Weaver took the first handoff, stopped after a yard by Cory Levitt. Scott then ran the ball, gaining 7 before Marvaughn McClerkin made the stop, bringing up the end of the quarter.

Starting the second quarter on third down with a long yard to go, Scott managed 3 for a Trojan first down, their first of the game. Nearing Mustang territory, Weaver was met in the backfield by Hutcherson, with Russell coming in for the finish. Scott then took a shuffle pass 11 yards across midfield for another first down. Weaver managed 3 yards, but on a second try was stopped for no gain by Russell, with McClerkin in for the finish. Huntingdon jumped offside for a 5-yard penalty, then Scott ran 7 yards for yet another first down. Brylie Fisher rushed for 4 yards, then Weaver ran twice for a total of 5. Facing fourth-and-one just outside of the redzone, Robertson kept and managed 3 yards for a first. Scott and Robertson each rushed once, but were both stopped at the line by Dustin Wade. Robertson threw to Fisher in the endzone, but it fell incomplete. On fourth-and-10, Robertson looked to pass again, but threw it away with Wade closing in on him.

Huntingdon took over looking at a long field, but Johnson rushed for 8 to take off the pressure on first down. Dodson then took a handoff 3 yards for a Mustang first down. Johnson kept the next snap and nearly took it the distance, but settled for 71 yards and a first-and-goal at the 3. Pearson took the next snap and pushed across the goal line.

Williams kicked the PAT, and Huntingdon led 28-0 in the latter part of the second quarter.

Robertson returned the kickoff from the 8 to the 27, stopped by Travious Gordon. Weaver took the first snap 6 yards. Another run was stopped for a loss by Michael Arnhold, then a delay of game cost the Trojans 5 yards. On third-and-10, Scott found an opening, but was taken down after 6 yards by McClerkin. On fourth-and-4 with under a minute left in the half, Robertson's punt was blocked by Ben Clifft and tumbled out of bounds at the Collinwood 9.

Dodson took the handoff on first down, rushing in for the score. Another good kick by Williams gave Huntingdon the 35-0 lead with 30 seconds until halftime.

Robertson received the kick at the 5 and was stopped at the 28 by Travious Gordon. With time for just one play, Weaver rushed, but was met at the line by Austin Russell.

At the half, Huntingdon led 35-0.

Huntingdon received the ball to start the third. Tyrese Mebane picked up a short kick near midfield and returned it to the Trojan 20. Dodson ran 7 yards on first down thanks to a block by Pearson. He followed that with a 9-yard trot for a first down at the 6. Pearson took the ball to the 2, then Johnson punched it in.

Williams' kicked sailed true, and with 8:50 left on a running third-quarter clock, the Mustangs were on top 42-0.

Mustang Orry Hodo replaced Williams for the kickoff, driving the ball to the opposite 30. Robertson picked it up and found an open path toward the endzone. Kelby Pearson caught him at midfield, saving a touchdown. The first pair of Trojan snaps were fruitless, and Robertson kept for just 4 yards on the third. Collinwood punted again, with the kick sailing out of bounds at the Mustang 29.

Kelby Pearson rushed on first down for no gain, then Dejuan Raglin ran for 2 yards. Dallas Willis moved the chains with a 9-yard carry, then was met for a loss by Trojan Aaron Holt. Raglin gained another 2, then Willis rushed for 14 and another first down across midfield. Kelby Pearson ran for a yard, then Willis jetted 22 yards as the third quarter ended.

On first-and-10 from the Trojan 26, Xavier White lost a yard. Willis gained it back, then another 4 on third down. Needing 5, Willis ran for 7 to extend the drive. White rushed for 3, then Kelby Pearson for 2. After a stop at the line of scrimmage, Kelby Pearson threw to Willis on fourth down, but it fell incomplete.

As the Trojans took over at their own 10, Robertson kept the first snap and broke out for a 66-yard gain, chased down by Willis to prevent a touchdown. Fisher rushed twice for a total of 4 yards, then Scott carried for 6 more, but was stopped short of the first down by Willis. Scott ran again, this time picking up the first in the redzone. Weaver rushed for 6, then Scott took it the final 7 to get Collinwood on the board.

