Authorities Investigating Body Found in Trezevant

By Joel Washburn
washburn@mckenziebanner.com

TREZEVANT — The body of Jordan Black, a white male, was found in a wooded area in Trezevant on Thursday around 1:30 to 2:00 p.m. Carroll County Sheriff Andy Dickson said his department received a call after two young ladies located the body. They were in the wooded area behind Pat's Restaurant, where they once played as children. The body was found near Johnson Street. The ladies were headed to a playhouse they enjoyed as children. The two were Pat Argo's granddaughters, said the sheriff.

Once the body was discovered, Dickson said, the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation was called along with the Trezevant Police Department. The TBI is in charge of the investigation. An autopsy was ordered to determine the cause of death and to determine if any foul play is involved. Carroll County Rescue Squad transported the body for the autopsy.

While the sheriff would not confirm, The Banner received

Early in the season, the Rebels defeated TCA by 20 points.

The Henry County Patriots finished the regular season with an 8-2 regular season record. In the opening rounds, Henry County defeated Munford 35-14 and Clarksville Northeast 44-20. Friday night the Patriots will travel to Franklin to take on the Centennial High School Cou-

MTD of Martin Leases McKenzie Industrial Building

MTD of Martin, manufacturer of outdoor power equipment, has leased the former Murray Outdoor Products building in the Airport Industrial Park-McKenzie.

Keith Cursey of MTD said the company will use the 300,000 square-foot facility as an overflow warehouse for the Martin manufacturing site. It will employ three to four persons for approximately six months.

The company leased the facility for one year, November 2015-November 2016. Cursey said two to three of the current MTD employees, who reside in this area, will be employed at the McKenzie site.

Approximately five to 10 trucks will load or unload each day, concluded Cursey.

Trezevant Board: Clinic 'Not Closing'

By Brad Sam
brad@mckenziebanner.com

TREZEVANT (November 10) — Although there has been a "minor setback" with the recently-reopened clinic, Trezevant officials are quick to bat down rumors that it will close.

In a brief, otherwise uneventful regular meeting, the Board of Mayor and Aldermen discussed the recent developments at the Preventagenix Clinic.

While no board member knew exactly what had happened, industrial development liaison Debbie Rogers confirmed that the clinic's practitioner, Deborah Graves, was no longer there. She further offered that the owner, Dr. Jeff Young II, who leases the facility and operates the clinic, is currently working at the clinic himself on Fridays until a replacement for Graves can be found. Rogers also stated that the industrial development board is pursuing a specific candidate, but wouldn't yet name who they were courting.

The board also discussed the issue of speeders in the school zone. Police Chief Kelvin Whitney had been informed that it's an issue and will work to ensure better coverage. Mayor Dennis Mitchell requested that the board give the chief ample time to work on the situation before bringing it to the meeting again.

It was decided that the annual town Christmas dinner, as it was last year, will be held on the regular meeting night (December 8 at 6:30) in the community center. The meal will be add-a-dish.

The November community meal will be a Thanksgiving dinner on Wednesday, November 18 at noon at the community center.

Mayor Mitchell also informed the board that he will be working on streamlining the way meeting agendas are organized and used and will present his ideas in the coming months. He stated that it was important that the agenda be efficient and used in a way that avoids aldermen being surprised with important items they haven't had a chance to review.

Alderman Pam Bryant was absent from the meeting, which adjourned after half an hour.

A Main Street Christmas Planned in Huntingdon

HUNTINGDON — Join the folks in Huntingdon on Saturday, December 5, 2015 for a holiday extravaganza in downtown Huntingdon! The day begins with events at The Dixie and on the Court Square from 2:00-6:00 p.m. that will include activities inside the building and outside on the court square as well. Inside: Pictures with Santa by Family Album Studios, live children nativities on stage, chorus performances on stage, and ticket discounts. On Court Square: ISTEA train rides, live nativity on the courthouse steps, church choirs singing on the courthouse steps Christmas carolers, street vendors (including the Rich Family Relay team selling coffee, hot cocoa, hot cider and homemade treats all afternoon and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church giving hot cider and Christmas cookies from 5:00-7:00 p.m.), and shopping at local businesses. Last year, The Dixie had approximately 1200 individuals attend the events in the Hal Holbrook Theatre. It is a great way for a local business, church, family or fundraising organization to come out and give back to your community by spreading some Christmas cheer. If you are interested in becoming a vendor, you will need to register by contacting city hall at 986-2900. Once registered you will be included in all future announcements.

Parking for this event will be located between Mallard's Restaurant and Jordan's Trading and also near King's Law office. The Court Square will be closed to through traffic beginning at 1:00 p.m. until parade ends. The Court Theatre will be showing "It's A Wonderful Life" at 3:30 p.m. with Free Admission.

Then at 6:00 p.m., the town Christmas Tree will be lit and include a small ceremony with the community joining together to sing Christmas songs (lyrics will be passed out to the crowd). This event will happen rain or shine.

This year the parade begins at 6:30 p.m. Parade entries will line up behind Carroll Bank & Trust. The parade route begins on West Main St. and proceeds to the square and East Main St., turn left on 5th Ave and left on Boundary to disassemble in the vicinity of the Farm Bureau building. Streets will be shut down to thru traffic beginning at 1:00 pm, and will be blocked until parade concludes. Parade entry forms may be picked up at the Huntingdon Police Station. Come enjoy an afternoon filled with Christmas charm and make Main Street Christmas and the Huntingdon Christmas Parade one of our best ever.

Jack Elam, Donny Schatz, and Bonnie Elam.

Accomplishments Continue For J&J Racing of McKenzie

CONCORD, NC — For the second consecutive year, McKenzie's Jack and Bonnie Elam and J&J Auto Racing were recognized for continued excellence in Sprint car racing. The manufacturer of Sprint car frame and components has customers all around the world headlined by the team owned by three-time NASCAR Sprint Cup Series champion Tony Stewart.

Tony Stewart Racing and driver Donny Schatz had a record-breaking season winning a second consecutive World of Outlaws championship. The team was presented the championship hardware last week near Charlotte during the "Night of Champions" event. J&J Auto Racing also received the 2015 Chassis Builder of the Year.

Schatz, an exclusive driver of J&J Auto Racing cars since 2001, was one of more than 75 different drivers world wide to race to victory during 2015. He posted personal best stats that included: 31 victories, 16 second-place finishes, 60 top-five and 70 top-10 finishes in 75 WoO starts. He also started 2015 winning six consecutive races in Brisbane, Queensland, Australia driving a J&J. The TSR team continued an incredible run of consecutive races finishing every lap of every race for the second consecutive season, pushing their run of races without a DNF (Did Not Finish) to 178.

"I'm very fortunate to be surrounded by the best people," Schatz said, following his seventh WoO title. "Tony Stewart built a remarkable team led by my crew of Rick Warner, Steve Swenson, Eric Prutzman and we've had a tremendous working relationship with J&J Auto Racing for the last 15 years. It takes a complete team to have the kind of success we had this year and I couldn't be more proud of the people I'm surrounded by."

The cars Schatz raced all season were manufactured throughout the 2015 calendar. Schatz began the season in Febuary with cars built in the shop in late 2014 before they were delivered to TSR's shop in Brownsburg, Indiana, where they were assembled. Schatz also drove cars built in March and July to take him to the championship.

"We've been honored to work with great people like Donny Schatz and everyone at Tony Stewart Racing for a long time," said Jack Elam. "He has worked his way to becoming the best driver in the world and that TSR team is second to none. The result of us working together for a long time and what they have accomplished over the last decade have been unmatched."