A fumble foiled the two-point conversion, and with under 2 minutes remaining in the game, Huntingdon led 42-6.

Huntingdon managed 3 snaps in the time remaining, netting a 3-yard run by Willis and runs of 2 and 3 yards by Kelby Pearson.

Time expired, and Huntingdon celebrated a convincing victory over the Trojans, 42-6. The Mustangs move to 2-0 on the season and 1-0 in region play.

Huntingdon had 350 yards of total offense, all of it on the ground. Dylan Johnson had 7 touches for 150 yards and 2 touchdowns. Kade Pearson carried 8 times for 77 yards and 2 touchdowns. Zach Dodson rushed 7 times for 60 yards and 2 touchdowns. Freshman Dallas Willis got 8 touches for 55 yards.

The Mustangs will travel to Milan Friday for a non-region contest.

Cleared for take-off-Mustang Dejuan Robinson jets 70 yards to score against Camden

Mustangs Cage Lions, 44-6

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

HUNTINGDON (September 3) — In middle school football action, the fast-and-furious Huntingdon Mustangs coupled controlling offensive line blocking with touchdowns by Dejuan Robinson (70-yard kickoff return, scoring darts of 3 and 10 yards), Brandon Lawton (33-yard scoring burst), Sebastian Kee (27-yard touchdown trot) and Connor Pearson (65-yard kickoff return for score) to cruise to a 44-6 win over the Camden Lions.

Defensively, the Mustangs utilized the fierce tackling of Daniel Sullenger, Bo McLemore, Connor Pearson, and Lawton to limit the Lions to a 42-yard touchdown tote by Darius Jones.

HMS won the coin toss but deferred possession to the second half. Mustang Colin Finch's kickoff was returned by Lion Chance Patton to the Lion 43. Jones battled right side for a gain of two before being dropped by Mustang Sullinger for no gain. On the ensuing snap, Lion quarterback Patton deep pass downfield was defended by Robinson, forcing Camden to punt on fourth and eight. Gathering in the pigskin at the HMS 30, Mustang speed merchant Robinson wrapped the ball with both hands as he jetted behind a wall of blockers down the left sideline to paydirt. Lawton's two-point conversion attempt was stopped as HMS led Camden, 6-0, at the 5:46 mark of the first canto.

Lion Brennon Chandler returned the HMS kickoff to Camden 42. Defensive stops by Steven Rich and Sullenger to force the Lions to turn over the ball at midfield at the 3:03 mark of the first square.

HMS answered quickly as Lawton followed his 17-yard tote with a 33-yard scoring burst with 2:17 remaining in the first quarter. Robinson added the two-point conversion right side as Huntingdon extended their lead, 14-0.

Continuing to shine, Mustang Lawton intercepted a fourth-and-eight pass and returned the ball to the Lion 45 as time expired in the first period with HMS leading, 14-0.

As play resumed in the second period, Lawton unleashed an aerial strike to Hunter Ledsinger at the Lion 3. Robinson capped the short drive with a three-yard burst and added the two-point conversion as HMS widened their lead, 22-0, at the 7:18 mark of the second clip.

Ramping up, HMS defenders Jager Taylor, Bo McLemore and Connor Pearson forced the Lions to punt on fourth and long with Lawton returning the kick to the Camden 39.

Battling back, Lion's Poole and Bassett tackled Lawton for a loss of three. Pearson kept for a gain of two before Lawton raced right side to the Lion 10. Taking the pitch right side, Robinson scored and Lawton added the two-point conversion as HMS extended their lead at the 2:39 mark of the second clip, 30-0.

Determined, Camden's Patton returned Finch's kickoff to the Lion 34. With 2:20 remaining in the first half, Lion runningback Jones rumbled right side across midfield for Camden's initial first down of the contest a the HMS 45. Lineman / fullback Poole blasted inside for a gain of three before Jones erupted left side and outran HMS defenders to the end zone. Ethan Fry's two-point conversion rush was no good as Camden trailed HMS at the half, 30-6.

Receiving the second-half opening kickoff, Mustang Connor Pearson ignited the Mustang faithful by racing left side 65 yards to score. Lawton added the two-point conversion as the Mustangs led the Lions at the half, 38-6.

Switching to reserves, HMS added their final score when Sebastian Kee rambled 27 yards to score with 16.8 ticks remaining in regulation as the Mustangs celebrated their 44-6 win over Camden.

McKenzie Golf Team 2015

Lady Rebels Edge Lady War Eagles, 1-0

MCKENZIE (September 3) — In a classic battle pitting two evenly-matched squads, the McKenzie Middle School Lady Rebels combined the hitting of Anna Washburn (two doubles) and Camille Travis (game-winning RBI single in the fourth) to earn a tough, 1-0 win over a strong West Carroll squad.

Going the distance on the mound, Lady Rebel hurler Washburn struck out two and surrendered four hits to earn the shutout.

Lady War Eagle pitcher Gracie Cunningham struck out two, walked none, and allowed one run in four innings to absorb the loss.

Carroll County Sheriff's Reports

Burglars Caught in the Act

•Two Carroll County teens were arrested Aug. 26 when they were allegedly caught in the act of burglarizing a shop on Kelly Road near Huntingdon.

Deputy Scotty Davis charged both Robert Paul Falkinburg, 18, of 465 Bluebird Lane, Huntingdon, and Joseph Gaige Cozart, 18, of 110 Greenhill Road, Atwood, with burglary and theft over $1,000. According to Davis' report, officers responded to a call about a burglary in progress at 300 Kelly Road. Upon arrival, officers found resident Mike Foster standing over Falkinburg. Foster told officers that Falkinburg was one of two men who had broken into his shop, and the other man had fled on foot. Deputies found various items taken from the shop on a four-wheeler that had also been taken from the shop. They also found an insurance card with Cozart's name on it. While deputies were still investigating the scene, Foster's wife told them that she heard a noise coming from across the road. When they went to check it out, deputies found Cozart laying down in the woods. Deputies also found another stolen four-wheeler nearby. Both Falkinburg and Cozart gave written statements implicating themselves in other crimes, leading to the recovery of two more ATV's.

Simple Assault

•A McKenzie man was arrested Aug. 30 for allegedly threatening and throwing an object at a McKenzie woman at her residence.

Kevin Lynn Sawyers, 46, of 776 Magnolia was charged with simple assault. According to the police report, officers responded to a domestic incident at the home of Tammy L. Miller at 530 Highfield Street. Miller told officers that Sawyers had come to her residence and started making verbal threats. Miller said he then threw a 12-ounce soda can at her, hitting her in the shoulder and causing minor bruising. Sawyers, who had left before officers arrived, was later found and arrested.

Simple Assault

•A Cedar Grove man was arrested Aug. 28 for allegedly striking a Cedar Grove woman at their mutual residence.

Deputy Mike Verner charged Brandon Tyler Clark, 23, of 8655 Highway 70 with simple assault. According to Verner's report, officers responded to a domestic call at Clark's residence. Clark met officers outside holding a baby. Officers went inside the residence and spoke with Chelsea Fee. They observed that Fee had a fresh black eye and a mark on her right upper arm.

Disorderly Conduct

•An Atwood man was arrested Aug. 28 for allegedly causing a public disturbance in Trezevant.

Deputy Kris Byrd charged Frederic Horton Crawley, 35, of 228 Peggy Lane with disorderly conduct. According to Byrd's report, officers responded to a call about a disturbance at 131 Holmes Street in Trezevant. A resident advised officers that Crawley was next door harassing some construction workers and trying to take one of the worker's bicycle. The resident also said that Crawley started pulling hoses off the house where the workers were working. Byrd noted that this was the second time that the Sheriff's Department had received a call about Crawley's unruly behavior in less than an hour.

Drug Violations

•A Benton County man was arrested Aug. 29 when he was allegedly found to be in possession of illegal drugs.

Deputy Mike Verner charged James Darnell Hedge, 40, of Camden with drug/narcotics violations. According to Verner's report, officers found a substance the field-tested positive for methamphetamine inside a cigarette pack in Hedge's pants pocket.

•A Gibson County man was arrested Aug. 29 when officers allegedly found him in an intoxicated state at the scene of an unrelated investigation.