Jack and Bonnie were recognized during the banquet for winning the 2015 WoO Chassis Builder of the Year.

"We were thrilled to be recognized by the World of Outlaws last week," continued Elam. "It's the premiere series and to have the kind of results Donny and our other teams had was a tremendous accomplishment. This one is special for all of our staff. They work hard day in and day out and for the guys to see their hard work pay off at the track is extremely rewarding. They see the victories and those wins lead to championships. We have customers all over the world and we hope they can all take some pride in knowing their results contribute to championships."

The highlight of Schatz winning his ninth Knoxville Nationals was also a highlight for J&J as it was their tenth consecutive triumph in the Superbowl of Sprint Car racing. With the 2015 season coming to a close, the company has earned championships in Sprint Car racing's 305, 358, 360 and 410 classes all across the United States and have cars chasing championships overseas in Australia and New Zealand as well. Those results underscore the quality of work the J&J staff is producing in their McKenize shop.

a report that Black was found hanging.

Black had been missing since August 2, when family members last had contact with him. Family members sought information to his whereabouts at that time. At the time, the Sheriff's Department said there was an active warrant for Black's arrest and he could possibly be avoiding authorities. Black was wanted on charges of making a false police report and theft in Trezevant.

Ironically, it was Black who was interviewed by The Jackson Sun on August 30, 2014 after the death of mother and son, Alice Baker and Ronald Harmon, nearby neighbors. Those were ruled natural causes.

Sanders Company Closing in McKenzie

MCKENZIE — Sanders Company is closing in McKenzie after a three-year stay. The agriculture products company is located at 331 Hill Road, McKenzie, in the Airport Industrial Park.

Brad Haynes said the company employed four full-time employees and two to three seasonal employees. It provided fertilizer, seed, chemicals, and treated seed, along with other agricultural products.

All inventory has been removed ahead of the December 1 closing.

It is sad, said Haynes. The business has grown through the years. The company relocated from Huntingdon to the McKenzie location three years ago.

McKenzie Industrial Board owns the building and plans to sell it.

It was first used as a manufacturer of frames for upholstered furniture. The original company supplied the now defunct New Generations Furniture Company, which closed during the great recession.

Huntingdon Council Decides To Demolish Reminisce Inn

Courtesy of the Carroll County News-Leader

The Reminisce Inn, known as the former Johnson Hotel, located on East Main Street, will be demolished, Huntingdon Town Council members decided at the Nov. 10 meeting.

"The building is in a sad state of repair," said Mayor Dale Kelley, who said an estimate taken on what it would cost to bring the building up to codes and renovate it was over a million dollars. "We wish we could restore it, but it is not practical."

The motion to raze the building was made by council member Tim Tucker and seconded by council member Nina Smothers with all council members voting aye.

The building was donated to the town on July 14, 2015 by the Bird heirs, who included William N. Bird and his two sons and wives, William Dwayne and Judy Bird and Thomas and Barbara Bird.

The first reading was approved on an ordinance adding a chapter on open burning regulations. A second reading will be Nov. 24.

"The Fire Department request that guidelines be established relating to open burning and obtaining permits to burning," said the mayor.

The guidelines address the topics of open burning permit requirements, permit exceptions, required conditions to obtain permits, application and validity.

If the ordinance passes two reading, open burning will not be allowed without a permit. The only exceptions will be fires used for cooking food, fires for ceremonial or recreational purposes, including barbecues and outdoor fireplaces and fires set for the training and instruction of firefighters.

Open burning shall be between the hours of 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. with all fires being completely extinguished by 8 p.m. No fire shall be left unattended.

No fee shall be required to obtain an open burning permit.

The first reading on an ordinance that amends the General, Drug, Solid Waste Collection, Dixie Carter Performing Arts, Utility and Public Improvement Fund budgets passed.

"It is the year-end clean up for the Fiscal Year 2015 budget ending June 30," said the mayor. "It compares to the last three years of having revenues over expenses. A lot of credit goes to department heads and town recorder Martha Taylor."

The General Fund revenues exceeded expenditures by $285,700, which $100,000 of this balance is related to the balance remaining on the construction note for the new City Hall and is carried forward in the current fiscal year budget, decreasing revenues over expenses to $185,700.

The mayor said the Solid Waste Fund is a paper trail tracking of the billing of the garbage collection fee and the payment of Waste Management for this service. This fee also includes a general service fee (brush) that is a General Fund revenue. At last year's audit, after the budget was adopted, the auditors advised that the portion relating to the brush fee should not be included in the Solid Waste entry since it is already reflected as a General Fund revenue. The Fiscal Year 2015 revenue budgeted for this item is $146,700. The Solid Waste Fund budget decreased, due to this change is $148,000 and revenues over expenses are zero.

The Dixie Carter Performing Arts Fund had $5,500 revenues over expenses at year's end.

The Utility Fund revenues exceeded expenses by $137,100.

In other business, permission was granted to Mikaela Miles to use Veterans Park on Nov. 14 as a starting point for a 5K run fundraiser for Morgan Fuller.

Winning bidders may pick up their items at the Marrs-Stockton Building, the former student center at Bethel University. The club will accept cash, checks, or credit cards (with a 3.5% surcharge).

All proceeds for the auction will help the club in its charitable work in McKenzie and the surrounding area. Join us in a morning of fun with the opportunity to purchase some really wonderful items.

McKenzie Industrial Board Funds Paving of Medical Center Drive

MCKENZIE (November 10) — Medical Center Drive, extending from State Route 22 to Eastwood Drive and providing a connector for Hospital Drive, will convert from a gravel to a hard surface. McKenzie Industrial Board voted to pay the county of Carroll for the work with the City of McKenzie reimbursing the Industrial Board for the loan. The road is deeded to the city and the Industrial Board owns real estate along the route.

Carroll County Highway Department will apply "tar and chip" surface to the one-year old gravel road.

In other business, the board voted to pursue a 100 percent grant to provide a Phase 1 environmental assessment for the undeveloped industrial property behind Carroll County Airport.

The Board was notified that Sanders Company, a small agriculture business, plans to vacate the board-owned building on Hill Road, located behind the airport. The company employs four full-time employees. The board voted to sell the building, which was originally constructed for a furniture frame company.

Difficult Questions

As we learn about attacks of violence in other parts of the globe, what questions do we ask? Are these people trying to tell us something with their last dying breath? Are we listening? Are these people hungry, thirsty, in need of basic health care, and desperately looking for meaningful work? What happens when large groups of people feel there is no hope and nothing for which to live? Will angry retaliation improve the situation? Is it helpful do use dehumanizing terms to describe someone we don't know and who lives in a country that we know nothing about? Should we send in the military? Or, should we use our resources to feed the hungry, heal the sick, and welcome the homeless? How are we going to answer these questions?

The Flag of Tennessee

By Clayburn Peeples

As just about everyone knows, state flags have been much in the news lately, particularly those that were inspired by, or include representations, of the Confederate battle flag. The Battle Flag is the one that features a red background with a fimbriated blue St. Andrews cross bearing 13 stars spread across it. (Fimbrilation, on flags, is, generally speaking, the use of a thin border of contrasting colors to separate still other colors.) On the Confederate battle flag, those borders are white.

In each of the states where their flags are under attack, people feel very passionately, one way or the other, and the issue has engendered an enormous amount of ill feeling in many places. Watching news coverage of the various debates, I, like many other Tennesseans, have been grateful that our grand old State flag is beyond such controversy, that it is not associated with anything controversial or offensive in any way.