Deputy Dennis Adkins charged James Morris Jones, 33, of Humboldt with DUI (second offense) and violation of the implied consent law. According to Adkins' report, he responded to the scene of a Department of Children's Services (DCS) investigation near the intersection of Highway 70 and Old Lavinia Road. Upon arrival, Adkins noticed a vehicle pulled up next to the DCS investigator's vehicle with a man later identified as Jones leaning up against it. While speaking with Jones and asking him what he was doing there, Adkins noticed that Jones smelled strongly of alcohol and was unsteady on his feet. When asked how many alcoholic beverages he had consumed, Jones replied: "two — too many." Adkins reported that Jones performed poorly on field sobriety tests and then refused to submit to a blood-alcohol test.

Mail Theft

•Authorities are looking for the man and woman responsible for stealing mail from a mailbox outside a McKenzie residence.

According to the report by Deputy Mike Taylor, Lauren Fields told officers that she saw a white male and a white female riding on a black four-wheeler stop at her mailbox at 1760 Robinson Levee Road. She said they took the mail from her mailbox, which had its flag up at the time, and drove away. Officers searched the area but were unable to find the suspects. According to Fields, the stolen mail included three checks for bill payments.

A Henry County man was arrested Sept. 1 when officers allegedly caught him driving in an intoxicated state at the scene of a fallen tree on Highway 114 North.

Deputy Ryan Dickson charged Bradley Douglas, 40, of Springville with DUI (first offense). According to Dickson's report, he was on his way to the scene of a fallen tree across Highway 114 when he observed a Chevrolet pickup truck traveling at a high rate of speed. The truck eventually pulled over and let Dickson pass, but after Dickson had arrived at the scene of the fallen tree, that same pickup pulled up behind him and started flashing its headlights on and off. The truck then pulled up beside Dickson, and Douglas (who was the driver) offered to help move the tree. While speaking with Douglas, Dickson noticed that he smelled strongly of alcohol and also saw two empty beer containers inside the vehicle. When asked, Douglas told Dickson that he had consumed four beers. Dickson reported that Douglas performed poorly on field sobriety tests.

Huntingdon Police Reports

Break-In

•Police are looking into a recent break-in at a local business.

Myles Wilkes told officers on Aug. 28 that sometime during the previous week someone kicked in the back door to the barbecue pit behind the main building at 74 Cotton Lane. Wilkes said the burglar[s] moved several items toward the door, apparently intending to pick them up later.

Public Intoxication

A Huntingdon man was arrested Aug. 28 after officers allegedly found him in a drunken state in a public area.

Patrolman Brian Bennett charged Clifton Cox of 295 Cotham Drive #9 with public intoxication. According to Bennett's report, dispatch received a call about a man pushing a bike along Cotham Drive and using the bike to hold himself up. After locating the man, Bennett stopped and spoke with the man, who he identified as Cox. Bennett reported that Cox smelled strongly of alcohol and could barely stand up on his own.

Criminal Trespassing

•A Huntingdon man was arrested Aug. 29 after officers found him at a residence he had previously been warned by police to stay away from.

Sgt. Chris Cole charged Robert Rush with criminal trespassing. According to Cole's report, officers responded to a call about an unwelcome person on the property at 290 McCall Street. Officers found Rush on the property, and the resident there told officers that he did not invite Rush into his residence and wanted him to leave because he was afraid of him. Officers had previously warned Rush not to come to that residence back in June.

Public Intoxication

•A Cedar Grove woman was arrested Aug. 28 when officers allegedly found her in a drunken state in a public area.

Sgt. Chris Cole charged Lauren Parker of 7295 Highway 70 with public intoxication. According to Cole's report, officers responded to a call from a residence on Jordan Avenue saying that an intoxicated woman was banging on the back door. Officers found Parker walking along Jordan Avenue. Cole reported that Parker smelled of alcohol, her speech was slurred, and she was unsteady on her feet. Parker told officers that she had been banging on the door hoping to get someone to come jump off her car, which she said was down the road. Parker also told officers that she had been drinking beer earlier that evening.

Burglary

•The police are investigating the recent burglary of a vehicle.

Huntingdon resident Tabitha Batey told officers on Aug. 26 that someone had entered her car and stolen several items from inside the vehicle. Batey also said she noticed several scratches on the driver's side door that were not there before.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Bethel's Wilson Nominee for 2015 NFF National Scholar-Athlete Awards

Courtesy of Bethel SID

NEW YORK — The NFF National Scholar-Athlete Awards, presented by Fidelity Investments, was established in 1959 as the first initiative in history to honor scholar-athletes with post-graduate scholarships for their combined athletic, academic and leadership abilities. In 2011, Fidelity Investments became the first official sponsor in the 54-year history of the prestigious program, which has awarded more than $10.7 million to 804 individuals since its inception. The program currently provides $313,000 each year in postgraduate scholarships to the nation's top scholar-athletes from all levels of collegiate play. Bethel's Josh Wilson is a nominee for the 2015 NFF National Scholar-Athlete Awards.

Wilson is a senior from South Pittsburg, Tennessee and is long snapper for the Wildcats. He has been a scholar-athlete each year at Bethel.

Nominated by their schools, which are limited to one nominee each, candidates must be a senior or graduate student in their final year of eligibility, have a grade point average of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale, have outstanding football ability as a first team player and have demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship.

The class is selected each year by the NFF Awards Committee, which is comprised of a nationally recognized group of media, College Football Hall of Fame inductees and athletics administrators. The committee traditionally selects 15 to 17 scholar-athletes from across the country for these prestigious $18,000 postgraduate scholarships, and they consider candidates from all levels of college football, including the Football Bowl Subdivision, Football Championship Subdivision, Division II, Division III and the NAIA, in making their selections.

The committee also designates one of the recipients as the top college football scholar-athlete in the nation, an honor that comes with the William V. Campbell Trophy, presented by Fidelity Investments and hosted by the NYAC. Symbolizing the essence of the NFF's mission to build leaders through football, the Campbell Trophy comes with an additional $7,000 in scholarship money, endowed by HealthSouth, for a total of $25,000.

Each recipient travels to New York City as the guest of the Foundation for the NFF Annual Awards Dinner at the Waldorf Astoria, where they sit on the dais and have their accomplishments highlighted in front of one of the most powerful and influential audiences in all of sports. The event also includes the induction of the College Football Hall of Fame Class and the presentation of several major awards, including the organization's highest honor, the Gold Medal, which has been claimed by seven U.S. Presidents.

Bethel Head Coach Chris Elliott commented on the achievement. "We are proud of Josh on and off the field. He is a steady and important member of our squad. His academic performance is outstanding and sets the bar for all of our players. We congratulate Josh and take great pride in his role with and for our program."

Volley Cats Dominate In Faulkner Invitational

Courtesy of Bethel SID

MONTGOMERY, AL — The Bethel Lady Wildcats won both matches on the opening day of the Faulkner University Volleyball Invitational in Montgomery, Alabama Friday. The Lady Cats won 3-0 in respective matches against Webber International and Southern University-New Orleans. The Lady Cats continued their set domination with another 3-0 victory over Dillard Saturday morning winning 25-12, 25-16-25-15.

Rebecca Jobst had 25 digs. Eloisa Sales had 14 kills, three aces, and eight digs while Maddie Morris finished with 23 assists.

Later in the day Bethel lost their only set of the entire weekend but it didn't matter as the Lady Wildcats completed the two day affair unbeaten with a 3-1 win over Truett-McConnell. Bethel won 25-21, 25-19, 25-21, and 25-15. Bethel upped their overall record to 6-4.

Sales continued her great play with 21 kills, three aces, and 14 digs. Jobst Had 23 digs while Kaylee Ginnings had 24 assists. Sales was named the MVP of the tournament.

Coach Starla Cupples said, "Truett's defense made our hitters work hard for their kills. Our defense did a good job of keeping the ball alive and giving our hitters the opportunities to score. We will get back to work Monday getting ready for our home matches next week."

The Lady Cats begin a three-game home stand Wednesday meeting Missouri Baptist at 6 p.m. in Crisp Arena.

Soccer Cats Remain Scoreless, Fall at CBU

Courtesy of Bethel SID

MEMPHIS — The Bethel Wildcats traveled to Memphis Saturday afternoon and for the second time this week were shutout falling to Christian Brothers 2-0. The NCAA II number 16 Bucs denied Coach Melvin Belong his 100th career win. Bethel lost to Lyon at home Wednesday 1-0.

Bethel fell to 0-2 while the Bucs began their season 1-0.