Or so I thought.

But I was stunned the other day when I ran across a recent article in the Washington Post entitled, "How the Confederacy Lives on in the Flags of Seven Southern States," because when I read through the article, lo and behold, there was Tennessee, listed as one of the seven.

How so? Well, it seems that a professor at the University of Memphis, who is also a vexillologist, (a person who scientifically studies flags and symbols) has written a scholarly paper in which he suggests that one reason for the enduring popularity of the Tennessee state flag is its "pragmatic unity" with the Confederate Battle Flag.

His proof that Tennessee's flag has Confederate flag antecedents? They both share a fimbriated blue charge adorned with white stars on a red field. (A "charge" on the flag is a figure or symbol appearing in the field, or background, of the flag, in the case of the Tennessee flag, the blue circle.) The professor also noted that the vertical blue bar at the edge of the Tennessee flag is similar to a vertical bar on the Third National Flag of the Confederacy.

You are familiar with that flag, aren't you?

The professor seemed to suggest that these elements of "pragmatic unity" share common cultural associations that make the Tennessee flag more attractive to white Tennesseans, especially those embracing what is known as the "Lost Cause Myth."

Gee. How come none of us knew this about our state flag, or ourselves?

Because Tennessee's flag elements are only "lightly evocative" of the Confederate flag, he says; it, the flag, offers "plausible deniability" in that it is completely reasonable to take the position that the flag symbols only express Tennessee pride, even if their "deeper symbolic recognition" is linked to Confederate imagery.

Perhaps a short history of the Tennessee flag would be clarifying at this point. Prior to 1897, there was no state flag except for specially made banners that were used only on ceremonial occasions such as presidential inauguration parades. Usually these banners would be variations of the United States flag.

But in 1897, with the Tennessee Centennial Exposition coming on, the legislature authorized a special state flag to fly there, adopting its design the day before the Exposition opened. That flag consists of three bands, red, blue and white, awkwardly spread across the flag diagonally, with the number 16 in blue, placed at the bottom corner of the white band and the words, "The Volunteer State" written across the blue field, also at an angle, but not the same angle as the bands of color. Altogether, it was awkward and clumsy looking.

So much so that it was never flown over our state capitol, and never seen again after the Exposition ended.

But a young East Tennessee National Guard officer, Leroy Reeves, thought we could do better, so he designed our present flag sometime in the late 1890s.

But no one was interested in it, and it took him until 1905 to sell his design to the legislature. Even after its adoption, however, there was so little enthusiasm about the flag they didn't bother flying it over the state capitol for four more years, and it was not until 1960 that it was flown there on a regular basis.

While many people have applied many different theories as to what each of the flag's elements represent, Reeves, the designer himself, said that the three stars represent, as you might suspect, the three grand divisions of the state. The blue circle around the stars represents the unity of the three grand visions. The red background, which Reeves called crimson, was chosen simply because he thought it was a great color for a flag, which it is.

As to the blue bar at the edge of the flag, Reeves added it merely to relieve the sameness of all that red when the flag was hanging limp.

Could it possibly be as simple and innocent as that? Could Reeves have designed the flag the way he did solely because it made a beautiful banner?

Yes, to both questions. You can come up with psychological constructs, theories and hypotheses to your hearts content, but sometimes, as Dr. Freud is alleged to have once said, a cigar is just a cigar.

The Tennessee flag is terrific. Leave it alone.

Hunker Down with Kes

I Cried When Red Summers Died

Folks often ask me why I'm still writing about a town I haven't lived in for fifty years. It's really pretty simple. McKenzie, Tennessee, is home. It always was. It always will be.

It's where I first saw the light of day..... where I first laughed, cried, got mad, spit up Gerber strained bananas on my brother, stood upright on my own two legs and heard my first Cardinals' game on the radio. It's where Mom could kiss "the hurt" and make the pain go away.

It's where Leon took me out in the back yard after I could walk a few steps and started hitting ground balls to me. That's the same yard where Terry Kennon, George Sexton, Joe and Richard Gooch and the King brothers would gather up right at dark and play kick-the-can till our mothers called us in or somebody ran into the wire supporting the clothesline and near 'bout hung himself. As the years spun by we'd lay on our backs in that yard, making shapes out of the passing clouds, and talk about what we were going to do "when we grew up".

McKenzie is where I picked my first, and last, cotton. It's where I cut my first, and last, okra. It's where I picked up walnuts all afternoon for a dime. It's where I discovered the business end of a lively lad. It's where I hauled hay until my fingers were permanently bent, my skin itched to high heaven and my young back felt like it was breaking in two. It's where I unloaded on the hottest day ever recorded in West Tennessee five million sixteen foot, 1" by 6" boards out of a railroad boxcar. I passed out three times, had multiple heat strokes and bears appeared out of nowhere and jumped on my back.

I wouldn't trade those work experiences for ten college degrees!

Bobby Brewer's mom made the best spaghetti in town. I usually managed to "be over there" on Italian night. Ricky Hale's mom would fix us a bowl of cereal and let us eat it right in front of the television. Mr. Bill Argo allowed us to sit up at his Gulf Station and "listen in" on all the talk like we were grown up. Mr. Bailey Moore Wrinkle would open the door for us as we entered his hardware store. They built the Park Theatre just for my entertainment.

I felt like I belonged here.

It's where I first saw the frost on the pumpkin, a full moon rising over the water tower, the heat waves shimmering off Stonewall Street and caught falling snowflakes in my mouth. It's where I experienced the quietness of the early morning and the suddenness of a summer storm. It's where I heard the bull frogs singing to beat the band out around Everett's Lake.

It's where I met Jesus and Brenda Whitehead.

Mrs. Webb would wave to us as we walked by her house on the way to town. Robert Hall would let us browse through his Western Auto store all afternoon when he knew we didn't have the means to buy anything. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mitchum invited me into their home like I was a son. Mr. Jack Cantrell would buy me a hamburger at the City Café and actually ask my opinion on the latest Cardinal trade. Mr. Ed Wiley taught my Sunday School class like both our lives depended on it.

The whole town made me feel like I was somebody!

Red Summers gave me golf lessons for free. Aaron Pinson would wave from his patrol car like everything was ok. I rode my bicycle all over town. People, old and young alike, greeted me with a smile. We played chase in the city streets. The prevailing summer rule was to be home by suppertime. If you stepped out of line any parent in town was allowed to "straighten you out" by any means necessary.

I felt safe every day of my life there.

I intercepted a pass against Milan my senior year. As I ran down the sideline on my way to the end zone everybody stood up and cheered like crazy. For me! Nowhere else in the world have they ever done that!

When I was getting ready to go off to college folks of all ages came by to drop off a gift and wish me well. Some gave advice. Most hugged my neck. Many recalled the time I did this.....or we did that.....a special memory for each of us for sure! Teachers stopped by to tell me what a good student I was..... They got it absolutely backwards! I was going off to college because they had instilled into "one more child" a lust for learning.

I was ME because of the touch, influence, love and guidance of an entire town!

It was a gift I can never repay.....

Respectfully,
Kes

Oil Prices Hit 3 Month Low, Gasoline Falling Again

TAMPA, Fla. (November 15, 2015) — Gas prices should slip lower this week after the price of oil hit its lowest settlement since August. Gasoline prices nationwide are averaging $2.17, after slipping 5 cents last week. Motorists are now saving an average of $11 for a full tank of gas.

"Americans are finding the cheapest gas prices for this time of year since 2008," said Mark Jenkins, spokesman, AAA - The Auto Club Group. "Now that oil prices are falling again, pump prices should get even cheaper as we approach the holiday travel season."

The price of oil closed the week at $40.74 on the NYMEX Friday afternoon. This comes one week after the price of oil reached as high as $47.90. This downward trend in oil prices will make it cheaper to produce gasoline, which will put downward pressure on prices at the pump. Although prices in Georgia and Tennessee have been declining for six and seven days respectively, Florida gas prices shot up 5 cents last week due to delayed adjustments to the recent oil price increase. Fortunately, Florida prices are falling again in line with the price of oil.

Global oil prices are sliding following news that U.S. crude oil stockpiles increased for the seventh consecutive week, and OPEC stating that a deepening oil supply glut was likely on the horizon. Recent data from the International Energy Agency also points to growing global supply, capable of outpacing demand, which is expected to keep a downward pressure on the global price of crude oil in the near term. Oversupply is also impacting the domestic oil market, and according to the U.S. EIA crude oil inventories continue to test the record levels reached this past April.

The current price of gasoline in Florida is $2.18 - 4 cents higher than a week ago, 3 cents lower than last month, and 71 cents lower than this time last year.

The current price of gasoline in Georgia is $2.09 - 4 cents lower than a week ago, 6 cents lower than last month, and 73 cents lower than this time last year.

The current price of gasoline in Tennessee is $1.98 - 4 cents lower than a week ago, 3.5 cents lower than last month, and 70 cents lower than this time last year.

Hays Brummitt, Rev. Jason W. Jones, Rev. Dr. Wilma Pearson, Mayor Jill Holland

First Methodist, Johnson Temple Worship Together

In mid-September, Hays Brummitt approached his pastor to share a memory of a particular worship gathering that meant a lot to him. He spoke of a time many years ago that his church, the First United Methodist Church of McKenzie, had shared in worship with Johnson Temple Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. It was, he said, a powerful experience that was widely appreciated—and wondered whether, given the tense racial climate of our nation over the past several months, the time had come for us to intentionally get together again. His pastor wholeheartedly agreed, and a planning session was scheduled.

The fruit of the prayerful conversation among both pastors and laity from the churches were two worship services, jointly promoted as "Brothers and Sisters Connected in Christ." The first of the services took place on October 25 in Johnson Temple's space. First UMC was welcomed with extraordinary warmth and hospitality, as the sanctuary was filled with voices from the two churches blending to sing well-loved hymns and hearts lifted in prayer. Their pastor, the Rev. Jason W. Jones, offered a sermon on Job's restoration—focusing on the character learning to see himself as God's own. At the conclusion of worship, a fellowship meal prepared by Johnson Temple was shared.

The following Sunday, November 1, First UMC hosted worship as Johnson Temple was welcomed. The Rev. Dr. Wilma Pearson's sermon encouraged those in attendance to remember that where there's vision, there's hope. Holy Communion was celebrated, with Rev. Jones and Dr. Pearson leading, and decedents from both congregations were honored with chimes and flowers in observance of All Saints. Worship closed with the sung petition for peace on earth that begins with us. And again, a fellowship meal—this one put together by First UMC—was enjoyed.

"This was overdue," Rev. Jones remarked, noting that the services were for him a reminder of the unity we share in Christ and the beautiful diversity of God's kingdom. Dr. Pearson agreed, adding her hope (echoed by many who attended) that these gatherings were "just the beginning" of something wonderful that God's doing—and for future opportunities to worship and serve together.

Appeals Court Upholds Cary's 120-Year Sentence

The Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals has upheld multiple criminal convictions and the 120 year sentence imposed by Circuit Court Judge Donald Parish on Carroll Countian Randy Cary following a jury's convicting Cary of especially aggravated rape, aggravated assault, and evading arrest stemming from an October, 2012 episode involving him and his estranged wife.

During sentencing, Circuit Court Judge Donald Parish imposed two sentences of 60 years on Cary and ordered them to be served consecutively.

Cary appealed the convictions and sentence to the Court of Criminal Appeals. In a decision authored by Judge Norma Ogle and filed last week, the appellate court affirmed both the jury and the sentence.

Break-In, Theft Reported At Atwood Dollar General

MCKENZIE (November 16) — During an interview with The McKenzie Banner, Carroll County Sheriff's Department Officer Becky Keith said that an unknown suspect used a Chevy S-10 pickup stolen over the weekend from a Bell's car lot to tear off the front doors of the Dollar General Store in Atwood at approximately 3:00 a.m. this morning.

Keith said that after pulling the doors off the building, the perpetrator entered the store and took items before driving toward Milan.

After a BOLO (be on the lookout) was released by CCSD, a Bradford policeman met a vehicle matching the description while on patrol and turned to give chase. The driver of the vehicle then pulled into a private driveway, jumped out of the vehicle, and fled the scene on foot.

Keith said investigation into the theft is ongoing.

McKenzie Remembers

By Jason Martin
jmartin@mckenziebanner.com

On the 11th hour of 11th day of the 11th month of 1918 the guns of war became silent. The silence marked an armistice between the warring factions in the "war to end all wars." President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed November 11 as Armistice Day. It was a day to stand in remembrance and celebration for the end of World War I.

People throughout American celebrate this day, now known as Veterans Day, to honor all veterans, present and past. The city of McKenzie remembers its veterans in a quaint old-fashion uniqueness. Veterans Memorial Park is designed to keep the veterans of Carroll County in the hearts and minds of its citizenry.

Each Veterans Day, local veterans and members of the community gather on town square on the 11th hour. They gather to watch a tradition that dates back to 1927 with then firing of a cannon. It is not the large Howitzer that stands in Veterans Memorial but a much smaller version.

The smaller cannon fires a 10-gauge black powder blank round. The artillery barrage may not be lethal, but it is load enough to be heard throughout the historical district of downtown McKenzie.

For many years, Mr. James Choate, a veteran of WWII, has participated in the firing of the miniature cannon. Mr. Eddie Lankford, a veteran of the Vietnam War, joined Mr. Choate in leading this year's festivities.

A familiar face was missing from the crowd, Mr. Bailey Wrinkle. Mr. Winkle, a local veteran and active community member, died in June. A moment of silence was taken in his memory.

Like clockwork, the cannon fired on the 11th minute of the 11th hour. The crowd watched as feeling of admiration and pride filled the air with each shot. As the blasts reverberated through the air, Veterans Memorial Park sat as the perfect setting.

Visitors have the opportunity to stroll through the picturesque park and observe McKenzie's respect towards its veterans. The first stop for most begins with the Howitzer Cannon. In 1924, the German made World War I-era cannon was donated by the Department of Defense to the little town of McKenzie.

To the right of the old Howitzer stands a sign that commemorates the American Civil War. The wording tells the story of Confederate General Nathan Bedford Forrest's first raid through West Tennessee.

Standing at the corner of the park is a large double-sided monument memorializing the local men who gave their lives during World War I, War World II, Korea, Vietnam, and Iraq. There are the names of the crew that was lost on bomber crash near McKenzie in August of 1943. Stones outline the walkway to the memorial. Each stone has the name, rank, and branch of service of many McKenzians that have served in the military.

As the walk comes to a close, another memorial comes into focus. Three markers stand in honor of those who served in the Middle East. At the center is a stone honoring Dusty Carroll, who was killed near Bagdad by an IED in 2005.