CBU outshot the Wildcats 21-8 but the Cats hung in the game until the very end. CBU scored two second half goals to take the match. Bethel goalie Mark Weir recorded six saves.

The Wildcats return to action Monday at 1 p.m. hosting LSU-Alexandria at Wildcat Stadium.

Middle School Football

McKenzie Runs Past West Carroll 44-18

By Jason Martin
jmartin@mckenziebanner.com

McKENZIE (September 3) — Offensive was no problem this week for the McKenzie Middle School Rebels as they played host to the West Carroll Junior High War Eagles. The game was filled with long rushing touchdowns by both teams, but as the horn sounded the Rebels ran away with a 44-18 victory.

West Carroll was forced to punt on their opening possession giving McKenzie ideal field position. It only took one play for the Rebels to find the end zone. Running back Joseph Miller broke three tackles as he raced to the edge of the field for a 48-yard touchdown. Miller followed up his touchdown with a successful 2-point conversion. With 5:28 left in 1st quarter, Rebels led 8-0.

The next series was a near mirror image to the first as the War Eagles were forced to go three and out. The punt was downed at midfield providing the Rebels with excellent field position. This time instead of just one play, it took McKenzie three plays to find the end zone. Miller, just like before, sprinted 48 yards for a Rebel touchdown. Thomas Ballew busted through for the 2-point conversion increasing the McKenzie lead to 16-0 with 2:36 still on the clock in the first quarter.

The War Eagles fumbled the next possession away at their own 30 yard line. Out of the shotgun, Rebel Evan Jarrett was unable to field the snap and was forced to fall on the 36 yard line. Jarrett made up for this error by finding wide receiver Noah Hawkins for a 36-yard strike. Micah Austin tacked on two more points with the conversion brought the McKenzie lead to 24-0.

Down but not out, West Carroll received a booming kickoff from McKenzie's Diego Calderon. With the return, it looked as if Jeremiah Bryant was going to be brought down at midfield by a drove of Rebels; the young man refused to go down. Bryant fought for every possible inch of ground, and as a tiny sliver of daylight appeared a streak of maroon reemerged running down the sidelines falling just short of the end zone. Following a series of missteps and lost yardage, West Carroll could not punch it in from 6 yards out.

McKenzie took over on downs and placed the ball into the hands of Miller. The magic legs of the running back ripped through the defensive backfield for an 89-yard Rebel touchdown. Quarterback Jarrett and Wide Receiver Lane Horton teamed up for a successful conversion, increasing the McKenzie margin 32-0.

With 2:50 remaining in the half, McKenzie was on the march again. Running it in for touchdown was RB Austin from 33 yards out. After a failed two-point conversion, McKenzie led 38-0.

West Carroll put their first points on the board as the first half was coming to a close. The War Eagles were unable to complete 2 passes on the drive. After a short run by Bryant, the War Eagles were looking at 4th and 3 from their own 34 yard line. With nothing to lose, Head Coach Blake Kee decided to go for it. That's when Bryant bounced outside to the right, breaking free from the Rebel defenders going 66 yards for a War Eagle touchdown making it 38-6 at the half.

The second half opened with combo of passes thrown by McKenzie's Jarrett to Hawkins and Horton for 30 yards. It was Miller's two runs for 20 and 12 yards that brought the score to 44-6.

As the 4th quarter got underway so did the West Carroll offense with a 29-yard pass to Bryant and an 8-yard completion to Colton Heart from War Eagle QB Zach Hardin. Bryant's rushing touchdown came from 27 yards out.

West Carroll would recover a McKenzie fumbled snap. Hardin hooked up with Colton Heart with a spectacular catch. The 28-yard touchdown pass was the final points of the night.

This was a game full of long touchdowns and lots of determination. McKenzie accumulated over 300 yards of total offense. 217 yards came from Miller with 4 rushing touchdowns. In passing, McKenzie picked up 38 yards. West Carroll's Jarrett rushed for 83 yards and 2 touchdowns. Harden passed for 43 yards and 1 War Eagle touchdown.

Next week the Middle School Rebels will travel to Gleason, while West Carroll Junior High will travel to Gibson County.

The children enjoy learning soccer at the AYSO competitions.