G.K. Chesterton once wrote that, "The true soldier fights not because he hates what is in front of him, but because he loves what is behind him." That quote is very true of the meaning behind Veterans Day. Wars are fought not because of hatred towards the opposition, but out of a love for one's community and country. In a time where many forget how they received their freedoms, McKenzie remembers and respects those who served.

TCAT McKenzie Honors Veterans

On Wednesday, November 11th, Tenn. College of Applied Technology at McKenzie honored its veterans by serving them breakfast and presenting them with a machined veteran's coin (designed and made by Zak Crider, Instructor for Machine Tool Technology) as a token of appreciation for their service.

TCAT-McKenzie management, staff, and students express gratitude and appreciation to the men and women at TCAT-McKenzie, along with countless other veterans, who have given their service to our country in order to protect and defend the freedoms we enjoy on a daily basis. Thank you so much for your courage and bravery. The sacrifices you have made for our country is unfathomable. The selfless act of serving our country deserves the highest level of respect.

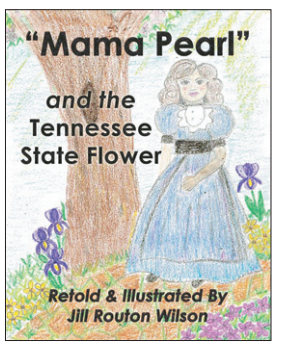

MES Teacher to Present Children's Book

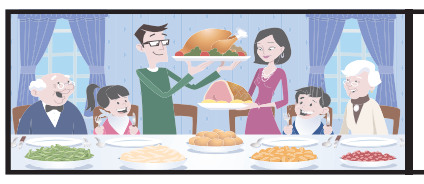

McKenzie Elementary Kindergarten teacher Jill Routon Wilson will make a special presentation to the school on Tuesday, November 24. The Paris native will be talking about her recently-published children's book, "Mama Pearl" and the Tennessee State Flower.

The book, which Wilson illustrated herself, is a retelling of the story of her great-grandmother, Pearl Sanders Routon, and her contribution to the selection of the Tennessee state flower.

In 1919, Governor Tom Rye asked Mama Pearl to help choose the official state flower. She came up with a special plan to include school children in the selection.

In addition to the presentation, Wilson will sign books and bookmarks, which the students have been given the chance to order.

Closed To Give Thanks

We will be closed on Thursday and Friday (Nov. 26-27, 2015) for the Thanksgiving holiday. We will reopen on Monday, November 30, 2015.

Thank you for giving us this time with our families.

Thank You

We want to thank everyone for all acts of service and kindness following our motor vehicle accident in July. Your Prayers, visits, cards, calls and food was most appreciated.

These thoughtful gestures are just one of many reasons I am proud to live in McKenzie.

Carroll County Library Lines

By Nikki Cunningham

The Carroll County Library had a Turkalicious Story Hour this past Saturday and it was chock-full of Thanksgiving fun! Our Youth Services Librarian, Kelli Bolen, read Thanksgiving-themed stories to thirteen children who also sang songs, did a turkey dance, made turkeys from coffee filters, and enjoyed refreshments.

The Library also had its very first Teen Advisory Board meeting. We are very excited to have Nathaniel Hurmiz, Sarah Hurmiz, Joshua Hurmiz, Baylee Anderson, Kaliyah Raglin, Rachel Pritchard, April Reynolds, Courtney Saylor, Elysia Rhodes, Mackenzie Phelps, and Lauren Williams as members of our Teen Advisory Board. The Library congratulates April Reynolds for winning the Flyer Challenge held during the meeting and earning a $25.00 gift card. Our next TAB meeting will be Monday, December 7th at 5:00 p.m. All 8th-12th grade teens are welcome to turn in TAB applications to the Carroll County Library and to attend our next meeting.

This Wednesday, November 18th at 10:30 a.m. the Library is having its very first Tot Time Story Hour. This week is Agriculture Literacy Week so we will be reading and learning about agriculture during this week's Tot Time. We have had several requests from patrons to have a mid-week story time for birth-kindergarten age children who stay at home with caregivers and we are pleased to make that a reality. Tot Time may become a weekly story hour, if we continue to have a lot of patron interest and involvement, so bring your tot out this Wednesday!

Santa Claus is coming to town and is visiting the Carroll County Library! He will be listening to Christmas wishes, taking pictures, and handing out special treats. Santa is expected to arrive Saturday, December 12th at 10:30 a.m.; he is only here for a short time so don't miss it!

The Book Ends book club will be meeting Friday, November 20th at 2:00 p.m. at the Holy Family Catholic Church in Huntingdon to discuss Harper Lee's new book Go Set a Watchman.

The Carroll County Library appreciates Karen Pierce and Velma Prince for their donations to the Library. The Library also appreciates Dominos Pizza in Huntingdon for providing pizzas to our teens during our TAB meeting and the following radio stations for helping us get the word out about our upcoming events: True County 100.9 The Farm, The River Region's Rocker Rock 98.3, Today's Best Music KF-KQ 105.5, and Star 107.7.

Don't ever miss an event at the Library; follow us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/carrollcountylibrary and view our online calendar at http://www.carrollcountylibrary.net/contact-us/

McKENZIE (November 13) — Defeated by the Jackson Christian School Eagles during the regular season, the McKenzie Rebels struck back with a vengeance in the playoffs. Outscoring their guests, the Rebels pounded the Eagles 54-21 in 48 minutes of retribution.

JCS received the opening kickoff where the Rebels began a defensive attack. The Eagles were unable to make an advance in yardage. Cameron Oakley, Mitch Merrick, and Julius Owens all took part in sacking Will Buehler three times on the drive.

After a Miles Humphreys punt, the Rebels were 62 yards away from their first touchdown of the night.

On the first play from the line of scrimmage, Jack Surber faked the handoff to Eric Robinson. He was able pick up 7 yards on the quarterback keeper. Surber then stood tall in the pocket and sent a missile to Noah McEwen for 45 yards. Robinson chipped away at the remaining yardage.

From the 1 yard line, Surber leaped into the end zone for the TD. Lucas Waddell's extra was good. McKenzie

NASHVILLE (November 13) — In round two of TSSAA Class 1A state playoff action, the Nashville Christian Eagles coupled dominating offensive and defensive line play with the tackle-breaking production of Mareio McGraw (119 yards rushing, touchdown touches of 51, 14, and two yards, 37-yards scoring nab, and 44-yard punt return score) to eliminate the Huntingdon Mustangs (10-2).

Huntingdon's normally-prolific offense was held below the 100-yard mark for the first downs and three first downs as the fast-and-furious Eagle defense held Keeton Bailey to 45 yards on 17 carries and stopped Zach Dodson for 15 yards net rushing.

Without question, the bright spot for the Mustangs throughout the contest was the determined effort of outgoing senior Trevor Pritchard. Playing from sideline-to-sideline, Pritchard tallied 12 tackles and a handful of quarterback sacks to conclude his brilliant career for the blue-and-gold.

ATWOOD (November 11) — West Carroll senior Madison Heckert signed the documents Wednesday to play D1 basketball at the collegiate level with Arkansas State. Heckert was surrounded by family, fellow players, and her coach, Anna Trull during the signing ceremony in the library of West Carroll Jr./Sr. High School.

Heckert was very humbled about her accomplishment, but her coach and principal, Dexter Williams reminded those in attendance of the significance of the event. Williams said a signee at a D1 school is rare, but achievable.

Coach Trull said she is very, very proud of Madison.

"Madison always had this goal and works every day to achieve it. Her presence at post is awesome," said Trull.

The coach said Madison achieved this goal through hard work on the court and in the classroom. The 6-foot, 4-inch senior has a 4.0 grade point average and has earned 16 was up 7-0 with 6:49 left to play in the first quarter.

The Eagles offense was on the field for only three plays before being forced to punt. DeJan McNulty and Sean Beck shut down the JCS offense on the drive.

McKenzie went on an 11-play scoring drive lasting nearly six minutes. Robinson led the offense down the field. In seven plays, Robinson rushed for 37 yards with a 2-yard touchdown. Waddell's added an additional point to the score as McKenzie went up 14-0.

JCS refused to lie down as Buehler zipped a quick pass to Hayden Love for 7 yards. Clay Lewis picked up the first down to close out the first quarter.

The Eagles continued down the field as Lewis, Humphreys, and Buehler picked up first downs. 30 yards from the goal line, Lewis ran down the field breaking a series of arm tackles for the touchdown. Christian Williams's point-after-attempt was good. McKenzie's lead was narrowed to 14-7 with 9:49 left to play in the first half.

Not to be outdone, the Rebels made their way down the field for their third consecutive touchdown drive. Donavon Foley ripped Surber's pass out of the air for 24 yards. Merrick pounded the defensive line for 3 yards. Then McEwen blazed down the field catching the pass for the 47 yard touchdown. Waddell's extra point was good as the Rebels went up 21-7.

Not counting the kickoff, two plays later McEwen was back in the end zone. Buehler desperately looked for a receiver only to be picked off by McEwen for the 55-yard pick six. Waddell split the uprights for the PAT. With 8:04 on the clock, the Rebels increased their lead 28-7.

The Eagles' next drive was mired by McKenzie's hard-hitting defense. Lorenzo Haynes lifted Lewis and slammed him to the ground for one of the biggest hits of the night. Two plays later, Owens recorded his second sack of the night. Humphreys came in for his third punt of the contest.

It appeared certain that McKenzie was going in for their fifth touchdown. The Rebels kept the ball on the ground as Robinson and Merrick accumulated 40 yards. Yet, as the Rebels neared the goal line the drive stalled. Passes fell just short to Foley and McEwen as McKenzie turned the ball over on downs.

Starting from their own 27 yard line, the Eagles took the remaining 1:34 on the clock to find the end zone. The drive began with Buehler rushing for a first down and McKenzie being called for a personal foul. The horse collar penalty moved JCS to McKenzie 35 yard line.

Buehler threw two passes to Collin Cantrell totally 34 yards. After calling time out with eight seconds remaining, the Eagles were 1st and goal from the 1 yard line. Lewis got the call and the touchdown. The Williams PAT was good to close the half with McKenzie leading 28-14.

The second half opened with a JCS pouch kick. Taking over at mid-field, the Rebels were fired up. Robinson hit the middle for a couple of yards. Surber then lobbed a pass to Robinson for 7 yards.

On 3rd and 1 from the JCS 43 yard line, Surber found Tyler Spivey. The freshman back ran stutter stepped and juked his way down the field for the 43-yard touchdown. Waddell put up his fifth extra-point of the night. McKenzie was up 35-14 with 10:54 on the clock in the third quarter.

JCS turned their next possession over on a fumble. Oakley recovered the ball for the Rebels.

McKenzie went three and out for the first time of the night. Michael Floyd's punt pinned the Eagles deep in their own territory.

With 2:04 left to play in the third quarter, the Rebels added to the score. Merrick and Robinson ran for 38 yards due in part to key blocks from the offensive line. Surber dropped the pass into McEwen for six points and 27 yards. McKenzie led 41-14.

The Rebel defense held strong on the next drive giving up 14 yards. Blake Baker came in for a big tackle on Buehler. Jake Trevathan and Beck ended the drive with a sack on fourth down.

It was only a matter of time before Robinson broke a big run for McKenzie. After picking up 4 yards on first down, Robinson was gone for 45 yards and his second TD of the night. The McKenzie lead increased 47-14

The Eagles scored early in the fourth quarter. Lewis broke a handful of tackles picking up 52 yards in two plays. From 12 yards out, Buehler rambled across the goal line for the touchdown. Williams made the PAT. With 10:59 left to play, the Rebels were up 47-21 on the Eagles.

McKenzie was in no hurry on the next drive. Dedicated to chewing the clock, Surber took up as much time as possible. The offensive line anchored by Zach Sadler, Bransen McCaleb, and Baker provided the necessary blocks for the Rebels to pick up four first downs and the last TD of the night.

Robinson rushed for 20 yards, and Merrick was there for 17 yards. Surber found Foley for 8 yards. The touchdown was Surber's off of a fake hand off to Robinson. Waddell's kick made it over the cross bars as the Rebels were up 54-21.

The remaining minutes accounted for a series of substitutions, and probably the biggest hit of the night. As Love caught the screen pass, Waddell set the corner and knocked the receiver off his feet planting him into the ground.

As the game came to an end, the Rebels were exuberant with the 54-21 victory. This was a game of dual significance. On top of advancing to the quarterfinals, this was the first time in school history that the Rebels defeated JCS.

Looking at the statistics, McKenzie had 511 yards of total offense.

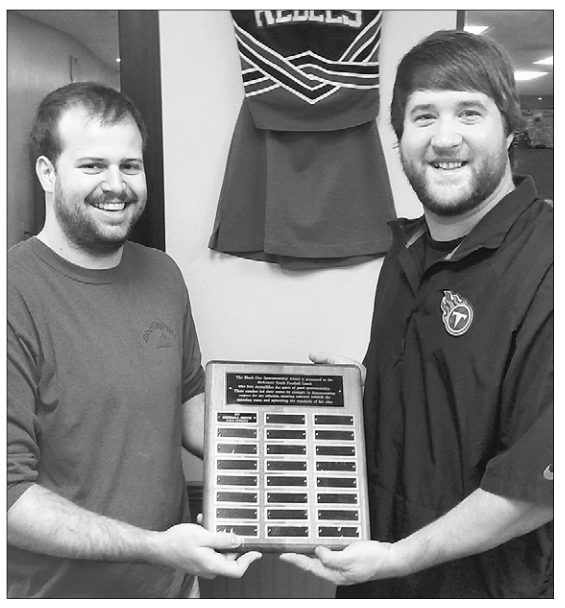

On the ground the Rebels rushed for 282 yards. Robinson was the leading rusher with 23 carries 154 yards and 2 touchdowns. Merrick gained 63 yards on the 12 carries. Surber had 41 yards and 2 touchdowns on the ground.

McKenzie had 229 yards in passing. Surber was 10 for 13 with 3 touchdowns. McEwen was the leading receiver with 4 catches for 131 yards and 2 touchdowns. Spivey caught 2 passes for 55 yards and 1 touchdown.

The Rebel defense held JCS to 288 yards of total offense. Lewis led the ground attack with 132 yards and 2 touchdowns. Beuhler was 12 of 22 for 124 yards with 1 interception for touchdown.

The Rebels will host their third rematch in the playoffs. Trinity Christian Academy defeated Adamsville 35-21 to advance to the quarterfinals. In their last meeting, McKenzie took down TCA 44-24.

Coach Comer reminded his players that they cannot take the next game for granted. Comer said, "We ain't done yet...we got to take the playoffs 48 minutes at a time." The winner of the McKenzie/TCA game will face the winner of Trezevant/Manassas in the semi-finals. Game time is 7 p.m.

that included outtakes of the season and a short interview with each player. At its conclusion, Coach Smith returned to the podium to honor his team.

Coach Smith started by thanking the community and especially the parents. He explained that the backbone of a successful program began with the support of the parents.

With 21 years at the helm of the McKenzie golf program, Smith went on to tell how golf is a special sport in its on right. Just a ¼ of an inch can provide success or cause failure, and the biggest obstacle in the game is the player's mind.

Smith bragged on his teams over the years that have produced over 700 wins in his tenure and numerous collegiate golfers. He was especially proud of this group with the girls' team finishing district runners-up after a sudden death playoff. The girls finished with a 17-9 regular season record, and the boys' team had an impressive 33-9 record.

Coach Smith presented each player with a certificate of participation and a trophy as a token of appreciation. The seniors were given a special framed collage of photos from their time with the program. After the seniors received their gifts, they returned to the podium to provide a gift and a special thank you to Mr. Stan Welch. Mr. Stan had worked countless hours helping the program and junior golfers for many years.

The seniors also provided Coach Smith with a gift and a special thank you for his time and effort.

ing coin-toss but deferred possession until the second half.

Mustang Bailey returned Eagle kicker Slater Howard's low driving boot to the Huntingdon 18 before being brought down by Jesse Watson. Following a five-yard offside assessment against the Eagles, Bailey raced right side to move the chains before being tackled by Tennessee Volunteer signee and Mr. Football finalist Daniel Bituli. Disaster struck on the next play for Huntingdon as Dodson was hit in the backfield and fumbled with Nashville Christian recovering the pigskin at the HHS 42.

Responding, Mustang defensive lineman Pritchard stopped McGraw for no gain and a gain of two and Tyrese Mebane quelled Howard's right side jet sweep as the Eagles punted away with the ball rolling dead at the HHS 4.

Ramping up defensively, Nashville Christian utilized tackles by Nathan Hargrove, Watson and Batuli to force the Mustangs to punt as Bailey's line-drive punt from the HHS end zone was returned 44 yards to paydirt by McGraw. Stetson Marlin added the PAT boot as Nashville Christian led Huntingdon 7-0 at the 7:01 mark of the first frame.

Huntingdon's next offensive drive was short-lived as Eagle defensive lineman and DI prospect Brant Lawless tackled Bailey for a loss forcing Mebane to punt away as HHS downed the ball at the Nashville Christian 43.

Despite strong tackles by Dustin Wade, Pritchard, Marvaughn McClerkin, and Jonah Davis, Nashville Christian moved slowly across midfield and into Mustang territory with time expiring in the first frame with the Eagles leading, 7-0.

Facing fourth-and-seven at the HHS 20, the Eagles gambled as quarterback Tidwell followed a line of blockers to net a first-and-goal at the Mustang 7. Battling back, senior linebacker Austin Russell broke through containment to drop McGraw for a loss of two. A holding call against the Eagles on the next play moved the ball back to the HHS 19. Responding, Tidwell fired a completion to Jaylen Jackson at the 6. Tidwell was injured while keeping to the 3 as a personal foul against the Mustangs at the end of the play generated an automatic first down for Nashville Christian at the their 2. At the 9:04 mark of the second canto, McGraw soared over the pile to paydirt and Marlin added the PAT boot as the Eagles widened their lead to 14-0.

Mustang Dodson fumbled the Eagles kickoff before returning the ball to the HHS 22. Ramping up, Eagle defender Bituli tackled Bailey for a loss of two and Bailey fired two incompletions under pressure. Dodson was stopped for a gain of one by Watson as Mebane's rugby-style punt was fielded by McGraw at the Eagles 44. Turning on the jets, McGraw raced across midfield before stepping out of bounds at the HHS 33. Following Pritchard and Wade's tackle of Wilhoite for a loss of two, Tidwell escaped a sack attempt by Sadarius Hutcherson, reversed field, and followed a wall of blockers to the Mustang 14. The play, however, was negated by a holding call, moving the ball back to 37. At the 5:10 mark of the second clip, Tidwell fired a slip-screen slant pass to McGraw. Gathering in the spiral, McGraw raced to paydirt and Marlin converted the PAT boot as the Eagles increased their lead to 21-0.

Huntingdon was unable to move the ball on their next drive as Bailey was sacked by Bituli for a loss of two before being sacked for a loss of 8 by Jack Elliott, forcing Huntingdon to punt. Averting disaster via pure athleticism, Mebane lept to snare a high snap and punted away under duress as Wilhoite fielded the ball and was nailed by Tristan Norwood and Michael Arnhold at the Nashville Christian 39. A personal foul against the frustrated Mustangs moved the ball across midfield to the HHS 45 with 2:26 remaining in the second quarter.

Taking to the air, Eagle Howard's halfback pass was dropped by Bryce Collier at the HHS 4. On the next play, a holding call against Nashville Christian moved the ball back to their 42. Undeterred, Tidwell fired a pass to McGraw who bounced leftside before being knocked out of bounds by Norwood at the HHS 22 at the 25-second mark. Racing to the line, Tidwell followed a convoy of linemen to the 11. At the 17-second mark, McGraw scored right side and Marlin added the PAT boot as Nashville Christian led Huntingdon at the half, 28-0.

Resuming play in the second half, Mustang defenders Davis, Pritchard, and McClerkin forced the Eagles to punt away on fourth-and-14 with Bailey fair-catching the deep spiral at the HHS 9.

Ramping up, Eagle defenders stopped Bailey and Williams for short gains as HHS punted away as Bailey's boot was downed a the HHS 47 at the 4:47 mark of the third period.

Wilhoite was stopped by Davis and Russell for a gain of three before Tidwell's 43-yard scoring scamper was negated via hold as the ball was moved back to the Nashville Christian 49. On second and 14, McGraw escaped the grasp of Norwood behind the line of scrimmage and broke numerous tackle attempts to race 51 yards to score. Marlin missed the PAT boot as the Eagles led, 34-0.

Playing for pride, Huntingdon's Dylan Gorth recovered an Eagle fumble as a personal foul against Nashville Christian moved the ball to their 21. With 1:22 remaining in the third quarter, Bailey raced 21 yards to score and Williams added the PAT boot as Nashville Christian defeated the Mustangs 34-7 to host a quarterfinal showdown against Region 6 1A champion Wayne County on Friday night, November 20.

Finalist Selected for Mr. Football

Nashville (November 16, 2015) — The Tennessee Titans Mr. Football Awards will be presented to the top 16 backs and linemen in eight classifications of the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association on Monday, November 30, 2015, at Nissan Stadium in Nashville. For the fourteenth consecutive year, the top kicker in the state will be recognized with a Mr. Football Award, regardless of classification.

Four semifinalists for each category and each classification were announced on November 5. There are six classifications in Division I and two in Division II. With "Back of the Year" and "Lineman of the Year" for each classification, as well as the "Kicker of the Year" award, that makes for a total of 17 award categories. Two finalists for each category were announced by Mike Keith on the Titans website at www.titansonline.com today at 1:00 p.m. CST / 2:00 p.m. EST. The two finalists for each award that were announced today will be the ones invited to attend the awards luncheon at Nissan Stadium, where the winner of each award will be announced.

A committee of statewide sports writers selected winners based on performance in the 2015 regular season. Academics and character were also taken into consideration. High school head coaches and members of the media nominated the finalists.

"We are very appreciative of the Tennessee Titans for their continued support of these awards," stated Bernard Childress, Executive Director of the TSSAA. "Having the awards presented at Nissan Stadium will provide a very special atmosphere for these outstanding student-athletes."

This is the 31st year that the Mr. Football Awards have been presented to Tennessee's best high school football players. A Mr. Football trophy will be presented to the winners of each category. A Mr. Football plaque will be presented to the runner-up in each category. The other semi-finalists will each receive a certificate.

More than 400 people, including the 34 finalists, their families, coaches, school administrators and members of the media from all parts of the state, are expected to attend the 2015 luncheon.

Mike Keith, play-by-play voice of the Tennessee Titans, will emcee the awards presentation. A live videostream of the awards will be provided at www.titansonline.com.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

MATTER OF RECORD

Bruceton Police Department to Hire Full-Time, Part-Time Officers

By Ernie Smothers
smothers@mckenziebanner.com

BRUCETON (November 9) — During their regular monthly meeting, Bruceton's Board of Aldermen, via 4-0 vote, approved Mayor Robert T. Keeton IIIs request for the board to authorize he, Town Recorder Annie Hand, and Bruceton Police Chief Ronnie Stewart to interview numerous applicants for the purpose of hiring one full-time and five part-time police officers and one part-time office clerk.

Alderman Robert Cole was absent from the meeting and did not vote.

Prior to approval, Mayor Keeton said, "Thus far, we have had numerous people apply for the part-time officer positions and the full-time position. I would like to ask the board to grant Chief Stewart, City Recorder Hand, and myself the authority to commence the interview process so that we can fill the vacant positions."

Keeton said that the new-hire full-time officer would be $12.24 per hour.

He added, "An individual Insurance plan will be provided only to the full-time officer per employee policy changes approved by the board in 2010. The part-time officers and part-time clerk will receive $12.24 per hour with no benefits. The part-time clerk will work only eight hours per week primarily filling out paperwork and forms for sexual offender registry and citations.

Alderman Jenna Young asked, "What if Frank McGee is reinstated by the board to his full-time officer position? Won't his reinstatement affect the town monetarily?"

Keeton relied, "No. The money for McGee's salary for this fiscal year was approved in this year's budget. If McGee is reinstated by board vote, we will need to hire only one more full-time officer to fill the four positions that we are seeking. Annie (City Recorder Hand) crunched the numbers for the police department budget, and we will be $10,000 to 15,000 under budget even with the hiring of new officers."

Vice-Mayor Cliff Sturdivant asked, "Do the part-time officers that we hire need to be police academy certified?"

Keeton responded, "Yes. If we hired non-certified officers, they would have to be accompanied by a certified full-time officer to conduct patrols. We don't want to do that."

In other business, Keeton informed board members that finalized plans for the fire station were approved following intensive review by BVFD Chief James Sloan and project engineers and architects.

He said, "Getting the plans approved took a lot of effort, but that hurdle has been cleared. Hopefully, we will be able to let out bids the first of next year."

During the board's review of financial statements for October, Sturdivant asked Hand, "Annie, am I reading the numbers wrong? Is the positive net income for the Water and Sewer Department $73?" She replied, "The positive net income is actually $22,855 after four months. We are in good shape thanks to the controlled spending of Public Works Superintendent Brian Edwards. Last year, we had some significant expenses that depleted our Water and Sewer Fund. We haven't incurred any major expenses this year, and I hope that trend continues. We have operated W&S in the red for two years in a row, and can't allow that to happen this year. After three years without generating a profit, the state will step in. We don't want that to happen."

She continued, "I'm proud of all the department supervisors for doing an excellent job in curtailing spending. We have amassed $306,000 in the debt fund. We could probably use some of that money to pay off one of our big debts. We are doing fairly well now financially."

Keeton said that he hoped the December 1 auction of seized vehicles and old equipment would help the town's budget.

Keeton said that City Court would resume this month.

At the request of Keeton, the board approved a $250 Christmas bonus to all full-time town employees.

He said, "I would like for the town employees to actually receive $250 that they can put in their pockets instead of receiving what's left over after deductions are removed. Our employees work hard for this town all year long, and they deserve the whole $250. To make that happen, we will need to write checks for a little over $270 to allow for deductions to be removed so that they will actually receive $250. I feel strongly about this, and I hope that the board will allow this to happen."

During mayor's comments, Keeton said, "I have had something on my heart for some time now that I want to share with all of you. For many, the holiday season is a time of depression rather than joy. I want to ask people in our community to get to know their neighbors and to check on them from time to time. We want people to know that they are loved and appreciated and that avenues exist for them at City Hall and beyond if they are in need of help. Extend Christian courtesy and compassion to those around you. Hurting yourself is not an answer to any problem. People need to know that we care."

Alderman Young concurred with Keeton.

In final business, the board approved a meeting and employee Christmas lunch at Mallard's on Tuesday, December 8 at 11:30 a.m.

Resuming the entertainment, the McKenzie High School Theatre Department performed select scenes from their production, "First in Line – A Musical Revue".

Then, Carroll Arts President Glynda Corbin Rich presented the 2015 Friend of the Arts Award to Wayne Bannister, citing his contributions to music and the visual arts as well as his efforts within the organization to foster appreciation for the arts.

Diann Olson then gave a solo performance before being joined by Alan and Virginia Cross, who then performed a duet for the final song of the evening.

Williams is Grand Marshal Of Hometown Christmas

The McKenzie Lions Club announces local businessman and McLemoresville Mayor, Phil Williams, is the grand marshal of the 2015 Hometown Christmas festival, in honor of his many contributions to the McKenzie community and to the people of Carroll County.

Williams was born in McLemoresville in 1945, graduated from Trezevant High School in 1964 and, at the age of 18, became the youngest travelling furniture salesman for the H&C Table Co., in Somerville, Tenn. selling to clients throughout Alabama and north Florida.

He joined the Air Force in 1965, married his wife, Irene, in 1966, and moved to Amarillo AFB in Texas for Tech School. He was promoted to staff sergeant and served as NCOIC of the Chapel Enlisted Staff at Altus AFB in Oklahoma.

In 1969, he returned to McLemoresville and worked for Holladay Furniture Company, and later worked with Williams Sewing Centers in 1973. He opened Williams Furniture - McLemoresville in 1976. In 1978, he opened Williams Furniture in McKenzie, where he has operated for 38 years.

In addition to his successful business operation, Williams served in many volunteer leadership roles in the community. He served six years on the Board and one year as chair of the Board of the Carroll County Chamber of Commerce. In 1980, he was appointed to the Methodist Hospital Board, where he served as chair for several years. He also serves on the Carroll County Indigent Board and has served six years on the state Civil Service Commission Board.

Today, he is humbled by having been named in past years by the Carroll County Chamber as both Business Person of the Year and Carroll Countian of the Year. He serves on the Lakeshore Methodist Camp and Retreat Center board, and is a Certified Lay Speaker in the Methodist Church.

He and his wife, Irene, have been blessed with two children: Tim Williams, whose wife, Lisa and son, Mitch and daughter Maisey, work with Papa Phil at Williams Furniture in downtown McKenzie.

Phil and Irene's daughter, Jamie and her husband, live in Memphis with Williams' three other grandchildren, Max, Maggie, and Emmy.

Williams indicates that he has been blessed beyond measure by his wonderful family, his loyal customers, and by the communities in which he has been a part. The McKenzie Lions Club is honored to recognize him and his family for their many contributions in Carroll County.
